CINCINNATI, FRIDAY, MAY 27.

Politics in Northern Ohio.

The proceedings against the Oberlin rescuers, and their conviction appear to have been the cause of a good deal of excitement in the northern part of the State.

The resolutions of the Cleveland body, under present circumstances have some significance as showing the setting of the party currents of the day.

But the Republican party can not take in this material without being affected by it. It will take as much—probably a good deal more; for the abolitionist will be the most active element—in sentiment.

It will lose upon the other margin. In proportion as its abolition tendencies become palpable, will it suffer from emigration.

A party, to present any claims whatever, should be clean—should stand upon its own ground of plainly-defined doctrine.

The news of the revolution in Tuscany has been in this country some ten or twelve days.

ANOTHER arrival from Europe, and no fighting yet. This is what may be called stirring news.

MILFORD ITEMS.

The fruit crop, so far as we can learn, is perfectly safe in this vicinity. Peaches, apples, cherries, etc., are all perfectly safe.

To those who are not aware of the fact, we would say that the bridge over the Miami River from this place to Montauk is now perfectly safe, having undergone thorough repairs.

We learn that our young and talented fellow-townsmen, John Seelye, Esq., will shortly start on a tour to Europe.

We would say to the community at large, and all others who feel interested, that our streets have, within the past few days, undergone a thorough renovation.

There will be a grand picnic of the various schools of this place, at Gatch's Grove next Friday.

I. C. WOODRUFF, Esq., the obliging and gentlemanly Ticket Agent of the Little Miami Railroad, "over the way," will accept our thanks for courtesies extended on several occasions.

Mr. E. HORNABROOK is the carrier for the Daily Press in Milford. If you wish to subscribe, call on "Ed." at the grocery store of K. Payne, Esq.; or, in other words, "if you want to see —, walk up stairs."

Our friend, "Squire Adams, a few days since authorized one of our 'jovial citizens' named Doyle to arrest and bring before him, any person he might find disturbing the peace, etc.

Flits are generally considered dangerous, but the kind of "Flit" Redman & Durando, Merchant Tailors, 137 Main street, will give you, will have a benign influence upon the mind and body, as long as the finest fabrics will withstand the ravages of time.

In regard to Pictures, if we should try to write a volume in a few words, we would say "BALL & THOMAS, 120 WEST FOURTH STREET."

Daguerrean Gallery, South-West corner of Sixth and Western Row, over Hansford's Drug Store. Pictures taken and put in good cases for 20 cents.

Warranted to please. We understand that the best and cheapest likenesses in the city are to be had only at APPELTON'S Broadway Gallery of Art. They cost only twenty-five cents.

COLUMBUS NEWS.

AT THE CAPITAL. BY OUR OWN REPORTER.

COLUMBUS, May 26—5 P. M.

The Democratic State Convention—Rufus P. Ranney Nominated amid Intense Excitement for Governor.

The Democracy of Ohio assembled to-day at Armory Hall, in this city, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Auditor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Member of the Board of Public Works, School Commissioner, and United States Senator in place of Hon. Geo. E. Fugh.

The city for several days has been tolerably crowded with gentlemen from abroad, and every train arriving yesterday was crowded, until now the city presents a more lively appearance than has been noticeable since the adjournment of the Legislature.

The Convention met at eleven o'clock, and organized by calling Hon. William B. Woods, of Licking, to the chair. The following named gentlemen were appointed Secretaries: Charles B. Flood, of Cuyahoga; W. C. Hood, of Soloto; L. H. Critchfield, of Holmes; B. Brownell, of Cuyahoga; W. C. Hall, of Morrow.

The Committees on Resolutions, Permanent Organization and Credentials, were then appointed, and the first instructed to meet at the office of the Secretary of State, the second at room 107 American, and the third in Armory Hall, immediately after adjournment.

It is rumored that Hon. H. B. Payne has been requested to decline any proffered honor in the shape of a nomination. Last evening the popular feeling seemed to favor the nomination of Hon. A. P. Edgerton, but the stock went down this morning, and the friends of Hon. Rufus P. Ranney are (at noon) more numerous than before.

The lady's theatrical career, however, came to a sudden end. In the year 1848 she married Dr. James Sheridan Mespratt, a distinguished chemist of Liverpool, and retired from the stage to private life. She resided in Liverpool, and died in that city suddenly from the effects of a cold.

A ripe scholar and a good one, says the London Illustrated News, has just passed from among us at a ripe age. He knew more than he could turn to account. It is idle even to think on the knowledge that has departed with him.

On Wednesday, May 26, 1859, by Rev. W. H. Southland, JACKSON STANLEY and BETTIE, daughter of Wm. Cameron, Esq., both of this city.

The following is the Committee on resolutions, being the only Committee we will name, as the others are unimportant: 1st Congressional District, George E. Fugh; 2d J. M. Armstrong; 3d C. L. Vallandigham; 4th Col. J. Darcy; 5th A. J. Taylor; 6th M. Patterson; 7th Durbin Ward; 8th G. F. Stayman; 9th J. W. Payne; 10th E. B. Eshelman; 11th Judge Chaney; 12th G. W. Manypenny; 13th H. C. Bambaek; 14th Hon. William Givens; 15th Charles Johnston; 16th D. A. Bell; 17th J. H. Heaton; 18th E. B. Tyler; 19th H. B. Payne; 20th Wm. Rilesell; 21st Charles W. Allen.

