MR. HUBER STILL MUM AS OYSTER

Now that the candidates of both political parties for the nomination of Representative to the next State Legislature have been selected, the question of their position on the only vital domestic question before the people at the November election is desired and can be deduced.

The Democratic wishes a plain statement from the party's candidates for Representative to be chosen. This fall is confronted with this issue, and its membership will decide its fate.

BROOKHART UNEQUOCALY FOR RATIFICATION

Celina, O., August 26, 1918. C. C. Carlin, Editor Democrat, Celina, O. Dear Sir—Replying to your request for a statement from the candidate for Representative to the General Assembly of Ohio from Mercer County, as to their position on the question of the ratification of the National Prohibition amendment, I beg to state that I am in favor of the ratification of the above named amendment and will vote for it if the opportunity ever presents itself.

WINNING WAR IS OUR FIRST DUTY

Ex-Governor Harmon Calls This America's "Only Business."

EULOGIZES OUR FIGHTING MEN

In Patriotic Address at Greenville Declares Our Goal is a "Made in Germany" Peace "But by the United States of America and Her Associates."

Greenville, O., Sept. 28.—In a speech that breathed patriotism in every line former Governor Judson Harmon last night warned Ohio that nothing must be left undone that will help win the war and that to do this we must defeat every candidate for public office who at any time in his career has expressed himself as opposed to the war aims and policies of the United States.

Governor Harmon made a strong plea for the defeat of congressmen who have been found unworthy in the scales of patriotism, and, after comparing the patriot tendencies and unpopularity of former Governor Willis with the aggressive, progressive and thorough war administration of Governor James M. Cox, asked: "Why risk a change at this time?"

sized the fact that "I am not here to talk politics, but business—public business—the business in which we are now engaged—war."

Continuing, the former governor said: "Every patriot supports his country in war, without stopping to discuss the right or wrong of it. But it helps mightily to know that the cause is just and that the government, after exhausting all peaceful means to maintain it, was at last compelled to choose between war and national dishonor."

It seems amazing, now, that the rest of the world was blind so long to the designs of Germany. And now we learn from secret documents recently secured and published by our government, that before the war began secret agents were being organized to turn and blow up our factories and terrorize our people.

Naturally we did not at first realize that the war had or could have any special concern for our country. We were astounded by the wanton invasion of Belgium, with the shameful assertion that the treaty by which Germany guaranteed her independence was "a mere scrap of paper."

Enlarged the Old Hell. The Germans, as they stepped on Belgium and French soil, enlarged the old hell and made a new one into which they have ever since been flinging the innocent and helpless, including women, children and even babies, poisoning, strangling and smothering them away into slavery.

The allies, taken unprepared, had to supply their needs in other countries. It is a recognized right of neutrals to sell war munitions to belligerents. Otherwise an unmitigated country would be helpless when attacked.

Discover Mexican Plot. Many thought the president too patient under all this provocation. Meanwhile we discovered a German plot to induce Mexico to attack us by promises of assistance and a large slice of our country. The Kaiser told our ambassador he meant to attack America when he finished the allies.

"IN DEFENDING AMERICA. RIGHTS we must be sure that the are rights, AND NOT MERE WIMPE. MERE PLEASURE SEEKERS HAVE NO BUSINESS IN THE WAR ZONE: IF THEY GO THERE, LET THEM GO AT THEIR OWN PERIL. The United States must not be embroiled in war by HAIR-BRAINED SEARCHERS for thrills. LET SUCH PEOPLE STAY AT HOME and not imperil the nation's welfare by going where they have no right to go. Americans are willing to fight for a principle, but not to protect a man who feels he must go to England to play golf."

Reprisals Threatened. Washington, Oct. 1.—The American government, in reply to Germany's threat to execute American prisoners of war found in possession of shotguns, gave notice that if Germany carries out any such threat suitable reprisals will be taken.

Never Condemned Atrocities. If Mr. Willis, as governor or man, ever condemned the horrible atrocities committed on the helpless and harmless inhabitants of Belgium, France, Poland, Serbia and Italy, which were often too gross for public mention, it has escaped my attention. If he ever expressed approval of the president or of congress, I never heard of it. If he had been a member of that body and had voted as he talked, he would have graded with McLemore, LaFollette and the others who failed or flinched when the nation's honor and safety were at stake.

