THE TELEGRAPH.

Friday Morning, Sept. 24, 1880.

LOCAL NEWS.

Next Tuesday is the day. Are you going to Warren? The health of Mrs. Lorenzo Tyler is improving. We acknowledge the receipt of study public documents of interest from Gen. Garfield. Fickinger's Kentucky trotter has been sold to Cleveland parties—consideration not named. Mr. E. A. Hitchcock has been sick with typhoid fever for about a week past, but is slowly recovering. The Ives Chaffin farm in Plymouth has been sold to N. S. Taylor, of Dakota, for his own use and occupancy. Several matters of interest have been either deferred, or pruned down. Among the former, "The galaxy of Heaven." James Savage, eldest son of Linus Savage, lies dangerously sick at the house of his parents with disease of the kidneys. A straw was taken on the excursion train to Pittsburgh last Tuesday morning which stood 76 for Garfield, 40 for Hancock and 8 for Weaver. It is now understood that the donor of the large sum of $500,000 to the Western Reserve College in view of removal to Cleveland, is Mr. Amasa Stone. The Warren Chronicle states that within two weeks nearly thirty head of cattle have died in that vicinity of a disease generally pronounced to be "Texas Fever." Mr. Bert Wilcox of Rock Creek is now traveling agent for the F. B. Case tobacco house, he has a fine turnout and the quality of his cigars and tobacco is unsurpassed. Thayer's market at the Harbor has been removed from the O'Neill store to the Kain block. Seth now has as convenient and neat a market as any one in the business. The Culley Manufacturing Company is again extending its accommodations for increasing business by lifting the roof of its main building, and virtually adding a third story. Wood the photographer, has a fine life sized photo, on exhibition of A. A. Strong, Esq., and it is no discredit to the artist when it is mistaken for a likeness of General Garfield. 840 feet of docks have been built at the Harbor during the past season. The Ashtabula Loan Association built 380 feet, the Farmers' National Bank 140; Fisk & Morrison 50; R. C. Humphrey 65; Haskell's 205. The McKee Brothers are preparing to build the seven cribs for the extension of the east pier, during the coming winter. Each crib is to be forty feet long. The work is to be completed by the first of July, 1881. A fellow from Rock Creek, whose name we did not get, was detected, one day last week in pocketing a handkerchief at L'Honnedit's store, and was called to account. He delivered up, and was permitted to go his gait. No Republican in Ohio should be away from home on the day of the October Election. Republicans of Ashtabula, bear this in mind, and remember the importance of that election, and govern yourselves accordingly. We think the Sentinel is in error in saying the John C. Hutchings, nominated by the Democracy of Cleveland for Congress is the same who succeeded J. R. Giddings. He is a son, but equally Democratic with his father. The D. K. Clint, drawing fifteen feet of water went to her dock the other day without touching the bottom. Our Cleveland neighbors continue to complain of vessels drawing only fourteen feet grounding in the noble Cuyaboga. Standover stories are afloat as to the course of His Honor—the Mayor with regard to some of the hoodlum demonstrations upon our streets, which with his jealousy of the reputation of the village for peace and good order call for attention. Extracts from the St. Louis Christian, the St. Louis Post Dispatch and endorsed by the Cincinnati Christian Standard, exposing a swindling operation in collecting funds for the victims of an asserted famine in Norton county Kansas, have been sent us, in which the Rev. S. S. Bartlett is made to bear a prominent part, very much to his prejudice as to the cloth. We do not care to go into this matter, further than to notice it as we have done as a matter of current news.

