MARION HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN WITH HALLOWEEN FUNCTIONS

The Young Matrons Embroidery Club Meets at the Home of Mrs. William Landes—Members of W. R. C. Entertained at the Merchant Home on East Center Street—Bon Ton Club Spends Enjoyable Evening at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Hume—Miss Olive Carbaugh Hostess at Charming Function—D. F. Bachelor Girl's Club Meets with Miss Letha Stone of Reed Avenue.

The members of the Young Matrons' Embroidery club and their husbands were pleasantly entertained last evening by Mrs. Ervny and Mrs. Will Landes at the home of the latter on Bellefontaine avenue. About forty guests were present and a most enjoyable time resulted.

The event was in the nature of a Halloween party, the rooms being prettily decorated in Jack-o-lanterns, pumpkins, corn, etc.

The guests were met at the door by a weird witch and escorted to the dressing rooms on the second floor, where they were waited on by two small ghosts.

During the evening a gypsy peddler amused the guests in her effort to dispose of her wares. In a tent made of corn stalks, the fortune teller disclosed the past, present and future of each guest.

At supper time each person present was given a card upon which was inscribed part of a name of some animal. One's partner for supper was found with the card bearing the remainder of the name. A delicious two course old fashioned Halloween supper was served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Roush, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bader, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James Fies, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bonnett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lush, Mr. and Mrs. John Zackman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Ervny Landes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lennon, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, Mrs. Grace Bader, Miss Gertrude Woolley, Miss Packard and Miss Garnete Merchant, of Owens.

The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Howard Baker on Cherry street.

Miss Letha Stone entertained the members of the D. F. Bachelor Girl's club at her home on Reed Avenue Wednesday evening. The occasion was a "dress up" party and proved an event of much social consequence.

The early evening hour was given over to a business session in which the club organized by electing the following officers:

Stella Everly, president; Lela Bailey and Letha Stone and Katie Sawwek were chosen members of the entertainment committee. Music games and a general good social time was enjoyed. A light luncheon was a concluding feature.

It was determined to hold the next meeting at the home of Miss Lela Bailey, of No. 811 Sugar street, next Thursday evening.

Miss Olive Carbaugh of North State street, was hostess to a number of young ladies and gentlemen at a pretty Halloween party last evening. The house looked very pretty decorated with foliage, (Chrysanthemums and Jack-o-lanterns. The evening was passed with music and games and an excellent repast was served.

The guests were Misses Bertha Probst, Carrie Kause, Blanche Lewis, Annabel and Golden Pardon, and Henrietta Schwegman, of Pomeroy and Messrs. Arthur Probst, Frank Stoll, Frank Philbrick, Albert St. Germain, Frank Stanley, Burns Barker and Raymond Heacock.

Last evening at their home on East Center street Mr. and Mrs. Ray Merchant pleasantly entertained the members of the W. R. C. and their husbands. About sixty guests were present and a most enjoyable time resulted. The house was prettily decorated in true Halloween style. During the evening musical and literary program was rendered. Elegant refreshments were served. A general social good time was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening.

The Jolly Ten met Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Sid Baker, of Blaine avenue, as hostess. There was a large attendance of the membership and a most interesting session resulted. After a season at needlework those present were invited to the dining room where a delicious luncheon was served at four o'clock. The table decorations were Chrysanthemums.

The club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Charles Arnold, of Chase street.

The Woman's Home Circle met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Clemons, on North State street. The time was taken up by needle work and social chat. The hostess served refreshments. Nearly every member of the society was present.

Mrs. Leo Hare, of North State street, will entertain the club in two weeks, at which time the reorganization of the club will take place.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Hume, of South State street, entertained the ladies of the Bon Ton Club and their husbands at a Halloween party last night. The house was decorated with Jack-o-lanterns. During the evening, the guests played "600." Excellent refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Clark will next entertain the club members.

The Wednesday Night club held its first hop of the season at the Huber hall last night, the affair being a Halloween party. About thirty couples attended and danced during the evening to the music of Dowler's orchestra. It was decided to hold a dance every two weeks during the winter season.

A number of the patients and nurses of the Sawyer Sanatorium enjoyed a dance in the assembly room of the sanatorium Wednesday evening in celebration of Halloween. The room was tastefully decorated with various Halloween symbols. Nine couples enjoyed the dance. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos H. Kling left Wednesday for their winter home in Tampa, Florida.

Miss Henrietta Schwegman, of Pomeroy, is the guest of Miss Bertha Probst, of North State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rice and daughter, of Kirkpatrick, are visiting relatives in Henetta county, Pennsylvania.

Levi Roseberry, who formerly resided in this city, but who now lives at Harpers, visited Marion friends Wednesday.

Charles Burns, formerly of this city but now of Pittsburg, is a guest at the home of his father W. A. Burns, on Greenwood street.

Miss Carrie Balu, of Windsor street, who has been visiting friends in Grand Rapids, Michigan, returned home today.

Mr. Tracy Miller left today for Seattle, Washington, where he will accept a position with the Union Pacific railroad.

