DR. G. W. PHILLIPS'
Magic Cough Syrup
Is the only reliable remedy for the rapid and permanent cure of Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Hooping-cough, Croup, Sore Throat, Bleeding Lung, and all kinds of throat and lung affections. It is effective, safe, reliable, and the only one that has provided a universal remedy for all the above diseases. The testimonials published are from our own distinguished citizens here at home, who have been cured by its magic power.

Important Testimony.
From Hon. J. W. Chapman, Judge of First Judicial District, Indiana. MAR 20-1859.
Dr. Geo. W. Phillips, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup," personally in my family, and having seen its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs, I most cheerfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested.
In fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obtain this remedy, but to purchase it.

Respectfully yours,
J. W. CHAPMAN.
Read This, Also.
From Hon. B. Storer, LL. D., Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati. CINCINNATI, Dec. 5, 1858.
Dr. G. W. Phillips.—Dear Sir: Your Cough Mixture has been used with great success in my family. It is a most safe and efficient preparation for the cure of ordinary colds, as well as of chronic coughs of the throat and lungs. Many of my neighbors, who have felt the good effects of this medicine, assure me that they regard it with great favor.
Respectfully,
B. STORER.

New and Invaluable Remedy for the Cure of Rupture.
A CERTAIN CURE.
The undersigned prepares a Plaster out of Swiss Alpine herbs, which he recommends to all suffering from Rupture, as a remedy which will cure this painful disease in the oldest of cases, in a short time, without pain. Having proved its most wonderful effects during many years' practice in Switzerland and Germany, he would invite all ruptured persons to give it a fair trial. One pot of it (the price of which is $3.) will effect a cure in most cases. It is for sale at A. T. Felt's Drug Store, north-east corner of Sixth and Main streets, Cincinnati.

FRIDAY.....APRIL 8

Another Board of Police Commissioners Appointed.—The Mayor Declines to Serve with the Police Judge and City Auditor.

Yesterday morning, at ten o'clock, the Police Judge and City Auditor waited upon Mayor Thomas, and requested him to call a meeting of the delegated powers to create a Board of Police Commissioners, when the Mayor peremptorily refused.

Judge Pruden and Auditor McGibbons organized a meeting, the former being Chairman and the latter Secretary, and proceeded to the transaction of business. After the organization a preamble was introduced and adopted, from which we make the following abstract: "WHEREAS,
The new Police law makes it the duty of the Mayor to call a meeting of the Judge of the Police Court and City Auditor as soon as possible, to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignation of Messrs. Hulbert, Rule, Unsicker and Marsh, Police Commissioners, and WHEREAS, He having failed to call such meeting, the Judge of the Police Court and Auditor met in the office of the Mayor and signified their readiness to fill said vacancies."

The Mayor took no part in the proceedings.
Judge Pruden said that the object was to give the constitutionality of the new law a thorough test, and that the only way to do it was to appoint the Commissioners. He thought that if the law was to fall dead, the city would lose over $150,000 per annum through the office of City Marshal.

The following Board of Commissioners was then appointed: George Hatch, George C.
Sargeant, Francis Beresford, and Chas. W.
West.

Whether the Commissioners will appoint a new police force, we are as yet unadvised.

HUGH JACKSON presented himself before the Police Court yesterday morning with a battered and bruised head, charging Mary Delany and Joseph See with assaulting and beating him, with intent to take his life. Mary invited Hugh to an oyster supper, and at the conclusion of the entertainment she commenced a demolition of the table service upon the cranium of the unfortunate Hugh, manfully assisted by Joseph. The defendants were committed, in default of $300 bail each, to answer before the Common Pleas Court.

The adjournment of the Ohio Legislature took place Wednesday. The Zanesville Courier, of Monday, believing that the important event would not be delayed beyond that day, thus expresses its gratitude: "To-day—let us be thankful—is the time appointed for the final dissolution of the present Legislature. Of its works it may be truly said, that what were new were not good, and what were good were not new. Take it all in all, we ne'er shall look upon its like again—and never want to. Vale!"

