

DR. FERRELL DIES SUDDENLY

Had Been Seriously Ill Only Two Days.

WELL KNOWN PHYSICIAN

Falls a Victim to Uraemic Poisoning.

For Many Years Dr. Ferrell was a Resident of Marion and was Quite Widely Known.

Dr. J. H. Ferrell, one of the best known men in the city, died rather suddenly this afternoon at two o'clock after a two week's illness from uraemic poisoning. Although the doctor had been ill for two weeks his condition did not become serious until two days ago, since which time his decline has been quite rapid.

Dr. Ferrell was born in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, fifty-five years ago. He came to Marion county when he was but a lad and has made his home in this city for many years. Since he began the practice of medicine, he has enjoyed quite a lucrative practice and many are the citizens who will learn with regret of his demise. He was the discoverer of Ferrell's catarrh cure, which is one of the best known proprietary remedies upon the market today.

Beside the wife, three sons, Harry and Frank of Goshen, Indiana, and George, of Fostoria, survive to mourn their loss. Three sisters and one brother also survive. The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

Clubs and Societies

The members of the G. R. C. S. club were pleasantly entertained Thursday evening, by Miss Margaret Nickel at her home on Barnhart street. The evening was passed with cooking demonstrations following which a business session was held. The only guest was Miss Bessie Mason.

The club will meet again the first Thursday of June at the home of Miss Gertrude Gibson.

The Bon Tons were pleasantly entertained, Thursday afternoon, by Mrs. B. E. Kleinmaier at her home on South State street. The afternoon was passed with embroidery work. The only guest aside from the regular club members was Mrs. I. Marx.

The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Charles Clark on Bradford street. Next Tuesday evening members and their husbands will be entertained by Mrs. B. E. Kleinmaier and Mrs. S. G. Kleinmaier at the home of the former.

Mrs. Harry Green of North Main street was hostess to the members and guests of the Y. M. B. club yesterday afternoon. It was the final meeting of the club year and the occasion for the election and installation of new officers and the following persons were named:

Mrs. Frank Beck, president; Mrs. Jacob Rudolph, treasurer and Mrs. Frank Harmon, secretary. Mrs. Green, the hostess and retiring treasurer was presented with two beautiful pieces of hand painted china. At the conclusion of the business, a dainty two course luncheon was served, and a general social time enjoyed.

The guests upon this occasion were Mrs. Wheeler of this city and Mrs. Kelleher of Findlay. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Paddock.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid society met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Stark, of South State street, yesterday afternoon. The attendance was very large. The afternoon was pleasantly passed at needle work and social chat. An elegant two course luncheon, served at 4 o'clock, was a pleasing feature.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the German M. E. Church, met at the home of Mrs. Christ Haberman, of North State street, yesterday afternoon. After transacting the usual monthly business, a social session was enjoyed.

The T. A. B. club met at the home of Miss Cleo Savage on Windsor street last night. Practically all of the members were present and the occasion proved a very pleasant one. A guessing contest was the principal feature in which Miss Ethel Scott captured the first prize. An elegant two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

Miss Anna Schoenlaub of Greenwood street, will be the next hostess.

The Ladies' Aid society of Salem's church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Krauer, of East Church street. Several new members were admitted to the society, a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Ackerman of South Main street.

The Bay View Reading Circle met last night with Miss Jennie Turner, of East Church street. Papers on "Ireland" were read by Miss Hortense Pies, Miss Maude Boyd and Miss Elizabeth Darcy.

The circle will meet next Thursday with Mrs. U. K. Guthery of Pearl street.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips, of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago, I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale at all druggists.

Sweet Alyssum. No white plant makes so charming a border as the Little Gem alyssum. It is charming for edgings, baskets, pots, rock work and for cutting. The seeds may be sown in the open early in the spring or even late in the preceding autumn. It can also be started in pots in the house. For borders the seed should be sown thickly to form masses. Cutting back after the first flower tide strengthens new growth.

VACATION TIME

By Byron Williams.

"Sister" and I were just jolly chums Up in Wisconsin, at "Meadow Farm." She was my "partner," a slender reed; I was her "brother" to shield from harm. "Sister" and I! "Sister" and I were like two old pals. Up in Wisconsin, those summer hours, Care free and glad in the nature nooks, Far to the north with its vine-decked bowers! "Sister" and I! "Sister" and I told our sacred dreams, Skimming the bayous, and then away! Deep in the wood where the great cims grow. Joyous we romped till the dusk of day— Joyous we romped till the dusk of day— "Sister" and I! "Sister's" blue eyes were like summer skies.

I KNOW A NICHE

By Byron Williams.

