The dogkiller seems to be at large in Fredericktown again. Several valuable dogs have been poisoned the past week and the owners are very much wrought up over the proceeding and declare vengeance. It is no doubt true that the town is a poor place to raise and keep dogs and that all would be better off if the dog were entirely banished, but at the same time the dog is a piece of property which none but the owner has a right to destroy, and property rights should always be respected if we are to live in peace.

Two Princes Who Are Seeking Wealthy American Wives

It's all nice enough being a prince in Serbia with money, but without money it's not so nice. So Prince George and Prince Alexander of Serbia have restocked their wardrobe, polished up their medals and will visit the United States this summer with one object in view. And that is, of course, to find two charming American girls with check books in hand and, what is more important, funds to make the checks good.

BIG STICK HAS NO TERRORS FOR THEM

Egyptian Students Think They Shake Fists at Teddy.

Cairo, March 30.—Next Tuesday morning Colonel Roosevelt and his party will leave here for Alexandria, where they will board a steamer for Naples. The British officials in Cairo will bid farewell to the ex-president with the great cordiality customary to wishing godspeed to a too-kind friend. His speech to the students produced its first after effect when a crowd of several hundred Nationalists, mostly students, after holding a meeting to protest against Roosevelt's cold douche on their political aspirations, marched in procession to Shepherd's hotel, shouting as they went. Arrived outside the hotel, the demonstrators gave vent to their indignation by shaking their raised fists towards Roosevelt's quarters and shouting party watchwords, such as "Hurrah for the assembly," "Give us a constitution," and "Down with hypocrites." It may be explained that hypocrites is a favorite epithet of the Young Egyptian party for their English and other opponents.

MINERS GET FIVE CENT RAISE

Other Matters in Dispute at Cincinnati Conference Settled by Concessions on Both Sides—Threatened Shut-Down of Mines in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and Indiana is Averted After Four Weeks of Wrangling.

Cincinnati, O., March 30.—The union miners and coal operators of Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania, who have for nearly four weeks been holding daily and nightly conferences regarding the demands of the miners for an increase of 10 cents a ton in wages, an eight-hour day, Saturday half-holiday and other concessions, arrived at an agreement that will, at least, avert a strike. The miners accepted an advance of only 5 cents a ton maximum, and the other points of disagreement were adjusted amicably through mutual concessions.

LEWIS ISSUES STATEMENT

In a statement issued by President Lewis of the United Mine Workers of America, who have also been holding daily sessions here, he says: "Stock gamblers in coal will be the most disappointed of all the men who tried to bring about a strike affecting the mining industry of the entire country. I hope that they will be required to pay the penalty of their own folly."
