BOTH SIDES PREPARE FOR A STRUGGLE

PARIS, Aug. 15.—Both sides are gathering strength for a resumption of heavy fighting. That, however, does not prevent the French from hammering away at the Lassigny-Noyon line and doggedly struggling onward through gas-choked woods.

General Humbert's men have carried Ribecourt, which barred the road running toward Noyon between Thiescourt ridge and the Oise and protected the Germans in Ourscamp forest, east of the river. It is a useful success that seriously endangers both Thiescourt ridge and the Ourscamp saillant.

The enemy in the Thiescourt position, already severely shaken by the attacks of General Humbert's, left, is reported to be showing signs of giving way.

The violent artillery duel between the Avere and the Oise continued during last night, according to the statement from the war office today. A German raid in Champagne failed.

73,000 Huns and 1700 Gun Taken, Is Estimate

PARIS, Aug. 15.—Including 10,000 Germans taken by General Humbert in the operations which are still developing, prisoners captured on the western front since July 15, total 73,000 and 1700 guns have been seized by the allies, the Echo De Paris estimated today.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—German withdrawal from forward positions north of the Ancre presages a retirement of considerable magnitude in the opinion of military writers today.

Some authorities believe they will fall back even to the old Hindenburg line. They recall that the retirement of 1917 started in a similar manner.

The retreat reported in last night's official statement was made on the five miles sector between Beaumont-Hamel and Bucquoy. British patrols pushed eastward of the two towns, as well as Serre and Puisieux.

Beaumont-Hamel is five miles directly north of Albert. Meanwhile the French are progressing in their apparent flanking movement northeastward along the Oise valley. The French communique last night announced the capture of Ribecourt and reported a further advance between the Matz and the Oise.

"Retreat Specialist" Is in Command

PARIS, Aug. 15.—General Hans Von Boehn, the German "retreat specialist" has been appointed to the supreme German command on the Somme front. The newspapers believe that this change in the German command is highly significant. The German withdrawal north of Albert is looked upon as the first application of his tactics.

General Von Boehn and his former command, the German eighth army, stood the brunt of the Allied pressure in the Marne salient previously to the withdrawal to the north of the Vesle.

The German troops engaged in the fighting east and south-east of Amiens have been under the command of Generals Von Der Marwitz, and Von Hutier and in the army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF WAR

The great allied offensive, launched last week in Picardy on the heels of the Marne-Aisne drive, is still under way.

Striking along a 20-mile front between Montdidier and Albert. French, British and Americans forced back the Germans all along the line, capturing thousands of prisoners, guns and vast quantities of war material. Many towns were taken, including Montdidier, captured by the French after a three days' engagement.

Crushed by the impact of the allied onslaught on the battle line from Albert, northeast of Amiens, to the Oise river, north of Compiègne, German forces are streaming back to the Somme river and the Neule-Noyon canal. So far as can be determined, the enemy is in full retreat all along the front against which the allies flung themselves on Thursday morning.

Although the forward push of the allies has been slowed down somewhat, they have made further important progress north of the Somme, where the Americans and British are fighting together, to the northern bank of the Oise river, where the French troops are engaging the enemy. The Americans and British at last accounts were pressing closely upon Bray-sur-Somme, aided by tanks and armored cars, which inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy as he endeavored to retard their progress.

Across the river the Germans heavily engaged the British at Libons and its vicinity, and at one point pierced the British line and gained the outskirts of Libons. A counter attack however, entirely restored the British line and the enemy retired to positions east and north of the village.

By far the greater progress has been made by the French from the region immediately southwest and south of Roye to the Oise river. Here they have driven their line well across the Roye-Compiègne road, and at Cambonne have reached the road leading from Compiègne to Noyon.

Since the capture of Montdidier the French have penetrated eastward to Tilloy, a distance of about seven miles, and to Canny-sur-Matz, more than eight and a half miles, and through the hilly region southward to the Oise have averaged gains exceeded six miles over a front of 12 miles.

On the Vesle front the Germans on the northern side of the stream are reported to be entrenching and stringing barbed wires over the territory where they are facing the French and Americans.

Aug. 13.—Americans and British gained a foothold in the important little town of Bray-sur-Somme, on the northern bank of the Somme. The French, in the rolling country immediately north of the Oise river, have captured Gury, a position of great strategic value. Hundreds of additional Germans have been made prisoner, the total now being estimated at 40,000.

Aug. 14.—The French on the extreme southern end of the line won additional points of great strategic value in the hill and forest region between the Oise and the Matz, where Lassigny and Noyon are the ultimate objectives. North of the Somme the enemy delivered violent counter attacks.

