

Society News

Si-Klone Messenger
Phone 1151, after 6 p. m. call 421. Always open for business.
GOODSELL BROS.

JUST RECEIVED

150 Misses and Childrens ready to wear and trimmed hats, in felts and beavers. Most all colors and styles. Prices fully 25 per cent less than regular value. Don't buy until you see them. Also a handsome lot of ladies hats, let us show them to you. If you have an old hat you want decorated, bring it to us at once. Our prices are less.

NOTICE; WANTED
Boy to deliver and work in the store.

D. B. GOODSSELL
N. Main St.

Trials Are Postponed.
The trials of James and John O'Keefe and C. M. Conrad and S. N. Able, which were scheduled to be held in the mayor's court this morning, have been postponed because of the inability of their attorneys to appear in court. The dates of the trials will be decided later. The men are charged with violating the liquor laws.

Mashes Two Fingers.
Harry E. Zieg, 427 Blaine avenue, an Erie switchman, mashed two fingers on his right hand while at work in the Erie yards, Wednesday evening. Dr. A. Rhu dressed Zieg's injuries.

ORDER YOUR WINTER COAL SUPPLY NOW!

Prices will soon take their usual advance. We sell only the very best grades.

ENTERPRISE COAL & FEED COMPANY
A. Korte C. F. Werley
Phone 994. 912 Bennett St.

Newest Tailoring

Our styles for the Fall season are the newest and most complete. Our woolsens are the talk of the town. Our suits are all cut and made in our own shops. We are strictly tailors to the trade.

Joe Voll
Opp. Pilgrim Inn. N. Main

CITY LAUNDRY

Successors to P. Turner.

All Shirts 10c.
Overalls 20c Suit.

Finest work at very lowest prices.

Cull & Wipfler
Phone 683 W Center St.

Dr. O.C. Alspach

Veterinarian.
Having bought out W. H. Foster's Livery, will be located there permanently. Office and Hospital 132 N. Main Street, Telephone 96.

If you wear glasses you should have a bottle of Lens Clean. Polishes and cleans the lens, makes them like new, and the world will look brighter to you. For sale at all drug stores and F. A. STENGELS Optical Parlors.

Cueire Club Plans Party.

Mrs. O. G. Briggs, Mrs. J. W. Hurr and Mrs. H. B. Hartpence were the Cueire club hostesses yesterday afternoon at the latter's home on Forest street.

After the guests had spent a season in embroidery work the hostesses requested that needles be placed aside and a guessing game uniquely planned was conducted. Mrs. L. E. Meister, Mrs. George Fies and Mrs. Brotherton were the successful ones in this game and the hostess rewarded their efforts.

The members spent a time planning the details of their hallowe'en party which will be given the last evening in October.

A business session held the attention for a brief time, during which officers were elected. The same officers were retained as follows: President, Mrs. H. B. Hartpence; secretary, Mrs. Frank Bentz; treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Hurr.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the hostesses, besides the members were: Mrs. John Snyder, Mrs. N. J. Apt, Mrs. Ralph Hurr and Mrs. Brotherton.

Refreshments were an incident in the afternoon.

Last evening Mrs. Hartpence invited her assisting hostesses, Miss Emma Price, Miss Josephine Woolley, Mrs. J. W. Hurr and H. C. Hurr to her home for an informal evening. Conversation and music made the hours delightful and later a course lunch was served.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in two weeks with Mrs. S. Schweinfurth on Cherry street.

Missionary Society.

The members of the Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met in regular session yesterday afternoon in the ladies' parlors of the church.

The program opened with an instrumental solo by Miss Marguerite Krause, this popular young pianist played Chopin's "Polonaise" with delightful rendition. Following the reports of local officers Mrs. S. B. Lippincott, the leader, reviewed chapter five of "The Western Women in Eastern Lands." Miss Harriet Taylor gave an interesting description of the missionaries who have recently taken up their work in China and something of their duties.

