The Summons Of Death Came To Rev. F. H. Huntsberger

As He Was Spading In The Garden Near His Home

Heart Disease Was The Cause Of His Death

Was In The Ministry For Several Years

The Funeral Arrangements Are Announced

Death came suddenly to Rev. Franklin Herman Huntsberger Monday evening about five o'clock while he was busy at his work in the garden at his home on East Chestnut street. For the past several days he had been suffering from an attack of the grip, but had almost recovered and had eaten a hearty dinner Monday noon and apparently was almost as strong and well as ever. Death came unexpectedly to Mr. Huntsberger as he was spading in the garden. Heart trouble was pronounced as the cause of his death.

The deceased was fifty-six years of age and was born in Wayne county, near Wooster. He secured all of his early education in the Wayne county public schools and at an early age decided on a ministerial career. He entered the University of Wooster where he completed his clerical education and was assigned to take charge of the M. E. church at Jeromeville, Ashland county, in 1884, where he remained for two years. From there he went to Spencer, Ohio, for three years and from there to Canal Dover where he served for one year as pastor of the church. Next he went to Seville, Ohio, to serve a period of three years and then to Centerburg, Ohio, where his term lasted two years. The last church of which he was the regular pastor was at Democracy, Ohio, where he remained for five years before becoming a Conference Evangelist, a position which he held until the time of his death. Mr. Huntsberger moved his family to Mt. Vernon in 1906, and had been actively engaged in business in and near the city during that time.

He is survived by his wife, five sons—Howard, Frederick, Eugene, Charles and Herbert, and one daughter, Ruby, and two brothers, Isaac and George, both of Los Angeles, California, and one sister, Mrs. Mary H. Thomas of Ann Harbor, Michigan. He was a member of Quindaro lodge No. 316, I. O. O. F. and of the local tribe of Ben Hur.

For the past several months, he has been giving lectures in and near Knox county on "Hygiene, and How to Live One Hundred Years," and had for some time, been actively engaged in an attempt to secure for Mt. Vernon a Lewis chapter house for women.

The funeral Friday at 2 p. m. at the house, Rev. G. A. Reeder officiating. Interment in Mound View cemetery.

HAIL STORM

Visited Fredericktown Monday Afternoon

On Monday afternoon, the western skies became very threatening and the clouds appeared to be coming in this direction with much speed, but after a while, all of them began to go northward and passed over Fredericktown and vicinity. This was much regretted by a large number of people in this locality as a good rain was much needed. The good rain, however, was not received with much joy by the Fredericktown people for it turned out to be a heavy hail storm that broke numerous windows and skylights in buildings. Fruit trees which were budding or blossoming were ruined for the season.

Every family and especially those who reside in the country should be provided at all times with a bottle of Chamberlain's liniment. There is no telling when it may be wanted in case of an accident or emergency. It is most excellent in all cases of rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by all dealers.

Is Edward Lamar Who Has Been Wanted Here

For Over A Year For Horse Stealing

Brought Here From Kentucky By The Sheriff

Claims To Be A Graduate Of Yale

Prisoner Refuses To Give His Right Name

Edward Lamar, whose real name is unknown, and who claims to be a graduate of Yale, and a fraternity brother of Governor Wilson of Kentucky, was arrested at Frankfort, Kentucky, Monday evening and brought to Mt. Vernon Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Parker and is now confined in the Knox county jail on a charge of horse stealing.

Lamar, or whatever his name may be, is the man for whom the officials of Knox county have been looking for since one year ago last fall. Lamar stole a horse and buggy from Liveryman Jones of Fredericktown and sold the animal at Alexandria, O. After selling the horse he made good his escape to the hills of Kentucky. Former Deputy Sheriff Lewis followed the man through Kentucky for a week or more after the robbery, but was unable to locate the prisoner.

It appears that Lamar had been in Kentucky but a short time when he stole another horse and for this crime he was captured by the officers and sentenced to the Kentucky penitentiary for two years. Sheriff Parker was in Kentucky last February in search of the man and was informed by the warden of the penitentiary that the officials here would be notified as soon as Lamar's time was out. It appears that Governor Wilson of Kentucky visited the prisoner in the pen several times and at last pardoned him.

On Sunday Sheriff Parker received word that Lamar had been pardoned, but that the sheriff of Frankfort had him locked up in the county jail. Sheriff Parker left on the noon train for Kentucky.

Appearing in court Monday morning Sheriff Parker asked the judge for the prisoner, but was informed that at the last term of court the attorney for Lamar had secured a writ of habeas corpus, but had failed to file the papers at this term of court. The judge said he would give the attorney for the prisoner until six o'clock Monday evening in which to file the papers, but fortunately for Sheriff Parker, the prisoner's attorney was in Lexington and did not get back during the day. Promptly at 6 o'clock Monday evening Sheriff Parker secured Lamar and went to Lexington on a street car and there locked the man up in the county jail over night. The sheriff also enjoyed a night's rest at a hotel and at 5:30 Tuesday morning started for Mt. Vernon with the prisoner, arriving here 1:20 Tuesday afternoon.

Lamar was indicted by the grand jury at a former term of court for horse stealing and will probably be arraigned before Judge Wickham at this term of court.

As has been stated Lamar refuses to give his right name. He says he graduated from Yale and is a fraternity member and comes from a good family in the east.

This is no doubt true for Governor Wilson of Kentucky is a graduate of Yale and took a great interest in the prisoner, visiting him in the jail at Frankfort.

STRUCK

By Freight Engine Was John Q. Davis

And Received Injuries That May Prove Fatal

Mr. John Q. Davis, a carpenter residing on the Columbus road, was badly injured while on his way to work about six o'clock Tuesday morning. He was walking into town along the railroad and when he reached the B. & O. freight house he did not see or hear a freight engine which was coasting silently toward him. The engineer thinking that the man was simply waiting until the engine was close before jumping off, did not slacken the speed, and as a result, Davis was struck violently and thrown some little distance to the side of the track. A number of people saw the accident and assistance was immediately at hand. McCormick's ambulance was called and the injured man was taken hastily to his home in South Vernon where Dr. N. R. Eastman was called to render surgical attention. On examination, it was found that two ugly scalp wounds had been made on the back of his head and concussion of the brain had set in. Mr. Davis was in a very serious state Tuesday afternoon and it is feared that he may have sustained some internal injuries when the engine struck him.

Prompt relief in all cases of throat and lung trouble if you use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pleasant to take, soothing and healing in effect. Sold by all dealers.
