Philadelphia Car Strike to Be Fight to Finish.

EARLE DOMINATES MAGNATES

One Man Thwarts Efforts of Many Organizations to Secure Peace. Business Men Fear Strenuous Times When Thousands of Union Men Join Ranks of Strikers and Open Warfare on Rapid Transit Company. Murphy Boasts of Power.

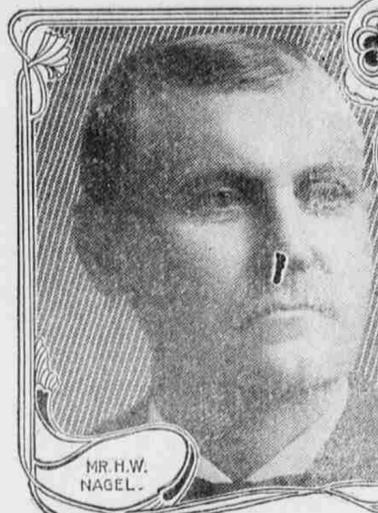

Philadelphia, March 3.—Even if they have to fight the whole city of Philadelphia and throw their company into the hands of a receiver, the directors of the Rapid Transit company have determined to smash the carmen's union. All pretense of conciliation has now been thrown aside. On the other hand, the 124 unions that have pledged themselves to strike in sympathy with the carmen next Saturday are massing their forces for a battle which will make or break labor unionism in this city.

SUCH SPLENDID CURES GIVE PERUNA ITS PRESTIGE.

During the winter months duly bear in mind that Peruna is the remedy for Catarrhal troubles so prevalent then, as coughs, colds and grip.

Catarrh may be of the nose, throat, lungs, stomach or some other organ -- No matter where located Peruna is the remedy.

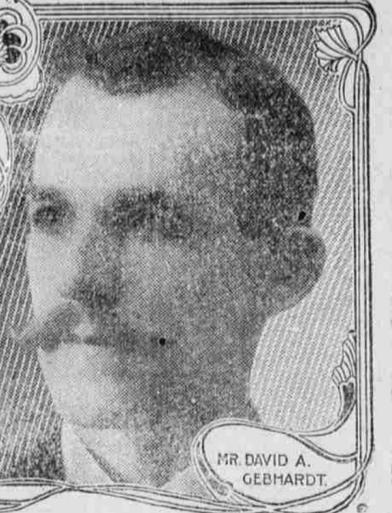

MR. H.W. NAGEL.

MRS. E. N. REED.

MRS. M. E. REEVES.

MR. DAVID A. GEBHARDT.

Could Not Eat Solid Food. Mr. H. W. Nagel, 63 Church St., Meriden, Conn., writes: "For several years I had been troubled with catarrh of the stomach. After trying about everything else, I was advised to try Peruna. I could not eat any solid food for some time; now I can eat most anything that comes along. I have taken several bottles of Peruna and Manalin and am entirely cured."

Can Now Eat Anything. Mrs. Joseph Towne, Devil's Lake, Mich., writes: "I have tried Peruna and have found it an excellent tonic and cure for catarrh. I was a sufferer from catarrh of the throat and also of the stomach."

Stomach Trouble Relieved. Mr. George Snyder, Church and Allen Ave., Chillicothe, Ohio, writes: "Something over a year ago I had catarrh of the stomach. I began taking Peruna. To-day I am a well man."

Was Utterly Discouraged, but Peruna Relieved. Mrs. E. N. Reed, 270 Saw Mill River, Yonkers, N. Y., writes: "Last August my boy, twelve years old, was troubled with catarrh of the head and throat. He had for a long time been treated by our physician, who only relieved him for a time, and then he grew worse."

Indigestion and Grip. Mrs. M. E. Reeves, 713 Martha Ave., Birmingham, Ala., writes: "I have been using Peruna for three years and find it an excellent remedy for indigestion and la grippe. I hope many more may be benefited by it as I have been."

Catarrh of Long Standing. Mr. C. A. Reustrom, 570 7th St., Ogden, Utah, writes: "I take great pleasure in stating to you that your medicine, Peruna, has completely cured me of a long-standing case of catarrh."

Nerves in Bad Shape—Insomnia Followed. Mr. David A. Gebhardt, 90 Fountain Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "Owing to the strain and worry of business, my nerves got in bad shape and I suffered from insomnia. The torture of sleepless nights became almost unbearable."

Pe-ru-na Brought Strength. Mrs. H. D. Amoss, Greensboro, Ga., writes: "I feel like a new woman."

Nervous Prostration. Mrs. Olive Hull, Hastings, Minn., writes: "I feel it my duty to say in behalf of Peruna that it is the best remedy I ever took for nervous prostration and other weaknesses."

Catarrh of Stomach. Mr. Calob H. Borrell, Police Officer, 212 North Paer St., Baltimore, Md., writes: "For several years I was troubled with catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. Many times I would vomit before and after eating."

JAMES A. TAWNEY Who Helped Kill Bill to Buy Embassy Buildings.

