THE TELEGRAPH.
Friday Morning, July 16, 1880.

LOCAL NEWS.

Come on now with your orders for job printing.

Richmond letter came in a little late for insertion.

Job Printing cheaper than ever at the TELEGRAPH office.

There will be a regular meeting of the Council next Wednesday evening.

The ancient fig-leaf style of dress would be comfortable these days.

The TELEGRAPH is always to be found on sale at the Central News Room.

Why has the enumerator of Geneva not filed his copy of names, etc., at Jefferson.

The McKenzie Brothers, contractors, have quite an extensive job of piling at Erie.

Jim Jaffords, who was recently pardoned by Governor Foster, is "at home" again.

Dr. G. W. Hotelkin, with his spring-lean truss and supporters is at the Ashtabula house to-day.

Mr. W. E. Reeves now runs a horse and wagon to assist him in the prompt delivery of his papers.

Messrs P. C. Ford and Chas. Richardson returned from a pleasant to Lake Superior yesterday.

The $5,000 Corlis engine of the Ashtabula Tool Company arrived last Saturday. It weighs about 14 tons.

Mr. Fred Collins started last Tuesday for a trip to Chicago on one of the Northern Transit Co's propellers.

Over seven hundred people attended the opening of the Geneva Sewing Machine works, Wednesday evening.

Rev. C. L. Hallwell of Oil City, Pa., will preach in the Baptist church next Sabbath morning and evening.

The funeral of John E. Watrous, will take place to-day at three o'clock p. m. under the charge Paulus Post, G. A. R.

There is a man at the L. S. & M. S. depot, who is the father of two pairs of twins. The enumerator gave him the cake.

Mr. Will Curtis, Washington correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean has been visiting friends here during the past week.

The new house of Austin J. Smith, adjoining the site of his old one, has the frame up, and is about ready for the brick walls.

The Village work of dredging at the Harbor is about completed, only the 50 foot strip at Bridge street being unfinished yesterday.

New potatoes—the Early Rose—are coming into market and the public want is met by the farmers at 50 cents a bushel. The crop is a good one.

Mr. A. C. Fisk, who for several weeks past has been visiting friends in New York state, returned last Thursday with his health greatly improved.

In view of publishing a correct table by towns and villages, of the result of the last census in Ashtabula County, we have omitted the table this week.

A barn, about a mile west of Geneva, belonging to John Tracey, of this place, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, Wednesday night.

Go and see the game of ball between the White Sewing Machine club of Cleveland and the Ashtabula Club, Saturday afternoon. It will be interesting.

During one of the showers of Wednesday night a chimney of P. P. Butler's house was struck by the lightning that played about in such a lively manner.

Our friend Landon of South Ridge—East has been unfortunate in having a cow injured by lightning and the loss of a valuable brood mare, all within a few days.

The Cleveland Herald is out in its new dress from the foundry of Farmer, Little & Co., N. Y., and looks fresh and radiant as a dandelion arrayed for her nuptials.

Judge Cadwell favored us with a call on Tuesday last while awaiting the train for Jefferson. He seems to enjoy life upon the bench, and has a fair year lease upon it yet.

A Cleveland Chinaman when asked if he would vote for Garfield, replied—he no vote for Garfield or Hancock—he votes for Republican. Democrat get no shirt to wash.

Hemingway & Hayes, the Painesville contractors, are busy building cribs for extending the piers. They will have to rush matters to complete their job according to contract.

The corrected returns give Ashtabula Village 4444 inhabitants, 599 more than Painesville, and with the Township over one seventh of the entire population of the County.

The Rev. Hugh Bailey, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, has so far recovered from his recent indisposition as to enable him to conduct part of the services last Sunday.

Hesperities have followed their predecessors—the strawberry and arno longer to be found on the market. The blackberries, abundant and fine, have already made their appearance.

Madison is to attempt the support of another weekly paper. E. Hill & Co. are the experimenters. It is expected to make its appearance to day, under the name of Index. We wish it prosperity.

