

LOCAL DEPARTMENT

Plenty of rain. Court is well attended. The roads are softening. Judge Hume rushes business. The water streams are all up. The late Grand Jury done work. Leap year parties will soon bloom. The "spelling" mania has opened in Eaton.

The suicide market has an upward tendency. Sunday schools are filling up bravely for the holidays. A few more of them "rag babies," if you please. Where's that "boy" with the side whiskers?

The Town Clock can be heard strike four and a half times. Hard money means hard times—they are coming. Hog cholera is on the decline and farmers get better. Old maids are fond of pairs, but cannot endure any reference to dates.

We heard some one on Saturday, Sunday or Monday, remark that it was "damp." Wedding journeys are, according to the latest fashionable intelligence, out of style. There will be a Grand Spelling Match at the City Hall on next Saturday night. Admission, 15 cents.

Eaton was brim full of people on Saturday last, and some business was done among our merchants. Rev. A. J. Reynolds held religious services again at the jail on Sabbath afternoon last. Forty-three true bills found by our last Grand Jury! Send for Moody and Sankey!

The Davis Family gave two entertainments in Eaton, and were well patronized. Persons who only attend worship when the weather is dry and their clothes new, will be apt to land where it is always hot and dry.

The court bell calls the wicked to judgment. The church bell calls the girls out at night, while the handsome belles keep the boys out all night. Where twenty persons have stomachs, but one have healthy backs. Bankers grow rich while printers remain poor. That's a wholly true.

William Bristow has on hand a lot of splendid krum, which he will sell in a retail way to all lovers of this article. Give him a call. Patronize your own traders and mechanics. This will be doing as you would be done by and will build up the town in which you live.

The woman who minds her own business was in town one day last week but left immediately because she was so lonesome. Two valuable prizes will be given away at the spelling match, at the City Hall, next Saturday evening. Everyone go.

"Billy" Hoffman's buggy sale didn't come off on Saturday last. Reason—the small-pox among the hands in the shop in Cincinnati stopped work on them. An editor advertised that he would send one copy of his paper free to any person sending him a club of ten, whereupon a young lady in the country sent him a ten spot of clubs!

The list of persons whose names have been registered with the Clerk by their wives and sisters is called the "Black List." It is not very large in this place yet. The surest and most expeditious way of discovering the energetic and business men of any place, is by examining the advertising columns of the home papers.

A lecture entitled "All about the Devil" had an audience of only thirteen persons in Bowling Green. The balance of the populace thought they couldn't learn anything new. The "Immortal J. N." has secured on the stomach of the editor of the German-town Press. Don't be foolish, Harklerider, if you are "hard up," but "assume the pressure."

Life is but short, but we should do all we can to prolong it. Check a cough or cold at once and use an old reliable remedy such as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. There will be a tall given at the City Hall this (Thursday) evening, for the benefit of a family in Eaton, whose condition is pitiful. Every christian should attend.

We desire this and nothing more—that every person pay us promptly our just dues. It takes money to run a newspaper, and a newspaper is what we desire to furnish. Then help us to do it. Walk up—pay up. An exchange says the best remedy for baldness is to rub whisky on your head until the hairs grow out, and then take it inwards to clinch the root. Judging from what we very frequently see on our streets, this is a popular remedy in Eaton.

Our neighboring Butler county gals have some grit. A few days ago one of them, only fifteen years old, was rescued from some fault by her mother, and she walked to the Miami river, plunged in and drowned. She is now an angel. Our citizens should take all necessary precautions to guard against the small-pox by the use of disinfectants and vaccination. This foul disease is on the increase in Cincinnati, and is already in many of our neighboring towns, and may reach our city at any time.

The average school boy now longs for ice and snow so that he will have a legitimate excuse to run away from school. We don't want any money ourselves, but we know of several persons who do, and we think we could inundate the currency somewhat, if we were only made the starting point.

The terror of the farmer just now is the tree pecker, who fascinates the horticultural soul with a book full of gorgeously colored pictures of all sorts of possible and impossible fruits, such as never grew on earthly trees. L. Williams, Esq., the obliging and gentlemanly Superintendent of the C. & D. Railroad, has put another train on the track between Richmond and Cincinnati, for the accommodation of passengers. That is good. Three trains a day, you can go and come to suit you.

The Dayton Democrat publishes a sensational story about a Hoosier gal, on a visit to that city, that twice swooned and was carried from her bed room on account of Thomas Cat, who had, without malice or pretense, aforesaid, quietly preceded her and took possession of her downy couch. That beats Bessie Turner's adventure. Let us have a book with a "cat in the case."

It is worthy of remark that when cold weather approaches and other vegetables begin to fade, whiskers sprout up and flourish with the utmost vigor. Many a face, which, in summer, appear barren as the deserts of Arabia, in winter is in most luxuriant crop. Everything in its proper season—crows in spring, cucumbers in summer, cantelopes in autumn and whiskers in winter.

The vocal and instrumental entertainment given by Madam and Professor Gonzalez, in the City Hall on Sunday and Monday evenings last, under the supervision and for the benefit of St. Patrick's Church, of Eaton, was decidedly the finest musical treat that our citizens ever had an opportunity to enjoy, and we are glad to say that it was well patronized and the musical talent of the singers highly appreciated by the audience.

While it is true that we will be deprived of some of our amusements by the reign of cold winter, yet there are others to take their place. This is one of the advantages of a variety of seasons. Each has its peculiar pastimes as well as temper. There is no monotony, but an incessant round of change, a change of sport and labor. The frost king, while he piles his daily architecture on the window pane, and laughs, the gaudiest palace patterns to scorn, also glances over steam and pond, so that the anxious skater may bid the ringing steel to his heels, and outspeed the wind.

The snow-flakes will not only disport in the air, suggesting the picking of celestial geese, but gathering thick and firm on the earth will make a bed of firm down for the idle sleigh and awaken the merry laughter of the bells. What rolicking fun the exuberant boys find in buffeting the storm, and pelting each other with snow balls, how sleds are in demand, gun and arrow, and pretensions named as the regiest clippers of the sea!

In-doors what games and what zest in their pursuit! What social gatherings around blazing hearths, such as winter only knows! What Christmas jubilation—what New Years jollies. And then, though there be days of cloud and gloom, every one is a step of time towards April in tears, and blushing May. The crown and glory of the spring.

Ho! For the Holidays! Everybody will feel that these hard times, articles for Christmas presents should be sold at very low prices, and the "dear people" are going to patronize those who sell their goods the cheapest for the "give away purpose." The firm of Messrs. REYNOLDS & CO., stand foremost among those in Eaton who are working for the interest of the people, and an inspection of their immense stock of articles for the Holidays, will convince any one of this fact. To enumerate one half of their stock would occupy a whole page of our paper, and therefore we will only mention a few of the most prominent, and then advise everybody to go and examine for themselves. They have Juvenile Books, Toy Books, Gift Books, Albums, Bibles, Pocket Books, Cigar Cases, Card Cases, Handkerchiefs and Glove Boxes, Jewel Cases, Writing Desks, Se Retarys, Stencils, Lithographs, Picture Frames, Frames made and manufactured to order, Toy Banks, Parlor Croquet, Chess, Checkers, Dominoes, Checker and Chess Boards and Games in great variety, Gold Pens, Holders and Pencils, Penmanship, Colored, Toilet Powder, Sachet Powders, Toilet bottles in great variety, and a thousand more things we can't just now call to memory, and we say again, to be satisfied of the endless variety of their Christmas presents for the old and young, the grave and gay, go and see for yourselves.
