NELSON BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Among the many reputable business schools in our city and State, none have a higher standing than does the Nelson Business College. Their courses in busness training are thorough in every respect, fitting a graduate to step into an office and fill almost any position with credit. Their graduates are always in demand, and are never without a position. The Nelson Business College was established in 1856, and ever since that has been the pace-maker in setting high standards for business schools. The president, R. J. Nelson, is a courteous gentleman, treating others with the proper respect at all times. He gives his personal attention to each and every student, giving them encouragement, and assuring the very best results that can be obtained from a business training. Mr. Nelson's attitude toward organized labor has ever been friendly, and we take pleasure in recommending both R. J. Nelson and the school of which he is president, to the support of the hosts of labor. You will make no mistake in sending your boy or girl to the Nelson Business College for a thorough training in general business practices.

MOSKOWITZ BROS.

Moskowitz Brothers, located at Seventh and Freeman Avenue, are one of the most enterprising concerns in our city, having built up an enviable reputation for fair and square business dealings. They are courteous gentlemen, treating others with the proper respect at all times. They are junk dealers, and in their line stand second to none. Their attitude toward organized labor has ever been friendly, and we are pleased to say a good word for them.

FRED. BECKER.

Among the many friends of organized labor in Cincinnati, none deserve a more hearty recommendation than does Fred Becker, who conducts a first-class bar and cafe at 3200 Colerain Avenue. His place of business is conducted in a quiet and orderly manner, and everyone entering his cafe is assured of polite and courteous treatment, and of being made to feel welcome. Mr. Becker stands high among the business men of our vicinity, and is known to be of sterling worth. His place of business has always been a favorite one with the hosts of labor, as he can always be relied upon to support the workingman's cause.

The managers of the Crown Brewery have always been staunch friends of organized labor, and union men will find them ready and willing at all times to lend a helping hand to labor's just cause. This fact should not be overlooked by our people, who should at all times give the Crown Brewing Company their liberal support and patronage for when in need of friends, you can surely rely upon them to support your cause.

"FRAME UP" COLLAPSES.

Toledo, Ohio.—The charge of cable cutting against striking linemen has collapsed. The man who made the complaint, which implicated two strikers, has repudiated his first statement. He has shown that he was suffering from an ulcerated tooth and was "doped up" with cocaine to relieve the pain when he was grilled for several hours by detectives and officials of the Home Telephone Company. This concern discharged several girls because of their activity in the Telephone Operators' union. The girls struck and the electrical workers did likewise.

STREET CAR MEN GAIN.

Wheeling, W. Va.—Motormen and conductors employed by the subsidiary companies of the West Penn Traction company have induced these concerns to abandon all "bonus" propositions and increase wages 3 cents an hour till April 30. Afterwards, and until the expiration of the contract, the 22-cent rate will be increased to 26 cents and the 24-cent rate to 28 cents. Employees receiving 26, 28, 29, 30 and 31 cents will be paid an additional 3 cents an hour.

GARMENT WORKERS STRIKE.

Cincinnati.—Over 1,000 operatives responded to the call of the Ladies' Garment Workers' union to suspend work because these demands were not granted:

Union recognition, equal distribution of work, 48-hour week, wage increases and no work on New Year's, Christmas, Labor day and Fourth of July.

BOILER MAKERS STRIKE.

Dallas, Tex.—Boiler makers employed by the Dallas Boiler Works have suspended work to enforce wage increases of 2½ cents an hour, increases for apprentices and union recognition.

DEFEAT POSTAL INCREASE.

Washington.—The senate has declined to raise second-class postal rates on newspapers and periodicals. Opponents of the increase showed that the present cost of print paper has caused financial difficulties for thousands of publishers and that this educational force should not be further embarrassed by legislative action.

INCREASES FOR CARPENTERS.

Georgetown, Texas.—Carpenters have increased wages from 50 to 55 cents an hour, beginning the first of the month.

STATE CARPENTERS UNITE.

Helena, Mont.—A State council of carpenters, representing about 3,000 workers, has been organized. Its purposes are: To establish the State-wide eight-hour day, minimum wage scale, furnish information regarding conditions of employment and promote such legislation as is beneficial to workers.

WOULD FLOOD DETROIT.

Detroit, Mich.—The "help wanted" campaign of the local Manufacturers' association continues, despite the refusal of the advertisers to guarantee employment. As a rule the applicant is told that if he comes to this city, "and is competent" he may secure employment.

GAINS BY "MOVIE" OPERATORS.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Moving Picture Operators' union No. 171 has signed a union shop agreement with Rowland & Clark. This concern controls a number of picture houses in this section and has recognized organized labor for the first time.
