

WATERBURY FAILS TO BREAK RECORD

Plays Piano 25 Hours and 32 Minutes.

Reeled Like a Drunken Man as he Walked Down the Aisle at the Finish.

J. M. Waterbury concluded his long endurance piano playing at the Bijou theater last evening after performing continuously for twenty-five hours and thirty-two minutes. The phenomenal player made an attempt to beat his best record but fell short by just eighteen minutes.

When Waterbury stopped playing last night, he was "all in, down and out." His left arm was almost paralyzed as a result of the continuous strain and the ends of his fingers were blistered. When he arose from his chair, he staggered for a moment and then walked down the aisle weaving like a drunken man.

At 8 o'clock last evening, Harry Myers and James Thompson, two local barbers, shaved the pianist, while he gently warbled the tune of "Please Go Way and Let Me Sleep." Many people in the city thought the man a mechanical dummy and it is said that a prominent physician of the city made the remark that it is absolutely a physical impossibility for any man to set erect in one chair for twenty-five hours left alone playing a piano.

Waterbury attracted hundreds of curious people to the little theater on North Main street and his act was undoubtedly one of the most remarkable ever seen in the city.

Six remaining numbers on the Y. M. C. A. lecture course. Limited number chair seats, $1.00. Cushion seats, $1.50.

Obituary

OF MRS. PHILIP SHAMBAUGH.

Hattie Elizabeth Leighty Shambaugh, daughter of Joseph and Matilda Leighty, was born near Kirby, Wyandot county, Ohio, January 1, 1855. Died at her home in Marion, Ohio, Nov. 23, 1907, aged 42 years, 10 months and 22 days. She was united in marriage with Philip Shambaugh, Nov. 22, 1887. This union was blessed with four children, three girls and one boy, two of the daughters having preceded the mother in death, the one in infancy; the other being Esther, aged 11 years, who preceded the mother in death but a short time.

Mrs. Shambaugh accepted Christ as her Savior at Shiloh church in 1886, and one year later with her husband joined the Church of God in Kirby, Ohio. They united with the United Brethren Church in Christ in Marion, O., Feb. 4, 1906. She leaves a husband, Philip Shambaugh, a daughter, Faye, and a son, Guy Shambaugh, father and mother, four sisters and two brothers. They are E. A. and W. E. Leighty, of Forest, O., and Bertha and Alpha Leighty, at home near Kirby, with many other friends to mourn their loss. Mrs. Shambaugh was a very devoted wife and mother. She bore the afflictions that came to her home and to herself in a patient and loving Christian spirit that shall ever prove a blessing to her relatives and friends.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. L. C. Reed, of the United Brethren church, assisted by Rev. J. L. Hensley, from Ezekiel, 24th chapter, 16th verse. Funeral from the United Brethren church in Marion, on Monday, Nov. 25, 1907, at 1:30 p. m. Interment in the Marion cemetery. (In Loving Memory of Hattie and Esther Shambaugh.)

Two loved ones have left us and gone to the shadowy land. Have crossed the dark mystic river and joined the heavenly band; Two voices we loved are silent, loving hands are still. An aching void is left in hearts the world can never fill.

A mother has gone from her home, has left a husband's side, Has vanished from our sight below, gone out on Eternity's tide. That patient face and gentle voice will greet us here no more, When with weary feet and saddened heart we enter our lonely door. Our souls are rent with anguish, our hearts are all broken up, As we are forced by the powers eternal to drink this bitter cup. O! God, in Thy infinite mercy, help us in this dark hour. To lean on Thy arms eternal and give us sustaining power.

Our home is so sad, sad and lonely, our hearts are so sore with pain, For they have gone from our sight forever, and will never return again. We'll cling to the same dear Savior that guided them safely on, And we'll follow on in His footsteps till the battle at last is won.

Then we'll walk and talk with the loved ones who have gone on to that city of gold. Where time never leaves any footprints, the inhabitants never grow old.

In that land where youth is immortal, where our loved ones never shall die, We'll clasp once again the hands that we love, never to say good-bye.

Also—We cannot express in words our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends who so willingly assisted us in every way possible during the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother. Also the choir for their assistance; and for the many beautiful floral offerings.

To stop the flow of blood bind the wound with cobwebs and brown sugar pressed on like lint or with fine dust of tea. When the blood ceases to flow apply laudanum.

Department Store Tree.
"The carnauba palm of Brazil," said a lumber dealer, "is the world's most useful tree. A department store tree you might well call it, for it gives everything from medicine to cattle food. Its roots make a very valuable drug, a blood purifier that is prescribed a good deal in the spring. Its timber takes a high polish, and is in demand amongst cabinet makers for fine work. The sap becomes wine or vinegar, according to the way it is prepared, and starch and sugar are also obtained from this sap. "The fruit of the tree is a cattle food, the nut is a good coffee substitute, the pith makes cork." "There, can you beat it—medicine, sugar, coffee, starch, wine, corks, cattle food, lumber and vinegar, all from this one tree, the carnauba palm?"

A Voice From The Stomach

A Bloodless Fight Between a Tablet and a Habit—The Tablet Wins

At the age of 22, Clarence had good digestion. He had gastric juice that could dissolve doughnuts and turn appleskins into good blood corpuscles.

At the age of 24 he began to be profuse about the waist and lean backwards. He also began to cultivate several chins. In his new-found pride he began to think it his duty to gorge himself on everything good and the bad, for appetite feeds on appetite—and every good thing is abused.

His pictures showed that he took on weight after he put his collar on.

At the age of 26 Clarence married and went to boarding. On top of all this, he attended oyster suppers and wine dinners, which reduced the size of his collar from 16 1/2 to 15. With still abiding faith in the strength of his stomach, he gulped his meals and chewed them afterwards.

At the age of 28 Clarence began to hear an inward voice—a warning from the stomach. After each meal, he would feel bloated—and belching became a habit.

He began to be a light eater—and a heavy thinker. He tried to think out a cure, for now he would sit down at his meals absolutely disgusted at the thought or sight of anything to eat.

He would sit down at his meals without the trace of an appetite, just because it was time to eat.

He would often feel a gnawing, unsatisfied "still-hungry" feeling in his stomach, even after he was through eating, whether his meal was well cooked or not.

And he suffered a good many other things with his stomach that he could not explain, but that made him grouchy, miserable, out-of-sorts and generally sour on everybody and everything.

Finally he read an account, something like this, about the truly wonderful results obtained from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach trouble, dyspepsia, and so on. He bought a 50c box at the drug store and took the whole box. When he started, he had little faith—and less appetite. When he finished he had absolute faith—and more appetite, and more good cheer. Things began to taste different and better to him.

Now he has no more dyspepsia, no more indigestion, no more loss of appetite, brash, irritation, burning sensation, heartburn, nausea, eructations, bad memory, or loss of vim and vigor.
