W. G. H. to G. B. C.:—"Deference and devotion do not make safe and sane campaign issues."

Was it neglect or oversight that Cox did not announce his "permanent retirement from politics" at 11 o'clock Tuesday night?

If President Taft had sent the rest of his cabinet to Ohio he might have still less to say but more to think about on his Panama trip.

New York City's Zoo in Bronx Park is tame alongside the rip-snoring, raving, ranting, roaring menagerie on Sagamore Hill since Nov. 8, 1910.

Now let Roosevelt go back to darkest Africa—and stay there. Better to be Bwano Tumbo in the jungle than a discredited dictator in civilization.

After Governor Harmon finishes up his housecleaning at Columbus he will be in first class condition for tackling the same kind of a job at Washington.

It do look like the people know how to juggle their own votes just as handily as Cox juggled the 125 votes Dick and Carmi gave him to juggle with in addition to his own 91 in the convention.

When Roosevelt looks over that red-hot trail he burned through New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, Indiana and Chicago he will get a pretty fair idea of what will happen to him if he tries to "come back" in 1912.

By this time Mr. Harding and the g. o. p. campaign managers realize that it doesn't pay to drag a strike into politics and try to give a governor the worst of it for doing his official duty freely, fairly and justly to all concerned.

That presidential endorsement didn't seem to handicap Harmon a little bit, did it? But Harmon will finish up his work at Columbus, as he promised he would do, and let 1912 take care of itself in its own way. That man Harmon has old-fashioned ideas about doing one thing at a time and doing it well, that is, doing it the best he can, which is the same thing.

Hot Stove Is Stolen From A Police Station

New York, Nov. 10—Accused of carrying off a hot stove from the Second Precinct Police Station, James Byrne, a special policeman, of No. 304 First street, Hoboken, was arraigned yesterday before Recorder McGovern, the complainant being Mayor Gonzales.

The mayor said he was informed that Byrne had carried off the stove but where it had been taken no one seemed to know. It was only a small stove, worth about $4, but the mayor said he thought that carrying off a hot stove from a police station was a matter that required investigation. Byrne had nothing to say in court, but he furnished bail for his appearance on Thursday next.

Baker, and F. Fink of Fredericktown.

CONSISTENTLY FOOLISH

A San Francisco man, after declaring in his will that he was not married and had no children, in order to defeat any possible claims by (fake widows or heirs, bequeathed $5 each to every widow or heir that could prove a claim, with the proviso that that was all they were entitled to. He seems to have overlooked the probability of his will being broken on the evidence thus furnished of weak-mindedness. — Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Delaware, Nov. 10—Delaware seems to have had one prophet who associated Theodore Roosevelt with dead ones in Tuesday's voting in this city. INJURED

Men Found In Railroad Yards At Orrville

Hurled From "High Ball" When It Stopped

(Orrville Crescent)

Howard Searight and William Cosper, the latter known as "Kissingbug" both of Fredericksburg, were found lying in the C. A. & C. terminal yards shortly after ten o'clock Tuesday morning by Night Yardmaster Frank Heller and the crew of the high ball, which had just pulled into the yards from the south.

Both men were on the ground and both were injured. Cosper was the most seriously injured and still suffers much pain in the back and on the left side. Searight was badly bruised.

Yardmaster Heller found Cosper while walking along the train. He came upon Cosper in the dark and at first thought he was dead. He was so badly injured that the pain was terrible whenever he moved. He was taken care of and given temporary relief.

Brakemen Eggleston and Wakrow found Searight a little later as they were going along the train. He was also given temporary relief and both were taken to the town jail, where they were examined by Dr. A. B. Campbell, who found no broken bones but serious bruises. A fire was built and the men were put to bed.

H. C. Auble furnished a cot for the most injured man and Dr. Campbell again made an examination Tuesday morning. The men are supposed to have gone to Orrville on the high ball and were thrown off when the train came to a stop in the yards. It is also supposed that the men were under the influence of liquor. The night was cold and both men showed the effects of the ride. Both were fortunate in that they were not more seriously injured or killed.

Tuesday morning Mayor Heller communicated with Fredericksburg people and arrangements were made to have the men cared for there and they were sent home.

Mr. William Frasher returned to his home in Jewell Thursday morning after a short visit with friends in this city.