Cuts Out Heart and Liver. Camp Sherman, O., Aug. 13.—Following several cases of illness here in the last several days, Major General Hale ordered that beef heart and liver be eliminated from company mess. Medical officers attributed spoiled hearts and livers as the cause of the illness.

Fear Water Famine. Postoria, O., Aug. 14.—The city is threatened with a water famine. Several persons have been arrested for watering lawn sprinkling.

SMALL VOTE AT PRIMARY ELECTION

The quietest primary contest for county offices ever held in Mercer county was staged last Tuesday, and the smallest vote ever cast by Democrats was the result. There were contests for only two offices—Clerk of Courts and Sheriff. The fight for the former office was very close, Schindler winning over Henders by 8 votes. Betz won over Fischer for Sheriff, who ran second in the race, by nearly 400 votes.

The other candidates had no opposition, all being up for renomination. The Republican politicians pulled a new one off on their voters by fixing up a slate after having the name of only one candidate—E. J. Brookhart for Representative—appearing on the ballot, using their election officials evidently to put it across.

It is evident they are going to play for the pro-German vote that shows visible signs of leaving the Democratic wigwam. The vote for McBeth as against Wely for Congress and the slump in the vote for Governor Cox in the German sections is not an accident. When the wettest spot in the county votes for announced dry candidate the nigger in the woodpile is visible. To a man up a tree the situation is interesting. Both parties in the county are likely to wake up next election morn with strange bedfellows.

The Democratic nominees are—Representative—Fred Huber. Clerk of Courts—Herbert Schindler. Sheriff—George Betz. Auditor—E. G. Ungerer. Treasurer—Perry Baker. Recorder—Albert Wolf. Prosecutor—C. A. Stubbs. Surveyor—R. B. Morrison. Commissioners—Robert Steinbrunner, John Now, George Hill. Coroner—Tobler.

The Republican nominees are—Representative—E. J. Brookhart. Clerk of Courts—M. O. Krugh. Sheriff—Charles Duncan. Auditor—C. A. Brown. Treasurer—C. F. Morvilius. Prosecuting Attorney—E. E. Jackson. Commissioners—J. F. Adams, W. A. Hamilton and J. M. Hale.

DIES LIKE A COWARD

Collapses When He Faces the Firing Squad—German Paper Gives Account of Execution.

Amsterdam.—With two hours given in which to prepare for the end, Nicholas Romanoff, former Russian emperor, was taken off by his executioners in a state of such collapse that it was necessary to prop him against a post, says the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin, which claims to have received from a high Russian personage an account of the emperor's last hours.

Nicholas was awakened at five o'clock on the morning of the day of his execution by a patrol of a non-commissioned officer and six men. He was told to dress and was then taken to a room where the decision of the soviet council was communicated to him. He was informed the execution would be carried out in two hours. The former emperor, it is added, received the announcement of the sentence of death with great calmness, but when he returned to his bedroom he collapsed in a chair. After a few minutes he was asked for a priest, with whom he was allowed to remain unattended. Subsequently he wrote several letters.

When the escort arrived to take him to the place of execution Nicholas attempted to rise from his chair, but was not able. The priest and a soldier were obliged to help him get to his feet. The condemned man descended the stairs with difficulty and once he fell down.

As he was unable to stand without support when the place of execution was reached, he was propped against a post. He raised his hands and seemed to be trying to speak, but the rifles spoke and he fell dead.

BEE STINGS KILL QUICKLY

Aged Man Succumbs in Ten Minutes After Being Wounded in Wrists.

Philadelphia.—Ten minutes after he had been stung on both wrists by bees, Charles L. Hume, sixty-six years old, a resident of Santa Ana, Cal., died.

The bees' stings acted as a violent poison, physicians stated, probably because of Hume's unusual physical condition. Hume was stung by the bees when he attempted to destroy a hive close to his home.

Physicians, when told of the peculiar case, stated that there was a probability that the poison injected by the bees struck an artery and was immediately conveyed to the heart, causing death. It was also said that the bees' stings may have acted as a violent poison because of an unusual physical condition.

AUTO THIEVES CAUSE COMMOTION IN NORTH END

Considerable excitement was caused in the north sector of town early last Tuesday morning, when auto thieves tried to make a getaway with machines belonging to Otto Rentsch and W. T. Palmer. The thieves, believed to be amateurs, made a bungling job of the matter and succeeded in waking the men folks of the quiet neighborhood, who put on their war paint and made it so warm for the thieves that the machines were abandoned before they could get out of town with them. The thieves however made their escape, eluding the posse it is believed by catching a passing freight train.

ANOTHER FOOD VIOLATOR CAUGHT

The St. Clair Rolling Mill at Ft. Recovery must close up for a period of two weeks, from August 19 to 31, as a result of its proprietor, J. E. Heffner, violating the State food laws.