The L. S. & M. S. Co. have at length an 8 per cent. dividend—the semi-annual 4 per cent. portion of it is payable in August. This will be comfortable for the many stockholders in this region.

A new campaign song, just published by George D. Newhall & Co., Cincinnati—Jim Garfield at the Front. 5 cents a copy. Campaign quartets will be looking up something in this line soon.

Lack of space forbids the publication of Gen. Garfield's letter of acceptance this week. It will appear next week in juxtaposition with that of his competitor, if out so that they may be read responsively.

The members of the Royal Arcanum of this place, with their ladies and invited guests, go on next week to the 21st inst., on a basket picnic. A special car on the morning train of the A. & P. Ry. will carry them.

If any of our subscribers would like the Kansas, Topoka Farmer, an old and valuable agricultural journal, at the low price of $1 a year, we can procure it for them on the receipt of the amount named and a three cent stamp.

The wool season is about closing up, but Mr. Sam'l W. Humphrey brought in a load of 150 fleeces, weighing 783 pounds, on Monday last—an unusually good lot of medium staple, for which he got 42 cents—the top of the market.

On last evening the contractor for moving the O'Neill store at the Harbor had reached the end of Bridge street where the turn is to be made. Considering the difficulty of the work he has made good progress during the past week.

Mr. George Wright & Co., of Jefferson have had an exhibition during the past few days at the Fisk House, some fine specimens of campaign banners and transparencies, of their own production. Political clubs throughout the county should remember them.

Geneva is alive in the way of preparation for Tuesday the 21st of August, the dedication of the soldier's monument. Let it be borne in mind, and give her a lift. Garfield and other distinguished gentlemen are promised to give interest to the occasion.

Some fellow has been getting up a bogus letter of acceptance for Gen. Garfield, which has been pronounced a fraud. Although there may be fellows smart enough to attempt an imitation of Garfield, no one—we think—would be likely to make a successful imitation.

The current is setting with commendable force, to Red Brook. Austintown, Jefferson, Ashtabula, are tending that way, all are looking forward to a good time. The Sentinel man, we observe is of the number. We trust Ashtabula flies and mosquitoes will deal gently with him.

The accident of Sunday morning last on the "Gulf fill," should serve as a warning to the Lake Shore officials as regards fast running over that locality. Had the accident happened to a passenger train, there would have been a large loss of life, and the horrors of another "Ashtabula disaster" repeated.

That top pistol is a cruel one. It fills the papers with accounts of fearful accidents. An Erie dispatch of the 11th, says that seven children had been seriously injured during the last few days. One of them died of lockjaw, and two others were threatened with symptoms of the same from the injuries received.

Occasional showers have prevented the languishing of any of the growing crops, while the harvest of the wheat crop has hardly been interrupted or unfavorably affected. The temperature has been very uniform and steady for most of the time since the month came in, and the grain is in an excellent order.

A good cod, four year old gelding—Magie Mitchell and George Wilkes stock—standing well up in the world, brown about the hips, running into lighter bay below, has just been introduced into town by Mr. A. A. Strong. He has a good natural gait, and bids fair to meet any reasonable expectation of his owner.

The house of Mr. Charles Tinker on Park street has also the frame up, and the cornice on, and is also about ready for the masons, in brick laying. The height of posts and general design of this building bespeaks the aid of an architect. The finger of an architect may always be discovered in general design and effect.

Quite an infusion of patriotism—politics and religion they used to call it—was thrown into the decoration and services of the Presbyterian church, on Sunday last. Red, white and blue,—national flags with a floral Independence Bell from Simmons' nursery, Geneva, together with sermon replete with the love of country.

A fire was discovered in the roof of the engine room of Hitchcock's shop on Tuesday afternoon. The roof was lined and the fire took on the under side, a fan being near, which sometimes carries sparks in its current. It made something of a start, but a 40 barrel tank of water near enabled the quenching of the flames in short order.

The secret of perfect health is invariably found by those who take Sellers' liver pills.

BASE BALL.
—Has Painesville a base ball club?
—Seats are provided for all at the ball grounds.

—The Elvians are expected to play here next week.

