DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.
Miss Martha Davis, aged sixty years, of Peoria, Ill., who recently died of dropsy, in her life had been operated an eighty-five times.
Mrs. Rose Politzer of Chicago has legally adopted Mrs. Julia A. Hornum. The foster mother is sixty-five years old, and the foster child is forty-five and has a husband.
Mrs. Sophia Crotto, 105, lives in Old Quebec. Her voice and appetite are good, but otherwise her faculties have sadly failed. She says she daily prays to "Die Dieu" to take her.
Who can beat the record of Miss Cahill, who is now a junior in the Bath (Me.) high school? For the past nine years, or ever since she entered the public schools, she has not been absent or late.
Mrs. Abner Bates of Folly Cove, East Gloucester, Mass., is a remarkable woman for her eighty years. She recently collected twenty-two wishbones and dressed them up for dolls to be sold at a hospital fair.
Mrs. Elizabeth B. Nichols of Newark, N. J., claimed the letter mailed Dec. 30, 1854, at New Orleans to "Miss Elizabeth Garthwaite, Newark, N. J." The letter reached its destination a few weeks ago, and the mystery of its half century delay may never be cleared up.
Mme. Fritz Scheff, the prima donna, has her voice insured for $50,000, and a clause in the contract provides that if she loses her voice for more than a week from any cause whatever an ascending scale of remuneration shall be paid the management, and if it should become necessary to abandon the tour the entire sum shall be paid.
Learned at the Old Swimmin' Hole.
Two children stood in their kitchen watching a pot of chicken soup warming on the stove when suddenly it began to bubble.
"Freddie," inquired the little girl, "what makes it bubble up?"
"There's a chicken in there," explained the little boy, "and it's tryin' to talk under water."—Judge.

Breaking It Gently.
"Paydon me, sir," began the portly person in the railroad train to the man who sat next to him, "but what would you say if I sat on your hat?"
"Suppose you sit on it and then ask me," suggested the other.
"I did," admitted the portly person calmly.—Harper's Weekly.
She's His Wife Now.
Jinks—Before their marriage he used to land her eyelashes.
Blinks—Well I remember.
Jinks—And does he pay any attention to her eyelashes now?
Blinks—No, poor fellow. He only has time to pay attention to her tongue lashes.—Detroit Tribune.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY
Opposed to Watered Stocks.
Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, who recently declared in favor of government control of corporations, is also opposed to overcapitalization. In a recent interview Mr. Gary said:
"Knowledge and publicity of the affairs of great corporations are the only corrective and the only protection against imposition and fraud. This will cover not only the question of overcapitalization, but the subsequent conduct of corporations."
"If in some way the capitalization of a corporation could be considered and determined by government inspection before the company is incorporated, the rights of all who are interested would be protected. I believe in physical valuation.

"Public sentiment has changed concerning this subject. It is the general feeling at the present time that securities should not be issued unless they are based on actual values."
Judge Gary said further that the fundamentals of business of this country are sound, and he believes there will be an early resumption of business. His belief is based on the extensive knowledge of the situation that his position in the steel trade furnishes him.

When Reid Broke Jail.
It is not generally known that White-law Reid, ambassador to Great Britain, spent one night in prison and only escaped a longer term by breaking jail.
It was when Reid was a war correspondent during the conflict between the states. In a dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette he commented on the "arrant stupidity" of the Confederates, who, he alleged, did not know General Rosecrans' telegraphic wires when they saw them and consequently had not sense enough to cut them down. Rosecrans was furious at the blurt thus given the enemy. He sent for Reid, and ordered that the war correspondent be confined to the guardhouse during the night until it was decided what further punishment should be inflicted. Reid didn't really believe he would be shot, but he feared something that to him seemed almost as bad, a military order banishing him from the front. He broke jail that night and for a long time gave Rosecrans' headquarters a wide berth.

A Rhode Island Statesman.
Senator George P. Wetmore of Rhode Island, who failed of re-election last winter, was the victor in this year's contest and has resumed the seat he formerly occupied. The senatorial contest in the Rhode Island legislature last year was long and bitter. Three candidates were in the field and millions of dollars were expended. Senator Wetmore and Colonel Samuel P. Colt, head of the Brewster trust, divided the Republican vote, while the Democrats and Independents fought on Colonel H. I. Goldard. The fight continued throughout the entire session, the legislature finally adjourning without result so far as the United States senatorship was concerned. This year the contest opened briskly enough, but the opposition to Wetmore soon dwindled.

Senator Wetmore has been twice governor of Rhode Island. The third time he ran he was defeated by a Democrat. He was chosen United States senator in 1894 and re-elected in 1900. He is a trustee of the Peabody museum at Yale and of the Peabody education fund.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Marion.
Because it's the evidence of a Marion citizen.
Testimony easily investigated.
The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it: Benjamin Copeland of 873 North Main street, Marion, Ohio, says: "It was some five years ago that I recommended both Doan's Kidney Pills and Doan's Ointment in a public statement, but I am so grateful for what these remedies did for me that it is a pleasure to again recommend them. I procured both remedies at Flocken's pharmacy. Doan's Ointment cured me of an itching rectal trouble, which had caused me much exasperation. It also relieved me of a soreness in the nasal passages caused by catarrh. The value of Doan's Kidney Pills in cases of headache and kidney complaint is so well known that it is needless for me to say much in recommending them. In my case they braced up my back and banished a lame and sore feeling which had bothered me for some time. I heartily recommend both of these remedies as being just what they are represented to be."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

GHOULS AT WORK

Two Graves were Robbed More Than a Quarter Century Ago.

Columbus, Ind., March 4.—A. H. McCloskey, of this place, returned today from the Kennard homestead, 23 miles from Cincinnati, where, in compliance with a request of his father, who died at Indianapolis a few days ago, he opened the graves of his mother and a brother, only to find that they had been robbed of their dead.
His father was buried in Crown Hill at Indianapolis, and he wanted the bones of his wife and son to be disinterred and laid beside him. The wife was buried 27 years ago and the son 32 years ago. While the coffins were in a good state of preservation when the graves were opened, there were no traces of the bodies. A large stone was found in the wife's coffin where her head had lain. It is believed that the corpses were stolen immediately after burial by ghouls and sold to a medical college in Cincinnati.

WOUNDS THREE MEN

Negro Held at Bay is Detained Not to be Taken.

Clarksburg, W. Va., March 4.—Frank Johnson, a negro, accused of murdering Mrs. Carl Martin, a negro, and who is held at bay in a barn near here by a posse of deputy sheriffs, shot and wounded three of his pursuers early today.
The wounded are H. Cook, James Wamsley and John Matheny.

The telephoto attachment has proved a splendid addition to the use of a camera. It was designed to enable the photographer to obtain magnified pictures of scenery and buildings at a considerable distance.