The Board of Local Inspectors, who have been in session in this city for some several days, have concluded their investigation of the collision between the steamers Nat Holmes and David Gibson. The license of Wm. Irwin, pilot of the Gibson, was revoked, and Mr. Conway, pilot of the Holmes, was exonerated from all blame.

CHARLES MARSHALL, who was captured under a bed in the Dennison House, night before last, was before the Police Court yesterday. He asserted that his intention was not criminal, but the Judge, thinking differently, sentenced him to thirty days imprisonment in the City Prison.

JOHN ARMSTRONG and Thomas Pendergraft undertook to pass a five-dollar bogus bill at Dr.
Wilmerton's saloon, night before last, but led to their being arrested and, further, in their commitment, in default of $400 bail each, to await the action of the Common Pleas Court.

NIGHT before last Cornelius Sullivan, living in the lower part of the city, beat his wife in a most cruel and unmerciful manner. He was arrested and held in $500 bail for examination on Saturday—the wife being unable to appear in consequence of her injuries.

JOHN HENRY, an employe in a German tailorshop, on Broadway, appropriated unto himself a pair of shears, valued at $8.50, for which offense Judge Pruden yesterday fined him $20 and costs, with the admonition to pay up and sheer off.

JOHN A. BAKER, who was fined $10 in the Police Court yesterday morning, for stealing a willow basket from the steamer Tennessee Belle, is not the newly-elected Wharfmaster, although of the same name.

A COATLESS person, named Henry Jones, was sent to the chain-gang yesterday by the Judge of the Police Court for thirty days, for stealing a coat from that ubiquitous individual, John Smith.

The residence of Mr. J. R. Blakemore, No.
14 David street, was burglariously entered yesterday morning, about five o'clock, and robbed of the extensive sum of one dollar, all in cash.

MR. WASSERICH, City Auditor elect, has selected Mr. H. H. Schultz as his first Assistant Clerk. Mr. George Stackhouse will, we understand, be appointed second Assistant.

The rooms of the Pilots' Association of this city have been removed from Manchester Building to Front street, between Main and Sycamore.

It is generally rumored that Mr. Chas. S.
Botts, the present efficient clerk of Mayor Thomas, will be retained in office by Mr.
Bishop.

The Hamilton County Teachers' Association meets at the High-school building, in Cum-minsville, on Saturday, at half-past one o'clock and spent the night in the guard-house.

The "Washing-day" has had to be given up, in Boston, until the serious breach which recently occurred in the Cochituate Water-works is repaired.

The Calhoun (Miss.) Independent of the 16th ult. says fourteen persons have lately died in the northern portion of Calhoun County of a disease resembling black plague.

It is asserted by statisticians that during the past fourteen years the number of criminals has been trebled. There are now three times as many crimes committed as in 1844.

The Oberlin Slave Rescue Case was commenced in the United States Court at Cleveland, on Tuesday last, before Judge Willson. The trial will occupy some three or four days.

It is stated in the Boston Cultivator that cotton

Indian Affairs, but the appointments will probably not be made for a week to come.

The cause of the disappearance of Mr. Yeager, the merchant, from Easton, Penna., remains as much a mystery as ever. It is now the opinion that he did not visit New York on business, as was at first asserted.

The workshops and houses on Punta Arenas, belonging to the Accessory Transit Company, were swept away by the sea. Graytown harbor is rapidly filling up, the entrance being narrowed to less than forty feet.

A fire occurred at St. Louis, on Monday, which destroyed two houses, one of which and the other frame. The loss by the former is $2,500, by the latter about $1,000, besides furniture to the value of $1,500.

An itinerant knife-grinder, at Chicago, on Monday last, wishing to save his dog, who had crouched on a railroad track as the train was approaching, rashly dashed forward, and was killed by the locomotive, as well as the dog.

A man named Cayler, and his three sons, have been arrested at Dayton, Ohio, charged with conspiracy to throw a train of cars from the track, located at Fallston, Pa., to get pay for cows that had been killed on the road.

