SUES ERIE FOR DAMAGE

William Lewellen Asks for $1,900 From Company.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Claimed to Have Befallen Him Near DeCliff.

Small Stone Lying on the Track is Struck by a Locomotive, Hitting the Plaintiff in the Head.

Claiming that he fell the victim of an accident of a most peculiar nature, William Lewellen, a farmer living in the western part of the county, brought suit in the court of common pleas against the Chicago & Erie company this morning. Through his attorneys, H. E. Hill and C. C. Fisher, Lewellen claims damages for $1900 against the railroad company.

Lewellen relates that August 30, 1906, he was operating a gravel train a short distance west of DeCliff, near what is known as Seranton's crossing. Gravel had been carelessly permitted to scatter over the main track and was there when a fast freight ran past. At the time the train passed Lewellen was working near the track, oiling a hoist, or jack. One of the wheels of the engine struck a stone lying on the track, throwing it so that it struck him violently on the head. His frontal bone was fractured and he was otherwise badly hurt, he claims.

The "Lid" cases, brought up from the court of Mayor Scherff, will be argued before Judge Young of the court of common pleas, Friday morning beginning at 8 o'clock. The result of these hearings will be watched with interest.

There are four of these cases all hinging on the alleged violation of Sunday closing law by four local saloonists. When the saloonists were arrested several months ago, Mayor Scherff found them guilty and fined each $100 and costs.

In the bill of exceptions filed in each case, it is charged that Mayor Scherff exhibited a spirit of prejudice and unfairness in conducting the trials. It is charged that his treatment of the saloonists was unfair and biased.

These four saloonists who have taken their cases to the court of common pleas, and who will have hearings, Friday, are Jacob Weber, Frank Kennedy, John O'Keefe and Nelson Able.

Coroner E. L. Brady filed with Court Clerk Klimefelter, Wednesday, reports of his findings in regard to three sudden deaths which occurred during the past few weeks.

John Ritzler was accidentally killed by a C. D. & M. car near Owens, March 24, John Hursey was accidentally cremated, April 17, and James Leach suicided by strangulation in a cell of the city prison, April 26.

In the suit of B. F. Adams against May Summers and others, the several defendants filed pleadings in the court of common pleas, Thursday through their attorneys, Scofield, Durfee & Scofield. Joe L. Chaney filed an answer to the amendment to the cross petition, Chas. H. and May Summers an answer to the amendment to the petition, William Pickeral filed an answer to the amendment to the cross petition, and P. F. Millisor filed an answer to the cross petition. In all of the pleadings the court is asked to dismiss the case.

Mrs. May Kugle has brought suit for divorce against Bert Kugle in the common pleas court of Cuyahoga county. The defendant is now working at a local hospital, where the summons were served by Deputy Sheriff Johnston, Wednesday. His wife charges him with desertion and failure to provide. They have been married eight years.

Alvin H. Colt filed a petition in the court of common pleas, Thursday morning, in his suit against American Insurance company. Colt claims that he held an accident policy issued by the company and that he was hurt the company refused to pay. In the Justice's court he obtained judgment for $54.80 and the insurance company appealed the case.

In the suit of the Morrow county Building & Loan company against Catherine Riley and others, the sale of the Riley property was confirmed by Judge Young, this morning, and the proceeds were ordered distributed. This suit was brought to foreclose a mortgage.

The case of the General Hoeking & Fuel company against the Barnhouse Grain & Seed company has been dismissed. The plaintiff had brought suit on account.

QUALITY COMBINED WITH BEAUTY

Characteristic of the Wayne Pullman Touring Car.

James E. Morse's Big Sixty Horse power Car is Attracting Attention on the Streets

James E. Morse, the factory representative of the Wayne Automobile company, of Detroit, Michigan, is in the city, exhibiting the hand-somest car ever seen upon the streets. It is a sixty horse power Pullman touring car, geared to sixty miles per hour and has seating capacity for seven persons without crowding.

The car has attracted a great deal of attention during the few days it has been seen upon the streets and many are the admiring glances and expressions of envy.

The Wayne car has been rapidly coming to the front during the past few years, but the greatest strides have been made during the last year. A number of contests have been entered with the Wayne and in each it has proven itself equal to all demands made upon it both for speed and endurance. The simplicity of construction is one great recommendation for the car. Every part of the mechanism can be easily reached and is so simple in its construction that any defect can be readily remedied.

Mr. Morse is making his headquarters while in Marion at the garage on North State street.

Little Girls.

All papers in the Buck's junior range contest must be in by noon tomorrow. Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m., the judges will announce the name of the winner, the fortunate little girl who is to have the Buck's junior range.

