ADAMS' EXPRESS Co. has our thanks for New York and Baltimore papers in advance of the mail.
EXPLOSION OF A CAMPFIRE LAMP.—A servant girl who resides in the family of R. D.
Lowe, on Baymiller street, near George, was severely burned by the explosion of a campfire lamp. She had the lamp in her lap and was engaged in filling it, when the fluid took fire, burning her bosom and celae, and making a wound which, although very painful, will not prove fatal.

ROBBERY.—A man named Dennis Griffin was knocked down about two o'clock yesterday morning on Second street, between Sycamore and Broadway, and robbed of about $8 in money, a knife and his boots. Why a party of rascals should take the boots of a man whom they had garrotted, is a question worth solving. They needed booting, evidently—in an other sense.

THE BENEFITS.—We noticed in a Sunday paper, issued in this city, an advertisement which contained the following expression: "I am compelled to suppress my advertisements for the present, owing to the increasing demand for my wares, and my utter inability to supply the same." We would here remark that the advertisements referred to were first inserted in the Press, and the enterprising firm who have been so bothered with customers were E. B. & W. B. Coleman, on Third street.

UNITED STATES COURTS.—The argument upon the motion for a new trial in the case of Latta vs. Shawk, which has occupied the attention of the Court for the two weeks last past, will probably be postponed until the April term—the balance of the present term being entirely taken up with admiralty cases.
An attachment was issued upon the Flora Temple by the U. S. Marshal, yesterday, for $200.
The case of Jeff. J. Blagg vs. The Steamer E. M. Bicknell will be taken up to-day.

SINGULAR ABSENCE OF MIND.—A story, which for a day or two has been the cause of some merriment where it has been told, represents a merchant of this city, who resides on West Fourth street, as having gotten up about the noon of night, apparently for no other purpose than to throw a quantity of bank-notes into the fire. Whether he became insane from the effects of a certain lecture, or of sundry potations of sparkling Catawba, does not appear; but certain it is, that one or the other was the cause of this remarkable case of absence of mind.

OFFICE OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The Commissioners at their session yesterday issued orders for an aggregate amount of $124 06.
A mandate from the Court of Common Pleas was received, reversing the decision of the Probate Court, and affirming the proceedings of the Commissioners in the matter of the Road in Spencer Township, which was ordered to be filled. The Auditor was directed to notify C.
S. Eberole to remove any and all obstructions on the said road without delay.
The appointment, by the Auditor, of W. A.
Bagley as Assistant Assessor for Millicreek Township, was approved.
Edward Murray and Edward Venable were discharged for the reason that they could not pay the fines and costs charged against them.

ROBBERY AT A PRINTER.—The sleeping-room of a printer who boards at a house on Fifth street, near Elm, was entered at a late hour night before last by a fellow who evidently had some sympathy with that much-abused class. He turned the typographer's pockets inside out, but found only a piece of tobacco, a pencil, a three cent piece and a rule, and from this last-named article becoming aware of the profession to which the individual he had intended to rob belonged, he left the following note:— "I beg pardon if I'd a node yoid bin a printer, I would'n't kalled on you nor tacked your pockets out."

From this it would appear that thieves are not entirely depraved, or that printers are to be excepted from losses in this manner.

Of all the curses in this world, deliver us and this country from Patents and Patent Laws.
Ten millions of dollars are used up annually in the United States in law-fighting for and against patents. Abolish the whole system.
Then, and not till then, will lawyers specially, and the people generally, become free and christianized.

SCHOOL BOARD.—Last evening the usual weekly meeting of the Board was held, President King in the chair. Members present, 24.
After the reading of the minutes of former meetings of the Board, Mr. Rowcamp, of the First District, asked the authority of the Board for procuring a stove for the school-room; also the confirmation of Margaretta Hanstein as German teacher, at a salary of $20 a month, commencing on the 1st inst. Accepted.
Mr. Brant, of the Thirtieth District, obtained the confirmation of Emma S. Baughman, as teacher, at a salary of $30 a month, to commence from the 17th March.

Mr. Cox, of the Second District, brought up the report of the Building Committee, which stated that the Superintendent of Buildings had completed the necessary plans for an addition to the school-house, and he begged to move their adoption by the Board. The motion being seconded, was carried, ens. con. The vacant space available for building and playground purposes, in this district, is 95 feet in length by 65 in width; the addition proposed will extend across the entire width, and about 41 feet in depth, thus abridging the play-ground to 58 feet deep by 32 1/2 feet wide, each, for boys and girls' play-grounds.

On a motion to advertise for estimates, a long and warm discussion followed. Some gentlemen were of opinion that the contraction of the area of the playgrounds (while the proposed augmentation of school accommodation would add from two to three hundred children more advantage to reconsider the question, in order to devise some means for increasing the area of the playgrounds. The question of expense—probably about $4,000—underwent a thorough canvassing, some going in for borrowing, to pay which increased taxation next year should be resorted to; while other members stoutly resisted the proposal to borrow, or in any way to participate in the infliction of a school debt upon "posterity," albeit the schools may be for the special advantage of said posterity.

