THE elongated countenances of the army of applicants for a position on the police force when they received the announcement yesterday, at the City Buildings, of the resignation of the Police Commissioners, can not be portrayed on paper. AMUSEMENTS.

THE OPERA.—This evening is set apart for the benefit of the charming M'le Wilhoist, who offers for the amusement of her patrons an exceedingly attractive performance of opera and ballet. Donizetti's far-famed La Figlia Del Regimento, or, The Daughter of the Regiment, will be presented, with M'le Wilhoist as "Maria," a character, it is reported, in which she has no equal. Mr. Squires as "Louis," and Amadio as the "Sergeant." A grand divertissement, entitled La Maja De Seville, in which M'le Franco and a host of terpsichorean artists appear, will be offered in complete ballet character. The entertainment will conclude with the famous comic scene from L'Elisir D'Amore, in which M'le Wilhoist appears as "Adino," and Sig. Barilli as "Dulcamara." The attraction for a full house to-night is immense, and we hope the fair beneficiary may have a peculiarly profitable benefit.

NATIONAL THEATER.—The attractive feature at this establishment is the new play of Extremes Meet; or, Men of the Day. As we have before spoken of the merits of this play and the manner of its rendition, it would be superfluous to again attempt a criticism. We would simply remark that it is well written, abounding in sentiment, pathos and humor, and replete with stage effect. It will be repeated to-night.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—The inimitable burlesques produced by the Buckley Troupe at Wood's Theatre, have, since their commencement, nightly attracted large audiences. Last night Cinderella was rendered in an effective manner, and the audience manifested their hearty approbation by roars of laughter and the most unbounded applause. To-night, in connection with their concert, the Buckley will give their burlesque of Norma, which will undoubtedly attract another crowded house.

THE ULLMAN CONCERT LAST EVENING.—The last concert of the world-renowned Carl Formes, with M'le Laborde and Poinset, was attended last evening by a very select and fashionable audience. The performance of each of these artists was hailed continually during the evening with immense applause. They acquitted themselves in highly creditable manner, and we feel safe in saying that no troupe ever left our city under more favorable auspices for crowded houses should they ever return to our city. We understand that Mr. Formes will give another series of concerts in this city during May.

THE DEMISE OF THE OLD CITY COUNCIL.—Previous to the adjournment of the City Council last night, several of the members were vociferously called upon to deliver themselves of a speech upon the occasion of the demise of the Board. Mr. Hassaurek soared into the clouds, and complimented the Board and himself upon the labors they had performed. Mr. Torrence elaborated in the genuine independent spread-eagle style, and claimed that his mission was to save the country and keep other people's fingers out of the City Treasury. Mr. Marshall felt satisfied that he had discharged his duty, and apologized for pitching into brother Hollister.

Mr. Weanor maintained his integrity of purpose, regretted his errors, and felt contented. Mr. Gaines regretted exceedingly that other duties called him to separate from the Board, and would retire gracefully. Mr. Puthoff made a thrilling and splendid oratorical effort, maintaining his unswerving faith in the Democratic party, and his own industrious efforts for the benefit of his constituency and the citizens at large. Mr. Groves congratulated himself that he had not said much, but had voted right.

AS ONE of the boarders at the Dennison House approached his room, about ten o'clock last evening, he was greatly surprised to find the door partly ajar, and upon entering, discovered a man secreted under the bed. He immediately ran out into the hall and, closing the door, held fast and gave the alarm, which brought quite a crowd to his assistance. Mr. E. B. Dennison ran up and, upon learning the facts, arrested the intruder. He gave his name as Charles Marshall, and stated that he had made a mistake in the room. When arrested, he was in his shirt-sleeves and stocking-feet. He was locked up in Hammond-street Station-house, where he told another story. As he will have a hearing in the Police Court this morning, we forbear further comment.

THE weekly report of the City Auditor, presented to the Council last night, exhibits that warrants had been drawn to the amount of $18,826 58. There is remaining in the City Treasury—

General Fund.....$22,524 04
Watch Fund.....25,544 71

THE Tax County Commissioners, yesterday, ordered the County Auditor to advertise for proposals for furnishing ice for the Court-house.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY PRESS.

The Sickles Trial.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—It is confidently expected that the jury will be completed to-day. Talesmen have been summoned from the rural portion of the district.

The proceedings of yesterday were indicative of the public sentiment of this city. Seventy-one out of seventy-four persons had opinions so fixed and decided that they could not trust themselves to act impartially. Where questions were asked, it appeared that these opinions were not as to the killing, but as to a justification.

The defense would not have challenged any of the jurors.

The prisoner's father-in-law and many New York friends were in Court, evincing sympathy. Among them was Mr. McClay, member of Congress.

The body of the Court-room was crowded, and deep interest was manifested in the proceedings.

The Court, on being opened at a quarter-past ten o'clock this morning, the names of the eight jurors already sworn were called, and all answered.

The prisoner is in the box, looking calm and self-possessed. The clerk proceeded to call the talesmen.

Robert M. Coombs had both formed and expressed an opinion in regard to the guilt or innocence of the accused.

