MOTION TO FILE PETITION IN ERROR

Granted by Supreme Court in Noted Horton Case, Which Will Be Taken Up Soon.

The Supreme Court granted a motion for leave to file a petition in error in the case of the State vs. John Horton, found guilty in the lower courts of being a "green goods" man, on the 14th inst.

The case is to be advanced on the docket and will be heard in about three weeks before a full court.

The case being of wide public interest and involving many questions not heretofore brought before the court in this State, it is felt that they should be passed upon for future guidance in cases like Horton's and similar ones.

The petition filed by Horton's attorney cites twenty-one points which will be heard. The decision on these points will result in affirming the finding of the lower courts or remanding it back to the Common Pleas Court for retrial.

Horton was represented by E. N. Navin, of Dayton, former Prosecuting Attorney of Montgomery County.

Too Warm Even for Smoky Row

A colored man giving the name of Robert Jones, claiming to be a G. A. R. man and an inmate of the Sandusky soldier's home, was arrested by Marshal Weber at the L. E. & W. station Monday for creating a scene and using vulgar language.

He was dumped off here by a L. E. & W. train, on which he was found hiding. He was obstreperous, too, and the Marshal had to use a little muscular persuasion to land him in the village bastille.

Tuesday he was taken before Mayor Kenney, fined $5 and costs and gave thirty days in the work house, suspending the latter in the evening was put on a train and started toward Sandusky, his alleged rendezvous.

Joe Kelley Not Guilty, Says Jury

In the case of State vs. Joe Kelley, in Common Pleas Court Tuesday, the jury after being out forty minutes returned a verdict of not guilty.

Kelley was charged with moving mortgaged property out of the county by a board of St. John's, to whom he gave a mortgage, and the Marshal had to use a little muscular persuasion to land him in the village bastille.

Tuesday he was taken before Mayor Kenney, fined $5 and costs and gave thirty days in the work house, suspending the latter in the evening was put on a train and started toward Sandusky, his alleged rendezvous.

Other Court Decisions.

In the case of Mary E. Harrod vs. John Hillbold, Judge Layton found the defendant in default, and granted the quieting of title as prayed for; defendant to pay costs.

Cause heard in the case of the L. E. & W. Railroad Company vs. the Village of Celina. Injunction made perpetual as prayed for, subject to the defendant's right to proceed according to law if they so desire. Defendants to pay costs.