—Ashtabula vs Whites of Cleveland, to-morrow.

—To-morrow, Saturday, July 17th, the White Sewing Machine club, of Cleveland, will play the Ashtabula on the grounds of the latter's club. The home club will have only its old players on this occasion and an interesting game may be expected.

—The game on Friday last between the Painesville and Ashtabula on the grounds of the latter club drew out a good sized audience, considering the short notice given. The game resulted in another victory for the home club, score 17 to 10. Another game will probably be played with the Painesville before the close of the season.

GROVE MEETING.—The Rev. A. A. McMaster, pastor of the Universalist church, of Windsor, O., will address the people of Jefferson and vicinity in the grove in front of the late residence of Judge Chaffee, on Sunday, July 18, at 11 o'clock a. m. and 1 o'clock p. m. The public are cordially invited to attend.

BENJAMIN-BETLER.—The marriage of Mr. Wm. G. Benham, of Ashtabula, a Mrs. H. M. Butler, formerly of Toledo, took place at the residence of Hiram Judson, in Conneaut, Rev. E. R. Lewis of the Congregational church officiating, on Tuesday, July 13. The ceremony was performed at noon—followed by a pleasant repast, in which the guests participated. The bride was the recipient of presents from relations and friends.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The National Republic of the Soldiers and Sailors will be held at Canton on Wednesday, Sept. 1st, 1880, instead of Sept. 14, as heretofore announced, to insure the attendance of President Hayes and General Sherman, from whom they have positive assurance of their presence and participation in the ceremonies of that day.

The following regiments have already signified their intention to be present: The 4th, 19th, 24th, (President Hayes), 25th, 26th, 104th, 107th, 119th, 41st O. V., and the Fifth U. S. Colored troops, Dr. Cook's regiment, and the 1st, 3d, and 20th Ohio Batteries.

Exchanges will please notice the change of date from the 14th to the 1st of September.

—The New York Home Insurance Co., of which H. Fassett is agent, and in which the Congregational church has been insured, have acknowledged the claim in equity of the society upon the company for the recent loss and damage by lightning, although not legally held by the terms of the policy. They have, therefore, voluntarily and generously remitted the sum $500 for covering that loss.

Dr. D. S. Hall, stopping with his brother William, in Saybrook, made a trip to New York City, and consulted Dr. Sequin, one of the foremost of the profession in this country. The treatment recommended by Dr. S. is now being followed out, and from it the patient is receiving benefit. The object of his stay in this neighborhood, is to avoid the malarial influences of Saginaw, deemed unfavorable to the progress of restoration.

A parrot in the possession of Mrs. J. S. Blyth, of African nativity—a variety noted for their wide range of vernacular—has a remarkable readiness in lingual attainment. Since the nomination it has caught up the popular exclamation, and repeats it with a distinctness and frequency that strikes with wonder every stranger—"Hurrah for Garfield!" Surprising as this may seem, she has a numerous range of phrases, equally so, which she goes through in her daily variations with much complacency and satisfaction, but with, perhaps, less frequency than many of our Democratic opponents respect their party shibboleths.

—We took a drive on Monday evening last over the Gulf road and took a squint at the work of the Blackstone boys. They have done a good job, as well in rock cutting as in filling. Instead, however, of leaving the driveway from the foot of the first descent, it might have been started some half way between its present location and the bridge, and taken an oblique course instead of a right angle, and continued the grade from the bridge to the steep pitch, uniform. This would have been a better arrangement for both objects. The rock cutting and gutter are both well, and the job a creditable one. Our commissioners should not let the season pass without the contemplated work on the other side. No better time to finish the job than the present.

