New and Invaluable Remedy for the Cure of Rupture.

A CERTAIN CURE.
The undersigned prepares a Plaster out of Swiss Alpine herbs, which he can recommend to all suffering of Rupture, as a remedy which will cure this painful disease in the oldest of cases, in a short time, without pain. Having proved its most wonderful healing power during many years' practice in Switzerland and Germany, he would invite all ruptured persons to give it a fair trial. One pot of it, (the price of which is $2), will effect a cure in most cases. It is for sale at A. TAPPEL'S Drug Store, north-east corner of Sixth and Main streets, Cincinnati.

CAN ANY CITY PAPER SHOW A BETTER RE-CORD?—Mr. Tobey, one of our carriers, reports that he has SIXTY-FOUR subscribers to the PRESS on the south side of Third street, between Main and Vine streets—the distance of two squares. Let Third street flourish!

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—Policemen Howell and Rose, night before last, saw a man trying to enter the house on the corner of Cutter and Catharine streets, but after they had given the alarm they found he had escaped.

THE CINCINNATI POLICE BILL passed the House Thursday afternoon, by a mere constitutional majority. The vote stood, aye 55, nays 44.
Mr. Harrison objected to the title of the bill, and suggested it read, "A bill to deprive the people of Cincinnati of the right of self-government."

RUN OVER.—A boy named Ford, about twelve years of age, was run over by a horse and drey, near the corner of Vine and Water streets, yesterday, and hurt very badly. He lay insensate for a long time, but at length revived, and it was thought at last accounts that he would recover.

BURGLARY.—The house of a man named Martin Farrell, located on the corner of Third and Front streets, was entered, night before last, and ransacked. The burglars, however, took nothing but a silver watch, valued at $18 or $20. They broke open trunks, drawers and cupboards, but singularly enough carried away only what is specified.

SHOOTING WITH INTENT TO KILL.—A man named August Poppe yesterday made complaint, before Justice McFall, of a watchman, named H. B. Ehlmann, for maliciously shooting with intent to kill, on the 28th ult. The affair occurred in the Ninth Ward, and the shot took effect in the fleshy part of the arm, making a painful though not serious wound. He was held to bail in $300 for his appearance at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

ACCIDENT TO A LITTLE GIRL.—A little girl, named Christiana Norman, about thirteen years of age, whose parents reside in the rear of some houses fronting on Bank alley, was severely hurt, day before yesterday, by being struck on the head by an empty barrel, which fell out of a third-story back window, belonging to the drug establishment of W. H. Harrison & Co., on Fourth street. Fortunately she was struck by the head of the barrel, which was forced out—otherwise she would have been instantly killed.

COMMITMENTS TO THE COUNTY JAIL YESTER-DAY.—Peter Conklin, Laurence Duncan and Charles B. Cassilly were committed to Jail, yesterday, by Judge Pruden, charged with murder in the first degree, and accused with being participants in the killing of John Gillman, with the particulars of whose death our readers are already acquainted. Alexander Driscoll was committed on a charge of petty larceny, for stealing a gold shirt button and some handkerchiefs from John Fran. Dennis Calden and William Young for grand larceny, and four others for minor offenses.

A PHYSICIAN UNWITTINGLY DRIVES OFF WITH A TURNIP WAGON.—Yesterday morning a countryman, who had brought to the city a wagon-load of turnips, stopped on Fourth st., for the purpose of making some purchases, and hitched his horse to the buggy of a physician, whose office is near the corner of Walnut street.
Shortly after, the Doctor came out, jumped into his buggy and drove off, taking with him the countryman's horse, wagon and turnips, at a brisk trot, in the direction of Broadway. Long time the turnip-seller looked for his team, not knowing that through his mistake a city physician had taken his place, and become, unwill-ingly, to all appearance, a vegetable-vender.

POLICE COURT.—Business before Judge Pru-den still continues dull. Thomas Kelly, Samuel Sullivan and James Lightfoot had been drunk, and his Honor thought it proper to have them pay for their amusement in fines of three dollars each, besides the usual accompaniments of blotted faces and aching heads.

Thomas Began, charged with stealing twenty pounds of butter, valued at $4, was fined twenty dollars and costs. One dollar per pound is rather a high price for this article of food.

Henry Baker and John Schrenck were fined ten dollars each for assaulting John Smith, August Lutz, for assaulting Charles Busch, was fined $6, and Henry Rekus, for the brutal act of striking a woman with a stone, was fined nine dollars and costs.

LAW REPORT.

COMMON PLEAS.

