The Test

By S. E. Kiser in Chicago Record-Herald

When friendship or love our sympathies move, When truth in a glance should appear, The lips may beguile with a dimple or smile, But the test of affection's a tear.

—Lord Byron.

Once it may have been so, there has been a change, though: A tear is a cheap thing to shed, And a dimple or smile is no longer worth while If a meal can be furnished instead.

If it's friendship or love that you're wishing to prove It is useless to sigh or to kneel; Ask the lady to eat where the service is neat— Win her heart with the price of a meal.

They are few who can pay to eat three times a day, Hence the maiden will deem you divine, And you'll win in a walk if you cut out the talk And merely invite her to dine.

Many Pleasant Parties In Society During the Week

Mrs. F. H. Seamon and Mrs. W. D. Greet contributed to the social pleasure of the week with a charmingly informal "at home" on Saturday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Seamon.

The affair was the second of a series that will be given during the season, and was in honor of Mrs. L. N. Sheldon, of Kansas City. The guests were met at the door by the little Misses Katherine Seamon, Frances Earle and Katharine Earle, who were daintily gowned in white, with ribbon sashes.

Those assisting in receiving were: Mrs. F. C. Earle, Mrs. French S. Cary, Mrs. H. C. Myles, Mrs. James H. Parker, Mrs. W. D. Howe and Mrs. Clarence Seamon. Mrs. William Judd, Mrs. E. K. Talbot, Mrs. J. Cameron and Miss Nellie Gailford also assisted in the dining room.

The Seamon home was decorated with the artistic taste characteristic of the hostess. In the reception room red was the color scheme, brought out in the decorations, with red shielded candles and electric lights, and red hearts. In the dining room the tea table was especially attractive, set with ebony lace doilies and illuminated with pink shaded candles. A pink azalea formed the central decoration feature. Among those calling during the afternoon were: Mesdames E. W. S. Neff, Frederick Symonds, Fernando C. Searle, W. L. Tooley, W. S. Tilton, R. F. Burges, H. C. Myles, Guy L. Warren, H. A. Carpenter, E. Campbell, E. F. Baer, F. E. Hunter, Morris Parker, H. T. Safford, B. M. G. Williams, A. P. Averill, Josephine Eggriff, W. H. Broadbent, Frank Coles, Ernest Crobin, Peyton F. Edwards, J. J. Swaine, D. W. Tucker, Henry East, Frederick East, Dan Jackson, C. E. Kelly, E. E. Neff, T. J. Beall, W. H. Burges, W. L. Gaines, J. Cameron, W. D. Howe, William Judd, V. R. Stiles, J. J. Enstace, and others.

Mrs. C. A. Kinkel honored Miss Laura Townsend on Monday afternoon with a delightful and unique "quitting party." Each guest brought a ready made square, and the work of the afternoon was to place the square together and design the quilt.

The Kinkel home was artistically decorated for the occasion. Green and red was the color plan for the parlor, developed with green festoons and red candles, shaded with polka dots.

In the dining room green and white formed the color effect with white carnations and green shaded candles adorning the table from which dainty refreshments were served.

Those in attendance were: Misses Laura Townsend, Nannie Lackland, Anna Shelton, Alma Jones, Emily Foster, Marguerite Winman, Julia Coldwell, Sue Crombie, Mary Pool, Clara Mundy, Monica Gallagher, Isabel Kelly, Hallie Irvin, Fannie Henning, Janie Ellis, Eleanor Porcher, Le Baron, Ethel Waltz, Sallie Walthall, Josie Marr, Alice Swann, Iva Humphrey, Nellie Lyons, Mesdames Bruce Seton, R. Stewart, Lamar Davis, Hugh White, Ralph Loomis, Marie Loomis, E. H. Irvin, Wm. Judd, W. E. Bell, J. E. Townsend, J. J. Mundy, Lee Orndorf, K. D. Oliver, Joseph Sweeney, Harry Clappett, Winston Pettus, Chas. Davis, Abba Linn.

Colonial Reception By the U. D. C.; the Card Clubs

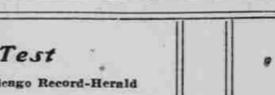

One of the most delightful club functions of the season was the informal colonial reception given yesterday afternoon at the Elks' home, by the Virginia committee of the U. D. C. The walls of the attractive club parlors were artistically hung with American flags. The refreshment table was spread with doilies of Irish crochet and illuminated with red shaded candles. Red hearts suspended above the table indicated the near approach of St. Valentine's day.

The hostesses wore colonial gowns with powdered hair and patches, and looked most quaint and charming. Mrs. W. S. Tilton was attractively gowned in green silk poplin, of the vintage of 1776. This interesting costume, which was entirely hand made and trimmed with old lace, has been handed down through generations.