A "gentlemanly" person in Millville, N. Y., presented his neighbor for trespass, the of-fendant being a pretty lass of "sweet sixteen," and the trespass a mark on the plaintiff's fence with a lead pencil.

Mr. Nathan Singer, a farmer residing about a mile from O'Bannon's Station, in Jefferson County, Ky., was instantly killed, on Saturday last, by the accidental discharge of his gun while blowing in it to ascertain, it is supposed, whether or not it was loaded.

The Dublin Nation says: "The rumor that Dr. Cullen has been elevated to the College of Cardinals, is correct. He is, however, to remain at Rome and be attached to the Propaganda. Dean Kieran, of Dundalk, will succeed him in the Archbishopric of Dublin.

The Neapolitan exiles landed in Ireland are professional men, with few exceptions, and men of liberal education. There are among them—lawyers, 11; doctors, 7; apothecaries, 8; no-taries, 4; gentlemen, 14; clergy, men, 7; tavern-keepers; 2; chemists, 2; artists, 5.

On Wednesday night last an Irish deck passenger walked aboard from the steamer Ennieue, a short distance above Parkersburg.
He was most probably drowned, though every effort was made to save him. His name is not known.

Mr. Morphy has just achieved another great chess triumph in Paris. His antagonist was the President of the London Chess Club, and the result was seven games for Morphy, one drawn, and none for his opponent. It is said that he will not visit Berlin.

At the conclusion of the trial of James Stephens, in New York, for the murder of his wife, his little girl, six years old, turned toward him, and kissing him, said: "Come, pa! let us go now, it is all over; see, pa! the people are going." Every one present was affected.

On Tuesday, the remains of the unfortunate Pender were conveyed on board the mail-boat, Telegraph No. 3, to be sent to Pittsburg, where his friends and relatives reside. He was shot down without a moment's warning. Alex.
Gillmore was delirious from the effects of the wound in his forehead.

At the Indianapolis Bible Investigating Meeting, on Sunday, a gentleman made the starting statement (to those that believe it) that the Millennium was to commence during the present month, April, 1859, and promised to produce the figures to prove it at the next meeting.

At Cleveland on Tuesday last a lad named Wm. Patrick was sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars, be sent to jail on bread and water ten days, and give bonds for good behavior in two years in bail of two hundred dollars, for assault and battery on his teacher, Mr. Ford.

A stranger presented a draft or acceptance from the firm of J. R. Henderson & Co., New Orleans, at the office of the Allegheny Bank of Pittsburg, on Tuesday, for the sum of $2,000, which was honored. The draft was a forgery, and there is no such house as Henderson in New Orleans.

At a fire in Windsor, Canada, Saturday night, the house of Mrs. Bibb, tenanted by the fugitive slaves Oseawatomie Brown plotted from Missouri, was burnt. On the plantation of their master in Missouri, the fugitives had been in the habit of burning pine-knots for light, and in keeping up the custom in Canada they accidentally set the building on fire.

Mrs. Jones, of Fulton County, Ohio, and another lady, and Mrs. Jones' child, were in a daguerrean gallery, when the little one called for some water, and the lady who accompanied Mrs. Jones took up a bowl of fluid, supposing it to be water, but which proved to be prussic acid, and gave it to the child to drink, which caused death in a few minutes.

"Old Dad," a noted horse, and one well known to all sportsmen and horsemen in Cincinnati, Columbus and other adjacent towns, fell dead in Second street, Portsmouth, O., on Thursday last. He was about eighteen years old, and when put in the harness seemed to be in his usual good condition. His last "time" was 2:45. Mr. U. White had purchased him in Columbus about two weeks ago.

The Lockport Advertiser records the death of an aged couple, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, who died one night last week, within seven hours of each other, and no other cause than old age.

Mrs. P., aged seventy-one years, died at six o'clock on Saturday evening, having complained of illness only a few days previous.
Her venerable escort, aged seventy-nine, breathed his last at one o'clock the ensuing morning.
