The home was appropriately decorated with foliage, jack-o-lanterns, the color scheme being green and yellow. Tiny Mephistopheles were strewn around the rooms and in the dim lights gave a weird appearance suggestive of the season. Attired to represent almost every nationality and every character in history the little guests arrived in masque. A fortune teller's booth where a gypsy imparted the secrets of the future was located in one of the rooms. During the evening the guests played games of various kinds. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, Miss Mouser received a large number of handsome remembrances from her friends.

The hostess was assisted by Miss Louise Burgess, who garbed as a gypsy, told the fortunes of the guests. Miss Muriel Freeland, Miss Ava Klinefelter, Miss Anabel Mouser and Master Grant Mouser, Jr. Before the guests departed a flash light picture was taken of the party.

Mrs. Earl Smart gave an excellent paper on "The Rheni" and Miss Floretta Almendinger rendered a musical selection. Miss Ollie Almendinger gave a synopsis of the life of Leonardo-Vince and a description of his wonderful painting, "The Last Supper."

A short business session was held and plans were formulated for a course of work to be followed by the club this winter. At the conclusion of the business session, the lights were turned down and the club members celebrated the near approach of Halloween by telling ghost stories. A light luncheon was a concluding feature.

The club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. Charles Bender at her country home south of the city.

Miss Hazel Lillian Taylor very nicely entertained a small company of friends at her home on East Center street, yesterday afternoon. Vanity and the Drug Habit.

When a woman is seized by a desire to better her complexion or her figure by inhibiting medicines, the quantity of stuff she will swallow in a given time is almost incredible.

Vanity is the strongest weakness of the gentler sex, but the physiological effects of the course of drugs, self-prescribed and self-administered, are calculated in the end to make the vainest of women regret her methods of self-improvement.

Thousands of cases of kidney trouble show few outward symptoms except nervousness, depression, languor, irritability and an inclination to worry over trifles. It is generally due to the poisonous action of uric acid on blood and nerves, and can't be cured except by curing the kidneys. Marion women are learning it. Here's a local case:

Mrs. L. L. Holzerstott, formerly of 633 Park St., Marion, O., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills removed a lameness from my back and strengthened the kidneys so that I no longer have any trouble from this source. The nervousness, sleeplessness and languor which bothered me so much left me. No other remedy I ever used brought me so much relief as Doan's Kidney Pills."

The above statement was made by Mrs. L. L. Holzerstott in October, 1899. Nearly five years later she confirmed her former statement as follows. In June 25, 1907: "I am glad to confirm my previous testimony and to state that for five years since I used Doan's Kidney Pills I have been enjoying my rest at night and have been doing my work about the house without the least pain or inconvenience."

GEO. KERCHNER UNDER ARREST

Charged with Jumping Board Bill.

SENTENCE IS SUSPENDED

Provided the Prisoner Pays His Landlady.

Charles Coldwell is Taken to the Workhouse—No Word From H. C. Roberts.

On an affidavit charging him with jumping a board bill amounting to $8.41, George Kerchner was arrested by Officer Bell yesterday afternoon and lodged in the city jail. The affidavit was filed in the mayor's court on Saturday October 12 by Mrs. Charles McCombs who conducts a boarding house on North Main street. Kerchner has been in Toledo for several weeks and consequently the warrant was not served earlier.

When arraigned in the mayor's court yesterday evening, Kerchner pleaded guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to thirty days in the Columbus workhouse. However he made satisfactory arrangements for paying the bill together with the costs of prosecution and the mayor suspended the sentence.

Chief of Police Cornwell went to Columbus this afternoon taking with him, Charles Coldwell whom he placed in the Columbus workhouse to serve a sentence of six months which was imposed upon him in mayor's court October 12 after he was found guilty of failing to provide for his invalid child.

Coldwell has been held in the county jail since the time of his trial and conviction. He has property in Galia county, and was making an effort to secure a mortgage on it for the amount of his fine which was $25. However he failed in his efforts and it was found necessary to remove him to the workhouse.

