

THE NEWS.

The latest news is good. Lieut. Gen. Grant informs the War office, in a dispatch dated at Raleigh, N. C. 10 P. M. of the 23th that General Joseph E. Johnston had surrendered to Major General W. T. Sherman, all the confederate forces of his department, which extends from his picket lines in North Carolina, to the Chattahoochee River, in Georgia. The terms are identical with those upon which General Lee surrendered the Army of Northern Virginia to General Grant.

Dispatches from St. Louis bring the sad intelligence of the explosion and burning the Steamer Sultan, en route to St. Louis from New Orleans, with 2,200 people on board, 1,964 of whom, including thirty commissioned officers, were exchanged. Federal prisoners from Vicksburg. It is reported that about 1500 lives were lost.

Valentine Mott, the first surgeon of America died on the evening of the 26th. He was eighty years of age.

The Fast Day has been postponed to June 2d.

The expenses of the military establishment are to be reduced immediately.

Huston Hall, in Dayton was destroyed by fire on Monday. Loss $70,000.

The office of the Westmoreland Democrat, in Carroll county, Md., has been mobbed, and its editor, Mr. Shaw, killed.

Death of the Assassin Booth. Capture of his Accomplice Harrold.

From official telegrams we learn that on the morning of the 20th, Booth and Harrold were tracked to a barn between Bowling Green and Port Royal, near Fredericksburg, Va. Lieut. Col. Baker and his detectives, together with 26 of the 16th New York Cavalry, surrounded the barn, and demanded their surrender, which Harrold was in favor of doing, but upon Booth calling him a coward, he refused.

In order to take the conspirators alive, the barn was fired, when Harrold signified his willingness to be taken. The door was then opened sufficiently to allow him to put his arms through so that he might be handcuffed. As an officer was doing this, Booth fired upon the party from the barn, upon which, the Sergeant of the 16th New York fired, the ball striking Booth in the back of the neck, from the effects of which he died in about three hours. Before he breathed his last, he was asked if he had anything to say, when he replied: "Tell my mother that I died for my country."

Booth was on crutches, his lameness being caused by the falling of his horse. Harrold had been lodged in a secure place.

The above is a very brief account of the capture. Great credit is due to the detectives and the cavalry for their unremitting exertions in tracking the assassin and his accomplice.

Booth has escaped the full measure of his punishment on earth, but he has gone to appear before a Tribunal, from the judgment of which he cannot escape.

Great Excitement. Great excitement has been caused by the announced advent of the Great Union Combination Menagerie and Circus, with its unrivaled troupe of performers. It is to be here on the 4th of May next. Of course every body will go. We do not often have an exhibition of this kind in Eaton, and when it does come, it should be well patronized.

Go and see the display of Goods in Andy Coffman's widow.

SHERMAN. During the past week, papers have been engaged in commenting upon SHERMAN's treaty with Johnston. A cry of condemnation has been uttered by parties who have hitherto been his greatest admirers. All his previous services, and brilliant achievements have been forgotten in the excitement of the hour. So far as we can see the whole matter, we can only regard it as an error of his judgment, and not of his heart. We should not be too hasty in our condemnation of a man who has done his country such great service.

THE SOLDIER'S CASKET. We have before us a number of this excellent Magazine, which is devoted to the interest of our soldiers. Its pages are full of interesting notices sketches of the heroic deeds of our brave soldiers, Literary Sketches, Poetry—Editorial Department, and last, though not least, a Personal Department—which will bring a great blessing to many—being devoted to the benefit purpose of ascertaining the whereabouts of missing soldiers—Soldiers should all take this magazine. Its pages are always open to receive communications from them. The subscription price is $2 a year. A specimen copy can be sent at this office.

The Lady's Friend. The May number of this favorite periodical opens with a truly beautiful engraving called "The Cup of Cold Water," an illustration of poem by Thomas Hood, which conveys the profound moral lesson that often in the doing of very little and simple things is to be found "The accepted sacrifice." The Fashion Plate of this number, is as usual, double, and remarkably well engraved. The wood engravings lead off with a pretty picture of a child "Among the May Flowers," followed by the usual variety of cuts devoted to the illustration of the fashions, needle work, &c. Among the literary matter we may specify "Under the Apple-tree," by Miss Virginia F. Townsend; "One of the Martyrs," by Emma B. Ripley; "My Ruth and I," by Margaret E. Starr; "Before God and Man," "The Ghost of Mac Gran's Abby," by Mrs. Hosmer; "Pinewold," "Four Birthdays," "Story of a Stove," Novelties for May, Editor's Department, &c. The music for this number is an amusing song called "Pa has struck it."

Price $2.50 a year, a year; 2 copies $4-00. To those desirous of making up clubs, specimen numbers will be sent for 15 cts. Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums. Address Deacon & Paterson 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia. Now is the time to send on subscriptions for 1865.

REMOVE D. We have removed our office into the Third Story of Stephens' Building, Main Street, exactly over the room we previously occupied. "I.E." The oil excitement seems to be on the increase. Derricks are going up in various directions. And we may expect soon to hear Eaton described as the oil City of the West. The indications seem to be very good.