TAWNEY JOINS BOLTERS

Helps Democrats Send Embassy Bill to Slumberland. Washington, March 3.—Uncle Joe Cannon of Illinois and Representative Tawney of Minnesota, house leaders under normal conditions, joined the privates in the ranks and followed the lead of Representative Macon, the Arkansas Democrat, who with the assistance of his Republican allies defeated the bill proposing to authorize the secretary of state to purchase or erect an embassy, legation and consular buildings abroad. It was a field day for Mr. Macon and the Democrats, for it was the first time in many days that they had tasted the fruits of victory.

Cheers for a Poisoner. Is a woman ever justified in poisoning her husband? The question is suggested by a recent incident in Serbia. Sara Chumitch seems to have had an undesirable husband, for he was a notorious and impudic usurer. At the moment when he was about to ruin several families who were in debt his wife intervened and poisoned him. Next day she received a letter of gratitude signed by hundreds of citizens. She was acquitted by the jury and left the court amid cheering crowds.

I do not know of any way so sure of making others happy as being so oneself.—Sir Arthur Helps.

"PARSON" DAVIES NEAR DEATH

Chicago, Ill., arch 3.—Charles E. ("Parson") Davies, the veteran sporting man, is critically ill at the home of relatives in this city, and the end is believed to be but a question of days. He suffered a stroke of paralysis in New Orleans about two years ago, and since then his health has been steadily failing. Since his present condition became known countless messages of sympathy and cheer have poured in upon him from sporting men the world over.

Fifteen or twenty years ago, when he was at the height of his career, "Parson" Davies was known by probably more sporting men and followers of prize fighting than any other man in the world. At one time or another, until illness caused him to relax his activities, he managed nearly every prize fighter of any note. He was probably best known to the sporting world as the manager of John L. Sullivan. He managed Sullivan when the latter was mowing down his opponents with one swing of his giant right arm. It was the "Parson" who brought Peter Jackson from Australia to America and he also looked after the affairs of Jack Dempsey when he held the world's middleweight championship. Other fighters who owed a great deal of their success to shrewdness of —es included Tommy Ryan, Joe Choyns and Jack Burke, "the Irish lad."

For the past ten or twelve years the "Parson" has not been active in ring affairs and the thousands of dollars he has made out of the sport have slipped through his fingers until he has little left. A few years ago he started a billiard hall in New Orleans, but his venture was not a great success.

MINING MEN MEET IN TORONTO.

Toronto, March 3.—The United States and Great Britain, as well as nearly all sections of the Dominion, are represented at the annual convention of the Canadian Mining Institute, which is now in session in this city. Dr. W. G. Miller, the retiring president, is presiding over the sessions, which will continue until Saturday.

Mazatlan, though possessing a population of 25,000 inhabitants, among whom are several hundred Americans and Europeans, has no first-class or modern hotel. This city has from October to Maya a grand climate.

CHESTER E. BRYAN President of the Buckeye Press Association, Now in Session.

Another Kind of Walk.

Ethel did not rush into his arms and cry "Oh, Cuthbert!" as usual. When he was ushered into the drawing room she gave him the frigid eye, and the gas was kept on at full pressure.

"I've been studying pedomanacy, Cuthbert," she announced. "Pedomanacy, pet?" "Divination by the feet," she explained. "Feet that incline to fatness are a sign of meanness, Cuthbert." Cuthbert looked down at his No. 10 tans and sighed.

"A hurried yet silent walk," she continued, "is indicative of criminal instincts. Your walk is so hurried, so noiseless, Cuthbert."

EDITORS TALK SHOP AT NEWARK MEETING

Buckeye Association Now Holding Midwinter Session.

Newark, O., March 3.—The fourteenth annual midwinter meeting of the Buckeye Press Association opened here this morning, with a goodly number of editors in attendance. The morning was devoted to an informal reception of the visitors by a committee of the press association at the Hotel Werden.

The afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock with an address of welcome by the mayor of the city, which was responded to by C. E. Peoples of Pomeroy. Then followed the address of President C. E. Bryan of London, which was listened to with much attention.

The following program is being carried out: "Why the Daily and Weekly Publishers Should Come Closer Together," J. R. Alexander, Zanesville; Ed H. Wetzel, Lancaster, for the dailies; J. W. Dunlap, Lodi; Wm. M. Miller, Dresden, for the weeklies. "The Country Weekly at $1 Per Year," S. F. Smith, Pomeroy. "Phases of Newspaper Woman's Work," Mrs. Mand Murray Miller, Springfield; Mrs. Mary Proctor Wilson, Lebanon; Mrs. C. C. Day, Seville. "How to Introduce a Serial Story," J. H. Simms, East Liverpool.

"Does It Pay to Conduct Two or More Country Weeklies at the Same Time?" Hon. B. F. Gayman, Canal Winchester; Arch R. Raney, New Paris. This evening a general discussion of typesetting machines will be indulged in by editors in attendance. Tomorrow morning Hon. A. P. Sandles, secretary of the state board of agriculture, will tell "Why I Would Rather Be a Country Editor Than a Rockefeller," and Harold A. Pauly of Troy will talk on "The Union's Annual Banquet to County Correspondents."

"Shop Talk" will be a leading feature of the morning session. It will be conducted by Carl A. Jettinger of Delphos, and participated in by many editors. Winning Her Papa. She—When you go to ask papa the first thing he will do will be to accuse you of seeking my hand merely to become his son-in-law. He—Yes? And then— "And then you must agree with him. He's a lot prouder of himself than he is of me."
