

Any Woman

may be thrown on her own resources inside of a day. She should start NOW to save her money, to familiarize herself with banking practices which she may be called upon at any time to exercise in her own behalf or in behalf of a dependent family.

The woman who opens an account with us, no matter how small it is to start, will find us keenly interested in her welfare. We always are ready to counsel and advise and to render such assistance as she may require. We'd be pleased to see her at any time—just to talk things over.
