

M'MANIS IS RE-EMPLOYED

As Superintendent Of The Knox County Infirmary

For Another Year With An Increase In Salary

Has Been A Most Efficient Superintendent

Commissioners Inspect Bridges On Tuesday

Other Items Of Interest From The Temple Of Justice

The Knox county commissioners at their weekly session on Monday employed Mr. Curtis McManis, the efficient superintendent of the county infirmary for another year, with a substantial raise in salary. Mr. McManis has been superintendent of the Knox county infirmary for several years past and is highly complimented on all sides for the manner in which the infirmary is conducted. The Knox county board of visitors recently ly paid him a high compliment for his efficiency in conducting the affairs of the institution. Since the infirmary board has been abolished, Supt. McManis' duties have increased and the commissioners feel justified in granting the superintendent an increase in salary for the coming year.

Bought Bridge Plank—

The county commissioners at their session Monday purchased 1,200 feet of bridge plank from W. D. Workman for $30. The plank will be used in various bridges about the county.

Inspected Bridges—

The county commissioners spent Tuesday in inspecting a number of bridges over the western part of the county.

Deeds Filed—

L. J. Cline to W. A. Bebout parcel in Clay, $1.
Samantha Craft to Curtis L. Fletcher, 4.78 acres in Middlebury, $259.

Second and Final—

Catherine A. McClure, executrix of William McClure, has filed a second and final account in probate, showing the following: Received $24,14, paid out the same sum.

Money Transferred—

The following amounts were transferred from the fee fund to the county fund by the county commissioners on Monday: Auditor $3,200, treasurer $2,500, recorder $2,500, clerk of courts $400, sheriff $800, probate judge $2,000. Total $12,900. The above amounts represent the earnings of these offices the past year over and above the expense of clerk hire.

His Stomach Troubles Over

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.

KNOCK OUT

Blow Given The One Per Cent Tax Law

By The Supreme Court Of Ohio Today

Columbus, O., Jan. 28—In a decision rendered today, the supreme court of Ohio practically knocked out the Smith one per cent tax law. The decision was given in a Putnam county case.

The decision in effect nullifies the vital features of the law. Walter S. Stevenson, city solicitor, brought an action in mandamus to compel the budget commission of Putnam county and the auditor to place a levy on the tax duplicate in the corporate limits of Leipsic aggregating 19,117 mills for all purposes.

The common pleas court took the position that 15 mills was the aggregate levy that could be made, which was the maximum of 1 1/2 per cent provided for in the Smith law. The circuit court reversed the common pleas court and held that that maximum could be exceeded by a sufficient amount to take care of the sinking fund and interest. The supreme court upholds that view. The gist of the decision is that the levy can exceed the 1 1/2 per cent limitation of the law for interest and sinking fund. This wholly deprives the law of its virtues and practically knocks out the law.

Of Auto Tags In Columbus Is Very Slow

Less than half of the automobile owners of Ohio have secured licenses for 1913, according to State Registrar Shearer. The number of licenses issued up to last evening was approximately 30,000. The number of machines registered in Ohio last year was more than 65,000. In a few months a traveling inspector will make the round of Ohio cities with a view to enforce the law in all localities.—Columbus Journal.

FINGER

Crushed While At Work At The Pennsylvania Shop

Charles Brayman was very painfully injured while he was at work at the Pennsylvania shops Monday afternoon. He was lifting a heavy piece of iron and was holding one end of it. His left hand slipped but he tried to hold it up with his right. He fell and the end of the index finger was crushed off when it was caught between the iron and the floor. He went to the office of a physician where surgical attention was rendered.

YOU HAD BETTER BURN YOUR MONEY

AND SAVE YOUR ENERGY, says DR. CYRIL G. HOPKINS, soil expert at the Illinois Experiment Station, than continue farming on the plan of taking from and not putting back into the soil those things which are absolutely essential to permanent, successful agriculture.

And he proves this statement. But he does more. After showing with irrefutable facts just why the prevailing American method of farming is ruinous, he demonstrates how you can make your farm yield from 30 to 40 more bushels per acre.

It's all in a series of articles entitled

The Farm That Won't Wear Out

Now appearing in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN.

This Week's Issue On Sale Today

The Homesteader's Gamble is another big feature of this week's issue. It is by W. J. Harsha, a Colorado homesteader, and it tells the whole homesteading proposition from A to Z. Mr. Harsha has been through the mill and he says that a man who stakes a homestead and hasn't the two G's—gumption and grit—had better quit. He says further that a homesteader will stand a better chance of succeeding if he has $1000 in cash.

A Word With the Women. Every week the "Country Gentlewoman"—a farmer's wife, a mother, a good housekeeper and an intelligent woman all rolled into one—writes an article that is full of helpful ideas and sensible advice. This week her subject is Farm Children's Clothing. This issue also contains: Using The Kitchen's Left-Overs (a substantial way of reducing the cost of living); New Simple Furniture (showing that economy, beauty and utility may be combined); From Tough to Tender (meaty suggestions in the full sense of the word).

And, Besides All These Features, The Western Farmer and His Help, a solution of the farm labor problem, by Walter V. Woehlke; Spring Plants In the Greenhouse, the keynote of success in growing and selling them, by F. F. Rockwell; Duck Culture, by Ted Edwards; A Land of Berry Farms, by J. Russell Smith; Gas Engine Troubles, valuable information about ignition and carburetion, by F. Webster Brady; Four Sons Who Stayed On the Farm, by D. H. Doane; A Dairy Sextet of the Middle West, by George H. Dacy, and the regular departments dealing with farm legislation, poultry, crops and the market, and a page of pertinent editorial comment.

SMALLPOX

Patient Visited Stores And Citizens Are Alarmed

Suffering with smallpox, James Trippy, 30, of Canal Lewisville visited the stores of the village Saturday night and as a result the larger portion of the male population of that place have been exposed to the disease, says the Coshocton Age.

Trippy, at the time, was not aware of the fact that he had smallpox. He has a wife and three year old daughter and it is thought they may contract the disease because he was taken ill Thursday morning. Thinking nothing serious the matter he failed to call a physician. Saturday evening while buying supplies at the stores he became desperately ill and it was all he could do to reach his home. A physician was at once called and it was found that he was suffering from a very advanced stage of smallpox.

A rumor to the effect that the whole village would probably be put under quarantine is hardly believed because of the fact that to contract smallpox a person must come in direct contact with the person suffering from the disease. Tiny, slimy scales are thrown off by the body and if these are breathed or settle on another person's body they are quite liable to be stricken.

Trippy is employed at a local plant but when he finished his work Wednesday evening and left for home was enjoying the very best of health. It was not until he arose Thursday morning with the intention of going to work that he felt ill and remained at home.

The Trippy home has been quarantined but other than this no action has been taken. The health department will await further developments and if others contract the disease they will be quarantined.
