the cheapest and best Metal Roofing now in use.
We call the attention of Railroad Companies to it as being very superior for covering Railroad Cars, covered without removal. It is lighter and more

MEDICAL.
DR. G. W. PHILLIPS'
Magic Cough Syrup
Is the only reliable remedy for the rapid and permanent cure of Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Hooping Cough, Sore Throat, Bleeding Lungs, and all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Chest. This remedy is safe, reliable, and the only one that has proved itself a universal remedy for all the above diseases. The testimonials published are from our most distinguished citizens here at home, who have been cured by its magic power.
Important Testimony.
From Hon. W. Chapman, Judge of First Judicial District, Indiana.
Dr. G. W. PHILLIPS, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup," personally and in my family, and having seen its effects in numerous instances of severe colds and coughs, I most cheerfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in consumption, would be effectually arrested.
In fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obtain this remedy, being thus afflicted.
Respectfully yours,
W. W. CHAPMAN.

Court of Cincinnati.
Dr. G. W. PHILLIPS, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Your Mixture has been used with great success in my family.
I have used it in numerous instances of severe colds and coughs, and in all such cases, it has proved itself a most reliable and efficacious remedy. I feel confident that it is the best remedy for all such affections of the throat and lungs. Many of my neighbors who have felt the good effects of this medicine, assure me that they regard it with great favor.
Respectfully yours,
B. STOROR.

New and Invaluable Remedy for the Cure of Rupture.
A CERTAIN CURE.
The undersigned prepares a Plaster out of Swiss Alpine herbs, which he can recommend to all suffering from Rupture, as a remedy which will cure this disease in the oldest cases, in a short time, without pain. Having proved its most wonderful efficacy during many years' practice in Switzerland and Germany, he would invite all ruptured persons to give it a fair trial. One pot of it (the price of which is $3) will effect a cure in most cases. It is for sale at A. TAPPEL'S Drug Store, north-east corner of Sixth and Main streets, Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE PRESS.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6
SIR GORE AND THE PRESIDENT.—Mr. Buchanan is greatly perplexed at being duped by Sir Gore Ouseley, for he has at length reached the point of admitting the deception, though it is but a few weeks since his special organs, the Herald and Union, asserted that he had every thing was working smoothly, and England was acting in good faith, and that our relations in Central America were about to be established on the best possible footing. All who expressed doubts were rebuked as cavillers. Now the whole story is out, and we are sold as usual, and that, too, at a very cheap price—not enough in fact to pay for our own national paper.
Like the Spartans, who punished for the detection and not for the crime, the President is most concerned at the publicity which has been given to his folly. Sir Gore Ouseley regularly bamboozled him from first to last; and, after setting various dinners at the White-house, he promised to make the British Embassy a counterpart of the Cass-Yissari, which was voluntarily accepted as the model, and then went to Nicaragua for the purpose of disposing of every pretense of right there, by in-serting an article in his own treaty for the exportation of filibusters, and requiring Nicaragua to incorporate it in our original treaty, under the pretense that it would be promptly and indignantly rejected by the Administration.
Having perfected his work in Nicaragua, Sir Gore has now gone over to Costa Rica, for the purpose of assimilating his diplomacy there.
Meanwhile, the President is much excited, and threatens to assert our original claims under the Clyton-Bulwer Treaty. But as England has very distinctly signified that, if we return to that position, she will assert and maintain her construction at every hazard, it is not likely he will long adhere to this inclination. In a fit of humor, our Minister may be recalled, and diplomatic relations may be severed, and the recent example in Mexico, that capacious experiment will hardly pay; so that in the long run, the chances are—the Central American question will be bequeathed to the new Opposition Administration.—N. Y. Tribune.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—Read the following from the Bucyrus Forum of a recent date:
"James Hardy, a school-teacher, was fined $15 and costs, for an assault and battery upon the person of one of his scholars, a Miss Elizabeth Ann Stout, aged sixteen years. She attended school a few days, and then staid away two months, at the end of which time she returned to school. Hardy claimed—though there was no evidence to show the fact—that on the 17th of November Miss Stout had told some person that she had gone to school on that day and met Hardy, and complained to him of having a sore throat, whereupon he advised her to go home. This Hardy declared to be untrue, and thought it an offense for which punishment should be administered. So, when Miss Stout returned to school, on the 17th of January, Hardy called her to task for the alleged outrage. She denied having said what she was charged with, whereupon Hardy proposed to her that she must either declare that she had lied, take a whipping or leave school. She replied that she would leave school, but he then refused to let her go. A wattle was sent for and brought in, which was some five feet in length. This Hardy warmed in the school, and whipped her on the floor, to toughen it. He then took Miss Stout into a recitation room and asked her to confess that she had lied. This she refused to do, declaring that she would not confess to a lie. The whip was then applied with vigor, until the victim was compelled to acknowledge that she was sorry.
Her dress was badly cut, and the whip, her back and arms were welled over, and the blood flowing from a wound inflicted. On the next day Dr. Martin measured over eleven feet, in the aggregate, of distinct stripes on her back and arms, and said there was evidence of many others which he did not measure."