The police have gained no trace of Harry C. Roberts, the diamond thief who made his escape from the city prison Sunday morning, October 20. Chief Cornwell has issued circulars bearing a description of the man together with his photograph and offers a reward for his capture.

ORDER RECEIVED FOR MORE SHOVELS

Panama Canal Commission Wants Marion Machines

Twelve More Large 100 Ton Shovels will be Shipped in Near Future.

The Marion Steam Shovel company today received order from the Panama Canal commission calling for twelve more Model No. 91, 100 ton steam shovels. The order follows closely upon the one received several weeks ago, for seven of the large models machines.

W. E. Culver of Cincinnati, is here in—the employee of the government inspecting the shovels as they are completed and directing their construction to the order of the canal commission. Several of the shovels are already for shipment and within a few weeks will be placed into commission on the canal work.

This makes a total of nineteen shovels that the local company has sold to the commission and undoubtedly as soon as the superiority of the Marion shovel is proven, orders for a score more will follow.

ATTACHMENT PROCEEDINGS

Are Filed in Common Pleas Court.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE

Against South Side Building and Supply Company

Amended Petition Filed by the Plaintiff in Suit of Lusch vs Implement Manufacturing Co.

An affidavit for attachment and a suit to obtain a judgment for $611.68 were filed in the common pleas court, Tuesday afternoon by the W. M. Ritter Lumber company against William Purcell, John F. Cantwell and Frank Bryan, partners doing business under the firm name, The South Side Building and Supply Company.

In the attachment suit, the petitioner claims that the South Side Building and Supply company, which recently sold its lumber business to the Wollenweber company, is trying to convert its property and assets into money in order to defeat the claims of its creditors and that it is doing so for the purpose of fraud.

The petitioner asks that the Wollenweber company, the Fehy Banking company, Charles Curtis, Charles Hofstetter, W. J. Grilla, Z. Houghton and Stephen Murphy be ordered to come into court and show in what amounts they are indebted to the South Side Building and Supply company and that all amounts in their possession be attached.

The court ordered a writ of attachment issued covering the requests made by the petitioner. In the suit for a judgment the petitioner states that on November 9, 1907, the defendant company will become indebted to the Ritter Lumber company in the sum of $611.68 for lumber, ordered by the company and delivered to it by the plaintiff, Crisinger and Guthrie are attorneys for the W. M. Ritter company.

In the case of Jacob F. Lusch against the Implement Manufacturing company, the plaintiff, Wednesday filed an amended petition setting up the allegation that the plaintiff had notified the defendants that a certain circular saw should be fitted with a covering as it was dangerous to the operator. He further states that the defendants ordered him to proceed with his work on the saw, promising that it would be fitted with the necessary protection. He claims that because of the negligence of the company he was injured and is entitled to damages.

DeGolley and DeGolley are counsel for the plaintiff.

A verdict for the defendant in the case of Edward S. Moon against Granville Louthier, was returned by the jury in the common pleas court Tuesday, and the costs of the suit were assessed against the plaintiff. Moon sued for $1200 damages, which he claimed to have sustained because Louthier called him a thief in the presence of a large number of witnesses. Both parties live near Agosta.

DIED WITH HIS HAND ON THE THROTTLE

Toledo, O., Oct. 30.—Stricken with heart disease while his hand was on the throttle as his engine pulled a cut of cars on the Pennsylvania bridge across the river, Engineer Charles L. Betters died in the arms of his fireman as the latter brought the engine to a stop at the Pennsylvania Freight Depot yesterday afternoon.

Betters was apparently as well as usual just before his engine went on the bridge as he waved his hand to a fireman. A moment later he gasped and put his hand to his heart, while his head fell forward on his breast. Mrs. Betters, who was standing near the engine, saw the fatal end, and, upon seeing the engine stop on his way, rushed to the scene in the depot. Betters was taken to the hospital, but died on October 30.