I know a niche where the blown lake laps Upon a rock-strewn shore, Where the smiling pipes on his mournful lute And his notes are rich and true! I know a bay near the fragrant wood, Along the water's rim, Where the jack-snipe skip on the shelving sand And the loonid curlews skim! I know a spot on the pulsing wave, Beside the moss-green weeds, Where the hooked batrachian fears to swim And the leaden sniker leads! I know a hole where the pick-rel lie, Down in the retired den, Where the bar slopes sheer from a shallow shore And the minnows dart and leap! I know a place where the sunrise lights Are yellow shafts of gold, Where the sunset tints are of heaven's blood, From a golly artist's mold!

Less Demand for the Horse. "The automobile is knocking out the horse on all sides," said a liveryman. "It is knocking out the horse not only among automobilists but among people who never enter an automobile. Those who used to ride and drive are afraid to now. The auto scares their horses, it runs them down—altogether it takes the fun quite out of riding and driving."

Piles are dangerous, but do not submit to an operation until you have first tried Man Zan the Great Pile Remedy. It is put up in collapsible tubes with a nozzle that allows it to be applied exactly where it is needed. If you have itching, bleeding or protruding piles and Man Zan does not relieve, money refunded. Soothes and cools. Relieves at once.

AUTOS DAMAGE THE ROADS.

Injury Already Done in Massachusetts Estimated at $50,000.

"It is hard to say what will be the ultimate damage to the roads," said a member of the Massachusetts commission to a representative of the Boston Globe; "but it has recently been estimated by the board that $50,000 damage has been done already by autos. This is small in proportion to the cost of the roads, but unless some new method of applying surface is adopted, the damage is likely to be continuous; that is, repeated as fast as it is made good. There is something about the broad rubber tires, on wheels of small diameter, peculiarly damaging to macadam roads. A vacuum is created by the tire, which sucks the surface, or binder, from the road, and it is blown away, leaving the stones exposed. The commission is experimenting with tar surfacing, which has been used in France successfully. Experiments have also been made by the park commissioners with an oil having an asphalt base. Something new must be adopted, and I have no doubt Massachusetts will not be behind in its adoption."

Rodefer Attacks Child Labor Law.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Assistant Attorney General Harrison is preparing to defend the child labor law in the test of it proposed to be made by F. A. Rodefer, a glass manufacturer of Belmont county. Rodefer has been indicted for employing boys under the legal age. He claims that it is in violation of the provision of the federal constitution that guarantees to every person the right of contract and individual privilege. This law, Rodefer says, interferes with the right of making private contracts, and also abridges the boy's personal privileges and for this reason the law is such a one as the federal constitution says no state may enact.

Adopted the Cottage Plan.

Columbus, O., May 3.—The commission to build a state hospital for the criminal insane at Lima has decided to adopt the Michigan cottage plan in the erection of the institution. The estimated cost of the buildings exceeds $500,000. The cottage plan as used in Michigan consists of a number of small buildings arranged in the form of a square and connected by enclosed passageways which are known as tunnels. The plan is specially adapted for the segregation of the most violent inmates. The buildings will be so constructed as to make escape almost impossible.

An Attempt to Kidnap a Child.

Cleveland, May 3.—An attempted kidnaping Wednesday night was reported to the police Thursday. Three-year-old Rebecca Vinesky, daughter of Jacob Vinesky, 2689 East Twenty-fourth street, was left playing in the yard outside the house. She was gone when the mother went out to get her. A woman, passing in front, cried out that she saw a man pick up the child and run down Broadway hill. The mother ran after the man. She screamed and the man dropped the girl on the sidewalk. He escaped.

The Way of Happiness.

There is work that is work, and there is play that is play; there is play that is work and work that is play, and in only one of these lies happiness.—Gelett Burgess.

An Hairloom.

"Well," mused the poet, "I may not leave my family much life insurance but I shall certainly leave them a large collection of hitherto unpublished poems."

The Way to Riches.

"Believe me, friends," said the millionaire earnestly, "there is no greater happiness than in earning one's bread by the sweat of other people's brows."

SEVENTEEN YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL WORK

This is the seventeenth year Lima Business College has been in successful operation in the city of Lima. It is now one of the largest private schools in the west. Many a young man points with pride to the fact that he is graduate of Lima Business College. Many a successful business man owes his success to the thorough business training he received there. Seventeen years of successful effort as a business college is no mean record. Seventeen years of steady growth, of a business doubled twice in that time means that it has merited what it has gained; that it has met the requirements of a modern business age; that it has turned out students who have successfully held the positions furnished to them; that it has established a record for honesty and square dealing; that it is recognized as one of Ohio's best institutions of learning. Bookkeeping or Short-hand course $30. For information, address, H. W. PEARS President, Lima, Ohio.

Fake Coins in Offortory.

Clergymen in Scotland have been disconcerted recently on discovering imitation money, made of silvered pasteboard and looking like shillings, in the offertory on Sundays. One minister says that no one "can quarrel with the ingenuity displayed in the manufacture of these 'coins.' They are absolutely perfect—to look at."
