Entertained With Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bebout of East High street delightfully entertained with a dinner last evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bebout of Gambier. Covers were laid for six.

Entertains With Christmas Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. George M. DeBolt of the Kelley addition entertained with a family dinner Christmas day. Covers were laid for 14. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vernon and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henry of Mansfield.

Entertained With Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. William Sutton of the Fredericktown road entertained on Christmas Day with a dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Young, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stall and children, Mrs. Mary Severns, the host and hostess and their children. The day was spent in games and music.

Ladies of Elks Have Card Party

The Ladies of the Elks entertained with cards Wednesday afternoon in the Elks clubrooms. Play in progressive euchre was enjoyed at six tables, and at the conclusion of the games several prizes were awarded to the winners. During the afternoon a committee with Mrs. Guy Taylor as chairman served refreshments in the grill room.

Entertains in Honor of Sisters

Mr. and Mrs. Bunn F. Clutter entertained at their home northwest of Homer recently honoring Mrs. Clutter's sisters, Misses Edythe and Ruth Williams. Thirty-five guests, members of the Junior and Senior classes of the Martinsburg high school of which the guests of honor are members, were present during the evening. During the evening refreshments were served to the young people by the hostess.

Aid Division Has Meeting

The members of the southwest division of the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Potter Seckman at her home on West High street. Twelve members were present and, after transacting business matters spent the remainder of the time in a social manner.

The division will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Emma Tibbets West Gambier street.

Christmas Entertainment

The annual Christmas entertainment for the scholars of the Sunday school of St. Paul's Episcopal church occurred last evening at the parish home. Despite the inclement weather, there were many children in attendance, as well as a number of "grown-ups."

The entertainment opened with the singing of Christmas carols by the children.

Song, "Christmas Bells" - Eight children from the primary department.

Reading - Marguerite Hanna. Recitations in 4 Yums - Three from the primary department.

Song, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing" with pantomime by five girls from the seventh grade.

"The Spirit of the Fir Tree" was the title of a delightful playlet presented by the children under the personal direction of Mrs. L. W. Coy Jr. The characters represented were the Spirit of the Fir Tree, Snowbirds, Boy Scouts and Children. The stage was artistically decorated to represent a grove of snow-laden fir trees.

At the conclusion of the playlet, each child was presented with a box of candy. The entertainment was brought to a close by the singing of carols and a few remarks by the rector, Rev. Donald Wonders.

S. S. Entertainment At Gambier Today The Sunday school of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Gambier, is giving an entertainment this afternoon at the Harcourt parish house. A feature of the program will be a Christmas tree and the distribution of gifts to the children.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers

At the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary held Wednesday evening in the Legion clubrooms, officers were elected for the coming year as follows:

President - Mrs. Faye O'Bryan. First Vice Pres. - Mrs. Margaret Strang. Second Vice Pres. - Mrs. Margaret Schrantz.

Secretary - Miss Ada Van Voerhis. Treasurer - Mrs. Veronica Matthews.

Chaplain - Mrs. Berta Schnebly. Historian - Miss Mary Brown. Press Correspondent - Mrs. Helen Norrick.

Executive committee - Mrs. Headington, Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Lonoy.

Sergeant at Arms - Mrs. Mary Dial. Color Escorts - Mrs. Effie Van Horn and Mrs. Mary Schaeffer.

The treasurer will appreciate the prompt payment of dues for the coming year.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held Jan. 10 in G. A. R. hall.

Entertained With Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Schooler of Mt. Zion delightfully entertained with a dinner party Christmas Day in honor of their daughter Wave, it being her 18th birthday anniversary. The house was attractively decorated with bells and Christmas decorations, and a fine Christmas tree occupied the bay windows.

At 1 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where a sumptuous turkey dinner was served. The table was centered with a huge birthday cake, 18 candles being placed upon it.

Those who enjoyed the festivities were: Mr. and Mrs. Grover Harris and daughter Nellie, of Bladensburg, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Donahay and daughter Otta, of Newark; Mrs. John Wolfe, Allen Schooler, Lee Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Shaw of Danville and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Schooler and daughter Wave. Miss Gladys Barker of Danville was invited, but when she arrived it proved to be Mrs. Clinton Shaw, the wedding having taken place in Mt. Vernon Saturday.

In the evening a delightful surprise was given Miss Wave by a party of young folks, who gave her many nice gifts to remind her of her birthday.

The evening was spent in music and games, and refreshments were served to the following guests: Misses Lena Hainsey, Alice Ramsey, Marie Mercer, Freda Johnson, Hattie Dugan, Mary Taylor, Dolores Haines, Florence Davidson, Gertha Nicholls, Fern Nicholls, Gertha Hall, Eva Bumpus, Ruth Bumpus, Zona Conrad, Mae Melick, Alta Melick, Wilma Melick, Bertha Hall, Wave Schooler, Otta Donahay, Nellie Harris, Mina Johnson, and Messrs. Ralph Stricker, Dwight Rine, Fred Fawcett, George McKee, Ross Burch, William Conrad, Otis Johnson, Roy Hardesty, Harry Gault, Frank Fowls, Leonard Mercer, Walter Melick, Guy Van Winkle, Carl Keaser, Arthur Conrad, Carl Bumpus, Lee Dugan, Allen Schooler and Frank Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Donahay, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Schooler.

BIRTHS

A daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sciles of near Hopewell.

Moral and Immoral Life. The man who gives himself entirely to the service of his appetites makes them grow and multiply so well that they become stronger than he; and once their drive, he loses his mental sense, loses his energy, and becomes incapable of discerning and practicing the good. In moral life we govern ourselves. In immoral life we are governed by our passions.