Miss Rachael Thomas, instructor of Drawing of the Public Schools, Mrs. Gertrude Kling, instructor of Drawing, Mr. Frank Bauer, instructor of Drawing at School of Commerce, will act as judges.

We invite all little girls who have entered the contest—and their friends and mothers—to be at our store tomorrow at 2 p. m. Saturday.

FRESHMAN RHETORICALS

Occupied the Time of High School Pupils This Morning.

The Freshman class of the high school rendered an excellent program of rhetorical before the student body of the school this morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The program opened with a recitation by Estella Grubaugh entitled "A Book." "Daniel Webster" was the theme of a declamation by Edwin Melnhart. Clara Haberman recited "The Seventh Plague of Egypt" while Harold Foster gave a sketch of condition of the Philippines. Gail Everett recited from "Thomas Masaulay" and Earl Douce talked upon the theme, "The Character of Washington." Mary Dickinson gave a reading from the life of John Greenleaf Whittier after which the program was concluded with a recitation "Idle Words" by Clyde McNeil.

Mayor Scherff Offers a List of Suggestions That Will Help in Making the City Beautiful.

The Mayor of Denver, Col., has established a very successful cleaning up for that city, and the Mayor of Marion believes that the suggestions offered by the Denver Mayor should be carried into effect, and as observed in Marion. Some of the pertinent suggestions are:

If your store front, residence or fence is dingy, order it painted.

If your awning is old, torn and faded, get a new one.

If your side walk, gate or fence needs repairing, fix it.

If your advertising sign is old or faded, take it down or paint it.

Resolve never to throw paper or rubbish in the street.

Take all handkerchiefs out of your lawn—they will spoil its beauty.

Destroy the young weeds that are starting on your property, and on your neighbor's property.

Burn no rubbish, paper, etc., on the paved street or alley.

Gather all the tin cans and other indestructible material on your lot or alley and have it taken to the city quarry.

Have the garbage collector come regularly for your garbage.

Promise not to spit on the sidewalk.

Organize a block improvement society, and allow no weeds to grow on the sidewalk area or vacant property in your block.

Ask your milkmen and grocerymen and meatmen and expressmen to have their wagons painted.

Respectively of the size of your house, make your lawn the finest.

Illuminate the front of your store in the business season.

Every effort put forth or dollars spent to improve our city's appearance will be returned twofold.

The pickpockets were working in Marion yesterday and during the excitement that prevailed two good "touch ups" were made.

While J. B. They were getting on the car at the park after the game his pocket book containing $5 and a number of valuable receipts were taken by some one in the crowd. Mr. They had the money that had been taken in at the game in his pockets but the light fingered workers did not get into the right pocket to secure that.

They has no clue to offer the police.

At three o'clock R. L. Osborne, of Prospect, boarded an Interurban car enroute home. There was a big crowd getting on the car at the time and in the shuffle he lost a pocketbook containing $100, a number of checks and other valuables. He did not discover his loss until he had almost reached Prospect. He returned to this city and gave the police a description of a man he suspected of taking it.

Officer Bond later arrested W. E. Nelson, of Ithaca, Mich. His description tallied in part with that given by Osborne and he had several bills of the denomination of those lost by Osborne and issued by the same bank. He was able to prove an alibi that established his innocence beyond any doubt and the police released him.

It is believed that several of the light fingered gentry are working in Marion and the police are doing their best to round them up.

Railroad Notes

Despite Wall Street reports, the Erie is in a very good condition. Recent inspections show a splendid state of affairs, so far as the track and equipment are concerned, except that more cars and engines could be used. The policy of the management is to continue the expenditures for maintenance and smaller improvements made necessary by the increasing business. Heavy new construction work has been discontinued because of money market conditions, but earnings are up to the high water mark of last year and it may be, will show an excess for this year. The Erie earned over and above interest, taxes and dividends last year $2,500,000, of which $2,000,000 was expended in improving the property.

BADLY INJURED

Pearl Brady Falls From His Bicycle Wednesday.

Pearl Brady, an employe of the Marion Steam Shovel Company living on Patterson street, took a header from his bicycle while he was riding home from his work at noon, Wednesday. The fork of his machine broke, causing the accident.

Brady was rendered unconscious, and when he regained his faculties, he said he could remember nothing of the accident. He could not tell where it had happened and was unable to find his bicycle. His face was badly cut and several teeth were loosened.

Toothpicks.

Toothpicks were in common use in ancient Rome. Sometimes they were made of quills, but preferably of the wood of the mastie or lentisk tree, whose astringent and aromatic gum is known to modern dentistry. Martial's epigrams frequently mention the dentiscapulum or toothpick, and recommend the wooden kind above the quill. The toothpick was taken to England by travelers from Italy and France.
