THE PRESS.
FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1859.

"HAVE PATIENCE!"
A youth and maid, one winter night,
Were sitting in the woods,
His name, we're told, was Joshua White,
And hers was Patience Warner.

Not much the pretty maid said, Beside the young man sitting,
Her cheeks were flushed a rosy red,
Her eyes bent on her kneeling.

She could be gone with thoughts of him Were he but rising from the kneeling,
As he for Joshua, hushful youth,
His words grew few and fewer;

Through all the time, to tell the truth,
His chair sagged nearer to her,
Meantime her ball of yarn gave out,
She knit so fast and steady;

And must give his aid, no doubt,
To get another ball of wool,
He held the skein; of course the thread Got tangled, snarled and twisted;

"Have patience!" cried he, "dearest girl,
And may I really have her?"
The deed was done no more that night,
Clicked needles in the corner;

"Have patience!" cried he, "dearest girl,
And may I really have her?"
The deed was done no more that night,
Clicked needles in the corner;

That once was Patience Warner.

The St. Louis Directory for this year, just published, gives the population of that city at nearly 100,000.

A building for the education of horse doctors is now going up in the city of New York at a cost of $40,000.

A man in York, Du Page Co., Ill., was bitten three years ago by a dog, and was recently taken with hydrophobia, and has cost the town $250 for the cure given him.

Miss Pantodging says the first time she looked arms with a young man, she felt like Hope leaning on her anther. Poetic young woman, that.

The farmers in Clark county report the fruit crop small. The Ohio Press says: "The wheat never looked better. During the present week hundreds of acres of corn have been planted."

The authorities of Madison, Wisconsin, recently enacted an exterminating dog ordinance, and the next day there was a dead dog every two rods all over that city.

A Cleveland editor says he would walk ten miles any time to see a photograph of a mercantile who was a non-advertiser and at the same time a liberal dealer.

The Southern Baptist Convention met at Richmond, Va., on Friday, and the attendance was large. Dr. Richard Fuller, of Baltimore, was chosen President.

The Cincinnati and Chicago Railroad will soon be finished to Valparaiso, Porter county, where the line intersects the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Road.

An exchange says that a female of that town recently succeeded in attaining a degree of intoxication equal to that of the proverbial female genius companion of an itinerant performer on the violin.

By the burning of ten steamers at Pittsburg not less than three hundred persons are thrown out of employment, viz: 10 captains, 20 pilots, 20 clerks, 20 mates, 30 firemen, 120 deck hands, 60 cabin boys, and 10 chambermaids.

Last evening, a lad named Bergman was accidentally drowned in the river near the Chesnut street bridge. Wm. Miller, in searching for him, slipped on the body of Mr. Phillip March, a brewer, who has been missing for several days.—Mil. Dem. 6th.

At Crawfordsville, Ind., last week, the "Regulator" destroyed the liquors in four retail establishments, and completely riddled two of the houses. They are determined that no whiskey shall be sold by the dram in that place.

The prospect for a heavy crop of wheat this season, harvest, will doubtless soon fall upon the price of flour. The sooner the better for those who have considerable difficulty in procuring the money to pay for the "dust" at present exorbitant prices.

Paul D. May, a writing-master of some celebrity in Utica, N. Y., endeavored to commit suicide on Monday by cutting his throat.
He was discovered in time to prevent his bleeding to death, though it is thought he can not recover. He was laboring under an attack of the delirium tremens.

Pheban declines to accept the challenge of Secreter, for prudential reasons—because he could gain nothing by defeating Secreter over again, while some accident or casualty might injure both his position and his pocket, and to content with a repeat the match.

"Sally," said a young man to a damsel who had red hair, "keep away from me, or you will set me on fire."
"No danger of that," was the answer, "you are too green to burn."

A large Woolen Factory in Watertown, N.
Y., was destroyed by fire last Friday, and a Miss Angelina Sloan, aged twenty-one, killed by jumping from the fourth-story window.
The other persons were severely injured.

The fire raged ground so suddenly the scene, among the inmates is described as fearful in the extreme.