Mrs. W. B. Foye spoke of the missionaries in Korea, Japan and Egypt. Mrs. D. L. Sellers gave brief sketches of five women of the Orient. Mrs. Charles Turner read a report from the synodical meeting at Mansfield at which she was a delegate. At the close of the program tea was served in the basement.

Mrs. Lazarus Complimented.

Mrs. Myer Hays is complimenting her sister, Mrs. Fred Lazarus, Jr., of Columbus, with a "bridge" this afternoon at her home on East Church street. Mrs. Lazarus is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Marx, on South State street.

Mrs. R. E. Cope a Hostess.

Mrs. Ray E. Cope was one of yesterday's charming hostesses, when she entertained a circle of her friends in an embroidery party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Unsinger on Garden street.

Mrs. Cope requested the girls to bring their embroidery bags and the contents of these prettily colored contents made the afternoon's diversions. The hum of happy sociability filled the rooms as the guests gathered in a circle and chatted intimately as needles were played. During the rest of the afternoon, after hoops had been placed aside, the hostess served a course tea of dainty appointments.

Mrs. Cope's guests were: Mrs. Benjamin Blake, Mrs. Harvey Gracely, Miss Hazel Wells of Delaware, who is the guest of Miss Stella Evans, Misses Hazel Harvey, Helen Rosenberg, Dora Nash, Lillian Burgess, Helen Snyder, Donna Ruth Crisinger, Margaret Krause, Mrs. Stella Evans, Blanche Rhodes and Margaret Burgess.

Club Members Go to Toledo.

The hospitality of Mrs. E. O. Unsinger's Orchard street home was extended to the members of the Empire club meeting yesterday afternoon.

Only the members were present and they spent the hours of the afternoon in the enjoyment of sewing and chatting informally. A lunch of refreshing dainties was served at the close of the afternoon, after which the members parted until this morning when they left at an early hour for Toledo where they are the guests of Mrs. H. J. Knickles, who formerly resided in Marion and was a member of the club.

The next regular meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. William Probst as hostess.

Presbyterian Meeting.

One of the four Presbyterian district meetings will be held at Mt. Glisad tomorrow afternoon and evening. Delegates to attend this meeting from the First Presbyterian church are: Mrs. R. E. Barlow, Mrs. S. E. DeWolf, Mrs. Charles Turner and Mrs. W. C. Butcher.

By Margaret M. Burgess.

Surprise Party.

About thirty friends of Mr. Ernest Schertzer surprised him at his West Columbia street home, Tuesday evening. The affair was in honor of his birthday and his friends presented him with many gifts, among which was a handsome rocker.

An informal evening of music and social pleasures was enjoyed and lunch was served.

Keansington Club.

The pretty home of Mrs. Clarence Huston on the Boulevard was the place of meeting for the members of the Kensington club yesterday afternoon.

A guessing contest interspersed the embroidery season in which Mrs. Harry Hastings gained the correct solution, while Mrs. Benton Hoagland received second honors. Both were awarded with mementoes of their skill. Refreshments were served at the tea hour.

Guests of the hostess besides the members were: Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. Mary Anderson, Mrs. William Thomas, and Mrs. M. C. Huston.

In two weeks Mrs. Benton Hoagland

THE FASHIONABLE POLO COAT.

New York, Oct. 17.—A reigning favorite of the coming winter will be the long, soft, woolly, comfy, polo coat—well fitted to keep out the cold blasts. These pretty, warm wraps are displayed in a variety of styles and color combinations—touches of brick red, gold, tan, white or plaid, on dark blue, brown, or gray, being most usual.

The cuffs, collars and pocket flap generally show the color of the reverse side of the blanket from which the coat is cut, the darker side appearing in the exterior of the garment.

The coat shown in the illustration is of plain dark blue, with deep cuffs, broad collar and revers of scarlet. A scarlet and blue mottled button fastens it low upon the left side. It is distinguished by the addition of a little vest of dark blue, fastened with small buttons, in the open space between the wide revers.