Safe in Washington. Fortunately, there is no chance for a mistake about a president. We have one whose term will cover the end of the war, as it did the beginning. He has justly come to be the personification of the cause, not only to ourselves but to all the people entitled for liberty, and to the enemy as well. America is now giving other imperishable names to history, and chief among them is Woodrow Wilson.

But he must have a congress that will uphold his hands. Almost without exception members of the present congress who have failed and faltered have already been rejected. These have been few, because Democrats and Republicans alike have shed their party coats and given the president prompt and loyal support. So, ordinarily, it is safer to choose a tried man than a new one, unless there are special reasons, as no doubt there are in some cases.

The same is true of our state officers. Why risk a change at such a time as this unless some strong reason clearly appears? Naturally the governorship carries the chief interest. That officer is to Ohio what the president is to the Union, really his state aide.

Now do we want this year a war governor or a pacifist governor? That is the all-controlling question. I know of no other state where it is true, not in Ohio exactly that choice is pre-mented and there is no escape from it. Each of the candidates has been my successor. Each did many things which I approved and some (Governor Cox in his first term) which I did not approve. For neither, personally, have I any unkind feeling. But on the subject which now dwarfs all others, the proper choice is too clear for anybody to make a mistake whose heart and head work true.

An Excellent War Governor.

Governor Cox has certainly made an excellent war governor. Ably guided by the attorney general, Joseph McGehee, in the many legal questions which have arisen, he has been diligent, resourceful and efficient in behalf of the thousands who represent Ohio under arms and also in behalf of the more numerous citizens who carry on the varied industries which enable us to feed, clothe and maintain our soldiers. By word, conduct and hearty support of the president he has put Ohio proudly and staunchly behind the government from the first day of his term. If you want a war governor, there he is.

Mr. Willis was governor during 1915-16. All through his term the country was profoundly affected by the war, which it entered "shortly after his term expired. What he said and did and what he failed to say and do, with respect to it, give his measure for the position of Ohio's leader in this war.

He publicly declared, time and again, that the government ought to forbid our citizens to sell munitions to the warring countries. This he claimed, would be strict neutrality. That is just what Bernstorff paid large amounts to have preached and published by others. The governor of Ohio did it for nothing. Of course he said all the nations at war, but the Germans had fully provided themselves in advance and the only sales were to the allies, who were in need. To forbid sales to them would be a distinct and direct help to the Germans, who could not get across the sea if they had wished to buy. If the course he proposed had been taken it would doubtless have ended the war in Europe by a victory for the Germans and let us to meet their vastly increased power and swollen ambition as best we could alone.

It was daily becoming more likely that this country would be forced to take up arms, and the exercise of the unquestioned right of our citizens to enlarge and build factories for munitions was a public benefit. It was about the only preparation we had, as we found when the time for action came.

Sticks to Pacifism. When Professor Johnson made this plain to Governor Willis and expostulated with him about his attitude, he simply stuck to it.

Among other occasions, he repeated this in a speech in St. Louis, after the president had sent Bernstorff packing, with his gang of spies and accomplices, and war was certain as sunrise. He then also declared himself on the murders on the high seas, beginning with the sinking of the Lusitania. I confess that he did not himself furnish his speech to the press. I would not believe he said what he did. I quote from the leading Republican paper of St. Louis.

"IN DEFENDING AMERICA. RIGHTS we must be sure that the are rights, AND NOT MERE WIMPE. MERE PLEASURE SEEKERS HAVE NO BUSINESS IN THE WAR ZONE: IF THEY GO THERE, LET THEM GO AT THEIR OWN PERIL. The United States must not be embroiled in war by HAIR-BRAINED SEARCHERS for thrills. LET SUCH PEOPLE STAY AT HOME and not imperil the nation's welfare by going where they have no right to go. Americans are willing to fight for a principle, but not to protect a man who feels he must go to England to play golf."