—Summer Boarders, by Mrs. Adèle M. Garrigues, is a charmingly readable book, of 188 pages, giving life sketches of some of the great army of landladies, and the greater army of boarders, to whom these pages are, inscribed by the author. Some of the characters are so vividly drawn to nature that it holds the readers interest and admiration in some of its finer passages to the last, especially those which are in and about "Mrs. Glenham's" home as landlady, situated as it is in a gossipy country town in Michigan, where a few months previous to the opening of the story, a company had been prospecting for salt, instead of which, was discovered a mineral spring, which soon dispensed its healing and life giving waters. The succeeding summer months, crowds of people were drawn thither to partake of these rich benefits, among whom were the high and the lowly, the rich and the poor, which the author's powers marshals before the readers, the interest of which, is unflagging to the close of the book. We understood this is the first effort of Mrs. Garrigues in story writing. That it may not be her last, will we think, be the earnest wish of those who read this glowing story from page to page. STATION STREET SEWER.
For several years past the residents on Station street have been petitioning and laboring with the Council for a sewer through that street, on the grounds that in its present state the water stands in their cellars, thereby rendering their homes unhealthy as well as uncomfortable.

The Council appreciated the justice of their petitions, and after considerable delay, took the preliminary step of setting off a certain territory and naming it "Station Street Sewer District No. 1," and had a map of the district and drawings of the necessary main Sewers through Station and Depot streets prepared by the Engineer, with the intention of putting the sewer through at as early a day as possible.

The Solicitor now informs the Council that the revised statements require the entire corporation to be divided into sewer districts before sewers can be put through any district; further, that the expense of a sewer cannot exceed 25 per cent of the value of the property through which it runs, as the same stands on the tax duplicate. All of this property is now based on the valuation of 1870, which is far below its present valuation.

The Real Estate Assessor is now at work making a new valuation of all the land in the corporation, and it is expected the valuation will be sufficiently high to permit of the property being assessed for this purpose.

Negotiations are pending between the Council and the County Commissioners to divide the expense of making new maps of the proposed sewer district of the Corporation, as the maps now in the Auditor's office do not show the number of feet front and owners of the lots.

The petitioners for the sewers are disappointed in the new difficulties presented, and are seeking a new course to accomplish their object.

INTERESTING STATISTICS.
There are fifteen persons in Ashtabula Village who were at last birthday 90 years of age and upwards, seven of whom are females. Mr. F. A. Stewart, father of Senator Stewart, of Nevada, is the oldest person, his age at last birthday being 90 years. The following is a list of these persons with their respective ages:

Mrs. Louis Cheney	90 years
Mr. Silas Tupper	89 "
Mrs. Catherine Tinley	89 "
Mr. Lamson Wright	88 "
Mr. Hiram Luce	87 "
Mrs. Sally Millikan	86 "
Mrs. Susan Bennick	84 "
Mr. J. C. Huntington	84 "
Mrs. Hannah Clark	84 "
Mr. Simon Hughes	83 "
Mr. Josiah Russell	82 "
Mrs. Lucy M. Humphrey	81 "
Mrs. Hilda Beck Rich	80 "
Mr. James Hall	80 "
Mr. P. A. Stewart	80 "

Total age.....1206 1/2
Average age.....84 1/2

The baby business during the past year was quite brisk, in the corporation there being 130 of these little kickers produced.

There are ten pairs of twins, two pairs of this number being credited to one family. This twin business is becoming quite popular here, and another 100 per cent. increase may be expected in the population of Ashtabula Village during the next ten years.

The colored people evidently do not relish the gentle wintery zephyrs from over lake Erie, for we have only 40 out of 4444.

MEETING OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
On Wednesday last the County Executive Committee, met in Jefferson, a fixed date for holding the primary meeting for nominating delegates to the County Convention, viz: On Saturday, August 7th, between the hours of 3 and 8 o'clock. Upon the basis established the township will be entitled to the number of delegates, viz:

Ashtabula	12	Geneva	12
Conneaut	11	Andover	12
Austintown	5	Cherry Valley	3
Colerbrook	3	Dennmark	2
Dorset	2	Harpersfield	4
Hartsgrove	2	Jefferson	4
Kingsville	6	Lenox	3
Monroe	6	Morgan	5
New Lyme	2	Orwell	4
Pierpont	3	Plymouth	2
Richmond	3	Rome	3
Saybrook	4	Sheffield	3
Wayne	4	Trumbull	4
Williamsfield	4	Windsor	4
Total number of Delegates 131.

