REVIVAL OPENS AT CALVARY CHURCH

Minister Ridicules Morning
Paper's Weak Anti-Prohibition Editorial.

The Florida pastor-evangelist, Mr. Wray, is drawing crowds to the Calvary Baptist church, and Prof. Blankenship is proving himself a master of song, as well as manager of choir.

Mr. Wray took for his text last night, "Where Art Thou?" which he declared the three most important words he could put to his auditors.

He discussed men's standing on moral as well as religious questions, at times was very humorous, at other times was deeply pathetic, and always forcible.

While he did not discuss the question of prohibition, the matter came within his scope, and he pronounced an editorial that had appeared yesterday morning, as the weakest thing he had seen in a long time. "Such a production is 20 years behind the times, and is hardly worthy of a country editor from the sticks of Florida," he said.

The interest in the meeting is on a decided increase, and the congregations are growing rapidly. The preaching and the singing are both very taking features. The meeting goes on all the week, services at 4 and 7:30 p. m.

Cards Still Afford Much Of the Pleasure Of Society

Mrs. W. H. Bryan entertained this afternoon at the first of a series of bridge parties.

Miss Lucile Smith entertained at bridge Tuesday afternoon at her home, 1015 North El Paso street, in honor of Miss Josephine Eddings, of Moberly, Mo. The artistic decorations were in green and white and the same color scheme was carried out in the refreshments. Those present were Nora Bradley, Elsie Lurkins, Pauline Sprinz, Adine Neak, Loreta Brick, Pearl Berkeley, Ethel Brown, Lillian Crawford, Milda Connelly, Julia Caldwell, Essie Dabyshtre, Josephine Eddings, Addie McFarland, Mrs. Hal Christie, Mrs. Loretzen.

The Wednesday Bridge club will not have their usual meeting this week on account of the death of Dr. Irvin.

Mrs. John L. Dyer will be the hostess for the Friday High Five club.

The largest social affair of the week was the bridge party of 14 tables given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. P. Coleman and Miss Ruth Coleman in honor of their charming house guest, Miss Florence Leiper, of Little Rock, Ark. The Coleman home was attractively decorated with quantities of cut flowers and ferns, placed about the apartments. The hostesses were assisted in receiving and entertaining their guests

by Mrs. K. D. Franklin and Mrs. V. P. Safford.

Mrs. Burleson Staten was the fortunate winner of the first prize for the married women—a silver bonbon spoon. The second prize—a hand painted plate—went to Mrs. W. F. Robinson.

Dainty silk hosiery were the prizes given to the young women, and were won by Miss Lillie Coles and Miss Anna Thorndom.

The consolation prize, also a pair of silk hose, went to Mrs. W. R. Thurston.

At the close of the fascinating games a delicious three course luncheon was served from the small tables.

Miss Kathleen Myles was the charming hostess who entertained at an informal bridge party Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mabel Falvey won the first prize and Mrs. William Glasgow the second. Delightful refreshments were served after the games.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cady very pleasantly entertained at an informal bridge party Monday evening.

The home was artistically decorated with pink carnations, and evergreens. Miss Chloe Calhoun assisted in serving the dainty refreshments. Those present were: Judge and Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kaster, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. DuBose; Mrs. Harriett Clark, Miss Chloe Calhoun, Miss Nellie May Bowen, Messrs. Charles and Bert Clark.

Women's Clubs Of the City Active In Week's Society

Mrs. Victoria Whitmer was the delightful hostess who on Saturday entertained the members of the Thursday Lunch club, at the Harvey house. Covers were laid for 12 guests. The attractively arranged table, from which the six course luncheon was served, was decorated with a profusion of carnations and ferns.

The Letter and Art department of the Women's club met this afternoon in the club rooms. The meeting was of unusual interest and a most excellent program was given.

The Young Women's Christian association will hold its annual meeting on Thursday evening of this week in the association rooms in the Herald building at 7:30 o'clock. A social time will follow the business meeting.

Monday evening the Triad club of the Y. W. C. A. held its current events program. Miss Ora Coker gave a talk on "Are Women Interested in Politics." Miss Draper gave a review of latest achievements of women; Miss Hazel Skille to be given by the club to its friends next Monday night. Eight new members were voted in.

Church Socials and Reception By Mrs. Harper Are Pleasant

Mrs. Frank Powers entertained the women of Trinity church at her home, 1307 Mesa avenue, Monday afternoon.

The guests were given a tour in a special train over the celebrated B. & P. route. Each passenger was furnished with a regulation yardling tourist coupon ticket by the general passenger agent. The equipment consisted of four modern coaches and observation car in charge of conductor M. Sachs. The welfare and comfort of the travelers was looked after by the porter M. (Rastus) Blum; and the needs in the way of fruit, confections, a heart containing a portion of the name of a flower, being placed in the hands of each tourist and the holders required to form the name of the flower. Miss Fannie Woods won the prize here.

The next stop was at Needville, situated in the beautiful valley of Liberty, the decorations being needles hung in pendants. Fifteen minutes were allowed here for testing the eye sight by a contest in needle threading. Mrs. E. C. Mathews being the champion. Fruit punch was served at this stop.

They then proceeded to Peanutville, located in the dining room, which was festooned with peanuts. The passengers participated in a drilling contest, picking peanuts from a bowl with hairpins. Mrs. J. Mack Crawford and Miss Lillian Huggett taking the honors.

The journey was then resumed to Musciville, where the tourists enjoyed the following well rendered musical program:

Vocal solo Mrs. E. J. Evans
Piano solo Miss Kata Warren
Vocal solo Mrs. Will Owens
Vocal solo Edward McKenzie
Vocal solo Miss Nellie Leighton
Accompanists—Mrs. Adine T. Owen and Miss Warren.

Twenty minutes were allowed for serving a delicious two course luncheon, after which the guests returned to Homeville with many pleasant reminiscences of the journey.

About 90 enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Powers on this pleasant occasion. She was assisted on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wright and Mesdames C. B. Patterson and J. J. Ayers, and in serving the luncheon by Mabel O'Connor, Violet Aitken, Pearl Swain and Roland Gilchrist.

The members of the Congregational church will give a reception on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore, 321 Erie street, Highland Park, to welcome their new pastor, Rev. Bryant C. Preston and family, of Muscatine, Ia.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Harper entertained a number of their friends on Friday evening at a delightfully informal reception at their home on East Rio Grande street. The home was attractively decorated with quantities of evergreens and carnations.

Capt. Van Surdam added to the pleasure of the evening with several vocal selections.

A dainty salad course was served, and a thoroughly good time enjoyed with these hospitable hostesses. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. W. work, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Nevel Mace, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Elliott, Misses Rosa Wial, Irene Elliott, Maybelle Hood, Edith McCleary, Adella Wallwork, Lois Walker, Kathrin Cox, Lois Hall, Clara Mentzer, Violet Atkin, Rachel Harper, Messrs. Home V. Prickett, Emmett Robertson, Capt. Van Surdam, Lieut. Philip McCleary, David Robertson, Jonas Harper, A. A. Hatcher, Clarence Hall, Harry Pearson.

The Sensible Thing To Do.
"Pneumonia weather" some people call this. The sudden change finds them unprepared. They catch cold, neglect it, and it develops into something serious. The sensible thing is to keep a box of White's Cold Tablets in the house and take one when the first signs of a cold make their appearance. For a cough we suggest White's White Pine and Tar.