Other styles show wide belts and a deep pocket, but all are very comfortable in cut, with absolutely straight lines. And a suggestion of roomy, worn with the new soft felt hat, the polo coat offers a stunning "rough and ready" outfit, for motor wear, or other outdoor sports.

EVELYN MARIE STUART.

will entertain the members at her Barnhart street home.

Modern Embroidery Club.

Embroidery work featured the afternoon yesterday when the members of the Modern Embroidery club gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Kinsler on North Grand avenue.

Nearly all of the members were present and Mrs. David Martin as a guest enjoyed the club's hospitality. Refreshments were served during the afternoon, adding to its pleasure.

In two weeks the club members will meet with Mrs. C. Ush on Bain avenue.

Albert Meekle Surprised.

Albert Meekle, of North Main street, was most pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening by about twenty of his male friends, the occasion being the twenty-eighth anniversary of his birth. The evening was most enjoyably spent in playing progressive euchre. Mr. Edson Campbell winning the prize, a handsome hand-painted china plate. Elegant refreshments were served during the evening.

Morning Musical Club.

The Morning Musical club met at the

Letora-Gebhardt-Peters recital room

this morning, and rendered an interesting program before a large audience.

Roll call received responses of musical items, after which Miss Sadamie Allen read an interesting paper, "Anecdotes of Bach and Handel." In the absence of Miss Grace Shay, Miss Edna Molloy played Bach's "Prelude and Fugue," with excellent interpretation. "Ave Maria," by Gounod, was beautifully sung by Mrs. Charles Allen with piano and violin accompaniment. Miss Marguerite Krause played Bach's "English Suite" and Miss Clara Leffler rendered a violin solo by Bach, "Air in G String." "He Shall Feed His Flock," by Handel, was very sweetly sung by Miss Florence Shaw and Miss Frances Kirchner gave a lovely rendition of Handel's "Cat's Fugue." In the absence of Mrs. Emma Voorhees, Mrs. H. L. Wallace sang in her place "Could I Call Back the Years." "The Harmonious Blacksmith," composed by Handel, was played by Mrs. Ray Anthony Hamilton, with exquisite touch and technique. This number closed the program.

A short business session followed the meeting of the Ideal Embroidery club yesterday afternoon.

The party made the trip from Columbus in machines and spent the day at the Diebold home. A dinner of pretty appointments at which invitations were extended a few relatives besides the honor guests, was served at noon and was a pleasant feature of the day.

"In-as-Much" Circle.

Miss Mattie Meredith was hostess to the members of the "In-as-Much" circle last evening at her home on East Church street. There was a large attendance of the members and the girls spent the hours in a busy work session plying their needles in garments for the Christmas bazaar. The hostess refreshed her guests with light refreshments at ten o'clock.

Reception for Pastor.

The members of the Epworth M. E. church will hold a reception in the basement of the church this evening, for the new pastor, Dr. C. H. Havighurst and his family.

Wednesday Night Club.

The Wednesday Night club, one of the exclusive dancing clubs of the city, gave the first of their series of dances last evening at the Huber hall. The club roster, since the reorganization, shows a nice increase over the membership of last year, and there was a large attendance at the meeting last evening.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mrs. H. N. Quigley of Cincinnati, the guest of Mrs. Ward Hines and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baughman of Pittsburgh, who are the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Uhler on South Main street.

Plans for Progressive Dinner.

All of the members were present at the meeting of the Golden Rod club yesterday afternoon at which Mrs. Nelson Hatch was hostess at her Avondale avenue home.

The members embroidered in the prettily flower decorated rooms and later enjoyed a guessing game, a clever inauguration of the hostess, Mrs. John Lewellen received the prize award in this contest.

Two weeks from last evening a progressive dinner will be given the members by Mrs. Howard Hopcock, Mrs. J. E. Staley and Mrs. Wesley Uleh.

At 5 o'clock the hostess served tea and the members lingered until the twilight hour conversing over cups.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in four weeks at the home of Mrs. Howard Hopcock on North State street.

Mrs. Hane Compliments Guest.

