BUCYRUS IS WINNER

First Disastrous Defeat of Season Handed Marion

THREE PLAYERS ABSENT

Marion Went Into Game With Weakened Team.

Arriving at Bucyrus it was found that Shelby had been billed but Marion secured the game.

The Marion High school football team lost the game at Bucyrus Saturday by a score of 22 to 0. The Marion team suffered the crushing defeat, owing to the absence of three of the best players of the team, Gilbert, Miller and Fields, who were unable to be on the field. Fields, however, played during the last half of the game.

The game at Bucyrus was interesting, and much enthusiasm was shown by the rooters of the Bucyrus team. Marion was much embarrassed with its crippled team but played royally throughout the game.

The following was the line up of the Marion team: Knapp, c.; Campbell, r. t.; L. Ross, f. c.; L. Frank, l. g.; Fries, l. t.; Hagerman, l. e.; S. Ross, q. b.; Byron Reed, r. h.; Crook and D. Reed, l. h.; Fields and D. Reed, f. b.

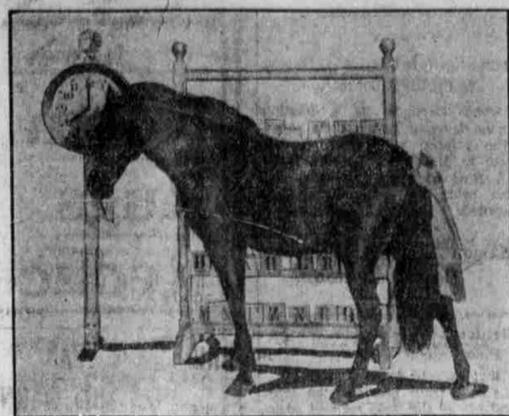

The line up of the Bucyrus team was as follows: Lamb, c.; Sears, r. g.; Foster, r. t.; Henderson, r. e.; Brown, l. g.; Sandhammer, l. t.; Smith, l. e.; G. Trautman, r. h.; G. Conklin, l. h.; K. Trautman, f. b.; Braden, q. b.

On arriving at Bucyrus the Marion team found Shelby scheduled to play the Bucyrus team and upon looking at the schedule Marion was given the right to play although the Shelby team had been advertised. Next Saturday the Marion team will play Mansfield at that place.

ELECT THESE MEN AND THEY WILL ROUT STATE HOUSE RING

If the voters of Ohio could only remember or recall the words of John M. Pattison in his speech at Newark formally opening his campaign for governor three years ago, they would not hesitate to act on the far-seeing advice of Mr. Pattison and vote this year for the whole state ticket headed by Judson Harmon for governor.

Mr. Pattison declared the chief purpose of his campaign in these words: "It is a battle for clean politics, honest and economical administration of public affairs and against bossism and graft."

The same kind of a battle must be fought over again in Ohio this year, for the bosses are once more in complete control of the affairs of the state which, under the administration of Governor Harris, has been marked with repeated scandals at state institutions and in astounding exposures by investigations at the statehouse.

When Mr. Pattison urged the people three years ago to "VOTE AGAINST THE ENTIRE STATE TICKET" nominated and "CONTROLLED BY THE BOSS AND HIS ORGANIZATION" he was urging them to vote against the candidate for lieutenant governor who was nominated for governor this year by the same boss and organization that dominated the convention held in the name of the Republican party.

If the statehouse is to have the housecleaning it needed three years ago, and needs worse now, it can be accomplished only by the election of Judson Harmon and the other candidates on the state ticket with him.

Judge Harmon is one of the real statesmen of this nation. His election to the governorship would add to the prestige of Ohio and assure the people of the state that there will be no sham battle with grafters and bosses while he is governor; neither will there be refusal or neglect to perform sworn duties relating to the state treasury and state auditor's office; nor will there be any attempt to shield these or any other public officers from investigation; nor will there be any secret conferences to devise means for thwarting legal investigation by committees of the legislature such as Governor Harris held with Gilbert, Ellis and unions of the bosses in the legislature, as stated by the Ohio State Journal (Rep.) in its issue March 31, 1908.

In the distribution of honors the Democratic state ticket represents all geographical sections of the state instead of being lopsided like the machine-made Republican ticket, and due recognition is given to diversified interests which make it superior in character and worthy of the united support of the people.

The Democratic ticket being headed by one of the most prominent jurists of the nation, who has served the nation as its attorney general, the legal profession was especially honored by the nomination of Judson Harmon for governor.

Judge Rockwell of Portage county, one of the substantial young business men of Ravenna, candidate for lieutenant governor, is well fitted to preside over the deliberations of the state senate, which is the chief function of lieutenant governor.

The statutes require that only members of the legal profession shall be qualified to serve as supreme judges of the state and as its attorney general. The candidates on the Democratic ticket for these three offices are not only men of high standing in their profession but they had the unqualified indorsement of the representatives of labor organizations delegated to act as their spokesmen at the Democratic convention.

The names of Judge Hugh T. Mathers of Sidney and Judge George B. Okey of Columbus as candidates for supreme judges (there being two to elect) and of Timothy S. Hogan of Jackson county for attorney general give material strength to the Democratic ticket.

Labor's representatives were turned down as insolently by the state Republican convention which indorsed Taft for president as they were by

FARMERS GET OIL FREE

Big Four Car Near LaRue Springs Leak and Contents Get Away

"Texas hasn't anything on us," chuckled the LaRue farmer as he busily piled a tomato can in an attempt to keep pace with his neighbor.

The cause of all this overworking of the can was an ancient oil tank doing service for the Big Four near LaRue. Last night it sprung a leak, and the Rockefeller product trickled merrily over a culvert into the rail road ditch. All attempts to stem the oily current proved futile and fearing a fire and wholesale destruction of property, the road officials invited the farmers to be present with barrels and drain of the escaped oil.

More than fifty farmers have access to the thirty thousand gallon of crude product that can be used effectively in the treatment of livestock.

Quite Insulting

Str John Millais tells this story on himself. He was down by the banks of the Tay, painting in the rushes of his famous landscape, "Chill October," which has thrilled us all with the ineffable sadness and mystery of the dying summer. He worked on so steadily that he failed to observe a watcher, until a voice said: "Eh, mon, did ye ever try photography?" "No," said the artist, "I never have."

"It's a deal quicker, quoth his friendly critic, eyeing the picture doubtfully.

Millais was not flattered, so he waited a minute before replying, "I dare say it is." His lack of enthusiasm displeased the Scot, who took another look and then marched off with the Parthian shout:

"Ay, and photography's a nuckle sight mair like the place, too."—Everybody's Magazine.

Immutable

The new Rip Van Winkle had offered himself up on the altar of science. When Prof. Jinglesworth asked for volunteers to test his Live Forever Sleep Elixir, the new Rip was the first man to drink the dope.

He awoke 200 years later.

"Of course there have been many changes on earth," he said as soon as his stiffened tongue could be brought under control.

"Many," they answered.

He suddenly smiled.

"I'll bet there's one thing that hasn't been changed," he said.

"What's that?" they asked him.

"The tariff!" he shouted.

They assured him it was still intact and he sighed contentedly and resumed his nap.