The Decatur (Ind.) Republican says that a child of Irish parents, in that place (Greenburg), died, apparently, a few nights ago, and a coffin was ordered, but by some accident was delayed a few hours, during which time the child recovered, and is now entirely well. But for the accident with the coffin it might have been buried alive.

A writer in the Providence Journal furnishes the following prescription for hydrophobia:—
"Eat the green shoots of asparagus raw, sleep, and perspiration will be induced, and the disease can thus be cured in any stage of canine madness. A man in Athens, Greece, was cured by the use of the remedy after the paroxysms had commenced."

AUCTION SALES.
BY COOPER & STOKES.
Sales Rooms, No. 14 Fourth street.

Great Sale of Leasehold Property—47 Lots in James A. Price's Subdivision on the River Road just below Mill-creek, near St. Michael's Church.

ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON, May 17th, Will be leased at Public Auction, at 3 o'clock, on the premises, forty-seven lots of land in James A.
Price's Subdivision. These lots are situated near St. Michael's Church, and front on Burns street.
They are from 25 to 75 feet front, and from 60 to 90 feet deep.

These lots will be leased for ten years, with the privilege of purchase, at a stated price—thus affording an excellent opportunity to secure lots in a valuable location, since the completion of the Railroad.—Ground Rent, cash, semi-annual payments.

GREAT SALE OF LOTS!
Public Sale on the Ground,
-OF-
SIXTY-SEVEN LOTS!

Containing beautiful sites for Private Residences, in the Town of North Chillicothe, Ross County, Ohio.
Commencing on Tuesday, 31st May, 1859,
At 10 o'clock, A. M.

TERMS—One-third cash, the balance in annual payments to suit purchaser, not exceeding four years. Terms more fully made known on the day.

North Chillicothe is situated at the intersection of the Ohio Canal, with the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad, where a freight station is about being established, less than a quarter of a mile from the City of Chillicothe, which contained in 1851 about 6,500 inhabitants, and is now estimated at 10,000.
The population has doubled.

The site is in the rich and beautiful Valley of the Scioto, where the means of living are cheap and abundant. The facilities at this point for trade and manufacturing are such as are rarely found united. It is connected by Navigation and Railroad with all the great centers of trade, from New York to New Orleans, including London, St. Louis, and all the West and South-west. The great Coal region of Ohio, traversed by both the Railroad and Canal, lies less than thirty miles distant, and furnishes in great abundance several kinds of excellent Coal, at low prices.

For the past eight years of the construction and industry of the country have been paralyzed, and many persons thrown out of employment. We call the attention of these and all others who wish to establish themselves in a home, with a steady and profitable employment, to the great advantages of our location, and of a Commercial and Mutual Aid Association. Our plan is one of entire freedom and independence, in all matters pertaining to the purchase or employment; with aid from the Association to procure his materials, and sell his surplus products in the best markets. Several families have already commenced on this plan.

It is the option of the purchaser to join the Company or not as he may deem best. Suitable buildings, including a school, can be erected for at least 12 per cent on their cost. Attendance will be given and terms fully stated on the day of sale.

$100!—Proclamation!
Wonderful Medical Cures by the Application of Prof. DEGRATH'S ELECTRIC OIL ON MAN AND BEAST.

To the Inhabitants of Philadelphia and Vicinity:
I propose to cure, almost instantaneously, individuals afflicted with Deafness, Headache, Neuralgia, Chill Fever, Ague, Rheumatism, and all forms of Pains.

I propose to check and effectually dissipate morbid acids and pain, and to accomplish repairs and restore perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or any other, methods of medical aid in the same space of time, the masses themselves being judges.

I do not propose to cure by any means, but all such as are curable by any combination of medical applications. My Oil cures all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, electric principles, and is, therefore, applicable to the case of natural restoration of any organic derangement, arising from an improper circulation of the vital fluid.

I want the masses to join in this matter—the well as the sick—because if these things are so, all are interested.
I will perform one of any case of failure to cure, in half an hour to three weeks, as I wish to cure, or charge nothing. Depot, Philadelphia.
