TUTTLE CONVICTED OF CRIME CHARGED

Jury Brings in Verdict Just Before Midnight Saturday--Jurors Struggled Over Evidence For Seven Hours--First Ballot Stood 7 for Conviction and 5 for Acquittal--Trial Lasted Full Week.

After one of the most interesting trials ever held in Marion county, Almon Tuttle was found guilty of attempting to criminally assault Miss Flora Spicer, the night of July 9, 1911, in the vicinity of the Big Four freight house.

The trial lasted from Monday until just a few minutes before midnight Saturday, when the jury returned a verdict of guilty against Tuttle. The prisoner had been brought into court and was very nervous as he awaited the formal reading of the verdict by Clerk Killeffer. As the finding was read and Tuttle learned his fate, so far as the present trial is concerned, his face flushed and the tears came to his eyes, but in a moment he had himself under control again and had no comment to make as he was returned to jail, there to await sentence. The penalty for his crime is imprisonment in the penitentiary for from one to fifteen years.

The case was submitted to the jury shortly after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and for seven hours the jurors struggled with the mass of evidence that had been submitted. The first ballot stood seven for conviction and five for acquittal and the remaining seven hours was spent in bringing over those five jurors who were doubtful.

During the last two days of the trial the court room was literally packed with spectators, the very closest attention being given the evidence. The general impression prevailed that Tuttle would be convicted, though in many quarters a disagreement was looked for. Tuttle is also under indictment for assault on Miss Mary Rogers, who was with Miss Spicer at the time of the attempted assault and who positively identified Tuttle as the man who struck her down and dragged Miss Spicer away from Quarry street to the scene of the attempted crime.

During the last hours of the trial, Tuttle's mother, aged grandmother and his two little boys were in the court room with him and elicited much sympathy from the spectators, especially when the prisoner's attorneys, in their arguments to the jury, referred to the poor old mother awaiting the arrival home of her wayward son the night of the crime.

Miss Spicer and Miss Rogers also went through the most trying week of their lives as they sat in the limelight for a solid week. Tuttle's attorneys will file a motion for a new trial alleging error in the trial of the case in this court.

Prosecuting Attorney Justice was assisted by Attorneys Mouser & Maloney, and Tuttle was represented by Chiesinger & Guthery, and H. E. Hill.

The ladies of St. Mary's parish will hold a bazaar tomorrow night and Wednesday night in the Huber hall. All kinds of fancy articles on sale.

Jury for Bracy Case Called.
A special venire of 29 names was drawn from the jury wheel in the common pleas court this afternoon for the trial of the State of Ohio against the Marion County Humane society against David Bracy. Bracy was arrested some time ago on complaint of his wife and a charge of non-support was placed against him in Justice Gompf's court. Bracy demanded a jury and from the list drawn today, a jury of 12 will be selected. The case will be tried Thursday morning in Justice Gompf's court.

Examination Held Saturday.
Captain E. O. Richardson and Lieutenant George T. Gera and Harry B. Cresskum, of Company D, O. N. G., took a commissioner officers' examination in the armory building on East Center street Saturday afternoon. The examination was made up of questions concerning topography, problems of conventional signs, the war game on maps, movements of troops and military tactics.

The officers will wear their outcome of the examination when they attend a military "school" or lecture in Columbus next Saturday night.

DAMAGE SUIT STARTS TODAY

Miss Ackerman Asks $25,000 From City For Injuries From Fall.

HOLE IN PAYMENT CAUSED FALL

Occurred Last December. Charter Case up Wednesday.

Charged With Performing Criminal Operation on Mrs. O. E. Creviston, Resulting in Her Death--Jury Drawn--Mrs. Cosgrove Asks Divorce.

Judge William F. Duncan, of Findlay, arrived in Marion early this morning and at nine o'clock opened the court of common pleas. The damage case of Genevieve Ackerman, by her next friend, Charles Ackerman, against the City of Marion was called. Miss Ackerman is fourteen years of age. In her petition she alleges that she fell into a hole in pavement, opposite the Osborne meat market on West Center street, on December 31, 1910, at ten o'clock at night. The petition relates that the plaintiff received such injuries that she will be permanently crippled and it was all due to the carelessness of the city in not properly placing warnings about the dangerous place. She brings an action for $25,000. Attorneys DeGolley & DeGolley represent the plaintiff and City Solicitor Boyd and Attorneys Egan & Thompson are looking after the city's interests.

CHARTER CASE WEDNESDAY.

The next interesting case for the present term of court, will begin Wednesday of this week when Dr. W. A. Charter will be placed on trial on the charge of performing a criminal operation upon Mrs. Orriason E. Creviston, the operation resulting fatally to the young woman. Mrs. Creviston's husband is also under indictment for playing a prominent part in the affair.

This morning a special venire of ten names was drawn from the jury wheel, to be used in the Charter trial. They are S. L. Wotrining, Prospect township; Jacob Fall, first ward; T. J. Mead, second ward; W. C. Michel, Waldor; David Clegg, Pleasant; Samuel Epley, Charlton; Robert C. Sweeney, Highland; T. J. Crawley, Bowling Green; S. W. Baldwin, fourth ward and John Bricker, Big Island.

It is quite possible that the trial of this case will require several days and it is expected that it will prove almost as interesting to the public in general, as did the Tuttle trial just closed.

MRS. COSGROVE ASKS DIVORCE.

