To Be Made At Bexley The Coming Year

Gambier, O., June 15—The eighty-sixth annual commencement of Kenyon college and Bexley theological seminary was held in Rosse hall, here, Monday morning, in the presence of an appreciative audience. The historic procession was formed in front of the alumni library, proceeding thence to the Church of the Holy Spirit, where morning prayer was said by the rector, the Rev. Geo. F. Smythe, the Rt. Rev. Boyd Vincent, D. D., bishop of Southern Ohio, assisting. After chapel the procession was again formed and proceeded to Rosse hall, which was appropriately and beautifully decorated in white and green, with flowers in profusion. After a song by the Kenyon college Glee club and choir, and the prayer of invocation by the Rt. Rev. William Andrew Leonard, D. D., bishop of Ohio, the class address was delivered by Mr. William Webster Sant, one of the two first honor men. His address dealt principally with the Mexican situation and the new international doctrine promulgated by the Wilson administration. The class of 1914 produced two first-honor men, Mr. Sant and Mr. Doble both having the highest grades possible to be given under the present system of marking; consequently first honors were divided between them.

Following another song by the Glee club, the alumni oration was delivered by Mr. James Garfield Stewart, Ph. B., '02, now a Cincinnati attorney. Under the rule adopted by the alumni, the alumni oration is delivered alternately by a graduate of the theological department and a graduate of the academic department, and this year it was the turn of the academic department. Mr. Stewart delivered his address extemporaneously, and spoke principally of what he considers to be the proper solution of the great economic and sociological questions now confronting the American nation. His address was eloquent and logical, and was well received.

"Kenyon, Mother Dear," was sung by the Glee club, students, faculty and alumni, and in fact by all who knew the words, the entire audience standing, and then degrees were conferred by the Rev. William F. Peirce, D. D., president of the college, after a short address of admonition and exhortation to the class of 1914, the members of which received degrees in course as follows:

- Bachelor of Arts—John Ernest Carhart, Charles Thomas Hull, William Webster Sant (first honor man.)
- Bachelor of Philosophy—Kirk William Cushing (first honor man), Louis Boyd Doble (first honor man), Jesse Ashton Gregg, Donald Hanby Harper, William Randall Kinder.
- Bachelor of Science—Carlton Benton Rettig, Eric Morrell Tasman (fifth honor man), Frederick James Wonders.
- Bachelor of Letters—David Weller Rowman, Jr., Roger Arbogast Houston, William Smith Jenkins, Jr., Matthew Benson Taylor, Jr. (fourth honor man.)

The class produced five honor men, first, third, fourth and fifth honors being awarded.

The degree of bachelor of arts in course was conferred (in absentia) on Gen. Charles George Penny, class of 1864, who left college before his graduation to enter the army, and is now a retired army officer residing in California; and the degree of master of arts in course was conferred (in absentia) on the Rev. Charles Thomas

MT. VERNON

Won From The Zanesville Team Sunday

In An One-Sided Game By Score 10 To 3

Three things featured the game played by Mt. Vernon against the Markert team of Zanesville Sunday afternoon. They were Popejoy's brilliant fielding, Art Bond's debut upon the mound and Mt. Vernon's errorless game. The locals won by a score of 10 to 3.

The Zanesville men played fairly good ball and were hard workers. Although the game was an uneven affair, the visitors contested every run as strongly as possible. They simply did not have the class. Stump, their pitcher, worked in excellent style and did not let up even in the face of defeat. Had he been given good support the count against his team would have been smaller.

Art Bond, former Y. M. C. A. hurler, made his opening bow and pitched a superb game. Given confidence in the first inning by a three run lead, he was never in danger afterward. Several of the Zanesville hits were of the very scratchiest order and all were more or less scattered.

Popejoy played the greatest game of his career at third base. He accepted thirteen chances without a wobble, some being hard ones. When he went to bat in the first inning he was presented with a fine silver set by Manager Atkinson in behalf of the club. He was recently married.

A little comedy worked into the program in the last inning. Maxwell had walked and took second on Tigner's muff of Critchfield's grounder. Critchfield on the first ball pitched, dashed for second, touched the bag, an sped on to third base. Maxwell stood at second and stared at him and then trotted to third. Critchfield was declared out.

The announcements by the president were brief. Clifford Frost, son of Norman Frost, was severely injured Saturday afternoon when he fell heavily upon a wagon wheel in an effort to escape being buried under a capsizing load of hay. He was riding upon the load, and was driving near his home in South Vernon when the load began to topple over. Frost leaped in the opposite direction and fell upon the tire of one of the wheels. He alighted upon his stomach. It was feared for a time that he had sustained internal injuries, but now all danger from that source is believed to have passed. He was greatly improved Monday.
