

Millville.

W. C. Crow is with us again. Our new mill is running every day now.

Lots of insurance agents in our town.

L. N. Crow will leave for his home Saturday.

A. A. Osteen, of Marianna, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

H. Boyer left for his home in Pensacola last Sunday morning.

L. D. Green and brother, insurance agents, are visitors in our town.

L. D. Green left for St Andrew Wednesday to talk insurance.

G. M. B. Harries and wife, with Mrs Douglas, went to Wetappo Wednesday.

E. F. Boyer, clerk in the German American Company's store was on the sick list last week.

We will be sorry to lose L. D. Green who will leave for Pensacola on the Tarpon Friday.

We certainly have a nice hotel in our town now. Mr Nass, of Pensacola, is the proprietor.

F. L. Wilkerson, who has been in our city several days, left for the country Wednesday to be gone two or three days.

The most enjoyable launch ride of the season was given last night by F. L. Wilkerson, of Pensacola. Delightful refreshments were served on board. When the crowd reached St Andrews they were invited to the ice cream parlor where they partook of cool drinks. Those who went were Mr and Mrs H. Allen and baby, Mr and Mrs Dr W. J. Lee and son, Mrs M. Douglass and little Lillian, Mr and Mrs F. B. Clingo and children Mr F. L. Wilkerson. Mr Wilkerson charmed the crowd with his melodious voice and while singing a lullaby the babies all fell asleep.

Cromanton.

John Clark visited Panama City Sunday.

Rev Carlisle came in Saturday night on the mail boat.

Mrs E. P. Kinnie spent Saturday at Cromanton hotel.

Will Railsback was home visiting his father Sunday.

Mr F. W. Hoskins is visiting in Farmdale this week.

Roy Wineman will preach here next Sunday night at 7:30.

Mr Henry Spicer who has been away the past summer returned last Tuesday.

Mrs Ed Pratt, of Millville, spent the day with Mrs Audley Spicer Tuesday.

Mr Scott and his brother, of Millville, were over Sunday visiting Mr Railsback.

Mrs S. L. Stone stopped for a few minutes Monday on the way to her home in Wewahatchka.

The Cuba, of Farmdale, was at Hoskins wharf Monday. The Cuba is a nice large boat equipped with sails and a powerful gasoline engine.

Mr and Mrs S. Fenters were passengers on Fridays mail boat on their way to visit their son at Panama City, returning to Cromanton Sunday evening.

Rev Carlisle preached here Sunday morning and Sunday night. The Sunday mornings lesson was on "the Sin of Covetousness" drawing the lesson from King Ahab's coveting the vineyard.

S. Fenters and family and John Clark and family moved on Monday to Farmdale, L. C. Davis moving them on the "Cuba." Mr Fenters was superintendent of our Sunday school, and he will be very much missed, as he filled the position most acceptably. These two families are hearty whole souled people whose departure is greatly regretted, especially from a little community like this, but what is our loss is Farmdales gain.

Econfina.

Our farmers are busy gathering their crops.

We are having some pleasant weather now.

Hello boys how about the serenade Thursday night.

Jessie Mashburn and family visited Mrs L. Cox Sunday.

A. Pinkney has gone up in the country on business.

D. L. Mashburn left here Monday with a load of fish for Alabama points.

A crowd of the young folks visited Anderson Saturday. They report a pleasant time.

Miss Maggie Cox left here Saturday for St Andrews where she will spend a while with Mrs G. W. Howbs.

They have reached here with the survey on the B. C. & St. A. R. R. We hope to see the trains running soon.

B. Allen and his mother-in-law, Mrs Daffin, passed through here Monday en route to Marianna. They have been spending a few days at Millville with relatives.

A. M. Nixon passed through here Sunday en route for his home at Fountain. He has been working on the B. C. & St A. R. R. He reports work progressing nicely.

Married at the brides home on Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, Miss Myrtle Brown and J. W. Evans. They left for Millville Friday morning where they will stay until December, and then move to Panama City. Rev R. Harris was the officiating clergyman.

Parker.

Chas. E. Forbes was a caller here on Wednesday.

Mrs George Albritton was a caller here on Monday.

W. H. Parker and wife visited Millville one day last week.

Henry Spicer was a visitor at W. H. Parker's on Sunday.

Two of our young men look very bad this week. Wonder why?

Ed Fox and crew called in here on their way down the bay fishing.

Lots of fish wagons coming and going, but the fish are not so plentiful as they might be.

Capt. P. F. Parker hauled out his yawl boat the Viola on the Parker ways on Wednesday.

The Donalson schooner of Millville was out on the ways several days being painted and corked.

W. H. Parker took a trip up to Burnt Mill and Boggy Bayou's to look after his timber lands.

H. B. Percival has been on the sick list now for a week, with a large and painful rising on the top of his foot.

Mr Hinson and family left here on Tuesday for their home in Cambelton. Mr H. says he will move here later on.

The schooner Martha Lillian came up from St Andrew Friday afternoon, and anchored in the harbor until Sunday. So the Capt. and some of the crew visited home folks while here.