D. E. Parks, who formerly was a member of the grocery firm of Bain and Parks is moving with his family and household goods to Forest, where he will be engaged in the shoe business.

Today's Ohio State Journal contained a fine double column likeness of Miss Hazel Lettler of this city, who at the present time is the house guest of Colonel and Mrs. N. H. Abbott, of Columbus.

BOARD OF VISITORS
Make Plans to Visit all County Institutions.

The Board of County Visitors held a meeting in the probate court room at the court house yesterday afternoon and made arrangements to visit all of the county institutions in the near future. Mrs. C. T. Want, a member of the board, who attended the recent convention of state charitable associations at Bellefontaine, read a very interesting report of the convention to the board. A number of minor matters were given consideration at the meeting.

DELICATE OPERATION
Performed Upon Mrs. Love Waples at Local Hospital.

The right eye of Mrs. Love Waples, of West Church street, was removed this morning at the Central Emergency Hospital. The patient was troubled with sarcoma of the eyeball and the operation became necessary today as the disease of the eye might soon affect the other. The unfortunate lady is improving nicely.

COUPLE BLOPE
Miss Mary Edsell and Mr. Earl Baker Married.

Earl Baker and Miss Mary Edsell, both of this city, were married Wednesday at Covington, Kentucky. The young people eloped Tuesday night and Wednesday a telegram was sent home announcing their marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. J. Edsell of Seaside avenue, while the groom is a tinner employed with F. C. Edsell. The couple returned home today.

GROSS INJUSTICE DONE

The Southside Building and Supply Co.

Decrees of Divorce are Granted Merritt Hauver and Mrs. Mary Evans Thursday.

The attachment case commenced in the common pleas court Wednesday by the W. M. Ritter lumber company and the South Side Building and Supply company, was settled Thursday outside of court by the interested parties.

In reply to the charges made by the plaintiff in the suit the managers of the local concern states that a gross injustice was done them by the publication of the attachment suit. They state that they made a purchase of some lumber of the plaintiff company, but when the lumber arrived here it was green and in bad condition. They notified the wholesale company that they refused to accept it. By the terms of an agreement entered into at that time the local concern was to take the lumber and to pay for it on November 9.

As an additional inducement it was agreed that the lumber should cost the purchaser $1 less per thousand feet. With the freight bills and the discount deducted the amount owed by the lumber company was $550. They state that they had no intention whatever of defrauding the company of which they made the purchase and as the bill was not due until November 9 they did not intend to pay it until that time.

An invoice of the company's lumber yard will be taken Friday, preparatory to turning over the plant to the Wollenweber company which has purchased it.

In the case of George W. Parish against Frank Salter and others, township trustees, the jury in the common pleas court returned a verdict of $96.75, the amount asked by the plaintiff, who claims that the township trustees used his house located on Fountain street, for a pest house, during the epidemic of three years ago.

The case was started in the common pleas court two years ago. In the trial the case was taken from the jury and a verdict ordered for the defendants. The plaintiff carried the case to the circuit court where the decision of the common pleas was overruled and the case remanded to the common pleas court for a new trial. The hearing of the case occupied practically the entire day and the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff as prayed for within an hour.

Judge B. G. Young granted Merritt Hauver a divorce from his wife, Mattie A. Hauver, on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. In the common pleas court Thursday morning. The plaintiff is sixty-four years of age and his wife is fifty-two. They were married in October, 1905. The court ordered that the wife be barred of dower in the estate of the plaintiff and that the latter pay the costs of the suit. DeGolley and DeGolley appeared as counsel for the plaintiff. He suit was not contested.

Charging with absence for more than three years, Mary Evans secured a divorce from her husband Herbert A. Evans in the common pleas court Thursday morning. The plaintiff was restored to her maiden name, Mary Chickedanz. DeGolley and DeGolley were attorneys for the plaintiff.

Pennsylvania conductor G. W. Craft is enjoying a two weeks' vacation. B. F. Zeechman is filling the vacancy.

PLANS DISCUSSED FOR POULTRY SHOW

Entries are Coming in at Lively Rate.

Prospects are Exceedingly Bright for a Successful Show in This City

Greater Marion's Poultry and Pet Stock association held a meeting in the office of Dr. E. O. Richardson on West Center street Wednesday evening and perfected further plans for the big show to be held on North Oak street on November 19 to 22 inclusive.

The association members placed respective orders for exhibition coops in which to cage their fine stock. Each exhibition will be compelled to furnish his coop or stall at the show, a point which those who intend to exhibit should consider at this time.

Mr. H. Sauer of Troutwood, O., one of the largest breeders of fine poultry in the state was present and arranged with the Association to exhibit a line of incubators as well as a part of his select poultry at the show.

F. H. Owen, secretary of the association reported the entries as coming in rapidly and the prospects very bright for a mammoth exhibition of all kinds of pet stock. It is expected, however, that more than one half the entries will be made during the last week. After arranging to have a special exhibit of dogs and water fowls, the society adjourned.