He has been caught brazenly selling flour in quantities and without requiring the signing of certificates and the taking of substitute.

Heffner has been regarded as a pro-German, and was among a number of others that were marched up and down the streets of Ft. Recovery and compelled to salute the flag some time since for their alleged derogatory remarks of the government.

It is not particularly surprising that he has been caught violating the food law, and the pity is that he has not been put out of business instead of being given a gentle slap on the wrist.

RESENT LENINE'S WAR THREAT

British Government Formally Recognizes the Czech-Slovaks as an Allied Nation—Germans About to Occupy Petrograd—Lenine and Trotzky Given Unlimited Power—Developments in Russian Situation.

London, Aug. 14.—Diplomatic representatives of the entente, it is said, have handed a collective note to War Minister Trotzky demanding, within three days, an explanation of Premier Lenine's threat that Russia would declare war against "Anglo-French imperialism."

The Daily News says that the salient fact of the political situation in Russia is the failure of the Bolsheviks to provide a rallying point for the nation. It believes that the fall of Lenine and Trotzky would be the first step toward a solution of the problem, for it would mean the merging in Russia of forces disposed to stand for national self-assertion as against exploitation by Germany.

The British government has issued a declaration formally recognizing the Czech-Slovaks as an allied nation and the three Czech-Slovak armies as an allied force regularly beginning warfare against the central powers.

The Germans intend to occupy Petrograd, a dispatch from Helsinki declares. Troops for this purpose are already being brought toward the objective, it is added.

Because of the counter revolutionary movement in Russia the "Second Soviet Congress" has placed the development of power in the hands of a triumvirate composed of Premier Nikolai Lenine, Leon Trotzky, minister of war, and M. Zinoviev, an associate of Lenine, according to Moscow advices. They have been given unlimited power to take all measures necessary to gain victory in the fight of the soviet republic against its enemies. The advices add that the leaders of the Kerensky party, who had been kept under strict soviet observation, have suddenly disappeared. It is believed in Moscow that they fled abroad.

WILLIS HEADS STATE TICKET

Wins the Republican Nomination For Governor.

JONES STRONG IN HAMILTON

Carries the County by a Plurality Estimated at 20,000, but Fails to Hold His Own in the Other Large Counties—Governor Cox Renominated by the Democrats Without Opposition.

Columbus, Aug. 14.—Former Governor Frank B. Willis of Delaware again will be the Republican candidate for governor of Ohio. It is indicated on the basis of fairly complete returns.

Observers watching returns as they came to the secretary of state's office estimated Willis defeated Edwin Jones of Jackson by from 25,000 to 30,000 votes. J. H. Arnold of Columbus, the third competitor, was almost distanced.

Hamilton county was the only locality in the state that gave an overwhelming vote to Edwin Jones of Jackson. Returns from Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and Canton showed Willis leading.

Willis carried Hamilton county by about 20,000. The Republican primary vote ranged from 10 to 15 per cent, with the exception of Cincinnati, where it was estimated at 60 per cent.

Governor James M. Cox of Dayton was renominated by the Democrats without opposition, as were other present Democratic state officials. The only Democrat in the statehouse seeking renomination and faced by opposition was Judge Oscar W. Newman of Portsmouth for supreme judge. His rivals were Phil M. Crow of Kenton and William H. Spence of Lisbon.

There were seven candidates for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor and five for the nomination for secretary of state. For treasurer of state Rudolph W. Archer of Bellairs was unopposed. Judge Albert H. Kinkade of Springfield had no opposition for renomination by Republicans for circuit judge. The Democrats nominated no one in opposition to him.

Reports from Cincinnati showed that the Hamilton county Republican organization slate, circulated about the signature of R. K. Hynicka, national committeeman, went through with a whirl. The organization there supported Jones for governor, Agler for lieutenant governor, Smith for secretary of state, Price for attorney general and Kinkade and Robinson for judges of the supreme court.

INSPIRING AND EDIFYING SERVICE

It was another step in the progress of the Church of God in Celina when, on last Sunday afternoon, a crowd of between three and four hundred people met at the church ground on the corner of West Livingston street and Brandon avenue and participated in the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone of the new house of worship of the Church of God. One half hour before the time of the service the people began to arrive, and regardless of the extreme heat the crowd remained throughout the entire service.

The service began promptly at 2:30 with song led by Benny Weaver, of Findlay, with Ralph Turner at the organ. It will be remembered by the many people who attended the test meetings two years ago, that these young men had charge of the music then. The song was followed by scripture reading, the pastor reading I Peter, 2nd chapter, followed by prayer by Rev. F. H. Snavely, followed by a solo by Mr. Weaver.

