Taft and Grant. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was brought to a climax today by the arrival of President Taft and his review of the monster parade through the streets of this city, accompanied by Governor Dix, of New York, and Major General Frederick Dent Grant, U. S. A. When the president passed, the lines of veterans stood ready to parade. He then reviewed the marchers a second time as they passed before his stand. More than 20,000 veterans were in line in the annual parade. The line of march was shorter to prevent the veterans from overtaxing their strength. Numerous auxiliary organizations, United States regulars and militia also paraded in tribute to the grayhaired warriors. Following the parade, the president was entertained at luncheon. Tonight President Taft will speak at the amphitheatre to be held in the Auditorium, and then leave for Beverly, N. J. He arrived here at 9 o'clock. By Canandaigua, he spoke briefly from the platform of his private car and was cheered by the throng at the station. 8-23-11

He left Saturday forenoon in the fond hope of reaching her bedside ere her departure. Mrs. J. H. Sutton held a social on the lawn of her home for the members of her Sunday School class Saturday afternoon. About 35 children and a few mothers were present. Ice cream and cake and candy were served and the little folks had a fine time. On last Sunday Marshall S. Burdige of our village rounded his fifty-first year of life. ANNUAL FARMER'S PICNIC ENJOYED BY HUNDREDS. Dayton Blow Grove Scene of Gathering. Crowd Entertained by Program of Speeches and Music—Many People From This City Attend. Hundreds of farmers and their families from Marion, Hardin and Wyandot counties and many people from this city attended the annual Marion county farmers' picnic held at Dayton Blow Grove, four and one-half miles north of LaRue today. Threatening showers kept few away from this most enjoyable event. The committee in charge had planned an elaborate speaking and musical program for the entertainment of the great crowd. The grove is an ideal place for holding an affair of this kind and the refreshment booths and speakers' stand were very prettily decorated for the occasion. One of the features of the day was the elaborate dinner spread under the overhanging trees of the well-kept grove. For many days the farmers' households have been making preparations for the picnic and the festive board was loaded with all the good things to eat imaginable. Among the speakers invited to take part in the program were Attorney General Timothy Hogan, Judge Robert Carey of Upper Sandusky, and Rev. M. D. Scott of LaRue. The latter's band of this city furnished music throughout the day. Reclamations and exercises were delivered under the direction of Rev. C. W. Needles. The picnic is the fourth given under the auspices of the Marion County Farmers' Picnic association.