In the course of the discussion the general condition of the School-houses in the city underwent a cursory overhauling—most of which, according to one of the members, required renewal on enlarged and much improved plans.
The houses in the Fifth, Ninth and Northern districts were especially referred to, and it was devised a curiously overhauling—most of which,
according to one of the members, required renewal on enlarged and much improved plans.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—Ten pieces of property were offered for sale yesterday, six of which were sold, viz:
One hundred and fifty and 12-100 acres in Millicreek Township, being a part of section No. 35, valued at $80 per acre. Sold to Edward C. Morris, at $100 per acre.
Ten acres, with improvements, viz: a starch factory, machinery, &c., in Millicreek Township, on Miami Canal. The undivided half of same, valued at $9,654 00. Sold to John P.
Tweed, $6,636.

Lot in Mt. Pleasant, No. 25, 47 ft. 4 in. by 142 ft. 1 1/2 in., valued at $600 for lot and improvements. Sold to Oglesby & Barnitz, for $400 00.
Lot No. 102, Kleine & Schroeder's subdivision of St. Bernard, 50 feet on Cincinnati and Carthage Pike, by 140 feet; valued at $6 50 per front foot. Sold to Bernhard Kruesberg for $6 50 per front foot.
Lot in Dieterman's addition to Harrison, 40 ft. on Hill street by 116 deep; valued at $150.
Sold to Elijah Richard for $100.
Lots Nos. 1 and 2 in Taylor's subdivision of Newtown, 108 feet on west side of Clough Road. Valued at $50 each, and sold to John Decamp, for $33 34 cash.

The attendance was large, and the bidding quite spirited.
WELCOME TO BISHOP McILVAINE.—The Episcopal clergy of this city and vicinity, grateful to Almighty God for the safe return of Bishop McIlvaine to his home, with restored health, propose to greet the Bishop, in St. John's Church vestry, at three o'clock this afternoon, and to have public worship, with thanksgiving and appropriate addresses, in Christ Church, this evening. The service this evening, to which all friends are invited, will begin at half past seven.

BURGLARY.—The horse of a man named James Keitt, situated on Vine street Hill, was burglariously entered night before last by some persons, who succeeded in carrying off $20 in money and a silver watch, a coat and a pair of boots.
SAN AFFAIR.—A woman named Margaret Western died a few days ago in consequence of injuries received at the hands of a Sixth-street dentist, who, in extracting a tooth, had broken her jaw.

CINCINNATI HORSE AND CATTLE MARKETS.
During the past week the markets, though quite active, show a falling off. The supplies have been limited, but the demand good, especially for first-class stock. Among the heavy cattle, since our last report, are twenty-three horses from M. C. West & Co., Carroll County, Ky., and the same number from J. Probasco, Washington County, Ohio. The demand for heavy work horses is now very good. The total sales at the different stables amounted to 450 horses, at a value of $46,605, or an average of over $100 per head.
E. W. Harrell, weighmaster at the Brighton Stock-yards, reports receipts for the week ending last Wednesday, of cattle 562, sheep 142, and hogs 622, and quotes best cattle $2 75 to $3; sheep $3 to $4 25, and hogs $6 to $6 25.

AMUSEMENTS.
NATIONAL THEATER.—Miss Vandenhoff made her debut in Ingram last night to a fair house; as large indeed as the play deserves. We never did admire it, nor can we; it would be uninteresting and insipid even if the Goddess of Beauty herself enacted "Parthenis," and the Alcein were all Apollons. That the refined and elegant Greek girl could be so stupid a father and such a shrew of a mother, as is therein represented, or that she—although we have some faith in the ability of women to do unreasonable things—could love such a specimen of male humanity as "Ingram," is, in our opinion, unnatural, and must shock any æsthetic nature. To-night Miss Vandenhoff will appear as "Julia" in "Knowles," play of the Hunchback,—a character in which she may display her dramatic ability, and which, we think, she will render judiciously and effectively.

WOOD'S THEATER.—The Duchess of Malfi drew quite a large audience to this establishment last evening. Mrs. Waller's rendition of "Marina," throughout the play, but especially in the fourth act, impresses one as the re plus ultra of the terrible and tragical. It must be seen to be appreciated. Mr. T. B. Douglas, a new candidate for favor, appears to be quite easy and graceful, and will, we doubt not, become quite popular. The Duchess of Malfi will be repeated this evening.

PIKE'S OPERA HOUSE.—Expectation is on the point of being crowned. The magnificent peasant girl of Richmond, in the person of the Mad. Colson, will this evening coquette with "Lionel" upon the stage of the finest Musical Temple in the country. At the rehearsal, last night, the artistes expressed themselves delighted with the acoustic properties of the house, and appeared in excellent spirits.
Let all who intend to hear the opera take their seats early, for the curtain, we have been informed, will rise precisely at eight o'clock.