In presenting credentials Perry County had two sets of delegates, one from Somerset, represented by Mr. Cox, member of the late House of Representatives, and the other from New Lexington, represented by Mr. Vanatta, late of the Senate. The contest was a hot one but New Lexington gained the day.

The Committee on Credentials reported, which report, though deemed objectionable by many, was accepted.

The Committee on Organization made a report, from which we extract names of officers. PRESIDENT—Barnabas Burns, of Richland. VICE PRESIDENT—1st district, G. W. C. Johnson; 2d district, W. M. Robb; 3d district, D. Marks; 4th district, S. Scott; 5th district, H. J. Beemer; 6th district, W. R. Kondobash; 7th district, G. B. Gardner; 8th district, J. S. Robb; 9th district, D. Ribbitt; 10th district, Thos. McNally; 11th district, E. Vannatta; 12th district, J. R. Stansbury; 13th district, S. S. Patterson; 14th district, J. Larwell; 15th district, J. Burns; 16th district, A. Taggart; 17th district, W. Spriggs; 18th district, D. O'Brien; 19th district, D. K. Page; 20th district, Jno. R. Woods; 21st district, T. S. Woods.

SECRETARY—Ed. Kinsman, of Cuyahoga, and an assistant from each Congressional district.

The following rules of order were agreed upon: 1st. That the vote shall be taken by counties, in alphabetical order, and viva voce. 2d. That the ordinary parliamentary rules shall govern the Convention.

President Burns took the chair, whereupon the report of the Committee on Resolutions was read. This report we had hoped to give in this letter, and as a reason for not doing so, must state that Dr. Dorsey, of Pickaway County, Chairman of the Committee, permitted the report to be carried from the hall before a single copy had been taken.

The Convention then proceeded to the nomination of Governor, which resulted in the choice of Hon. Rufus P. Ranney, of Portage County. The nomination was made by acclamation, and the hall being densely packed, the excitement and shouts of the multitude was wild and prolonged.

THE HABES CORPUS IN SUPREME COURT.—The arguments in this case were completed at half-past eleven A. M. Yesterday the presumption was fair that longer time would be consumed, but at the conclusion of Mr. Riddle's speech the opposite counsel declined arguing, handing their briefs to the Court. Attorney General Wolcott then commenced the closing argument, which ended at the time above stated. Court reserved the decision, and adjourned until ten A. M. to-morrow.

The closing remarks of Gen. Wolcott were extremely logical and interesting, and the entire argument, consuming as it did nearly five hours, was all addressed to the Court, leaving a favorable impress of the speaker upon the minds of all who were so fortunate as to hear him.

FESTIVALS.—The managers of the Third street Orphan Asylum will hold a festival at Wenger's Hall, on Monday evening, the 30th inst., and the ladies of the Congregational Church will hold a Strawberry festival at the church, corner of Third and Broad streets, on Tuesday evening, the 31st inst.

PERSONAL.—Amos Ramsay, David Taylor, and John G. Decker have been appointed delegates from Montgomery township to the Republican Convention on the 28th inst.

THE CONVICTED EMBROID.—Another meeting of the investigation was held last evening, but nothing new was elicited.

PARADE OF THE SONS OF MALTA.

At eleven o'clock last evening, more than three hundred members of the "mystic tie" formed in procession at their hall on the corner of Town and High streets, and proceeded by an excellent band of music paraded the streets of the city until past midnight, presenting the most grotesque and ungraceful appearance, while at the same time it was one of the most solemn and impressive that we have ever witnessed—perhaps more so than any similar procession ever seen on a public thoroughfare.

THE DEAF AND DUMB RESTITUTE.—The inmates of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, attended by their Superintendent, Prof. Collins Stone, and his assistants, are on a pleasure excursion in the woods to-day.

PENITENTIARY ADDITION.—The contract of supplying stone for constructing the addition to the Penitentiary has been awarded to Wm. Hunter, of Frankinton, and a company in Mansfield. The work is making good headway.

PIC-NIC.—The receipts of the picnic at Goodale Park, for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, amounted to $150. Another went off in fine style at the same place yesterday, under the management of Mr. John Lake.

Liverpool papers of the 11th May announce the death in that city, on the preceding day, of Mrs. Sheridan Mespratt, nee Susan Cushman. Mrs. Mespratt was a younger sister of Miss Charlotte Cushman, by whom she was introduced to the life of an actress. The sisters appeared on the stage together in the United States, some years before the first visit of the elder to England, and divided the public favor. Miss Charlotte Cushman often yielded the principal female characters to her sister, whose grace and beauty fitted her to sustain them, and herself assumed the masculine part. Charlotte left this country for England in 1845, and was followed by Susan in the following year. The sisters acted together at the Haymarket and in the chief provincial towns of Great Britain, especially gaining reputation by their performance of Romeo and Juliet—Miss Susan Cushman sustaining the latter character. The lady's theatrical career, however, came to a sudden end. In the year 1848 she married Dr. James Sheridan Mespratt, a distinguished chemist of Liverpool, and retired from the stage to private life. She resided in Liverpool, and died in that city suddenly from the effects of a cold.

A ripe scholar and a good one, says the London Illustrated News, has just passed from among us at a ripe age. He knew more than he could turn to account. It is idle even to think on the knowledge that has departed with him. We refer to a clergyman of the Church of England—the Rev. John Mitford—an admirably read man, with a cultivated taste for all that is sublime and beautiful in nature, all that is pure and poetic in art.