The number of delegates from Ashtabula has been increased since last convention from nine to twelve, Ashtabula showing the largest Republican gain of any township in the county. This great increase is due in a great measure to the untiring effort of Mr. W. C. Haskell one of the members of the County Committee.

At the coming election there are to be nominated a Sheriff, Auditor, Recorder, County Commissioner, Cyroner and an Infermary Director.

OFF THE TRACK.
As freight train No. 19, composed of 33 cars, due at Ashtabula at 6:45 a. m., last Sunday, on the Franklin Division of the L. S. & M. S. Ry., reached the "Gulf fill" the seventh car jumped the track, followed by nine more cars. They were all loaded with coal, and some of them rolled to the bottom of the "fill," a distance of about 100 feet, being badly broken.

This accident was caused by the end of a journal being burned off, which threw a car off the track, which, in striking the switch at the south end of the "fill" resulted in the accident.

Fortunately no one was injured, but W. W. Wood, a brakeman, saved himself from injury by jumping from a car as it was going over and landed forty feet down the embankment. Had the train been running at its usual speed the balance of the train would have been wrecked as well as lives lost.

Two wrecking trains with a large force of men worked at the wreck all day Sunday and at five o'clock p. m. the track was repaired and cleared of the debris.

—Prof. T. H. Hopkins has returned, and will be in town Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, for the purpose of giving instruction in music.

"HANK" ON THE WING.
NEAUCHEE, Lake Superior, July 12.
Dear Ted.—Having a little of the wild goose prosperity about me to fly North, I hurried through with my haying and started for this northern country, where the mosquito ceases to trouble and the weary can find rest. I left old Ashta, on the day which we celebrate, and passed a short time in Cleveland, listening to Capt. Burrows' oration—at the close of which the Gatling gun rattled like pouring a quart of hickory nuts into a tin pan. It is useless to say anything about the stretch of country between Cleveland and Chicago, though to me it was all new—for it was my first trip west of Toledo. Reaching Chicago in the forenoon, I passed the balance of the day in viewing the sights to be seen in every part of the city: The boulevard, Douglas' monument, the Exposition building in which President Garfield was nominated, and the many public and private buildings too numerous to mention. It was getting towards night as I left my hotel for the boat, when I met Prof. Schenk, formerly of the household of Judge Parsons of your place, who very generously led the way to the Rush street bridge where the good steamer, J. G. Truesdale was receiving her last ton of freight for the North. The Prof. seemed happy since he left the deep blue seas as chief of the culinary department—or otherwise known as cook—of the schooner Petite La Belle. He said the idea of being rolled out of his berth in the midst of pleasant dreams in a storm was too much, so he applied and got a position as mixer No. 2, at the Palmer House Restaurant, with good salary and plenty to eat.