A petition for divorce was filed this morning by Lois E. Cosgrove against Earl Cosgrove, through attorney H. Leonard Hill. The couple was married August 21, 1906 and one child, now 13 months of age, was born of the union. Mrs. Cosgrove charges her husband with gross neglect of duty and failure to provide properly for her or their child. She also charges that he associates with bad women and that these associations are frequent. The petition states that the husband is not a proper person to have custody of the child, which is asked by the mother who also wants a divorce and wishes both temporary and permanent alimony.

COLUMBUS BANK FAILS TO OPEN DOORS

Columbus, O., Dec. 4.—The United National bank, of Columbus, failed to open its doors for business today. Rumors, said to be unfavorable to its business standing, circulated for more than a year, so depleted the bank's deposits that the directors late yesterday adopted a resolution to suspend National Bank Examiner R. W. Goodhart has been placed in charge of the bank and will liquidate it. The bank's last report on September 1, showed deposits of $2,374,992 and surplus and undivided profits of $169,209. Its capital was $750,000.

ELKS TO CONSIDER IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

Marion lodge No. 12, E. P. O. E., will hold a regular session Thursday evening and the officers wish every member to be present as there is business of great importance to come before the meeting—business out of the ordinary.

Miss Helen Houghton returned to Wooster yesterday to resume her studies in school there.

The annual memorial services of the Marion Lodge, No. 12, E. P. O. E., were held at the Trinity Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. At 1:30 o'clock, the lodge members assembled at their hall and marched to the church, where they were seated in a body.

"Largo," by Handel, played as a prelude by Miss Grace Durfee, was the opening number on the program, after which Exalted Ruler Harry Edmond led the opening services. During the calling of the roll of deceased Elks, the beautiful ceremony of remembrance, typified by the lighting of an arch of candles set against a background of purple, was observed, after which the invocation was pronounced by Rev. W. A. King. Alice Carey's beautiful poem, "One Sweetly Sorrowful Thought," set to music, was sung by Miss Carmen Blow, after which Fred E. Guthery delivered the eulogy in a very impressive manner. "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," by Bachman, was the title of a duet sung by Mrs. C. L. Allen and Mrs. B. L. Wallace.

The address of the afternoon was made by Ray Stillings, of Kenton, a member of the lodge. Mr. Stillings dwelt at length on the keynote of Elkdom, which he designated as universal brotherhood. He traced the growth of Elkdom and referred to it as being similar to the story of a personal life, mentioning the high endeavor of its members, and the cheerfulness, generous-minded men who go to make up the body. "Yea, it is not all these things which seal my love and devotion to Elkdom," said the speaker, "but it is memory. Today we sit with thousands of Elks and just remember. Remember the clasp of the hand, the smile on the lips and the laughter in the eye of the brother who is absent. We call the roll, but they answer not, still they are with us today in memory."

"The Two Cities," a male quartet sung by Harry Gillette, A. J. Whiting, J. W. Jacoby and G. W. Hays, was very pleasing. This was the closing number of the program.

The following are the names of the Elks' absent brothers: Edgar A. Donahugh, James S. Reed, Rolly C. Perry, George Key, Harvey Milliner, James H. Reed, T. H. H. Beale, W. T. McKelvey, John E. Rhoads, S. T. Beehler, George W. McMurry, George C. Peardon, Maurice Breen, Henry True, John H. Crowsell, Clyde W. King, Boston G. Young, Frank Levy.

Those who died during 1911 are: George H. Foreman, I. A. Merchant, W. B. Foye, William T. Smith.

Frank Waterhouse and the two Italians, who were injured in the wreck which occurred last Thursday, are reported as recovering.

LYNCH WILL BE ELECTED AGAIN

New York, Dec. 4.—Although Thomas J. Lynch probably will be re-elected president of the National League when the managers meet here December 12, indications today are that a warm fight will be waged against him by Charles Elsbeth, of Brooklyn; Charles W. Murphy, of Chicago; and George Fossil, of Philadelphia. Elsbeth is said to be endeavoring to get the other managers to agree to the election of Joseph D. O'Brien, former president of the American association. Elsbeth has fought Lynch since the latter dropped him from the schedule committee, on which he served many years. Fossil's grievance against Lynch grows out of the assault upon Empire Finneran by Sherwood Magee, and Lynch's drastic action in barring Magee from baseball. Murphy's enmity is not clear.

GIVE PEDDLER $150 JUDGMENT

Joseph Owen, a Syrian pack peddler, was awarded judgment for $150 against the Big Four Railroad company in Justice Conley's court this afternoon. On September 30, Owen bought a ticket on the Big Four at Columbus good for his passage to this city. At the time he claims to have checked his baggage, his pack, and he had the baggage check to show for it. When he arrived in Marion he was unable, so he claims, to find his baggage, which he claims contained lace, dress goods and flannel worth $150.

The company refused to settle and he brought an action in Justice Conley's court. This morning the court held that Owen was entitled to the full amount of his claim. An appeal was filed by the railroad company and the matter will be carried to the common pleas court on appeal.

PERRY COUNTY JOINS THE WETS

New Lexington, Dec. 4.—Perry county Saturday joined the ranks of the wets by a majority of 633, reversing a dry majority of 593 three years ago, when 46 saloons were voted out. Every municipality in the county save two went wet, these two being Thornville and Crooksville, both of which are dry under the Beal law. The wets cast 2542 votes and the dries 2209. The only majority secured by the dries were in the rural districts. The wettest spots were the villages in the southern end of the county, which are in the mining district.

New Lexington, the county seat, gave a wet majority of 73; Jackson City went wet by 53, New Straitsville by 249, Shawnee by 232, Corning by 292, Congo by 155, Headville by 78, and Somerset, which is dry by Beal law, went wet by 55. It is probable that a Beal law election will be held in Somerset called by the wets in an effort to capture that village.
