severity of that old Judge who, if the extortioner would have his pound of his because it was so nominated in the bond, would hold his life the forfeit if he shed one drop of blood, was but the severity of simple justice.

He could not have read his authority very closely, however, or he would have discovered that his "old judge" was a young and pretty woman.

INDIANA DIVORCE LAW.—The following condensed synopsis of the new Divorce Law is given in the Lafayette Courier:

"The Divorce Law of Indiana, as amended by the Legislature, requires: 1. That the applicant shall have been a bona fide resident in the State for one year, which fact shall be proven to the satisfaction of the Court. 2.

By requiring abandonment one year in third class of section seventh. 3. By requiring ten days, or publication thirty days instead of fourteen. 4. It provides that if the defendant files a cross petition, the suit can not be withdrew with the withdrawal of the original petition. 5. Allowing the Court to decree alimony as the circumstances shall render just and proper. 6. A divorce on account of the misconduct of the wife, gives the husband the same title to her property as if she were dead.

A new section authorizes the opening up of deceased person's estate, within two years, as to custody of children and allowance of alimony, but not so as to marry the divorced parties."

EXTRAVAGANCE.—The Washington Union says: "Committees of either house of Congress now deliberate on retrenchment in rooms decorated at an expense surpassing the gorgeous extravagance described in Oriental fables; and members vote to lop off items necessary to protect the pioneer in the far West from the hawk of the savage, while sitting in chairs costing to have cost $175 a piece. One of the most useful members, in enforcing the policy of economy in the House, Mr. George W. Jones, of Tenn., is compelled to make motions for striking out extravagance after extravagance in the bills coming under his relentless scrutiny, from a desk draped, gilded, upholstered, and furnished, at a cost which would support two or three soldiers a whole year in the campaigns against the Comanches and Navajos of the West."

BEAUTIES OF THE SUB-TREASURY.—N. C.

Mitchell, Treasurer of Clarendon Township,

Marion County, was robbed of $500, a few days ago, by H. D. Miller, Treasurer of Blanchard

County, who was arrested on Tuesday night last week. This is but the beginning of the end. The Sub-Treasury Law, as was predicted by the Republicans, has proved a failure, for inasmuch as the law was made to prevent stealing by the Treasurer himself, outside there is no way to prevent the same. They will know that the money must remain in the possession of the Treasurer himself, and consequently, know exactly where to find it.

Oh, the beauties of this much-boasted of Democratic safety-valve, anti-theft provision of law!—Vinton County Journal.

GEN. SCOTT.—This war-veteran arrived at Benwood, on Tuesday night, on his way from New Orleans to Washington. He was met by a small number of gentlemen, and through the kindness of J. B. Ford, Esq., the popular General Agent of the Baltimore Road, and his suite were provided with an officer's car, elegantly furnished, in which they journeyed to the East.

On his late tour, wherever the General has stopped, he has been received with distinguished honor. He reached Louisville from Vicksburg on Sunday night, and at that place was honored with a public reception and dinner.—Wheeling Times.

DEMOCRATIC REVOLT.—The Philadelphia Press has issued a call for an anti-Administration

Democratic Convention, to be held at Harrisburg on Wednesday, the 12th day of April, 1855, to consult upon the propriety of adopting measures to vindicate the name, fame and principles of the Democratic party, outraged and insulted by a Convention assembled at the State Capitol on the 16th of March.

HON. CALHOUN SMITH.—The last Portmouth

Mack R. Barnitz, Subscription Book

Publisher, 38 and 40 West Fourth Street.

Self-made man, and men who are the Architects of their own fortunes, are of rather profuse growth in this glorious Republic of ours. In Europe, the chances are comparatively few for men to rise above the condition of their ancestors, though, we cheerfully admit, that in the United Kingdom—and, also, in France—there are many living illustrations of what men of energy, talent, tact, prudence and perseverance, may accomplish under the most untoward and adverse circumstances. But it is, in this country, pre-eminently, that fortunes are being