CONTRIBUTORS FOR FRESH AND BLOOD.—Last Friday evening, at the close of the Rev. Dr.
Cheever's weekly lecture, he introduced to the congregation a white woman and her little boy. He stated that they, with four other children of his complexion, had been sold to a trader, who had been generous enough to give the mother a furlough from the 3d of January to the 1st of April, for the purpose of consideration of which he would tender to the mother and her offspring the right to property in themselves. The little boy stood on the table, in front of the pulpit, and his mother by his side on the platform. Dr. Cheever said that $800 had already been raised, $300 of which were contributed by the Rev. H. W.
Beecher's Church; $200 would complete the amount, and it was important that it should be raised immediately. At once the sum of $140 was donated, leaving but $60 to be raised.

NEW OPERA.—Verdi is now engaged in writing an opera, the story of which is taken from the awful history of Beatrice Cenci. This is quite a characteristic of Verdi, who, as he delights in the romantically-terrible to a degree which no other composer has shown, has now found a theme that can not be surpassed for intensity of horror. What Shelly was unable to render presentable as a tragedy, Verdi will probably make popular by disguising in soft music, drowning, no doubt, all the most fearful passages by his tremendous orchestra, and so full of fortissimo as to almost crush at times the delicate ear. The solos written for the heroine (soprano, of course), are pronounced by an eminent musical critic of Vienna to be full of exquisite sweetness, closely resembling the style of Bellini. A prayer in the opera, after Beatrice has been sentenced to death, and her father's purpose, is said to be the most admirable piece of music the author has ever composed.

COLORED PEOPLE INVITED TO HAYTI.—A Haytian paper extends the following invitation to the black race scattered through North and South America:
"Hayti is the common country of the black race. Our ancestors, in taking possession of it, were careful to announce in the constitution that they published, that all the descendants of Africans, and of the inhabitants of the West Indies, belong of right to the Haytian family.
The idea was grand and generous.
"Listen then, all you negroes and mulattoes, who, in the vast continent of America, suffer from the prejudices of caste! The Republic calls you; she invites you to bring to her your arms and your minds. The regenerating work that she undertakes interests all colored people and their descendants, no matter what their origin, or where their place of birth." THE CREVASSE.—The New Orleans Picayune says: "Will not the authorities of Vicksburg have some observations made in regard to the effect of the crevasse at White's upon the height of the river above and below it? Valuable facts may be recorded by such observations." The Vicksburg Sun, of the 1st, replies: "Although the crevasse is now two hundred yards wide, it has had no perceptible effect upon the height of the river above and below. In fact, it is scarcely 'a drop in the bucket,' and is not felt by the Mississippi." THE POPULATION OF TEXAS, as given by the late census, shows a total of 458,620, of whom 138,285 are slaves, 290 free negroes, and the balance whites. In 1850 its total population was 212,492. The whole number of acres under cultivation is 1,949,315.

Charles Dickens announces his new periodical to appear on the 30th of April, with the singular title, All Round the Year.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.—In the Senate, on Monday, the executive nominations were all confirmed, without dissent, except that of Cyrus Mendenhall, of Jefferson, as Director of the Penitentiary, which was rejected, twelve Senators voting for the nomination and twenty-one against it.
Mr. Harrison's House bill to amend the act for the punishment of crimes, known as "the seduction bill," passed the Senate, twenty-four to eight.
The two houses rescinded the resolution to adjourn sine die to-day, and appointed Wednesday, the 6th inst., as the day of adjournment.
A bill to lease the canals is expected to be introduced into the House this afternoon, letting them for ten years to the highest bidder, and requiring bonds of $10,000 of each bidder,
and requiring bonds of $10,000 of each bidder, and not without being well guarded. If it should become a law, the canals are to be leased in lots.

There are several committees of conference to adjust differences between the two houses on sundry bills.
The Cincinnati papers are great on "consolation items." Says the Boston Herald: "A rather unenviable notoriety in our opinion." The locusts are beginning to come up in Virginia, and in several instances have proved fatal to the horses who eat them.
The highest mountains in the world are the Emperors Mountain, at Chatsworth, England, 287 feet; and at Caspel, 190 feet; one at St.
Cloud, 160 feet; and one at Versailles, 90 feet.
Richard Sharpe, Esq., has been appointed Register of the Land Office for the State of Kentucky, in the place of Andrew McKinley, Esq., resigned.

