Document of Fragile Promise.
"You show a great deal of interest in that case," said the man who is always impatient when traveling. "Yes," answered the easy-going citizen, "I can't help enjoying the tranquil and optimistic disposition shown by the person who prepared it."

De Mortuis Nil—
The reporter was gathering facts for the obituary of the dead millionaire. "And during what years," he asked, "did your lamented father serve in the senate?"

The son and heir shook his head sorrowfully.
"Surely," he said, "for the sake of the family's feelings all mention of that may be omitted."

Fully Prepared.
Harry—When I asked her if she would be mine she felt on my breast and sobbed like a child, but finally she put her arms round my neck and whispered that she was so happy.
Harriet—Yes, that is what she told me she was going to do; and, what's more, I happen to know that she has been practicing it with Cecilia Tom for ever so long.—Stray Stories.

WICKHAM BROS

Few, if any, of the religious plays have had a life of more than two or three seasons. The fact that Clarence Bennett's "The Holy City" after three years of growing success, is, today, a stronger attraction than ever, and that its return dates are greeted everywhere, with crowded houses, proves that it has in it something of real and powerful dramatic worth, outside of its religious interest. It is not mere curiosity to see a play out of the ordinary, a sort of dramatic innovation, that causes the great public to go to see it again and again, and that makes each one who has seen it, an enthusiastic advertiser.

For it. The real reason for this is that, beside of the fact that it narrates the most dramatic and thrilling incidents in the history of the world, a story that is inwoven with the very fibers of our faith and our hopes for Time and Eternity, it tells that story with such an earnest, devout and reverent spirit that it disarms the criticism of the most religious and, at the same time, develops that grandly tragic theme in such a powerful and dramatic way, giving such splendid opportunities for superb acting, telling so vividly the love of a beautiful, passionate, willful woman, death and resurrection of Christ. The scenic investiture is a particularly elaborate. The scene showing the judgment hall of the high priest is a triumph of the scene-painter's art as is also the depiction of the roofs of Jerusalem as seen from the roof of Herod's palace. Their patient research and study. The costuming, too, is rich and varied. The company presenting the play consists of nearly two dozen principal players of talent and artistic worth and a large number of supernumeraries.

TWO WOMEN CAPTURE PROWLER, AFTER FIGHT

Youngstown, O., Oct. 28.—Edwin Davis, a prowler in the rear of the residence of Felix Prsybytowicz was captured by two women late last night after a desperate fight.

The aged mother of Prsybytowicz discovered him and called the hired girl to help her catch him. There was a fight in which the man slightly cut the aged woman.

WORKING FOR NEW LEAGUE

Knockers Still Hammering Away

SOUTHERN O. & P. CITIES

Seem to Worry the Great Big Strong One.

The important? Clubs Think They Have Done "Hod Carrying" Act Long Enough.

The past week brought to light some ardent efforts on the part of O. and P. league managers to have the Central and O. and P. league territory divided. The teams interested will petition the national association of professional baseball clubs in an effort to have the territory split up differently. By making a concerted effort they hope to accomplish something.

Akron, Youngstown, Canton and Newcaste are among the more important cities which have joined forces for the common end—a league composed of cities properly situated and able to support clubs of equal class. For years, in fact ever since the O. and P. was organized, the league has carried a few cities which were dead wood pure and simple. The larger and more important clubs feel that they have done the "hod carrying" act long enough.

It will be recalled that the Central league as an organization refused to take action on the proposed changes. However, some of the individual clubs are not averse to the proposition.

Definite information regarding the proposed changes is lacking because the promoters do not know just what they can accomplish. They propose to go into the National association meeting to get the best results they can obtain. All the important O. and P. central cities will be represented in New York this week.

The owners of the Akron club are planning for a winning team for 1908. They came so close to getting first honors this season that they want the real thing next year. In speaking of the fact that Curt Elston and "Angel" Spens might be secured for Akron, the Beacon-Journal grows facetious and adds the following:

"Other players are being signed the same and if nothing happens it is likely that Wagner will be secured from Pittsburg as one of the directors of the Akron club happened to be in Pittsburg one day and saw Wagner play. When 'Rube' Waddell of the Philadelphia club, may be with Akron, and it is even said that Kling of Chicago, would like to play in the Rubber City on account of the fact that the president of the league resides in Akron. The rest of the team will be signed up in a few days, just as soon as some of the directors get a chance to rub clothes with some big league managers."

