HENRY JAMES ON GUM-CHEWING. A Quid Needed to Help Lubricate Through the Long Sentences.

When I became aware indeed it was to see them all disfigured by their use of their weapon; aware, I mean, that each member of the group, while he or she talked or listened, was primarily occupied after the manner of a ruminant animal. They were discussing Wagner in short under the inspiration of gum-chewing, and though "Parafin" might be their secondary care the independent action of their paws was the first.

Slow, resolute, inexorable, eternal, it had yet managed for a little, amid their talk, to beguile suspicion; but once detected it spoiled for me, I confess, not only the quality of that exhibition but the very fact of it, which had been dearer to me still; since, obviously, I could not, indifferent to this value, do nothing but ask myself if a sense for manners were the more likely to be rooted in a gentleman rolling

HALF MILLION WESLEY MEMORIAL CHURCHES

Planned to be Built by the Society Which Began in Atlanta—Great Mass Meeting Expected to Give Impetus to the Project.

Atlanta, Ga., June 15.—The project for the erection of a half-million Wesley Memorial church in Atlanta is expected to receive a great impetus tomorrow when a mass meeting will be held to take definite steps in the matter. The meeting will be attended by six or seven bishops, among them Galloway of Mississippi, Candler of Georgia, Hendrix of Missouri, Atkins of South Carolina and Morrison of Alabama. The Wesley Memorial enterprise is one of the largest undertakings in the history of Southern Methodism. It contemplates a great central church, a splendid hospital and accommodations for every branch of a great institutional church work. The enterprise is in honor of the memory of John Wesley, the great founder of the faith, who visited Georgia more than a century ago.

THE JOLLY JESTERS.

They Have a Bout with the Watermelon.

"Mr. Middleman, ah desires to propound a question."

"Very well, Mr. Fambou." "Why do they designate dat beautiful southern vegetable as ah watermelon?" "That's easy. Because it makes your mouth water."

"Nowhar near de answer. It's called ah watermelon because yo' cut it in de spring."

"Speakin' ob de spring reminds me, I broke in the other end-man. 'Ma ole daddy went out to git some water one day an' he done fell in ah spring."

"Was he drowned?" "He warn't zactly drowned, but it done killed him."

"That's strange. He fell in the spring and was killed?" "Yessah."

"But he wasn't drowned?" "No, sah."

"Well, did he die in the spring?" "No, sah; he died in de fall."

"Our golden voiced tenor, Mr. Vio. Lett will contribute dat heart-touching ballad entitled, 'Warren, Brush Those Locks Away; I Yearn for Liberty.'"—Harper's Weekly.

Vandal at Shelley's Grave. A correspondent who visited the Protestant cemetery at Rome the other day reports an act of ally vandalism at Shelley's grave. "As we wandered about," says the correspondent,

GUESS

"We saw you about half an hour ago young man fourth sitting on Shelley's grave, carefully occupied in cutting the marble with a sharp instrument."

"We thought he was restoring the lettering, but coming to his side, we found that he had cut his own name (which I will not give), New Zealand, April, 1907. I love thee, close to the inscription on the flat white marble surface. He had then soaked with ink his own work, leaving the disgraceful fruits of his vandalism for all who visit this interesting place." How any professing admirer of Shelley could be guilty of such conduct passes belief.

Afraid to Come Back. "How can Skinnem afford to stay so long in Europe?" "It's a good deal cheaper than it would be to come back here and pay his debts."—Detroit Free Press.
