

...the following admirable... Dr. Bedell of the Episcopal... charged the most delicate and trying duties... that devolve upon the Christian pastor

"MY DEAR FRIEND,—I had I this morning received the melancholy intelligence of the death of some near relative, it could not prove so oppressive to my feelings as something which I have this morning heard in relation to yourself, and something which I can scarcely yet bring myself to believe. Can it be possible, that you suffer yourself to be enticed to the theatre—and is it possible that you have permitted a ball at your house, and on an evening too, when I had been accustomed to see you in the house of God?

I did not believe these things, because you fully knew my views on all these matters, and as far as my recollection serves, always agreed with me, in their being utterly inconsistent with the true Christian profession. And I was still less inclined to believe these things, because it was only lately that you voluntarily mentioned your dislike even to the character that your musical parties had assumed. It is utterly impossible for me to tell you the sorrow which oppresses my heart, on the receipt of this information—sorrow on my own account, for I am selfish in my grief, because there is not an individual upon whom my confidence has been more fully placed. Sorrow on your account, for how can these things be without an abandonment of Christ, and the prospect of eternal ruin as the consequence?—Sorrow on account of religion, for oh! how many will stumble and fall over this "stumbling block." If I could deny the truth of the information I would most willingly do it with tears, and even write it in my own blood. I know perfectly well that there may be such things as family obstacles, in the way of the pleasant discharge of duty. But it is impossible that any thing should offer an excuse for the departure from the line of Christian duty.

"He that loveth father or mother, wife or children, more than Christ, cannot be his disciple; and it is a Christian's duty at hazards to rule his household after the precepts of the Lord.

"Oh, let me beg of you, my dear friend, to retrace those wandering footsteps—to repent of this departure, and in the deepest humility, to seek the pardoning of the Lord, and grace to be a decided Christian. If you are not willing to be on the Lord's side, I pray you, for your soul's sake, do not add to a worldly course, the great condemnation of a Christian profession. Give up the one or the other. The most dangerous of all states is an attempt to unite the two. Oh, that I could hear you say, "I will arise and go to my Father." For this, I will pray; for who in this world do I love better than my friend and my benefactor?

"I hope I have not hurt your feelings. As a minister of God, under whose instrumentality you made a profession of religion, I have only discharged my duty, and discharged it faithfully, because I am more attached to you than to any other.

"Your afflicted Friend,
"G. T. BEDELL."

From "The Touchstone," by the Rev. J. Flavel. ADVICE.

1. Let it be your great object to have a holy heart, a renewed and right spirit. All helps and directions will not preserve you from delusion and ruin, unless your heart is sanctified. Pray, therefore, with David, "Let my heart be sound in thy statutes, that I be not ashamed."

2. Always suspect and examine your ends in what you do. As your aim and design are, so are your doings. The intentions of the heart lie deep. The same action, done with a holy end, may be acceptable to God, which, done with a corrupt design, he would abhor. A man of God, who was commended for a good action, replied, "The work indeed is good, but I distrust the motives. Selfishness is liable to insinuate itself into the best actions."

3. Regard hypocrisy as the most odious sin in the sight of God and men. "To have no holiness is bad enough; but to pretend it when we have it not; is double iniquity. To make religion a mere step to preferment and a covert to wickedness—O how vile a thing is it! God made Christ a sacrifice for sin, and the hypocrite makes him a cloak for sin.

4. Let it be your constant endeavor to mortify those lusts that breed hypocrisy. Pride, vain glory, self-love, a worldly heart, are the seeds from which this cursed plant springs up in the souls of men. Dig but to the root, and you shall certainly find these unholy passions; and till the Lord help you to mortify them, hypocrisy will spring up in all your duties.

5. Listen to the voice of conscience in sickness and trouble. Mark its upbraidings at such times, whether they be that you are indulging some secret sin, or neglecting some known duty. These upbraidings of conscience will designate the corruptions in which, probably, most lies your danger.

6. Away with all temporizing in religion; be a Christian at heart, faithful to your Master and true to yourself. Hold fast integrity, whatever else you lose by it. O let this always be your rejoicing, which was Paul's, "the testimony of your conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, you have had your conversation in the world." Let your daily prayer and cry to God be that of David, "Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait on thee."

7. Keep your heart always under the ace of God's all-seeing eye. Remember he beholds all your ways, and ponders all your thoughts; he will bring every secret thing into judgment. Thus did Job, and it preserved him. Thus did David, and it preserved him. Thus do thou also, and it will preserve thee blameless and without guile to the day of Christ.

Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints.
ARE universally acknowledged to have totally eclipsed the pretensions of every other remedy; and succeeded the necessity of every other mode of treatment, wherever the above diseases are found to exist, as well as in enlargement of the Spleen and in Jaundice.
Among the symptoms of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, are flatulency, sourness or burning in the stomach, melancholy, irritability, disagreeable taste in the mouth; great irregularity of appetite, which is sometimes voracious, and at other times greatly deficient, thirst, frethead, nausea, weakness of the stomach, acid eructations, palpitation, drowsiness, irregularity of the bowels, pressure on the stomach after meals, pain in the head, dizziness or vertigo; confusion of mind, attended with loss of memory, a gnawing in the stomach when empty, chilliness, affection of sight and hearing, pain and weakness in the back, languor, disturbed sleep, cold feet and hands, tremor, uneasiness in the throat, cough, pain in the side or breast, &c.
These medicines are becoming known and valued. Each box is accompanied with numerous Certificates from the highest sources of respectability. The unrivaled success of the medicines, in curing the above maladies has given them a reputation which time only can destroy.

Dr. PETERS' VEGETABLE ANTI-BILLIOUS PILLS.
These Pills need but a trial to recommend them. They are purely vegetable and well calculated for the removal of all Billious complaints. They act especially upon the Liver, when in a torpid condition, carrying off a large quantity of bile, through the influence of the excrement function, which, if suffered to remain in the system, would produce either Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, or some other grievous bodily affliction. In all cases of torpor of the bowels, they act like a charm. In recent cases of Dyspepsia, they are a certain cure. Many persons who were subject to violent attacks of sick head ache, have been much benefited, and several perfectly cured in a few weeks by their use. They are highly recommended as a preventive and cure of Billious complaints. Persons who are subject to that distressing complaint, sea sickness, by taking a portion or two of them a few days previous to embarking on board the vessel, will be almost certain to escape it. Females can use them at any period, without incurring any risk. Persons going to sea, or to a southern climate, should by all means take some of these Pills with them.—Their virtues will remain unimpaired for years in any climate. No family should be without these Pills; a portion of them, taken occasionally would be the means of preventing much suffering from sickness. It is from neglect of keeping up a regular peristaltic action of the stomach and bowels, thus suffering to be absorbed and mingled with the blood, unstimulated fluids, that most diseases are produced. Dr. P. feels confident that no person who gives these Pills a fair trial, will ever after feel willing to be without them. The testimony of thousands speaking in the highest terms of their efficacy, might be added, but the very high reputation Dr. P. has acquired as the inventor of the "Patent Vegetable Medicines Stomachic and Hepatic," for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, is thought a sufficient guarantee to those wishing to make a trial of their virtues. They contain not a particle of Mercury, or any ingredient that does not act in harmony with health and oppose disease.
Dr. P. wishes it distinctly understood, that these Pills possess beneficial qualities independent of their purgative effects; they are both tonic and deobstruent, acting upon the secreting and exhalant functions; thus strengthening the patient, while they remove obstructions.—Medicines which possess no other, excepting cathartic qualities, debilitate the patient, and their repeated use lays the foundation of a long catalogue of Chronic Diseases.
Dr. P. having been educated under the most eminent American and European Medical professors, and practised his profession many years in the South, where diseases of the most obstinate character prevail, considers himself well qualified to judge on the nature of diseases incident to warm climates.
Prepared by JOSEPH PETER, M. D. F. R. S. M. at his Institution for the cure of obstinate diseases, by means of vegetable remedies, No 129 Liberty street, New York, inventor and sole proprietor. Each box contains forty Pills. Price 50 Cents.

The pedigree of Sir Archy, who was by Diomed, out of imported Centaure, his reputation and that of his stock, and all the various branches of the families connected with Mucklejohn, Jr., are so well known to breeders of Blood Horses, that we deem it unnecessary to pursue the subject further, and shall proceed to give his PERFORMANCES.
Mucklejohn, Jr. was partially trained in the fall of 1830, then 3 years old; but only suffered to run sufficient to test his speed and to try his future promise. Fully trained the next season, and on the 26th of October, 1831, he won the Jockey Club purse, $80, at Pineville South Carolina, two mile heats—beating Col. Richardson's b. f. Lapruelle, 4 years old, and Col. Sinker's c. Van Buren, same age. (Time not stated—said to be very quick.) After this race he was exercised with an unmanageable filly, who, in defiance of the efforts of her rider, constantly took the lead, by which means he soon became accustomed to look for a leader, and to stop when he saw nothing in advance of him—and on the 21 of December, 1831, on the Stateburg Course 4 mile heats, purse $300, ran into the crowd near the Judge's stand at the close of the third mile, while far in advance of Col. Sinker's b. c. Van Buren, Col. Myers's s. m. Lindy Dec-

On the 29th of January, 1832, he won the Jockey Club purse, $215, at Columbia, S. C., two mile heats, beating Col. R. Adam's Tapal, by Crusader, Col. Wm. R. Johnson's Annette, by Sir Charles, Mr. Rivo's Soucrout, by Rob Roy, and Mr. Woodward's Water Witch by Turf Register, vol. 3, page 316.)
On the 26th of January, same year, he won the Jockey Club purse, $400, at Camden, four mile heats, over an exciting road and hard frozen course—beating Mr. Smith's Mary Frances, by Director, 5 years old, and Dr. Ellerbe's Jeanette, by Eclipsa, dam by Cock of the Rock, five years old. Time 8 min. 20 sec.—8 min. 21 sec. (Turf Register, vol. 3, page 368.)