But, all joking aside, the Akron directors are making an effort to land a good ball club. They had one last year, but internal dissensions put it out of the running. As yet, a manager has not been selected. Walter East is hardly being considered for the position, because he was one of the chief causes of strife on the board of directors.

Newcaste is much wrought up over the fact that Toledo of the American association has been sustained in its claim for Pitcher "Rube" Bowers. It seems that Toledo farmed Pitchers Steen and Hawk to Newcaste and in return for their services was to have first call on one Newcaste player on a certain date. The Newcaste people allege this agreement was binding only if both Toledo men made good. Steen stuck the entire season but Hawk was released. Therefore, Newcaste claims that Toledo had no right to a Nock player without remuneration. The Newcaste officials have received notice from Secretary Farrell that he has ruled in favor of Toledo. They will take up the question with him personally at the annual meeting of the national association in New York this week.

Down in Newcaste there is a lot of talk about what would happen if Billy Smith, of Toledo, returned there as manager next year. The Nock's rosters and directors say that Smith's career was a series of mistakes and would have run the Newcaste team right, if he had been given free hand. However, from the time Newcaste first had a ball club it was run by the directors with the usual result. Then, too, Smith never had the money to spend the other managers had. Getting a first division team in the O. and P. league costs money, and a whole lot of it. The salary limit is a huge joke when it comes to turning out top notchers in a league like this. It is hardly justice to a man of Billy Smith's caliber to blame him for all the failure of the Newcaste club. Of course, it is a convenient thing for a hitting in board of directors to have a manager to blame for everything that goes wrong, but such a policy has never been successful.

as much money as the other fellows in his league he has not had a fair show.

Sharon may or may not be on the baseball map in May, 1908. For two years, John Boyle, and Secretary Klepper have put up the long green necessary to keep the Three-S bunch on the face of the earth. The season just completed cost them $2,500. As there is nothing in it for them save hard work and financial loss, they do not feel like coming over with the cash another year. Therefore, if Sharon is to have a ball club, a stock company is necessary. There is some doubt if a company could be formed. Two years ago, Sharon would have been one of the best towns of its size on the circuit, but tall end teams put business to the bad. With a competent club Sharon would be a good ball town and ought to break even, and possibly might earn a little money.

Northport Ohio will be represented at the minor league meeting at New York this week by Secretary Barnard of the Naps, Charley Carr of the Indianapolis team, W. R. Armour of Toledo and Charley Morton, president of the O. and P. league. Barnard, of course, will not take any part in the meeting, but will be there to look after Cleveland's interests in the way of arranging exhibition dates for the spring and getting tips on promising players that have been overlooked by the draft up to this time.

Charley Morton will, no doubt, make another effort to secure the re-districting of the minor league territory in this section as he was one of the very first to advocate such action. Redistricting would be better for everyone concerned, but it takes the Central league a long time to absorb it. However, now that the Central has given the scheme a black eye, there is still a chance that the O. and P. Interstate league will unite to form a more compact circuit.—Plain Dealer.

DELAWARE ROOTERS ARE DISAPPOINTED

Wesleyan Shows Miserable Form Saturday.

Rickey Must Get Busy if Ohio State Does Not Kind Delaware Very Easy.

Delaware football rooters are greatly disappointed over the showing made by Branch Rickey's Ohio Wesleyan team against Otterbein Saturday. The team played like a lot of high schoolers and a wonderful change in form must be shown before Thanksgiving Day or Ohio State will sweep the Methodists off the face of the earth.

Rickey has a lovely conglomerate of players on paper but when it comes to putting them into execution the Wesleyan team falls down in a deplorable manner. The team seems to be shy a heady leader and Stauffer who was heretofore set the Ohio football world on fire will be made look like a second rater when as a general he stacks up against "Rink" Harrington.