Mrs. R. F. Campbell was attired in an elaborate costume of white brocade satin and soft-toned purple velvet, which she wore at the governor's inaugural ball at Austin 30 years ago.

The costume united both the antique and fanciful, and was made in panier style with violet yoke and sleeves, and long velvet train. The trimmings were of pearl.

Mrs. H. W. Broadbent wore a very quaint flowered costume of the colonial period, which was exceedingly becoming. Mrs. C. E. Kelly was gowned in a tan silk poplin, in colonial style with the development of a crimson color motif in the decorations, and was set with ebony lace doilies. Mrs. John T. Cameron assisted the hostess in serving.

In the bridge games Mrs. F. H. Seamon, and Mrs. Morris Parker captured the prizes for the women and R. H. Smith and A. G. Foster won the men's prizes.

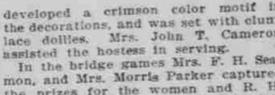

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Seamon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tooley, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Earle, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bray, Mrs. C. W. Sheldon, Mrs. Morris Parker, Mrs. W. D. Greet, Mrs. Berry.

Many Dances For Charity; Other Dances In the City

A happy, smiling crowd of 300 danced charity Monday evening in the ball room of the Knights of Columbus building on Myrtle avenue. It was the annual charity ball which is given each year as the closing event of the social season preceding Lent under the auspices of the Catholic Benevolent society composed of the women of the church of the Immaculate Conception. The ball room of the new Knights of Columbus building proved an ideal place for holding the dance in the name of the greatest of the triumvirate of virtues—charity. The supper room on the second floor was decorated with smilax and there the refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served during the evening.

The grand march was led by Prof. J. C. Mathew, who introduced a number of new and original figures. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morgan followed Prof. Mathew as the leaders of the grand march. Mrs. Morgan being the president of the Benevolent society. The program of dances followed and continued until after midnight, it being the last opportunity the young folks will have to dance until after Lent as the advent of Lent today, this being Ash Wednesday, causes all social activities to cease until after Easter.

Those who attended the annual charity ball of the society were: Messrs. and Mesdames E. V. Berrien, C. E. Kelley, T. N. Nealon, W. T. H. Russell, T. C. McCarthy, J. A. DeLaney, Henry Ryan, Morris Galvin, George Haile, L. L. Mundy, G. B. Callman, W. L. Brown, Madames W. J. Glasgow, Thos. O'Keefe, Mary McKenny, Lee Swinney, C. L. Hoy, Gorman, Leo Rickstatter, Noble, Della Lane Hall, Otis Andrews, D. M. Murphy, E. Keating, Mary Donohue, Kurnham, Misses Porter, Griffin, Kitty

Erdix Dearing and Arnold Strelitz To Be Married Soon

At a party given yesterday afternoon by Miss Clover Shackelford, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Emily Foster and Erdix Dearing, the marriage to take place on March 12. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon and at the conclusion of the games, small gift baskets of bonbons, holding the announcement cards, were passed to each guest. Miss Foster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Foster, of this city, and is one of El Paso's sweetest and most lovable girls.

Mr. Dearing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dearing, of Chihuahua. He is located at Madera, Mexico, where he is the manager of the Madera lumber company.

Both young people are well known and very popular socially. Those enjoying Miss Shackelford's hospitality yesterday were: Mrs. Ralph Loomis, Mrs. Z. L. Cobb, Mrs. H. E. Christy, Mrs. Galbraith, Misses Carrie Race, Fazel Bekler, Lucille Smith, Josephine Eddings, Sue Crombie, Louise Harper, Monica Gallagher, Elsie Laurie, Jane Christy, Florence Le Baron, Margherita Le Baron, Mildred Connolly, Loretta Brick, Ruth Coleman, Louise Leiper.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Irma Totzek, of Roswell, N. M., to Arnold Strelitz, of this city, the date for the wedding not yet decided upon.

Miss Totzek is a niece of J. Callisher, of this city, and is a most charming and accomplished young woman. She has visited in El Paso several times and has here numbers of friends. Mr. Strelitz is a well and popularly known young business and club man of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Walthall announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Sallie Tom Walthall, to William Graves. The wedding will occur in the early spring.

Miss Walthall has lived in El Paso most of her life, attended school here, and has a very large number of friends. Mr. Graves came to El Paso two years ago, from Texarkana, Texas. He is connected with the First National bank of this city.

Another engagement of interest to El Pasoans and announced by Mr. and Mrs. F. Myerson, of Jacksonville, Fla., is that of Miss Hannah Myerson to Alfred Wolff. Miss Myerson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Myerson, of Jacksonville, one of the wealthiest families of Florida. Mr. Wolff is the