It was sun down as the line was cast off and our steamer was plowing the waters of placid lake Michigan. I seldom ever saw the lake in a milder mood. The whistle of tugs and locomotives, the rumbling of buses and cars, the yelping of boot blacks and newboys were now left behind. Old Morpheus invited me early to the state room and it was not till early dawn that I awoke, and then to find myself in Milwaukee, having called at Racine and departed without my knowledge. The 5 hours allotted me here enabled me to view the city. Many elegant hotels have been erected since my last visit 5 years ago. Cheap lager and plenty of it, is what the city is noted for. No city in the union, I believe, makes more of it. "Two for five," is the price all over the city. About 11 o'clock I bid adieu to the Cream City with her gilded towers, spacious elevators and cheap lager, reaching Sheboygan in due time, stopping just long enough to buy a daily paper up town and return to the boat. It has a population of about 7,000; furniture and flour is the chief products of the city. Manitowac, a twin sister of Sheboygan is reached, though not quite so large in population. This town boasts of her ship building, flouring mills, brick yards and Democratic majorities. Escanaba, a city upon the sand and sawdust is now reached and I bid good bye to our small, but well behaved crowd, to mix with the people of this northern peninsula for the first time. This and Marquette are the two outlets for the iron ore of this great region. The dockage here for shipment of ore is 2400 ft. in length, furnishing business for a large portion of the iron-carrying fleet of the lakes. Several vessels were loading for Ashtabula. The town contains 5,000 people according to the late count; has a neatly printed paper called the Zion Post, and is doing excellent service for the Republican ticket. The editor, Mr. Van Duzer, told me he had slept under the same tent and drank from the same canteen with Gen. Garfield in the war. He is very sanguine of electing our candidate regardless of the solid South. Here I obtained a special permit to ride in a dog house attached to the hind end of a long train of empty ore cars and after a tedious ride through sand bluffs and swamps, I arrived at this place—Neauche, an Indian name, signifying hell. This place contains nearly 4,000 inhabitants, all depending on the development and price of iron ore, and has the appearance of an oil town. Two railroads enter the town, running right through the business part of the town. The Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon road is carrying 1800 car loads daily to Marquette; while the Chicago & Northwestern is doing the same amount of business, dumping its freight at Escanaba. Here is where friend Griffey of the Herald is located, doing a thriving business and under his roof I am now quartered; to him I am indebted for a point to visit. Many points of interest on this peninsula, in visiting the mines and witnessing the subterranean developments of this wonderful country. Were it not for occupying too much space in your paper, I would like to tell you of my experience in entering the celebrated Republic mine—800 feet; how they drill with compressed air; how the faithful mule is made useful down in the shaft; how they blast with giant powder and how it sounds when a blast is made. Entering the mine with mercury at 90 degrees, I pass through all seasons of the year in temperature and by the time I reach the bottom, an overcoat is comfortable. The machinery operating the mines is of the most powerful kind and the operators are skillful and trusted. All movements in the mine are made known to the engine house by signals, and so well posted are they that no blunders are made and no lives are thereby lost; yet accidents are constantly taking place, for it is not an uncommon thing to see on the streets, men with one or both eyes put out, his face blackened with powder, or his head gone off by reason of some accident about the mine. A physician is kept by one or more mining companies, exclusively to attend to the employees and their families. He is paid by deducting one dollar from each man on the pay roll every month. One doctor at the Republic mine is said to receive $1400 per month.

This country abounds in beautiful inland lakes about one mile in width, nestling among the hills with a rock bound shore. Fish are said to abound in these lakes to a great extent, of which I may say something in the future. Toak lake is the nearest one to the village, and a fine oil painting of which adorns the parlor of Mr. Griffey.

This week I will visit the copper region and may say something of that country if it does not prove too strong a dose for you. Adieu, HANK.

BACK AGAIN.—With Wednesday—the day upon which the posting of the list in the Clerk's office, was brought to a close, the enumeration diversion came to a finale, and the Junior's absence from his proper position was ended. His entire absence, and the withdrawal of all attention or thought from the office for an entire month, has thrown the burden a little heavily upon the senior and made things a little less satisfactory, perhaps, for our friends and patrons. With a return of office matters to their accustomed channels, the wishes and wants of our customers will be now promptly attended to satisfactorily exceeded. All orders for job work will now have prompt dispatch. Our patrons, we, therefore, invited to bring on their work, and their orders will be filled with our accustomed taste and elegance.

COUNTY NEWS.
FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS.
KINGSVILLE.
Warm! 90 in the shade! So am I most of the time.

Wheat harvest nearly over. Oats starting farmers in the face. So are the potatoes to begin.

A great many farmers in this vicinity are raising tomatoes for the canning establishment of Cummings of Conneaut. The crop in most places is looking well.

A party of Kingsvillians having become tired of public life, are camping out this week on the shores of old Erie. Among them are Elihu Curtis and family, James Pickinger and sisters, Sherm. Wright, Mary Curtis, and perhaps others, of whom your correspondent has not the names. Their principal labor is bathing and archery. Happy mortals. The rich may ride in shaynes, but the poor farmers must work—or words to that effect.

We have to record the death of Mrs. Grover, a lady over 80 years of age, and step mother of your former correspondent of this place.