The Sumner Beacon says that Mrs. Tully, a lady living near Cayuga Falls, was killed on Thursday last, by being thrown from a wagon while the horses were running away.
Negro slavery is fully recognized, and property in slaves fully protected, by a recent act of the New Mexican Legislature. This act passed unanimously in one branch, and without a dissenting vote in the other.
Mr. W. H. Smith sold at auction, a few days ago, his grass-land, (a portion of the Gist estate), in Clarke County, Ky., to Mr.
George Owens, of Bourbon, at $55 per acre, upon the usual payments.

The Anderson Central Texian mentions a negro man in that town who is one hundred and twenty years old. He was at the battle of Guilford Court-house, and has a vivid recollection of the scenes of that day. He is a hale old man.
The Hon. Robert J. Walker has had Mr.
Buchanan's letter to him, when Governor of Kansas, photographed, as a protection against accidents. It is full and emphatic on the question of submitting the constitution to the people.

The first carriage said to be built in America was made in Dorchester, Massachusetts, by a man named White, for a private gentleman in Boston. It was copied from an English chariot, though made much lighter, and was a credit to its maker.
About a year since, Sarah J. Gould, of Lewisville, St. Lawrence County, a school-teacher, was murdered by Jas. E. Eldridge, a young man who was thought to be engaged to her in marriage. He was tried and convicted of the murder; but a new trial was ordered, which was soon to have taken place; but he died of consumption in the Canton jail, on the 24th.
He left a written statement of what he called the facts in the case, which is soon to be published.

The gold coinage at the United States Mint for the month of March was $119,519. The silver coinage was $108,000 in half and quarter-dollar pieces; $27,000 worth of cents were coined, making the entire value of the coinage for the month $254,519, covering 3,095,537 pieces. The bullion deposited during the month was as follows: Gold, $67,000; silver, $86,825; Spanish coin, in exchange for new cents, $26,805; and of copper, $5,135—making a total of deposits, of $177,775.
Our dispute with Paraguay, says the N. Y.
Times, seems to be assuming a much more formidable aspect than was anticipated, judging from Commissioner Bowlin's dispatches to the State Department. He writes that the sympathies of all the South American States are in favor of Paraguay, in which case Lopez will probably be emboldened to make a desperate resistance to our demands. Mr. Bowlin, however, expresses a hope that matters will be amicably arranged.

HEALTH PRECAUTIONS AT NORFOLK.—The Board of Health of Norfolk have resolved to enforce quarantine regulations from and after the 1st of April, providing that, after that date, heretofore. They have also directed the citizens to clean out their cellars, attics, lofts, and use plenty of lime. The precautions are taken in consequence of the unusual forwardness of the season, which is likely to produce infectious diseases in tropical latitude.
ROBBERY AT BELLEPOINT.—A store at Belle-point, Delaware County, O., in which the Postoffice is kept, was robbed on Thursday night of about $2000 worth of merchandise.
The letters were all opened, and those which contained money, with their contents, were pocketed by the burglars. Part of the goods were discovered the following day in a stable-loft in the village. A letter containing money addressed to this establishment is amongst the missing.—Columbus Fact.

THE OHIO CANALS.—Judge Rankin, of Franklin, introduced into the House, on Monday, an amendment to the bill making appropriations for the Public Works, providing that, after due notice, the revenues and the works should be leased for a term of ten years, to the highest bidder, or bidders, at a public auction to be held in front of the State-house on the 14th day of May next. It was laid on the table to be printed, and is the next special order in the House.

FASHIONABLE SHOPLIFTING.—The lady of an ex-Member of the Legislature from Union County, was arrested on Thursday, at a store in Delaware, in the act of purloining articles of dry goods. When accused of the theft, she denied the charge, but the unquestionable evidence of her guilt was found on her person.
The lady was arrested and taken before a magistrate, where she gave her name as Mary Smith. Her real name was subsequently discovered. What could be effected five minutes before by entreaty or threats of the police, was accomplished by the wife without a word.
Two or three other young women made their appearance soon after, and singled out more of the participants in a similar manner, who also obeyed as if by magic, and the crowd dispersed.

INFLUENCE OF WOMAN.—The New Haven News says that last Sunday evening a body of noisy and drunken fellows were creating a disturbance, which threatened to become a serious affray, when a young woman, without bonnet or shawl, made her appearance in the crowd, and walking directly into the thickest of the mob, took a young man, who had been foremost in the disturbance, by the arm and quietly led him into the house. There was no resistance. What could be effected five minutes before by entreaty or threats of the police, was
accomplished by the wife without a word.
obeyed as if by magic, and the crowd dispersed.