In reply to a question from Mr. Phillips, he said that he had formed an opinion from what he had heard and read. He never conversed with the witnesses for the prosecution.

District Attorney—That is, as far as you know?
Juror—Certainly.

District Attorney—I should think so, for no one knows who are to be the witnesses.
Juror—I don't think that there could be any evidence produced to change my opinions—my mind is fully made up.

Judge—I suppose so; you may retire.
Charles W. Havens had formed and expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused.

Mr. Phillips—My opinion was formed on mere rumor. I do not know that I could discharge the duties as a juror. My mind is made up on the matter. Disqualified.

George W. Hinton had formed an opinion so fixed that he thinks he could not render a fair verdict.

Wm. H. Arnold thinks that he has formed an opinion; felt a strong sympathy in the case; feels that he has expressed an opinion, and feels himself unqualified as an impartial juror.

Judge—I should think so, after your declaration of sympathy. Retire.
G. M. Giddall had formed a decided opinion.

Mr. Phillips—On what has that opinion been founded?
The District Attorney submitted that, after the answer of the juror, further examination is unnecessary.

Mr. Phillips thought that this formation of opinion amounted to nothing, if the opinion was founded on mere rumor. If the witness could sit as an impartial juror, the formation of an opinion would not disqualify him. If every man is to be excluded because he has formed an opinion, they would never get a jury. A man who had formed an opinion could still sit as an impartial juror, and is as qualified as if he had never heard of the case at all. The prosecution by preventing further question would thwart the course of justice.

The Judge himself has formed an opinion more or less decided, but the question is, are you an impartial juror? can you sit as an impartial juror? There is no principle of law, and certainly none of common sense, which excludes a juror because he had formed an opinion on mere rumor, if, notwithstanding that opinion, he thinks he can give a fair and just verdict.

The opinion of the juror may be weak or strong. If the juror answers that he can try the case with impartiality he may be sworn, as several of the jurors have so answered; but where the juror answers that he has decided an opinion, he is certainly disqualified. The juror has formed a decided opinion, and therefore is incompetent.

Mr. Stanton—Will the Court decide that the prisoner has no right to question the juror as to the ground of his opinion?
Judge—Oh, certainly not.

Mr. Stanton—The reason for this is, doubtless, the inadequacy of compensation. There is also a scarcity of jurors, surgeons and marines, owing, in part, to the requirements of the Paraguay expedition.

It is asserted in unusually reliable quarters that after September 30 next, the mails will be carried between New York and San Francisco by the Nicaragua instead of the Panama route, the contract to continue until June 30, 1860, the end of the present fiscal year, leaving Congress to determine, in the mean time, what shall be done after that date. The authority for this contract is claimed under the law of 1845.

Fire at Columbus—Fifteen or Twenty Persons Injured.

COLUMBUS, April 6.—The dry-house of the Tub and Pipe Company was destroyed by fire this afternoon. From fifteen to twenty persons were badly scalded and bruised. They were standing on a platform, about fifteen feet from the ground, when the heat and steam burst open the large folding-doors of the building, with an explosion like that of a boiler, forcing the men off the platform with burning timbers. Many are seriously injured; two, it is supposed, fatally.

A New Movement on Cuba.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Courier Des Etats Unis repeats its former assertion that a new expedition for the conquest of Cuba is now on foot; also asserts that part of the expedition has already sailed, and that within a few days the whole affair will be made public. The plan, as sketched by the Courier, is to land on some remote point of the coast of Cuba, where they are to maintain themselves until a general rising of the Island shall summon them to march upon Havana.

Settlement of the Paraguay Difficulties.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Herald has intelligence from Montevideo to the 10th of February, seventeen days later, announcing a peaceful adjustment of the difficulties with Paraguay. Through the friendly offices of President Urquiza of the Argentine Confederation. The precise terms of the settlement are not stated, but it is known that ample indemnity has been conceded to the family of the person killed on the steamer Water Witch, and to the American Company, represented by Mr. Hopkins.

Municipal Election.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The election in Brooklyn yesterday resulted in the success of the whole Democratic ticket. The majority for Mr. Powell, the candidate for Mayor, is three thousand.

Large Fire at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 6.—The Lower Levee Cotton Press, containing 10,000 bales of cotton, took fire this morning. The fire spread to the four squares adjoining, containing about seventy houses, which are still burning. The loss will reach nearly a million dollars.

MARKETS.

Cincinnati Produce Market.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 6.
FLOUR—The market was more animated to-day, there being some demand for all contracts. The sales were 2,000 bushels, super at $3 40, do. do. at $2 50, and some extra at $2 75. Flour at $1 00.

WHEAT—The market is dull and prices low. Sales of 500 bushels at 85¢. Flour at $1 00.

RYE—There is no important change in the market. About 1,000 bushels were bought to fill a contract, at 87¢, and a contract for the same amount was settled at that rate. 20,000 lbs. bulk shoulders sold at 6¢, delivered. Nothing done in Bacon; it may be quoted at 8¢ and 8½¢, though holders must case ask 7 and 8, and is quoted in Lard, and it may be quoted nominal at 10¢, &c. the latter the selling rate.