Mrs. Henry B. Hane was "at home" yesterday afternoon to about twenty-five of her friends at her East Center street home. The hostess invited her guests to meet Mrs. Walter Randall Meach of Norfolk, who has been her guest for some days.

The party was quite informal in nature, music and conversation being the social diversions. The hostess served a buffet lunch at the twilight hour, from a handsomely appointed refreshment table in the dining-room.

Mrs. Meach will leave tomorrow afternoon for her home.

Missionary Society Meets.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was led by Mrs. G. W. Starnes, and the topic for the afternoon was "Mormons." Mrs. W. C. Butcher led the devotional exercises and Mrs. O. W. Weeks offered prayer. A reading by Mrs. W. N. Harder on the topic of the afternoon, was followed by a general discussion. A short business session was held and refreshments were served in the basement of the church.

"To Vote or Not to Vote"

"To vote or not to vote," exploited as a possible issue for the consideration of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, is not considered seriously by many of those in authority in the federation. A tentative plan, formed by the local suffrage organization and headed by Mrs. Myron Vorce, suggested that immediately following the speech of Newton D. Baker in the Chamber of Commerce this evening, and while members of the federation were "spellbound" by the eloquence of the speaker and engrossed with suffrage orator, the federation as a body be given an opportunity to indorse equit suffrage for women.

Mrs. Addison Broomhall, president of the federation, does not believe there is a chance of the federation placing itself officially on record as indorsing the movement of "votes for women."

"I have heard nothing of such a move," she said.

Mrs. C. S. Selover, chairman of credential committee and prominent in women's activities, believes in suffrage, but the movement is gradual and educational, and if embodied as a federation principle, that must come later," said Mrs. John T. Mack of Sandusky.

Mrs. C. C. True, Mrs. Lisle Terwilliger, Mrs. C. B. Tozier and Mrs. Luman Royce also express themselves as against suffrage as a federation issue.

"I would like to see the federation indorse suffrage, but I doubt if it will happen this year," said Mrs. Kate Brownlee Sherwood of Toledo, one of the most enthusiastic suffrage workers in the state.

This is woman's week in Cleveland and the lecture by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst at the Gray's armory Friday night will be the climax to the activities of the week.

Did the Woman's Suffrage party bring Mrs. Pankhurst to Cleveland at this particular time for the purpose of influencing the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs? Many believe so, and that she will aid in stirring up enthusiasm among women for registering on the last day of registration—Saturday.

Whatever the station in society of the women suffragists in Cleveland happens to be, they seem to be a "bit in the better" that is the question of woman's suffrage is favorably considered by the coming constitutional convention it will be because of the loyalty to the cause of working men, particularly labor unionists—Plain Dealer.

Day Guests at Diebold Home.

Mrs. Margaret Diebold and her daughter Miss Clara had as guests yesterday Mrs. Helbig of Memphis, Tennessee; Mrs. Philip Lindenberg, Mrs. Charles Campmen, Mrs. W. G. Shupsky, Miss Emma Kanmaker, and Miss Mary Lindenberg, all of Colum-

the meeting of the Ideal Embroidery club yesterday afternoon.

The party made the trip from Columbus in machines and spent the day at the Diebold home. A dinner of pretty appointments at which invitations were extended a few relatives besides the honor guests, was served at noon and was a pleasant feature of the day.

"In-as-Much" Circle.

Miss Mattie Meredith was hostess to the members of the "In-as-Much" circle last evening at her home on East Church street. There was a large attendance of the members and the girls spent the hours in a busy work session plying their needles in garments for the Christmas bazaar. The hostess refreshed her guests with light refreshments at ten o'clock.

Reception for Pastor.

The members of the Epworth M. E. church will hold a reception in the basement of the church this evening, for the new pastor, Dr. C. H. Havighurst and his family.

Wednesday Night Club.