FEES FOR THE DEFENSE OF INDIGENT PRISON-ERS.—James Parker against the Board of County Commissioners. Judge Dickson disposed of this case as an action brought by Judge Parker to recover from the County $150. The plaintiff was appointed by the Common Pleas to defend Sophia Tenenberger, an indigent prisoner, charged with murder in the second degree, (infanticide.) The petition states that he defended her, and presented a bill for $150 to the County, and that the Commissioners made an entry to the effect that "they allowed him $40 by way of compromise on that bill." From this decision he appealed to the Common Pleas.
A demurrer was filed to the petition, and the main ground relied on was that an appeal in a matter of this kind did not lie to the Common Pleas. That demurrer was overruled, and the case came up now on inquiry as to the value of those services.

The question as to whether an appeal did lie, and further, whether, if it did, the Court could allow a sum greater than that the Commissioners allowed, he (Judge Dickson) would not now pass upon, for the reason that both were pending in the District Court.

In determining the value of professional services, several considerations were to be regarded—the skill and ability of the attorney, the relations existing between attorney and client, whether the service was for a single matter, or whether it was part of an extended business transacted for the client.

After an examination of the Statutes, the Court found no law authorizing the payment of a fee under an assignment by the Court to defend a prisoner until 1844, when a law was passed making it unlawful for the Auditor to allow any claim made by counsel for such service, until the said claim was examined and allowed by the County Commissioners. This law seemed to refer to some preceding enactment, but the Court could find none, and presumed it was intended to refer to the general practice of the courts. It evidently was a remedial statute, looking to an evil. The evil was, the judges allowing fees; the remedy was, that the Commissioners should pass upon the claim; and, if an appeal lies, the question is, where is the remedy?

The services rendered in such cases were, in the opinion of the Court, honorary; that the object of the law was to call on the profession to render to indigent persons services, and that it did not contemplate the payment of a fee; that the matter of payment was engrained on the law by the ingenuity of the courts, and, though subsequently recognized by legislation, was only so far recognized as to direct the Auditor to pay what the County Commissioners allowed.

The employment is not to be considered in the light of a contract for money; the pecuniary consideration, in the eye of the law, is to be nominal; and viewing the case in that light, the Court thought the compromise allowed by the Commissioners a fair one. A judgment was then given for $20—a payment of $20 having already been made.

Ferguson & Long for the county.

SUIT FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF AN ILLEGIT-IMATE CHILD.—Caroline Eble vs. Nicholas Hofer.
An action under the bastardy act, before Judge Mallon and a jury. The plaintiff is alleged to be only seventeen years, and the defendant about twenty years. The defendant entirely denies the paternity. Verdict of "guilty." The plaintiff is represented by W. F. Forrest; the defendant by J. Egly.

JACKSON vs. JACKSON. The contest, before Judge Mallon, in relation to the will of Innocent Thronli, resulted in the disagreement of the jury.

J. B. Harbin vs. J. Enger. Suit on a warrant with a horse. Verdict for plaintiff for $45.

JUDICIAL SINE.—Henderson Jordan stood trial, before Judge Carter, upon an indictment for having in possession counterfeit money. Verdict of guilty.

Coverdill & Manning for defense.

[The bills of exceptions handed up to the Court, in the case of Cook and Seiter, have not yet been signed.]

SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Storer disposed of several demurrers, and heard submitted cases. The other Judges also heard arguments in submitted questions.
The term will close to-day (Saturday).

[For the Daily Press.]

It is inconceivable what an amount of nonsense is given out to an admiring and assentating world by learned philosophers.

Dr. Riddell, of New Orleans, who, from the locality where he resides, certainly ought to know better, has given the mud made by deposit from the river Mississippi, at 1 part in 1245 by weight, and 1 part in 3000 by volume. Two of the Philadelphia savans' report on the same subject 1 part in 528 in volume.

I have traveled on the Mississippi for years, and have never found the river even as clear as our Ohio water is at this time, and I venture to say that even now, while the river is falling, a sediment much greater than 1 part in 528 will form a deposit from the Ohio. As to the Mississippi, I have known it to make a half inch of mud in the depth of a common half pint tumbler, certainly not less than 1 part in 7, or 75 parts in 528, and I have no doubt that there are river men enough here to confirm these statements.

BOARD OF CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—The Clerk was instructed to prepare and transmit to the City Council an ordinance to pave unpaired sidewalks on Ninth street, from Freeman to Carr. The sealed proposals offered were open- ed, and recommendations of award of contracts made as follows:

To pave with bowlders Augusta street, from Smith to Rose, with Jacob S. Lowry, at 73 cents per square yard for paving, and 18 cents per cubic yard for grading.

To pave with bowlders Mary street, from Walnut to Vine, with George H. Aring, at 27 cents per cubic yard for grading, and 84 cents per square yard for paving.

To pave with bowlders Jail alley, from Main street to Sycamore, with Jones & Bonte, at 68 cents per yard for paving.

