[Cincinnati Commercial Tribune] We can not sympathize with the of those Republican office holders who profess to be elated at the prospect that former Governor James M. Cox will seek vindication as a candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket next year. As one of the potent factors in the defeat of the former Governor, the Commercial Tribune has profound admiration for his political resourcefulness and sagacity. If he secures the nomination and enters the fight with united Democracy back of him, the Republicans of the State are going to have a real battle on their hands and they might as well realize the fact now and make preparations for the struggle.

Any one who takes the trouble to analyze the figures involved in the Ohio Governorship vote since 1898 can not but be impressed with the uncertainty of political contests in the Buckeye State. It will be recalled that Harmon was elected by something like 20,000 votes over Andrew Harris. Two years later Harmon was re-elected over Warren G. Harding by more than 100,000 ballots, although his vote was materially smaller than in 1908. In 1912 Cox won by a plurality of nearly 200,000 though his vote was less than that of the Democratic standard bearer in 1908. Last year he was defeated, although his vote was larger than it was in 1912. Frank B. Willis, his successful opponent, polled several thousand votes less than did Andrew Harris in 1908.

The Presidential contest next year will bring out a tremendous vote. No man can predict what will happen when the large number of citizens who have gotten out of the habit of voting since 1908 walk up to the polls to cast their ballots. It behoves Republican leaders, from the ward executives to State Chairman, to do everything possible to put the party on an invincible footing of enthusiastic unity.

Nothing can be gained by minimizing the strength and resourcefulness of so able a politician as James M. Cox. Over-confidence has lost many battles. It should not be permitted to figure in the 1916 fight.

Judge Frank Taggart, who was made insurance superintendent of Ohio by Governor Willis with a bombastic announcement that he would accept only $4,000 annual salary, is still on the payroll at $6,000, and says that all that bunk that was handed out when he took office was without his approval and purely for political effect.

It is admitted that the disbursements for 1915 will be heavier than those for 1914.—From Gov. Willis' reply to Auditor of State Donahay's charge of extravagance.

Does this not prompt the question:
"Who's looney now?"

Governor Willis says that he had no part in suppressing the unfavorable report against a stock-jobbing concern which put up thousands of dollars for his campaign fund. Well, who did it?

Oh, Calamity

June exports of bituminous coal from Atlantic ports exceeded a million tons—first time in any one month.

June failures, 1,754, liabilities $18,313,- 134, as compared with 1,360 failures for $75,881,264 in June, 1914. Six months, 12,740 failures with liabilities of $188,- 287,535, as compared with 8,543 failures for $185,999,739 first six months of 1914.

Steel billets at $21 per ton are $1 over average price in 1914, and $2.50 over lowest quotation since January 1.

Pic Iron production in June, 2,380,827 tons, increase of 4,346 tons per day over May, and largest since October, 1913.

Panama Canal is expected to show $250,000 excess of receipts over expenditures for year ended June 30.

For eleven month ended May 31, 168 principal railroads show net operating revenue of $738,843,182, gain of $9,961,013 over previous corresponding period.

Gary plant of Illinois Steel Co. resumes full time July 15, with 12,000 men.

Studebaker Corporation gives its 12,000 employees free life insurance.

COULDN'T CUT SLICE OF BREAD

Terrible State of Weakness Experienced By Ipswich Lady.
Cardui Made Her Strong.

Ipswich, S. D.—Mrs. Henry Royle, of this place, says: "I suffered for nearly 10 years, with womanly trouble.
Nothing seemed to help me until I took Cardui, the woman's tonic. It made me well and strong. Before I commenced to take Cardui, I could not stand on my feet.

I was so weak, I could not cut a slice of bread. Now, I can stand all day, and can do most of my work. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. I have been feeling fine ever since I began to take it. Cardui was recommended to me by a friend, and I will gladly tell my friends of it."

If Cardui will relieve and cure such a stubborn and long-standing trouble as that of Mrs. Royle, then it is only reasonable to believe it will quickly and surely help you, too.

Cardui is the ideal general tonic for women. It has been found to improve the appetite and build up the entire womanly constitution. You can always depend on Cardui, for it has helped more than a million weak women in the past 50 years, who suffered from troubles so common to their sex. Try Cardui—
It will help you.

OPENS TO PUBLIC TO-MORROW (Saturday, July 31)

Mercelina Park Hotel CELINA, OHIO

Will cater to the inner wants of man during the Chautauqua and the Banner Fair.
Eat your meals in peace and comfort.
Why inconvenience yourself juggling a basket during your outing?
Let your wife know what a real outing means.
At Mercelina Park Hotel you will find a cool and pleasant retreat, away from the crowd and its attendant annoyances.
Get full measure out of your outing. You can do so completely by forming the gastronomic acquaintance of the Park Hotel.

It must make State Budget commissioner Ed Fullington, the late Auditor of State Walter Guilbert's right hand man, feel strange to help distribute one million dollars worth of interest on public funds for public purposes. It never happened while Walter was auditor and William S.
McKinnin was state treasurer.

The liability insurance people who helped to elect Willis are now demanding to compete with the state workmen's compensation fund. They want their notes paid. Let it be noted right here that what is left of the Cox commission, known as the Industrial commission, is resisting the onslaught of the liability companies. No wonder Willis wanted their resignations before this thing came up.

Why should State Auditor Donahay make another statement. Governor Willis' reply to the charge of extravagance is an admission that his administration will cost more than did Governor Cox's.
And any child knows that the way to save money is not to spend it.

"Their" Country

The Bodenreformers of Germany are taking the government at its word in its insistence that in this war the soldiers at the front are fighting for "their" country. They are acting for a law that will make truth of this patriotic fiction.
Homesteads for soldiers (Krieger Heimstätten) is the cry that is being raised in Germany. The specific demand is that land for a homestead with a garden attached be furnished to every married soldier returning from the war, or to the family of every soldier who has fallen.
The land is not to be sold to the men.
They are to be given possession on a perpetual lease, and will be required to pay to the government annual ground rent.

The government is to lend them money for buildings and other improvements to be repaid in easy payments. These improvements will be exempt from taxation.
This will give economic independence to several millions of working class families of Germany, and it may be taken for granted that workers excluded from its benefits will insist on extension of its benefits to them. The man who stayed at home to raise food and manufacture supplies for the army may truthfully claim to have been an important a factor as the men on the firing line in the work of killing soldiers of other nations.

It is true that agitation for a measure of this kind does not necessarily mean its actual adoption. But the government cannot reject it without declaring in effect that the men who have endured the dangers and suffering of the war, have been fighting for a country not their own, and for a government that is utterly indifferent to their rights.

What the Bodenreformers of Germany are doing should be done by the land reformers of Great Britain, France, Austria, Russia and other belligerent nations. It