Rev. S. D. Harlan, pastor of the Church of God at Ohio City, then gave the address of the occasion, his theme being, "Christ, the Corner Stone." He spoke with power and eloquence on the necessity of a corner-stone in every building, in every organization, in every home, and Christ is that corner-stone.

Judge C. S. Younger then spoke in behalf of the citizens of Celina, showing that the great majority of the citizens are in sympathy with the building of another house of worship, the need of a house of worship on the west side of the city, commending the Ohio Eldership for its purpose of providing a place of worship for its many communicants in Celina and surrounding community, and the loyalty of the organization to the earnest and faithful leadership of the pastor who began the work two years ago. Rev. Horn, who was to have given the address in behalf of the Ministerial Association, was not present.

At the conclusion of the address the pastor, assisted by Mr. Hitchens, who will have charge of the brick work, laid the stone in place, which was followed by prayer by Rev. Harlan and the benediction by Rev. Snavely. Altogether it was an inspiring and edifying service.

REGISTRATION OF YOUTHS OF AGE SINCE JUNE 5

COLUMBUS, Aug. 14.—Major W. S. Pealer, in charge of the Ohio state draft board announced this morning that he had received word from Washington ordering a registration in Ohio on August 24 of youths who became 21 years of age after June 5, 1918 the last registration day. Thirteen thousand men are expected to register.

Arrangements are under consideration to have draft advisory boards sit on the same day at the registration places and have each registrant fill out his questionnaire immediately after he registers. In this way the new registrants could be classified immediately and those in class one called for service without delay.

Other Nominees. Republican nominees for state officers below governor appear to be: C. J. Brown of West Union, for lieutenant governor, with A. C. McDonald of Dayton a close second. H. S. Smith of Zanesville for secretary of state, with Fred M. Hopkins of Fostoria his nearest competitor. John G. Price of Columbus for attorney general. He seems to have defeated A. J. Miller of Bellefontaine by a substantial margin.

Judge R. M. Wanamaker of Akron, incumbent, and Judge J. E. Robinson of Marysville for supreme court. Judge R. R. Kinkade of Toledo ran a close third.

Democrats in office had no opposition at the primaries excepting for judge of the supreme court. Judge Oscar W. Newman, incumbent, and Judge Phil M. Crow of Kenton easily were nominated, with W. H. Spence of Lisbon running a slow third.

Nominees for supreme judge, two from each party, will run for election on a nonpartisan ballot in November.

R. W. Archer of Bellairs, former state treasurer, had no opposition for Republican nomination.

LOCAL FIRM'S FINE GIFT TO RED CROSS

The Mersman Bros.-Brandts Company, the celebrated table-makers of this city, have given the Red Cross Chapter a very fine Circassian walnut dining table.

Circassian walnut is at the present time a very rare material, and the great reputation of this concern as manufacturers of tables of quality and unsurpassed finish, assures the fortunate purchaser something above the ordinary.

The company have also donated their space at the Art Hall, where this table will be on display and can be seen at all times during the fair.

This splendid gift is highly appreciated by the Red Cross, and the proceeds of the sale of this table, which will take place during the fair, will be used in purchasing the material for the articles necessary to the Red Cross in the care of our boys who have gone "over there" to defend humanity and the cause of freedom throughout the world.

LAD IN FRANCE EAGER FOR NEWS

St. Aignan Noyers, July 14, 1918. Dear Sister—I will now take the time to write you a few lines, to let you know that I am feeling fine and hope that every one at home is the same. Well, we are having a few cool days now, but it sure was hot for a while.

Bee, to-day is a big day in France. It is the same as our Fourth of July. It is the day we became a republic a number of years ago. They call it the day of a grand fête.

Say, Bee, I got two letters from home—one from you and the other from John. John's was of June 8 and yours of May 20. So Ray McKee lives in Ft. Recovery. When you answer this tell me what he is doing. John's letter told me that Russell Jenkins and Cob Ellis were in the service. On the border, I suppose. Has Orville Kinkade enlisted in the army yet?

Well, Bee, you want to grow a lot of young chickens for this coming fall, as I hope to be home to eat some of them. Say, tell Sylvia and Ollie to write me and I will answer them right away.

I hear that old Ohio is having a very large wheat crop—in fact, a bumper crop. Bee, have dad tell Matz Schritz that his five-acre vineyard would look like only one bird in a large flock compared to this country here, as there is as much land in grapes here as all of the rest of their crops, I believe.

I have not met Uncle Ollie's boy over here, and if I did I would not know him. But when you write to me again, send me his address in a large letter, and when you answer this letter, Bee, tell me the number of letters you have written, and I will then know how many I have received and not received. Well, Bee, as I am getting sleepy, I will close for this time. I remain your brother, ANDREW F. MEYER.
