 Rice A. Pierce, Jr., son of former Congressman R. A. Pierce of Tennessee, is held at Memphis for the murder of Jack Chanler, a showman, who resented Pierce's attentions to members of his company.

EXECUTION
 On Philadelphia dispatches which quoted Francis Tracy Tobin, a lawyer practicing here, today, when queried of that city to the above effect:
 "When Dr. Cronin was murdered and, in later years, when Mrs. Gunness was sought after her sensational crimes, we got stories from all over the world that those persons had appeared in various places. As you know, both were dead.
 "Until we receive some definite information that Mrs. Crippen is in or near Chicago or until the Philadelphia lawyer makes public the names of those who are said to have seen Mrs. Crippen here after the date of her supposed murder in London, of course we can do nothing. At present, we have no clue of any sort in the case."
Legal Notice.
 In the Court of Common Pleas, Marion County, Ohio.
 Kent P. Johnson, plaintiff, vs. Chas. D. Melvin et al. defendants.
 S. Joshua Melvin, a defendant in the above entitled cause, whose last known place of residence was Richville, Washington, but whose present place of residence is unknown, hereby gives notice that on the 23rd day of April, A. D. 1910 William H. Little as administrator of the estate of Augustus S. Melvin, deceased, filed his certain cross petition in the Common Pleas Court of Marion County, Ohio in cause No. 1268 against said S. Joshua Melvin et al. heirs at law of the said Augustus S. Melvin, deceased, praying for an order of the Court directing him as administrator of said estate to sell all the real estate of the said Augustus S. Melvin, deceased and described in said cross petition, for the purpose of paying the debts of the said Augustus S. Melvin, deceased and the costs of administration. The said S. Joshua Melvin will further take notice that on the 9th day of April, A. D. 1910 Joseph B. Melvin a defendant in said cause and one of the heirs at law of the said Augustus S. Melvin deceased filed his certain cross petition in the court of common pleas of Marion County, Ohio, in cause No. 1268 against the said Augustus S. Melvin, deceased, and that the interest of Joseph B. Melvin be set off from the realty of the said Augustus S. Melvin, deceased, if that can be done, if it can not be done without manifest injury, then that the premises be sold and such other proceedings had as authorized by law.
 That the said S. Joshua Melvin is required to answer by the 17th day of December, A. D. 1910.
 William H. Little, as administrator of the estate of Augustus S. Melvin, deceased, and Joseph B. Melvin, Mouser & Moloney, attorneys.

FIND YOUR BUYER
HE READS THE ADS!

Sell that property for its real value by finding the buyer who NEEDS it. The man who buys for speculation thinks always of taking advantage of your anxiety to sell—but the man who NEEDS YOUR PROPERTY will pay a fair price, and BE GLAD TO DO SO. He's to be found. He reads ads. He misses some of them, too. But—he reads them again the next day, and the next. He will find YOUR AD IF IT IS "THERE" WHEN HE LOOKS FOR IT.
