WILLIAM W. STOKES
Montgomery County Delegate to Constitutional Convention.

ADJOURNMENT DATE NOW SET FOR MAY 17

Constitutional Convention Passes Three Important Measures.

Columbus, O., April 25.—Delegate Worthington's proposal for the establishment of a merit civil service system in state, county and city offices was adopted by the Ohio constitutional convention.

The proposal covers appointments and promotions and makes it mandatory upon the general assembly to provide laws for its enforcement. Townships and villages are not affected. The proposal embraces one of the most sweeping reforms yet adopted by the convention. Ohio now has civil service laws applying to cities.

Two other proposals were adopted by the convention and will be submitted to the people. One is by Mr. Hill and is supplementary to the "one trial, one review" judicial reform proposal by Judge Peck, recently adopted. It gives each county one common pleas judge or more, and abolishes common pleas judicial districts. The other is by Mr. Stokes, for legislative authority to regulate stock and bond issues and their sale.

Judge Dwyer's proposal to make it easier to remove incompetent or dishonest judges will come up today. The recall proposal, recently tabled, is to be revived. Mr. Thomas' anti-contract labor proposal will be rewritten by the committee on labor.

The convention rescinded the Beatty adjournment resolution and substituted May 5 as the recess date. The convention will reconvene May 13 and adjourn finally May 17.

TAFT ANNEXES IOWA Gets 16 Out of 25 Delegates to the National Convention.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., April 25.—President Taft was endorsed by Iowa Republicans in their state and congressional conventions here, four delegates-at-large to the national convention were instructed to vote for him, his list of Iowa delegates to the national convention was increased and the favorite son presidential candidacy of United States Senator Albert B. Cummings was rejected. President Taft's strength is 16. Senator Cummins has 10 delegates.

A Story of Henry of Navarre. The following well authenticated anecdote will serve to show what manner of man Henry of Navarre was: One day, while on his way to join a hunting party, a countryman whom he had overtaken on the road asked him where he was going. "I am going to attend the king's hunt," replied Henry. "That's where I'm going," said the rustic. "I have heard lots about the king, and I want to see how he looks." "Jump up behind me," said Henry. As they jogged along the countryman asked, "How will I know the king from the others?" "He will have his hat on, and all the rest will uncover when he arrives," answered Henry. When the party finally reached the party every hat went off. "Where's the king?" asked Henry of the rustic. "It must be either you or me," responded the countryman. "For we are the only fellows who have our hats on."

Jersey Cattle. On the island of Jersey the breeding of cattle is still systematically and carefully carried on. The authorities are particularly that the island be kept immune from cattle disease. Neither bovine nor hay and straw may land from the continent of Europe.

Interested. Boswell, when his first biography of Johnson first appeared, met Lord Thurlow hurrying through Parliament street to the house of lords and said, "Have you read my book?" "Yes, confound you," growled Lord Thurlow, "every word of it. I couldn't help myself."

Prepare Now For The Warm Days That Are Sure To Come Soon

Many foresighted people have already secured their entire summer wardrobe, and are now relieved of the worry and work which it entails. To those who are not prepared we mention some of the helpful things this store has prepared for you:

DO YOU NEED A RUG

If so, you'll be more than pleased with our excellent qualities and patterns. We've made a special study of the rug business. They have practically replaced the old time carpet. They are more sanitary, save you work, possess greater wearing qualities—and afford finished designs which is impossible with a carpet.

THE MEYER-LINDORF CO.

Political Quips.

Every little presidential candidate has a keynote of his own.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The presidential candidates as a class do not appear to be suffering from spring fever.—Buffalo Commercial.

Understand that the supply of oxygen is getting less every year. Chemical reaction due to the presence of carbonic acid gas thrown off by campaign orators probably.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Four more commodious office buildings are rapidly nearing completion in Washington, and it is expected that by the end of the month all the presidential booms will be able to find headquarters.—Washington Post.

Flippant Flings.

The Medical Record says that coffee causes many divorces. Furnishes the grounds, as it were.—Toledo Blade.

A Philadelphia official suggests that all married men be compelled to wear a label. How would a string tied on the finger do?—Cleveland Leader.

A Philadelphia magistrate recommends drowning in a vat of beer for gent who got soured, which is our idea of capital punishment.—Washington Post.

Hiram Maxin predicts that in a few years armor-plate will be no more effective than cheese. Still they may find a way in a few years to strengthen cheese too.—Detroit Free Press.

Fly Catches.

Tesreau, the Giants' big pitcher, is the only exponent of the spitball on the team. He's a hard man to catch.

Ray and Roy are the first names of several well known players, including Ray Caldwell, Ray Fisher and Roy Hartzell of the Highlanders and Ray Collins of the Red Sox.

Vincent Campbell, the great center fielder of the Boston Braves, is generally acknowledged to be the fleetest man in the National league. He is said to have done 100 yards in even time.

Metaphysics.

A Scotch blacksmith being asked the meaning of metaphysics explained it as follows: "When the party who listens dinna ken what the party who speaks means, and when the party who speaks dinna ken what he meant himself, that is metaphysics."

Sweden.

Of the inhabitants of Sweden 2 per cent possess one-third of the total property of the country and receive one-third of its total income. There are 5,500,000 inhabitants in Sweden.

The Barking Bird.

The barking bird utters a very loud note. Indeed, it is impossible to distinguish it from the bark of a dog. Its English name, says Darwin, is well given, for I defy any one at first to feel certain that a small dog is not yelping somewhere in the forest. The toucan has also the same peculiarity.

EFFORT TO SAVE RICHESON'S LIFE

Boston, Mass., April 25.—The hearing on the appeal for commutation of the sentence of Clarence V. T. Richeson, confessed slayer of Avis Linnell, who is sentenced to die in the electric chair during the week of May 19, will come up before Governor Foss tomorrow morning. William A. Morse of this city and John L. Lee of Lynchburg, Va., counsel for the former preacher, will ask for the commutation of their client's sentence and the Governor will thereupon decide whether it shall be presented to the Executive Council. It is understood that one point that will be urged in favor of commutation is the fact that Richeson's confession saved the state the expense of trial. This expense, it is estimated, would have amounted to fully $45,000.

SYMPATHY FOR WOMAN SLAYER

Cleveland, O., April 25.—Much public interest and sympathy is manifested in the case of Mrs. Rose Devorkin of Lawrence, Mass., who was arraigned in court today for trial on a charge of second degree murder, for killing Jacob Horovitz in a Cleveland street, on Nov. 27, 1911. Mrs. Devorkin shot Horovitz, trailing him here from her Massachusetts home. She charged that Horovitz had known her as a girl, and that on stories growing from the friendship her husband divorced her according to the Jewish rite. Since the tragedy the woman has given birth to a baby boy, now about two months old.

BENCH SHOW IN TACOMA

Tacoma, Wash., April 25.—The annual bench show of the Tacoma Kennel Club opened today with a record number of entries. Well known kennels from all over the Northwest are represented. The show will continue until the end of the week.

BOAT TO ATTRACT BIG CROWD

New York, April 25.—The early demand for tickets indicates that Madison Square Garden will have an enormous crowd tomorrow night for the ten-round fight between Mat Wells, the English champion, and Packey McFarland of Chicago. The two fighters today completed their work of preparation and appear to be in excellent condition for the mill.

ELECTRICAL AND GAS MEN MEET

San Antonio, Texas, April 25.—The Southwestern Electrical and Gas Association began its annual convention in this city today with an attendance of members from several States. The convention will continue its session through the remainder of the week.