PREVENTIVE OF PNEUMONIA

Serum Treatment Proves Successful at Army Camps. Washington, Sept. 26.—Vaccination with a recently discovered serum, which from tests just completed at several army camps has been found to be an almost positive preventive of contraction of pneumonia, will be used to combat the epidemic of Spanish influenza, which has made its appearance in every state and in all the big army camps, causing many deaths. Use of the vaccine will be widely extended, congress having appropriated $1,000,000 to be used by the public health service in financing Spanish influenza and other communicable diseases. The public health service, aided by the medical forces of the army and navy, immediately took steps to render effective aid to all districts in which influenza has made its appearance. Nurses and physicians in large numbers will be dispatched to the affected states and training camps.

to Prove Better Prices. Columbus, Oct. 2.—Two Ohio men, Charles Brand, Urbana, large milk producer, and H. W. Ingelsoll, Elyria, president of the Ohio Dairyman's association, are on a committee with five men from other states, appointed by Federal Food Administrator Hoover, to investigate the dairy problem, particularly the dairy shortage and the increased price of butter and other dairy products. An effort will be made not only to stabilize prices of dairy products but of feeds which farmers and dairymen must buy.

though he may have promptly taken his own country's side since it revealed war, and honestly thinks the poison is all out of his system.

While, if he is opposed to war for any cause, or believed America has no just cause for engaging in this war, we can not feel that absolute certainty about him which there must be about anybody who has to do with our boys on the field of battle. But his real may not be so good enough. Shortcomings of which one is unconscious are the most dangerous.

Will the patriotic people of Ohio be less careful than the government, the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A.?

"His Lights Are Dim."

I do not say Mr. Willis is not loyal and patriotic according to his lights. I have no doubt he is. But his lights are dim and badly adjusted. He does perceive the hearing and significance of what he does see. But I do say, and I would say it if he were the Democratic instead of the Republican candidate for governor, that it would be most unwise to choose him for Ohio's leader in this war.

Perhaps he is afflicted, as some other seems to be, with Ingrowing and incurable partisanship. I do not know. He certainly played to the banker's hand before we entered the war. Whether he was conscious of it or not makes no difference. For his election would cause rejoicing in Potsdam and spread dismay among our comrade nations. It would be taken everywhere as a rebuke to the president, the same as a change in the complexion of congress would, no matter how loyal to what he stands for it might really prove to be.

It has come to be a recognized feature of German tactics to ask for a peace parley when things go badly in the field. One of the best things the president has done was promptly to expose and defeat the latest ruse of this kind. He does not propose to slacken the step and check the march of the boys who are headed for Berlin.

The whole anti-German world has applauded the president for this. Governor Cox promptly joining in for Ohio. Has anybody heard from Mr. Willis? Where does he stand?

The only peace worth the making, the only peace that will not blight to utter barrenness our sacrifices at home, the only peace that will not make us ashamed to look our heroes in the face when they come home and ashamed to visit or think of the far-away graves behind the battle lines, must bear a stamp we never wish to see elsewhere—"Made in Germany."

EMPLOY OLD TANKS

British Use Naval Method in Fording Deep Canal. London, Sept. 30.—British forces adopted a novel method in fording the Canal du Nord in their drive northwest of Cambrai. The waterway is a formidable obstacle, 125 feet wide and 45 deep, and could only be crossed at three points. The Canal flows since early in the month had a bridgehead at Marquain. The British held a second bridgehead at Haverscourt. It remained to find a method of crossing the canal in the center of the attack in the direction of Meuzennes, where there was no bridgehead. The artillery destroyed the masonry basis of the canal. Then several superannuated tanks, on the top of which was necessary gear for the construction of bridges, were limbered into the stream. Fighting tanks crossed the canal over the backs of tanks in the big ditch.

Escapes From Russia. Stockholm, Sept. 30.—General Kouhndorff, minister of war in the Russian imperial cabinet from 1909 to 1915, who was reported court-martialed last Sept. 8 and shot the same day, has succeeded in escaping from Russia after a most adventurous flight. He was arrested upon his arrival on Finnish soil, but will be granted his freedom.

Work on New Penitentiary to Begin Within Three Months. Columbus, Oct. 2.—Work on the new Ohio penitentiary, west of London, will begin within the next three months. It will take several years to complete, construction was started to material supplied by the state. Through an orderly procedure of the buildings which an area surrounded by a high wall, it is believed that the maximum safety in detention of the prisoners will be secured. Cells will be built of reinforced concrete, each with one opening. More than 3,000 prisoners will be accommodated. Rooms for dining, recreation and manual training are in the plans.

MINE STILL BURNING. Twenty Men Are Trapped 400 Feet Below the Surface. Murphysboro, Ill., Sept. 29.—Twenty men, including the superintendent and manager, were entombed in the Franklin Coal company's mine at Hoytville, Ill., as the result of an explosion 400 feet below ground. The men had gone down to light a fire. The mine is still burning and rescue workers said there was no hope of finding any of the men alive. Rescuers found four bodies at the bottom of the shaft, but were unable to penetrate the mine and save the rest of the trapped men. An explanation of the cause of the explosion was not given.