THE Wheeling Times of Saturday tells a story which is worth reproducing. The Captain of one of our steamers, while standing on his vessel, at our public landing, some days since, observed a delinquent and respectable-looking man at work removing the mud. The Captain remarked to the laborer that he did not seem to be accustomed to that sort of work. The other replied that he was not, but was compelled to resort to it for the support of his family.
The Captain, feeling an interest in the man, had further inquiries made, which showed that the poor fellow's family, though educated and respectable, was in deplorable circumstances, whereupon the Captain, finding the man to be fully competent, made him his third clerk.
The Captain is too modest to allow his name to be published.

COMMITTED FOR HORSE-STEALING.—Justice Burkhalter, of Sycamore Township, yesterday committed a man named Wm. Fisher, alias Blatt, to jail upon a charge of horse-stealing.
He had gotten the horse in Miami County, and traded it to Thomas Cooper, who had, he said, every reason to believe the horse was stolen, and upon this information, Fisher was arrested and sent to prison, in default of bail, to answer the charge at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

TRIEVING ON FOURTH STREET.—A gentleman and lady went into the establishment of G. C.
Kniffin, on Fourth street, near Main, yesterday afternoon, and purchased a sewing machine, for which they paid $75. Mr. Kniffin laid the money on his desk and went out for an express wagon, whose driver, named Lofty, when he took away the machine, took also the money.
He was arrested and lodged in the Hammond-street Station-house, and will this morning answer the charge before Judge Pruden.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.—A man named Henry Schroeder was committed to jail, yesterday, by Justice Franklin Ernst, of Millicreek Township, in default of $300 bail, upon the charge of having burglariously entered the stable and bed-room of John S. Lindemann.
He was found in the stable, and when arrived at the jail he seemed a fit subject for the hospital, having been beaten apparently almost to death.

JOSEPH MILLER, a go-ack young man, will furnish the "Daily Press," at an early hour, to citizens of Walnut Hills. We doubt not general encouragement will be extended to him.

The Eighth Annual Supper of the United Irish Society will take place at Columbian Hall, corner of Court and Western Row, on Thursday evening, the 17th inst. A good time is expected.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM SUFFOCATION.—A few days ago Stephen A. Houser was again convicted, at St. Louis, of the murder of Wm. Fairchild, of Gasconade County, Mo.—the crime having been perpetrated so long ago as the 26th of October, 1855. He was convicted at the last Criminal Court, but an appeal to the Supreme Court resulted in a new trial. After the rendition of the verdict he was being led back to jail when seizing an opportunity that presented, he suddenly disappeared. A search was quickly instituted, but the convicted man could not be found. At last it occurred to one of the explorers the possibility that Houser had fallen in the privy; and so it turned out. As he was making an effort to get out through the ventilator, he struck his head against a beam with such violence that he was thrown back into the pit below. He was nearly suffocated when discovered.

RUNNING AWAY WITH A CORPSE.—On Tuesday last, an expressman belonging to Westcott's Express, Broadway, New York, unlawfully carried off the remains of Mr. Hugh C.
Baker, (one of the candidates for legislative honors at Hamilton, Canada West, last election,) from the recamer Florida, immediately on its arrival from Savannah. After a long search the expressman was found, who refused to deliver the body for less than $5. As the friends were anxious to have the corpse forwarded to Canada without delay, they paid $3. The expressman was then summoned to appear before the Mayor the next day.

A BUCKEYE, writing from Omaha City, Feb.
22, says: "One of our Madison County boys will leave here next week with a press and fixtures, to publish a newspaper at the base of the Rocky Mountains, at the Cheyenne Pass, which he has christened the Rocky Mountain News.
Terms five dollars per annum. The name of this enterprising individual is Wm. N. Byers, formerly of West Jefferson, at which place he has many friends and relatives residing."

PRISON SHOOTING.—The match between William King, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, (the man that was beaten by Blanton Duncan a few years ago at Cincinnati) and Jas. Shannon, of St. Louis, came off a few days ago near St.
Louis. The stakes were $200 a side, for the winner in sixty shots at pigeons twenty-one yards distance and within a boundary of one hundred yards. Shannon killed forty-one birds and missed nineteen, and King killed fifty-one and missing nine. Thirty-three of King's birds were killed without a single intervening miss.

OLD POSTAGE STAMPS.—We are informed by a Postmaster that two cases have been reported lately, from this country, to United States District Attorney at Cleveland, where persons have attempted to use old defaced postage stamps for the pre-payment of their letters.
The penalty for this offense is a fine of fifty dollars, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction.—Warren Chronicle.

INQUEST.—On Thursday, we noticed the death of the ex-convict Stone, on the railroad track, near Delaware. Later accounts say that the coroner's jury returned a verdict that deceased falling to practice what he preached, laid himself upon the track while laboring under the influence of the beverage he was so eloquent in denouncing. Stone is not the only case of preach-one-doctrine-and-practice-another that the world has known.—Columbus Fact.

A HOAX.—The statement that a lot of remarkable old coins, implements, gigantic skeletons, &c., in a cave in Jackson County, is an unmitigated hoax. The story was gotten up by the sensation local editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, or by some other party for the purpose of humbugging him.—Zanesville Courier.