The Wednesday Night club, one of the exclusive dancing clubs of the city, gave the first of their series of dances last evening at the Huber hall. The club roster, since the reorganization, shows a nice increase over the membership of last year, and there was a large attendance at the meeting last evening.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mrs. H. N. Quigley of Cincinnati, the guest of Mrs. Ward Hines and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baughman of Pittsburgh, who are the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Uhler on South Main street.

Plans for Progressive Dinner.

All of the members were present at the meeting of the Golden Rod club yesterday afternoon at which Mrs. Nelson Hatch was hostess at her Avondale avenue home.

The members embroidered in the prettily flower decorated rooms and later enjoyed a guessing game, a clever inauguration of the hostess, Mrs. John Lewellen received the prize award in this contest.

Two weeks from last evening a progressive dinner will be given the members by Mrs. Howard Hopcock, Mrs. J. E. Staley and Mrs. Wesley Uleh.

At 5 o'clock the hostess served tea and the members lingered until the twilight hour conversing over cups.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in four weeks at the home of Mrs. Howard Hopcock on North State street.

Mrs. Hane Compliments Guest.

Mrs. Henry B. Hane was "at home" yesterday afternoon to about twenty-five of her friends at her East Center street home. The hostess invited her guests to meet Mrs. Walter Randall Meach of Norfolk, who has been her guest for some days.

The party was quite informal in nature, music and conversation being the social diversions. The hostess served a buffet lunch at the twilight hour, from a handsomely appointed refreshment table in the dining-room.

Mrs. Meach will leave tomorrow afternoon for her home.

Missionary Society Meets.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was led by Mrs. G. W. Starnes, and the topic for the afternoon was "Mormons." Mrs. W. C. Butcher led the devotional exercises and Mrs. O. W. Weeks offered prayer. A reading by Mrs. W. N. Harder on the topic of the afternoon, was followed by a general discussion. A short business session was held and refreshments were served in the basement of the church.

"To Vote or Not to Vote"

"To vote or not to vote," exploited as a possible issue for the consideration of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, is not considered seriously by many of those in authority in the federation. A tentative plan, formed by the local suffrage organization and headed by Mrs. Myron Vorce, suggested that immediately following the speech of Newton D. Baker in the Chamber of Commerce this evening, and while members of the federation were "spellbound" by the eloquence of the speaker and engrossed with suffrage orator, the federation as a body be given an opportunity to indorse equit suffrage for women.

Mrs. Addison Broomhall, president of the federation, does not believe there is a chance of the federation placing itself officially on record as indorsing the movement of "votes for women."

"I have heard nothing of such a move," she said.

Mrs. C. S. Selover, chairman of credential committee and prominent in women's activities, believes in suffrage, but the movement is gradual and educational, and if embodied as a federation principle, that must come later," said Mrs. John T. Mack of Sandusky.

Mrs. C. C. True, Mrs. Lisle Terwilliger, Mrs. C. B. Tozier and Mrs. Luman Royce also express themselves as against suffrage as a federation issue.

"I would like to see the federation indorse suffrage, but I doubt if it will happen this year," said Mrs. Kate Brownlee Sherwood of Toledo, one of the most enthusiastic suffrage workers in the state.

This is woman's week in Cleveland and the lecture by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst at the Gray's armory Friday night will be the climax to the activities of the week.

Did the Woman's Suffrage party bring Mrs. Pankhurst to Cleveland at this particular time for the purpose of influencing the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs? Many believe so, and that she will aid in stirring up enthusiasm among women for registering on the last day of registration—Saturday.

Whatever the station in society of the women suffragists in Cleveland happens to be, they seem to be a "bit in the better" that is the question of woman's suffrage is favorably considered by the coming constitutional convention it will be because of the loyalty to the cause of working men, particularly labor unionists—Plain Dealer.

Day Guests at Diebold Home.

Mrs. Margaret Diebold and her daughter Miss Clara had as guests yesterday Mrs. Helbig of Memphis, Tennessee; Mrs. Philip Lindenberg, Mrs. Charles Campmen, Mrs. W. G. Shupsky, Miss Emma Kanmaker, and Miss Mary Lindenberg, all of Colum-

the meeting of the Ideal Embroidery club yesterday afternoon.

