IN THE CAMP OF THE ENEMY

New Castle—Manager Billie Smith, with but one or two exceptions, has selected his team for the season. The positions that are in doubt are first and second base. There is more doubt about the first sack than there is about the second. The probable lineup will be:

Brigger and Murby, catchers. Ernest Smith, Steeter, outfielders. Green, third base. Hagen, shortstop. Pinkney and Heffner, second. Schlatter and Feeney, first. Hawk, Steen, Noah, Bowers, Lumlric, Cannitz, pitchers.

Sharon—Manager Kling says he is well pleased with the preliminary work of his Sharonites. Clever and Toley are showing nice form at third base and short. Pitcher Hunt, who is expected to star, will report May 1.

Youngstown—Sam Wright is well pleased with the work of his team during the past week. From now on, it will be a steady grind to get into condition. Most of the men are in fair shape and some are just as good physically as the average ball player is in the middle of the summer. Some improvement is possible, however. Most of the men are working hard, although two or three at first seemed to think the training season was more or less of a joke until Manager Wright joined this idea out of them.

"They'll have to work every day during the rest of the week before the season opens, rain or shine," declared Manager Wright. "If it's too bad to play ball, I'll send them on a run to improve their wind. Charley Star, will lead them a merry chase up and down the railroad tracks, and will wrestle each one of them as they come in."

Lancaster—The official kibosh will be applied by Manager Breen after the game Saturday between the Yankees and the Vets. Red tags bearing 23 will be handed out to several members of the squad and the team will then be in working order for the opening game. Manager Breen has his big stick at the Mitchell ready for use.

Breen is congratulating himself up on having what looks like one of the best and hardest-hitting outfielders in the circuit. Freddy Heller, in left, was the best sacrifice hitter in the league last season, and batted .245. Locke, in center, was the fourth highest batter in the league, with a .299 average, and Curt Elston, in right, hit at a .263 clip. Jimmy isn't exactly satisfied with the showing made by his team against a semi-professional bunch from Columbus on Sunday, the Lanks scoring only two runs against their opponents, and will work them hard this week.

Akron—Dick Nallin is the only Akronite now outside the field. Nallin is two weeks overdue. Nothing has been heard from him for over a week. It is settled that Ted Strood is to go. Manager East phoned his faith in Nick Kahl.

Mansfield—The Tigers have two more exhibition games to play. This afternoon the All Star City League team from Cleveland plays McVey's men. Burt Bicy has been chosen as captain of the Mansfield aggregation, and the men are getting some much-needed practice at the park. The condition of Manager McVey who is ill at a sanatorium here, is said to be improved today.

SMITH RELEASED.
The team worked out this morning at the Fairgrounds and this afternoon is playing a game at the East End grounds. After the morning practice Manager Drumm released William Smith, a catcher and will return him to his home in Philadelphia. Smith is a good ball player but is not yet ripe enough for O. P. company.

DIDN'T KNOW HE WAS SECOND PITCHER.
Not until Thursday evening did Louie Schetter of the Youngstown team know that he was ranked second among the pitchers of the O. & P. league.

One of his fellow players remarked that if his arm hadn't gone lame he would have been the best twirler in the league.

Then the German lad got real busy found a guide and looked it up for himself before he would believe he was the next premier twirler of the league.

"If I had known I was that near I would have thrown my arm off to land in first place," said Louie. "No I wouldn't have done that either. I would have laid off as I should when asked to pitch five games a week. You bet if it had ever occurred to me that I had a chance of being the league's best pitcher I would have worked for the honor."