Wants War Workers Vaccinated. Columbus, Sept. 29.—The federal government wishes employers of labor to require vaccination against smallpox and inoculation against typhoid fever of all workmen. The state department of health called the attention of Ohio employers to this request, issued by the United States public health service, and to the offer of the public health service to give each preventive treatment free where it has stations.

Columbus Day to Be Liberty Day; Loan Rallies Planned

The discovery of America will be celebrated this Fall in connection with the present gigantic struggle to save America and the democracy for which America stands.

The United States government has asked that Harvest Home Festivals be held in every school of the country on Columbus Day, October 12th, which this year shall also be Liberty Day.

"When the people of a community recount the fruits of their summer's labor they will naturally ask themselves what share of them they want to invest in Liberty Bonds," writes L. B. Franklin, director of the United States War Loan Organization, in a letter just received by Governor Fancher of the Fourth District Federal Reserve Bank.

"There is something vastly inspiring in the thought of all the local neighborhoods in the United States meeting the same day on the basis of citizenship with united devotion to the ideals for which America stands."

"Morale is to force as there is to one," said Napoleon. To mobilize the spirit of America is of paramount importance. October 12th furnished the occasion for expressing the Nation's spirit in definite terms of service to meet the Nation's present need."

The Bureau of Education is sending suggestive programs to all the schools of the country.

HAS A MESSAGE FOR THE WOMEN

Government Considers Dairy Industry of the Greatest Importance.

ENGAGES EXPERTS' SERVICE. Prominent Women Educators Will Divide Their Time Between Washington and Columbus Until After the Great National Dairy Show is Over.

The government plainly considers the dairy interests of the country of extraordinary importance and believes that it has a message of great value to the women of the United States as is shown by the cooperation which is being extended to the National Dairy Show which will be held at Columbus, Ohio, October 19-19.

The government has reached out and commanded the services of two expert women from two of the leading universities of the country and has given them instructions to divide their time between Washington and Columbus until after the Dairy Show is over.

These women are Miss Emma Conley, in charge of the home economics department of the University of Wisconsin, now on a year's leave of absence to the States Relations Service Committee of the Department of Agriculture, and Miss Jessie M. Hoover, who was dean of the home economics department of the University of Idaho before becoming attached to the dairy division of the Bureau of Animal Industry at Washington. After making a survey of the possibilities of the Dairy Show for delivering the message the government wants the American housewife to get, they have named the following committee to co-operate: Miss Edna N. White, director home economics, Ohio State University, and president American Home Economics Association; Miss Gertrude Van Hoesen, formerly of the University of Chicago and now of United States Department of Agriculture, and Miss Anna Van Meter, home economics department, Ohio State University. One of the largest of all the buildings of the Exposition grounds will be turned over to this work. There will be practical demonstrations of dairy lanches of nutritious meals prepared largely from dairy products and there will be a special restaurant managed by the home economics department of the State University. Child Welfare work will be exemplified in many ways. There will be lectures and demonstrations of the necessity for milk in the diet of all children.

Dr. E. V. McCollum, of Johns Hopkins University will exhibit the famous rat colony which was used in his experiments to determine the actual food value of milk and the direct consequence of a lack of milk in the regular diet of youngsters.

Another special feature will be the possibilities of dairy products in filling the dinner pail, a problem which the women all over the United States are finding peculiarly difficult under the present high schedule of food prices.

SIRENS AND THEIR GETS AMONG THE EXHIBITS

Calamity Jane will not be at the National Dairy Show at Columbus, Ohio, October 19-19 this year.

Calamity Jane attracted more attention a year ago in ten days than in all the three years of her earlier experience.

But Calamity Jane is dead. She has gone the way of many an other unprofitable cow.

She was one of the 8,000,000 cows in the United States which eat more than they produce. They may give a little milk, night or morning, but in reality they milk their owner. It is part of the purpose of the Dairy Show to inspire farmers and dairymen everywhere to know exactly what each cow in their herd is doing and whether or not it is a profitable investment.

Among the exhibits which impress this lesson will be a series of sirens and their gets, showing how intelligent breeding increases the output and consequently the profit of each generation of cows.