The party made the trip from Columbus in machines and spent the day at the Diebold home. A dinner of pretty appointments at which invitations were extended a few relatives besides the honor guests, was served at noon and was a pleasant feature of the day.

"In-as-Much" Circle.

Miss Mattie Meredith was hostess to the members of the "In-as-Much" circle last evening at her home on East Church street. There was a large attendance of the members and the girls spent the hours in a busy work session plying their needles in garments for the Christmas bazaar. The hostess refreshed her guests with light refreshments at ten o'clock.

Reception for Pastor.

The members of the Epworth M. E. church will hold a reception in the basement of the church this evening, for the new pastor, Dr. C. H. Havighurst and his family.

Wednesday Night Club.

The Wednesday Night club, one of the exclusive dancing clubs of the city, gave the first of their series of dances last evening at the Huber hall. The club roster, since the reorganization, shows a nice increase over the membership of last year, and there was a large attendance at the meeting last evening.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mrs. H. N. Quigley of Cincinnati, the guest of Mrs. Ward Hines and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baughman of Pittsburgh, who are the house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Uhler on South Main street.

Plans for Progressive Dinner.

All of the members were present at the meeting of the Golden Rod club yesterday afternoon at which Mrs. Nelson Hatch was hostess at her Avondale avenue home.

The members embroidered in the prettily flower decorated rooms and later enjoyed a guessing game, a clever inauguration of the hostess, Mrs. John Lewellen received the prize award in this contest.

Two weeks from last evening a progressive dinner will be given the members by Mrs. Howard Hopcock, Mrs. J. E. Staley and Mrs. Wesley Uleh.

At 5 o'clock the hostess served tea and the members lingered until the twilight hour conversing over cups.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held in four weeks at the home of Mrs. Howard Hopcock on North State street.

Mrs. Hane Compliments Guest.

Mrs. Henry B. Hane was "at home" yesterday afternoon to about twenty-five of her friends at her East Center street home. The hostess invited her guests to meet Mrs. Walter Randall Meach of Norfolk, who has been her guest for some days.

The party was quite informal in nature, music and conversation being the social diversions. The hostess served a buffet lunch at the twilight hour, from a handsomely appointed refreshment table in the dining-room.

Mrs. Meach will leave tomorrow afternoon for her home.

Missionary Society Meets.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was led by Mrs. G. W. Starnes, and the topic for the afternoon was "Mormons." Mrs. W. C. Butcher led the devotional exercises and Mrs. O. W. Weeks offered prayer. A reading by Mrs. W. N. Harder on the topic of the afternoon, was followed by a general discussion. A short business session was held and refreshments were served in the basement of the church.

"To Vote or Not to Vote"

"To vote or not to vote," exploited as a possible issue for the consideration of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs, is not considered seriously by many of those in authority in the federation. A tentative plan, formed by the local suffrage organization and headed by Mrs. Myron Vorce, suggested that immediately following the speech of Newton D. Baker in the Chamber of Commerce this evening, and while members of the federation were "spellbound" by the eloquence of the speaker and engrossed with suffrage orator, the federation as a body be given an opportunity to indorse equit suffrage for women.

Mrs. Addison Broomhall, president of the federation, does not believe there is a chance of the federation placing itself officially on record as indorsing the movement of "votes for women."

"I have heard nothing of such a move," she said.

Mrs. C. S. Selover, chairman of credential committee and prominent in women's activities, believes in suffrage, but the movement is gradual and educational, and if embodied as a federation principle, that must come later," said Mrs. John T. Mack of Sandusky.

Mrs. C. C. True, Mrs. Lisle Terwilliger, Mrs. C. B. Tozier and Mrs. Luman Royce also express themselves as against suffrage as a federation issue.

"I would like to see the federation indorse suffrage, but I doubt if it will happen this year," said Mrs. Kate Brownlee Sherwood of Toledo, one of the most enthusiastic suffrage workers in the state.