In Delaware Saturday night bets were wagged that Wesleyan would not score against Ohio State and from the form shown against Otterbein the bet is not a bad one although a fluke is liable to give Wesleyan a touchdown at any time. Rickey surely has his hands full. It is said that half his new players are illegal and when his team runs up against officials that know the game, penalties will come so fast that O. W. U. will find herself playing almost the entire game back of her own goal line.

Marion people who saw Saturday's game at Delaware came home disgusted. Jim Rike is playing his grand old game but the other members of the back field are so slow that they only serve as millstones about the speedy captain's neck. The team gets away slow and between plays discussions are held, debating societies organized and the leader is often heard calling to his team mates, "what would you do now?"

Yes, Rickey has much work to do and Thanksgiving is not far distant.

S.S.S. MADE FROM ROOTS AND HERBS

A SAFE AND RELIABLE BLOOD PURIFIER

In the time of our forefathers the forests and fields were the only laboratories from which they could procure their medicines. They searched out and compounded the different roots, herbs and barks into remedies, many of which have been handed down to succeeding generations, and continuously used with satisfactory results. Among the very best of these old time preparations is S. S. S., a medicine made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, in such combination as to make it the greatest of all blood purifiers. This absolute vegetable purity of S. S. S. makes it the one medicine that may be used without fear of harmful results in any way. Most blood medicines on the market contain mercury, potash, or some other strong mineral. These act with bad effect on the system, upsetting the stomach, interfering with the digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period of time often cause salivation. No such effects ever result from the use of S. S. S., and it may be taken by children as safely as by older people. For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, and all other troubles caused by impure or poisoned blood, S. S. S. is a perfect remedy. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities, humors or unhealthy matter, and makes the blood pure and rich. It eliminates every particle of the taint of inherited blood taint, purifies and strengthens the weak, deteriorated blood, and establishes the foundation for good health. S. S. S. is Nature's Blood Purifier, and its many years of successful service, with a steadily increasing demand for it, is the best evidence of its value in all blood troubles. Book on the blood and any medical advice free of charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

GOAL LINES NOT CROSSED

Marion and Kenton Teams Clash.

HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

Ends in Nothing to Nothing Score

Once in First Half Marion was in Scoring Distance but Drop Kick West Wide.

Marion and Kenton high schools battled for supremacy at Webb park Saturday afternoon in the drizzling rain, and although Marion had the better of the argument throughout the play neither side could cross the other's goal line and the game ended 0-0.

Only a mere handful of lovers of the game turned out to witness the fray. Kenton kicked off to Marion and the locals then commenced a steady march down the field when the fifteen yard line was reached, Marion had eight yards to gain on the third down and Smith tried a drop kick but the ball went wide of the posts. During the remainder of the half, Marion could not get within scoring distance.

In the second half Marion booted to Kenton and in a short time the ball was returned to the middle of the field, where Marion held. The locals could not gain consistently against the heavy Kenton eleven and never got nearer the goal than the thirty yard line. Smith at quarter made probably the most sensational play of the day when Kenton was forced to punt into Marion's territory. The Marion quarter got the ball and by cleverly dodging the opposing tacklers returned it to the line from which it had been kicked.

Neither eleven used much of the new football, preferring to try end runs and line plays rather than to risk fumbles with the slippery pigskin in trying new style plays.

Next Saturday the Marionites will play at Bucyrus and on the following Saturday will play Shelby here. The locals expect to take a big brace during the coming week. Saturday, the team was without the services of Ross at quarter, Grills at half, Strayer and Thompson in the line. Hard work will be indulged in this week to get in shape for the remaining games of the season.

How Frick Got His Start.
One day the Mellon bank in Pittsburg was amazed to receive from an unknown man signing himself "H. C. Frick," a letter requesting the loan of $20,000. He had very little to offer in the way of security, the writer said, but he pledged his word that if the loan was made it should be returned with interest.

The audacity of the request interested the bank's head, and he sent a trusted agent to find out about the man Frick. When the agent made his report the bank decided to make the loan.

That $20,000 was the foundation of the colossal fortune of Henry Clay Frick. Not only did he return the principal with interest, but the business which he subsequently gave the Mellon bank was worth a hundred times the amount of the original loan.
