LEVERFOL COTTON MARKET, Sept. 26.

The demand for Cotton has continued steady throughout the week, and full prices were obtained for all kinds, save the lower qualities of Surat, at auction yesterday, which sold 1/4 to 1/2 under previous prices.

LONDON MARKET, Sept. 23.

Sugar.—No further general reduction in prices has been submitted to by the importers of West India Sugars, although in some few instances a decline of 6d has been submitted to.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.

Flour.—Howard-st. the same as last quoted, without change—from waggon $9 25; from stores $9 50. City Mills is held at $9. Susquehanna is $9 75, but we believe it might be bought for something less.

NEW-ORLEANS, Oct. 29.

Sugar, N. O.—We reduce our quotations to 8 a 9 cents, but there are very few sales, even at these rates.

Molasses.—There are still a few scattering lots of old Molasses lingering in the market, for which the holders are asking from 35 a 38 cents per gallon; but it is in no demand.

STRAY HEIFER.

THE subscriber would hereby give notice that there is a Stray Heifer at his plantation. She has been there since March last. Said Heifer is mostly of a red color, has some white spots on her body and face; there is a small piece out of her ear. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay for this advertisement and take her away.

WILLIAM GALLAGE.

Cheraw, Nov. 15th, 1836. 1-1t.

To Steamboat and Poleboat Owners.

WHEREAS, it has hitherto been the practice, where boats arrived at the wharf in this town, for the owner to order the goods on board to be put out on the bank forthwith, without considering whether or not they could be hauled up before night. Now to show the propriety of such practice, I state the following facts. On Friday evening last four boats arrived, some of their loading was delivered on the same evening, and all the remainder was thrown out on the bank on Saturday. All that could be done to haul up the goods was done; every wagon was put in requisition; I continued to haul myself till 8 o'clock at night; and yet many hog-heads of sugar, coffee, &c., remained, and were exposed to the weather and the depredations of thieves from Saturday night till Monday morning. Such goods must of course be considered at the risk of the boat owners. To prevent misapprehensions, for the future I hereby give the following

NOTICE.

WHEN notified that goods consigned to me are landed, I shall use due diligence to have them hauled; but all such goods landed without my consent, and remaining on the river bank after sunset shall be at the risk of the boat owners.
