What You Have at Home.

Be still and do not forfeit what you have at home by turning to seek abroad what you will not find.—Fence.

Royalty Asks Favors.

Royalty is not averse to asking favors of great men, and when the prince consort of Holland learned that Sir Charles Macara, the "cotton king," was a friend of Mr. Carnegie, he asked if he would not use his influence with the millionaire toward getting an endowment fund established for the upkeep of the great palace of peace.

Early America.

I protest to you, by the faith of an honest man, the more I range the country the more I admire it. I have seen the best countries in Europe; I protest to you, put them all together, this country will be equivalent unto them if it be inhabited with good people.—Sir Thomas Dale, 1613.

Cement for China.

Dissolve one large tablespoonful of gum arabic in one-quarter cupful of warm water (it must be rather thick). Put in enough plaster of paris to make a thick paste. Apply at once to broken china before the paste has time to set. In half an hour the china will be firm.

The Mark of Femininity.

The eight-year-old son of a North side family was showing an animal book to his little four-year-old brother. Coming to the picture of a reindeer, with its hump-shaped horns, he said: "Now, Billy, you can always tell a woman reindeer by the kind of heels it wears."—Indianapolis News.