A friend at our elbow inquires—where were the police and marshals at the time the hoodlums were pelting the torch light procession with stones, etc? The political aspect of the matter probably made it a rather tight place for these officers to act in. Miss Adelle Paine's New York Dramatic Alliance played at the Opera House on last Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to small houses. The troupe is an excellent one and entitled to better patronage than it received here. It plays in Warren on the evening of the 28th inst. Messrs. Hemingway & Hayes, the contractors for extending the east pier, have sunk two forty foot cribs and have two more ready to put in place when the stone arrives. One more crib is being constructed which, when put in place will complete their contract for the 200 feet extension. Mr. W. T. Ball, of Solon, formerly of Kingsville under date of the 20th inst. writes: "The Solon Garfield & Arthur Club raised a pole Saturday September 18th, one hundred and eighty-seven feet high! If any town in the state can beat that, show up, and let us know through the TELEGRAPH." A new feature of the campaign tactics have been introduced in the village by some of the disorderly and lawless sorts, by the petting of peaceable and orderly citizens with stones and foul missiles while parading our streets with torches. How does this affect the sensibilities of the News man and the reputation of the village? A white lady grape—a seedling of the Concord—with large clusters fine and remarkably compact, sweet in flavor, excellent many of those raised under glass, hardy and vigorous growers—have been raised by Messrs. Seymour & Downs, nursery men, of South Norwalk, Ct. The Gazette thinks the fruit worthy of general culture. The new road connecting the ridges between the old Roger Griswold place and that of J. H. Woodman has just had the benefit of the expenditure of a $25 appropriation from the Trustees. The getting down from Bonker Hill has been made somewhat easier and safer, but further outlays are needed to put it in proper order. The trimming up of the parks was begun on Wednesday of last week by Councilman Haskell, assisted by Prof. Trimmer. The job is a much needed one, but it strikes us that if it had been begun in the spring it would have been better. The work has been well begun, and our trust is that the discretion and judgment of Councilman H. will control him to the end. The Standard seems a little jealous over the assertion of the preponderating decency and respectability of the Republican, as compared with the Democratic party. The ratio of virtue was fixed "preponderatingly" in the comparison, as used by President Hindale. There is no firmer position than that, and we are sorry to see our neighbor show a captious disposition in a matter so well settled. The rock cutting at the Gulf under the contract of the Blakeslee brothers was brought to a close on Saturday last. The rock has been removed and used for widening the track below and in filling a portion of the track. The material is pretty rough for a traveled path, for present use, but there is hope for slacking in due time, we suppose. From the cutting, too near the bridge, there is a large amount of ballasting to be done, which no doubt should be done county-wide. The season of advertising is upon us, and the drafts upon our space are hard to meet. This of course is temporary, but while it lasts it is imperious and exacting. To admit of a variety we are compelled to restrict rather rigidly, the several departments of the paper. The temperance department under these circumstances, cannot be allowed more than a half column, and we would be obliged to our friends interested in that department to confine them selves to articles of no greater length. Let your articles then, friends, not exceed the limit—half column. The gathering to listen to the farewell sermon of Rev. Mr. Yingling on Sunday evening filled the Methodist church to its full capacity, and the clergy took possession of the platform. The retiring pastor gave an essay—"The lessons of life—a commendable effort that commanded the attention of the audience, though it was evident that the speaker was too much overcome by his feelings to do justice to himself or subject. He was assisted in the exercises by Messrs. Safford, McGiffert and Peeman. The feeling between pastor and family and people, is reciprocally warm and generous. A further expression was given on Monday evening by a sociable and donation full in attendance and generous and liberal in spirit and endowment. 17th O. V. L. held their reunion on the 25th ult. Capt. L. C. Reeve presided. After prayer by Rev. Richardson, a thoughtful and well digested address of welcome was delivered in the name of the people of Lenox, and to the soldiers of the late war was presented, a beautiful flag—Mal. S. S. Burrows responded. He was followed by Col. Fitch and also by F. A. Pettibone of the 103th. A free and bountiful dinner was given by the citizens. The history of the regiment was given by Mr. James Braden, and numerous other short addresses followed from different persons. Present of the regiment 102. Officers for the coming year were chosen as follows: President, L. C. Reeve; Vice President, — Stocking; Secretary and Treasurer, M. J. Sloan; Executive Committee, L. C. Reeve, — Stocking, M. J. Sloan, L. O. Billington and D. Alexander, Custodian of the flag, T. B. Wiro. Thanks were tendered the citizens of Lenox for their bounty, and the gleo club for their music. Camp broke up on the 27th. White's Fall Stock of Boots and Shoes is complete. Trade is booming at White's. White leads the crowd in Montreal kid and calf Boots—the boss boot of Ashtabula.