We are not near enough to North Kingsville (or Kingsville improper) to get much news from there, consequently if your readers want news from that section of their misdeeds and shortcomings, we must refer them to the Index.

Kingsville has formed a Garfield club, with As. Pickinger, President; Dr. M. Kingsley, Vice President and J. H. Kingsman, Secretary and Treas. Inco Wood.

EAGLEVILLE.
Last week George Knowlton of Eagleville while picking cherries fell from the ladder, or perhaps I should say that the ladder fell first, at any rate when he picked himself up, he found that his left arm was broken above the wrist and his collar was broken on the same side was broken in two places. He is attended by Dr. Baker of Rock Creek.

SAYBROOK.
The next meeting of the Young People's Christian Temperance Union will be held next Friday evening, July 16, at the residence of Mrs. Marcus Kostwick. We hope all the friends of temperance, that possibly can attend will do so.

Born, in Saybrook, July 11, a son to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Covell. Weight, 9 1/2 pounds.

We hear of several cases of so-called sunstroke at Painesville the 3d inst. It is said the subjects were prostrated and helpless, and they claim after their partial recovery, that it was not liquor that aided them, but the excessive heat in the crowded streets of the town. It is much better for them and the cause of temperance had they been protected from the burning rays of the sun, and gone home at the close of the day refreshed and with the happy feeling that the day had been well spent.

Saybrook, July 12, '80.

Sentinel.
C. H. Simonds now holds the reins over a bay horse, which he purchased in Andover. The horse is 16 hands high, and a good roaster.

The Erie, Pa., County Republican Convention at Corry, after a siege of four days, on the thirty-sixth, re-nominated Col. Watson, of Warren, for Congress.

The teachers of Ashtabula County will please bear in mind that the annual session of the Ashtabula County Teachers' Institute commences at Jefferson on Tuesday, July 20. State School Commissioner J. J. Burns will deliver a lecture on the first evening of the session, Tuesday, July 20. A large attendance of the teachers at the opening of the session is wanted and expected.

Geneva Times.
Charley, son of Mr. Samuel N. Castle, of North Centre, fell from a tree in which he was at play, yesterday morning, dislocating the wrist of his left arm, and breaking one of the bones of the same, as stated by our informant.

A report reaches us that our Democratic friend George W. Andrus, of Trumbull, got caught up in a whirlwind Friday evening while going from Trumbull Center to Footsville, horse, buggy and all, being lifted two or three feet from the earth and as suddenly dropped. His hat disappeared entirely and has not been found. The people over there claim that when George was first lifted he pronounced to vote for Garfield, if restored to earth, but burrhead for Hancock as soon as he lit.

Since Gen. Garfield's return to his home in Mentor, besides receiving from one to two hundred letters daily, he has been favored with so large a number of telegrams that the Western Union Company have felt constrained to ask the privilege of running a wire from the Lake Shore to his office, and keeping an operator there constantly. For this purpose, Mr. E. P. Wright, of Cleveland, Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and Mr. Henry A. Phillips, of Ashtabula, of the Lake Shore department, visited Mentor to make the necessary arrangements early last week and the branch line was promptly established.

Bethany, Ont.
Gentlemen—I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to the great benefit I have received from the use of one of the wonders of the world, that is, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried everything that could be done through medical means, but without relief. As a last resort I tried the electric oil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored.

I have used this wonderful healer in many cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, and all braines, &c.: in fact it is our family medicine.

Self murder by neglecting to obtain so sure a remedy as Barrocks for kidney and liver complaint.

Prepared by E. K. Thompson, Titusville, Pa. For sale by Swift. 93-4

Honored and Blessed.
When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced which could cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were skeptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubts, and to day the discoverers of that great medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors. 93-4

A Fool once More.
For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what the matter was or cure her, and I used up a small fortune in lumbing stuff. Six months ago I saw a U. S. Hag with hop bitters on it, I thought it would be a fool once more, I tried it, but my folly proved to be wisdom. Two bottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife, and it cost me only two dollars. Such folly pays.—H. W. Detroit, 36
