OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Poultry Breeders Perfect Organization.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK

Show will be Given Some Time in January.

Organization to be Known as the Greater Marion Poultry and Pet Stock Association.

A company numbering about fifty consisting of practically all of the breeders of fine poultry in the city, met Friday night in the office of Harry E. Carpenter on South Main street and perfected an organization to be known as—The Greater Marion Poultry and Pet Stock Association.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock and Dr. E. O. Richardson was selected as temporary chairman and F. H. Owen, temporary secretary. The business of electing permanent officers was then taken up. The election resulted in naming the following officers: Dr. E. O. Richardson as president; F. H. Owen, secretary; M. Waddell, treasurer; Ira C. Kellar, Vice president and members of the executive committee as follows: H. E. Carpenter, C. W. Lepper, E. C. Bidebaugh, A. Klerx, Frank Deem, W. S. Burton, M. B. Dickerson, J. L. Berlinger, William Dutt, P. C. Sweney, E. J. Krauss and Clifford Fling.

The Association decided to give a big poultry show in January of 1908 and the secretary was instructed to communicate with leading poultry men of the country and select a number of competent men to act as judges. The exact date of the show will be determined at a later meeting.

It was decided that the membership fee be placed at $1 and that the association hold its regular meetings at the office of the president of Dr. E. O. Richardson every Friday evening at 8 o'clock. However a meeting was called for next Wednesday night at which time the executive committee will present a set of rules and regulations for adoption by the association.

Dr. Richardson gave an interesting and instructive talk before the association on the subject More and Better Poultry and Pet Stock for Greater Marion." He spoke of the pleasure derived from raising pet stock and declared it one of the finest diversions in which a business or professional man can engage.

At the meeting next Wednesday night the association will extend invitations to all business or professional men interested in poultry raising and an effort will be made to raise the membership within the next few weeks to more than one hundred.

The descendants of Mordecai Price numbering 27 in all, are endeavoring to secure his estate, valued at $1,000,000. The heirs held a meeting in Marion this week, and retained H. E. Hill as their attorney to go to Baltimore, where the bulk of the estate is located, and make an exhaustive investigation. Mr. Hill has had considerable experience in looking up estates in this and other countries, and it was for that reason that the Price heirs employed him as their representative.

Mr. Hill will go to Baltimore about July 1 and will be accompanied by Amos Price, of Mansfield, who is at the head of the movement to secure a settlement of the estate.

For a number of years the Price heirs have been endeavoring to secure a settlement of the estate, but have been unsuccessful. Some time ago they had a Baltimore attorney make an investigation and he found that the Baltimore & Ohio railway shops stand on the land claimed as a part of the estate. Owing to the fact that this attorney was representative of the railway company, he dropped the case.

The majority of the 27 heirs live in Ohio, four being residents of Marion county. The others live at Topeka, Kansas, Colorado Springs, Colorado, Cardington, Mansfield, Circleville and Sunbury.

Mordecai Price the founder of this estate, came to America from Waldo about a century ago. The land which he secured let out on a lease of 99 years, which will expire in about seven years.

Another meeting of the heirs will be held in Marion in the near future.

H. T. Owen of Delaware, general agent for the Cameron Auto was exhibiting a car in Marion yesterday. The Cameron possesses many fine points which prospective purchasers should investigate and call on Mr. Owen. Itpd