To pave with bricks sidewalks on Eighth street, from Harriet to Freeman, with R. E.
Smith, at 43 1/2 cents per square yard.

To extend stone culvert, 8 feet in diameter, under Wade street, from Freeman street 300 feet west, with John Faldner, at $3 15 for culvert, per foot lineal; $2 20 for well-holes, per perch; $1 80 for foundation do.; 17c. for excavation per cubic yard, and 16c. for filling, per cubic yard.

A committee of the residents of Walnut Hills submitted a plan of proposed route to Walnut Hills, along the east side of Deer creek, starting from intersection of Eighth and Accommodation streets. Referred to City Commissioners and City Civil Engineer.

The Commissioner of the Eastern District was authorized to notify parties obstructing the old Montgomery Road at the summit of the hill, to remove the obstructions forthwith.

There were five masquerade balls in the city, last night, and one in Covington. This must be an imitation of the Venetian carnival.

Melancholy Suicide—A Woman Blows her Brains out, in consequence of a Domestic Quarrel.

Last evening, about six o'clock, the neighborhood of Vine and Green streets was thrown into a state of the most intense excitement by the rumor that a woman had committed suicide because of a quarrel with her husband. The particulars, as elicited before the Coroner's jury, are briefly as follows:

Ludwig, the wife of Emanuel Gerard, who resides, and keeps a cigar store, at No. 629 Vine street, had, for a long time previous to this melancholy affair, been suspected by her husband of a criminal intimacy with a German doctor, named Bulow, whose office is, we believe, at the corner of Liberty and Sycamore streets. This had caused considerable harsh feeling between the parties until last week, when his suspicions took an almost tangible shape, in consequence of the finding of a letter addressed to the wife by Dr. Bulow, and appointing the Post-office as a rendezvous for a meeting, to take place on Sunday afternoon.

Gerard, after reading the note, determined to send a boy, who was in his employ, named Jacob Goebel, to watch the proceedings of his wife and the Doctor at their afternoon assignation. The boy followed the wife, saw her meet her friend, wander for some time about the streets with him, and then separate, each returning home. He reported this to the husband, and he last evening charged his wife with infidelity, and told this story of the boy, when she, in a fit of passion, arose from her chair, and taking a double-barreled pistol from the wall, deliberately blew her brains literally out, scattering them about the store-room, and the usual ceremonies of a post mortem examination and inquest were held, which resulted in a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

The parties are Hungarians, and from what we could learn, were of noble origin, but exiled and reduced in circumstances they sought in our country the liberty they desired so much but found not in their own.

The deceased was about 25 years of age, and was quite fair; indeed far more handsome than most women. Her husband was several years her senior, and until her unfortunate intimacy with Bulow, they had lived as agreeably together as most married couples.

This melancholy affair has cast a shadow of gloom over the entire locality in which it occurred. We, in accordance with our journalistic duty, after having given the story, which we believe is true in every particular, now let fall the curtain of charity upon this exceedingly sad and tear-provoking tragedy.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES FOR ONE YEAR.

From the report of the Auditor, Mr. S. S. Mc-Gibbons, we take the following statement of the receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ending March 1, 1859, viz:

" " " " Sup. Court.....	1,000 00
" " " " Fire Dept.....	2,000 00 Total Expenditures.....	$669,496 50

It will be seen from the above that $3,496 65 more have been paid out than have been received. This is accounted for by the fact that at the close of the fiscal year, ending March 1, 1858, there was a balance in the Treasury, from the different funds, amounting to $136, 182 36.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Mr. J. B. Wyman and Dr. Kellogg were driving, yesterday, the horse and buggy belonging to the Hospital, on the top of Vine Street Hill, when the horse taking flight, ran off, throwing them into the mud and breaking the buggy, so that it was useless. Mr. Wyman, who is an old gentleman, of almost seventy years, had his head severely cut and his side bruised; but the injuries to Dr. Kel- logg are quite slight. The horse ran to Cum- minsville, where he was taken up and after- ward returned to the city.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A gentleman, whose name we could not learn, was considerably frightened and narrowly escaped death, on the corner of Walnut and Pearl streets, yesterday, by the fall of some carved wooden ornaments from above the door of the building occupied by Lockwood, Leonard & Co. They were blown down by the wind, which was very high, and, striking the rim of his hat, were crushed by the fall upon the pavement at his feet.

BILL OF THE HOUSE OF REFORMS.—Henry M.
Jones, of the House of Reform, yesterday, sent in his bill to the County Commissioners for the sum of $47 14, which was the whole amount for maintaining fifty-one inmates in that institution, from the 1st of February to the 28th, inclusive of both dates, or from the time of commitment.