GRAND MASS MEETING. Arrangements are about completed for the Republican Mass Meeting to be held in Warren on Tuesday, September 29th. General U. S. Grant is to preside and Senator Conklin, General John A. Logan, Hon. Emory A. Stores, Hon. W. O. Bradley, Governor Foster, General Gibson, Hon. Stanley Matthews, Hon. E. B. Taylor, and General E. S. Meyer are among the eminent speakers of national reputation who will address the thousands that will be present on that day. The Ashtabula & Pittsburgh Railway Co. has engaged 125 coaches to carry passengers to and from Warren, and four special trains will be run from this end of the road. SPECIAL TRAINS. Fare for the round trip will be the same as is usually charged for a passage one way, which will make the fare from Ashtabula to Warren and return, $1.35. Chairmen of Republican Committees throughout the County are requested to send announcements of meetings for insertion in this department. Rock Creek, Sept. 24th, F. A. A game of ball was played last Saturday on the base ball park between nines from Culley and Crosby's shops, which resulted in a score of 40 to 24 in favor of the latter nine. Here is the tab. Culley.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Crosby.....1 3 1 4 2 4 3 12 *-40 The base ball season is about over. The Orwells defeated the Bloomfields last Saturday by a score of 16 to 9. Has any person heard or seen anything of the Ashtabula Base Ball Club since the Akrons were here? ONE OF MANY. Eds. Tel.—I have taken the News from its start, and paid for it in advance. The time has come when it would be more pleasant to read the Standard, as we know where to find it. For the balance of the time for which it is paid it may be sent to some Democratic friend. I do not want it any longer. Many others here will stop when their times are out. Please enter my name upon your list. This is nearly a true copy of a notice sent to the News. Publish if you wish. They not only relieve present distress, but strengthen the stomach and digest its apparatus. Sept. COUNTY NEWS. FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENTS. SAYBROOK. Miss Mabel Walker is attending school at the Lake Erie Female Seminary at Painesville. Miss Emma Barber is visiting friends in Michigan. Rev. George J. Bliss, preached his last sermon of this conference year yesterday, and last night preached to the Sunday School scholars and young people. We would like to have him return to Saybrook another year. W. B. Chapman of Erie, and S. A. Northway spoke at the town House last Saturday night. A good per centage of the audience were ladies, with a sprinkling of Democrats. We never yet had a poor speech from Stephen, and this one was no exception to the rest. The few Democrats that were present, paid marked attention to the speech, throughout, and heard some historical truths and authentic statements of the antecedents of the two parties, that we fear are not found in every issue of the Standard or the News. I do not want to be understood as saying that Mr. Chapman's speech was not good, for it was, but I am a little partial to Mr. Northway, always learning from him something new every time I hear him. Sept. 20, 1880. J. J. KINGSVILLE. Kingsville was shaken to its foundations, on Friday evening last, by the speech of Judge Tourgee, and the question is, if he is "one of the fools," where are the wise men? It was certainly a good speech, by one who knows how it is himself, and while it gave general satisfaction to the Republicans, it caused dissatisfaction and gnashing of teeth in the Democratic ranks. Our glee club consisting of Messrs. Luce, Alger, Griever, and Wright, came out with a song which was very appropriate for the occasion. With due regard to his feelings however, we would like to inquire, "where was Amos when the light went out." The North Kingsville mounted Wide Awakes, and the Conneaut foot Company—Capt. Townsend—joined with our home Company in a parade, which was executed peacefully without any of the democratic arguments which have been used in Ashtabula on two occasions. Geo. W. Rhoads was remodeled and repainted the house lately purchased by him, till it is not to be recognized as the same house. Wishing to add an ornament to his premises that will last till his great grandsons are tottering in to the grave, he has had erected about two hundred feet of the iron fence, manufactured by Luce & Hart of this place. It certainly adds much to the appearance of the street, as well as to his own lot. We notice that comrade L. W. Kimball, has returned from his trip east, looking as though he was capable of taking his rations with a relish. Our former citizen, Clinton Barret, who has of late been residing in Cleveland, stopped in town a day last week previous to taking his departure for Chicago, which place he intends to make his future home. The Democrats are looking quite dispondent since they lost their Maine chance of victory. We are sorry to see comrade Sperry apparently getting down on the wrong side of the fence. Come back A. F., and touch elbows to the right as you did eighteen years ago. Inox Wood. NORTH KINGSVILLE. Eds. Tel.—There was a large turnout last Friday evening at Kingsville to hear a speech from Judge A. W. Tourgee, whose father is one of our townspeople. The speaker was introduced by Mr. J. A. Fickinger in a few appropriate remarks, and none present could say that the Republican party was not well and ably represented by Mr. Tourgee. It was emphatically the speech of the season, in Kingsville. The Garfield and Arthur club from Conneaut were present, numbering over 40, which added to our two companies made a grand show. Mr. Jeremiah Horning of Shelby, Orleans county, N. Y., is in town for a stay of about a week. Mrs. Allen Butler who for some time has been in poor health, was treated to a little bit of a surprise party by her children and a few of her friends on the 11th inst., that being her 72d birthday. Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Jennings contemplated leaving this place in about two weeks and locating in Geneva. Shall be sorry to lose them. GEORGE W. MOHR, Sept. 21, 1880. Milk Tickets.