THE BIG SHOW. When our friends come in to see the Big Show on Thursday next, we hope they will call and see us—especially those who know themselves to be in arrears. We need the money, and hope our friends will bear it in mind.

LOCKWOOD AND KLINE. We see that Messrs. G. Lockwood and H. Kline have opened a Family Grocery, one door North of the Eagle Hotel. They intend to keep constantly on hand a good stock of Groceries, Confectionaries, Toys, &c. For further particulars see advertisement in next issue. In the meantime, call and see them.

BUGGIES.—We wish our readers to bear in mind that H. Resler still manufactures Buggies, Wagons, &c. and that he keeps Horses and Buggies for Hire at his Livery Stable, next to the National Hotel.

ROBIN for violins should be melted with a little vinegar.

FAST DAY. President Johnson has issued a Proclamation, appointing the 1st day of June next as a day of humiliation and prayer, throughout the States.

EATON MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY. WEDNESDAY, April 19, 1865.

Table listing market prices for various goods: FLOUR $7.75, BACON 18 1/2, LARD 25, BUTTER 30, EGGS 20, CHEESE 30, COFFEE 37, DRIED APPLES 15, PEACHES 35, PRUENS 35, LOTATIONS 1.50, GREEN APPLES 2.25, TREE MOLLASSES 2.00.

Local and Miscellaneous. Reduce Prices.

We have often had occasion to speak of Mr. A. COFFMAN. He has now received a first class stock of Dry Goods of all kinds, which he is selling at remarkably low prices. Andy has watched the Markets, and bought just at the right time. Ladies should pay him an early visit, and inspect his stock of Silks, Muslins, Prints, Gingham, Dress Goods &c. Mr. C. has also just received a large Stock of Queensware, which our friends who need anything in that line, will do well to go and see. Crowds visit the Store daily, so call immediately. APRIL 20—3t

CINCINNATI. Those of our readers who are in the habit of buying their Dry Goods in Cincinnati, will do well to call upon Marshall & Bro's. 56 West Fifth Street. They keep always on hand, a splendid Stock, and sell at very low rates. Their stock of Carpets is unrivalled, for quality and cheapness.

MENS WEAR.—Gentlemen visiting Cincinnati should not neglect to call upon R. C. McCracken, 9 West Fourth Street. Those wanting Shirts, Linens, Collars, Gloves, in fact anything and everything a man can want in that way, should purchase of McCracken. They will find his prices suit the times.

Panic! Panic!!

DEEM & LAKE are now selling Dry Goods at prices which are positively "panicky." Every day they are receiving addition to their Stock; which is rendered necessary by the continued increase of their trade. We need not enumerate the varieties of Dry and Fancy Goods, for Ladies know best what they need, and at the above store they are sure to find it. The superior quality of the Goods, and the lowness of prices will surprise them. D. and L. have also now on hands a large stock of Hats and Caps, and Boots and Shoes, which they are offering at reduced rates. APRIL 20, 3t.

WOLF CREEK NURSERY. MESSRS MORSE & O'BRYAN, Agents for Wampler, Tillison and Co., of the Wolf Creek Nursery, Dayton, are now in town, and are prepared to take orders for every variety of Fruit Trees, Evergreens and Flowers. We recommend these gentlemen, with confidence to the public.

REEVE'S Original Genuine and Reliable AMBROSIA, FOR THE GROWTH, BEAUTY AND PRESERVATION OF THE HAIR. [Established 1860.] Price 75 cts. per Bottle.

These photographs, TAKEN FROM LIFE, have been awarded to the discoverer, Mrs. L. M. Maxwell, the highest honor that can be conferred upon a woman. Hundreds have seen these ladies and heard the facts from their own lips.

Mrs. Maxwell's Testimonials. New York, Dec. 23d, 1874. Knowing positively that Reeves' Ambrosia produced a beautiful head of hair for me, I was induced, thereby, to use it thoroughly. I needed something for my hair, it being short and thin; had used one-half dozen bottles when I could plainly notice an increase in its length, strength, and beauty. An experience of about two years has proved a complete success. My hair is now, by measurement, four feet ten inches in length, nearly reaching the floor. I have allowed Reeves' Ambrosia to proclaim the merits of Mrs. WALLACE MAXWELL.

Arcaea Watch. An Elegant Novelty in Watches.

The cases of this watch are an entirely new invention, composed of six different metals combined, rolled together and planished, producing an exact imitation of 18 carat gold, called Arcaea, which will always keep its color. They are as beautiful and durable as solid gold, and are offered at one eighth the cost. The case is beautifully designed, with Panel and shield for name, with Patent Push Pin, and engraved in the exact style of the celebrated Gold Hunting Levers, and are really handsome and desirable, and an exact imitation of gold, as to deft detection. The movement is manufactured by the well known St. James Watch Company of Europe, and are superbly finished, engraved, polished, and adjusted; adjusting regulator, with gold balanced, and the improved ruby jeweled action with fine dial and skeleton hands, and is warranted a good time keeper. These watches are of three different sizes, the smallest being for ladies, and all Hunting Cases. A case of six, will be sent by mail or Express for $125.00. A single one in an elegant Morocco Case for $25.00; will readily sell for three times the cost. We are the sole agents for this watch in the United States, and none are genuine which do not bear our Trade Mark.
