Monday Afternoon Session.
At the Christian church, Monday afternoon, Rev. D. Clay Lilly opened the services with a short talk on the systematic organization of the missionary movement in El Paso.

Dr. Lilly said that the "Psychological moment" for the time strike "he said he believed in the psychological moment, and thought all married men did. In speaking of the donations to the missionary movement, he said: "One church, the dearest in the southwest—I will not mention the name, for that will be bringing in personalities—gave $15,000 to the missionary work. That," said he, "is very near as much as El Paso gives altogether; but I don't know."

Dr. Reid Talks.
Rev. C. F. Reid, D. D., made a very interesting talk on "The Winning of Korea." Dr. Reid said he spent 15 years in China before going to Korea, and that 25 years ago there was not a Christian in the country. "Now," he said, "there is 3000. The first contribution box I had over here was a rice bowl, that I cleaned out the best I could with my pocket handkerchief."

The Evening Session.
At the First Christian church Monday night the 8 o'clock services were largely attended. The speakers for the evening were Rev. John W. Lowe, missionary to China, Rev. J. P. McNaughton, missionary to India, and Rev. Willis R. Hotchkiss, missionary to Africa.

Rev. Mr. Lowe made a very interesting speech on the conditions in China, emphasizing it with several incidents in the life of the people. He illustrated throughout with photographs of natives, tells of their needs and indicates the assistance required to better conditions there. The booklet is being distributed free at all meetings of the convention.

CONVENTION NOTES.
Dr. D. Clay Lilly, the field secretary of the Laymen's work in Africa, has had two solid months of campaigning in the cause. While his voice is getting a bit husky his enthusiasm is still as strong as ever.

The First Christian church, where the convention is being held, is decorated with the flags of the different countries and with mottoes of the laymen's movement.

Dr. Reid has a new method of canvassing for funds for any cause. He says the canvassers begin at the wrong end. Instead of going to the men who have the money, he advocates going to the small contributors first and then working up the ladder to the big fish.

The motto of the movement is, "We Can Do It If We Will. We Can Do It, and We Will."

Rev. Willis Hotchkiss, missionary from British East Africa, is as full of wild animal stories as Ernest Thompson Seton, or Ernest Thompson Seton, whichever it is this week. Last night he told of an experience he had in his family had which placed him in about the position of the sailor who was between the devil and the deep blue. While on a journey into the interior they saw a lion, a lioness and three cubs at night. The lioness went into the jungle, hid her cubs and then returned ready for a fight. Turning off the road, the party encountered two immense hippopotami. Choosing the lesser of the evils, Dr. Hotchkiss said he turned and fought the lioness, wounding her, the report of his rifle frightening the hippos away. The missionary and family then continued their journey in peace.

Dr. John MacArthur, head of the English department of the A. and M. college at Mesilla Park, N. M., is attending the convention.

Rev. C. L. Overstreet, hearing the missionaries telling of their experiences with the natives, told this one: "While Mrs. Overstreet and I were touring the holy land and the east, we visited the pyramids. The little boys there were so eager for the members of the party to buy their trinkets, ride the donkeys or hire them as guides that they were very annoying. One wizened little old kept bothering me to ride his donkey. Being of his size, the implications I said in the slang of the day, 'Skidoo.' He screwed his wrinkled, old man face into a sarcastic smile. 'Twenty-three' he screamed in a voice like a file."

Describing a native baptism in Korea, Dr. Reid said he found the natives at the bank of the river one day scrubbing each other with soap and brushes. "That was their idea of baptism," Dr. Reid said, "and I must say that it was an effective one."

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.
PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

CITIZENS MUST PUT UP MAIL BOXES
The Postoffice Department Seeks Regulation to This Effect.

If a provision of the postoffice appropriation becomes a law, residents of cities who have not mail boxes up in front of their residences will receive no mail after June 30, 1911.

The provision providing any letter carrier from delivering mail at any house unless there is a suitable mail box on the outside to receive it and this will apply in El Paso as well as other cities.

Uncle Sam has tired of having the mail carriers for his postmen. He has ordered his door bells and is seeking to enforce the law, making mail boxes compulsory, it seeks to save the time of the carriers. After many tests the postoffice department has determined that a mail carrier in carrying out 20 seconds in ringing each door bell and awaiting responses. According to advices from Washington it is expected the number of carriers required will be reduced and a saving of $400,000 is estimated.

BACK WITH THE GATORS.
Well, well, look whose here. Laying aside gold lace and big cap of dignity, and donning the uniform of a common patrolman, Walter White, ex-sergeant of police, is back on his old beat at San Jacinto plaza. "I couldn't stay away any longer, the gators are coming out, and I had to be here to get them in form for our poster," he said today. "It sure feels good to be back, shaking hands with old friends again."

Oscar Klein, carrier 16 of the post-office force, is sick and his place is being filled by W. Casted.

PLAN ANOTHER CONCRETE BLOCK

W. A. Morehouse Here From Los Angeles Confering With Richard Caples.

Since the arrival of W. A. Morehouse from Los Angeles, building prospects have taken a boost. While the visit of Mr. Morehouse to El Paso at this time is given as being to examine the conditions of his properties here, the real reason is said to be to have a consultation with Richard Caples, L. Lindsay, and John Ashcroft, each of whom own small holdings on San Antonio street near the Mesa avenue corner, regarding the erection of one large building on this important business corner, instead of four smaller buildings.

A meeting of Mr. Caples and Morehouse was held this morning and the plans for erecting a party building on the site of the Bazaar store, the Acme saloon and the pool hall adjoining it on the west were discussed. Plans have already been drawn for a building to be erected on the ground owned by Mr. Caples, but a change may yet be made in order to make the building cover the four sites.

Nothing has yet been said to the representatives of Lindsay and Ashcroft regarding the plan. The ground owned by the four men on this corner is: Caples, 16 feet, on San Antonio street; Morehouse, 24 feet; Lindsay, 20 feet, and Ashcroft, 16 feet. This makes a frontage of 76 feet on San Antonio street and should the plans materialize for the building, it will be a modern concrete one in the same general style as the Caples building.

In addition to the 24 feet on San Antonio street, Mr. Morehouse also owns the building occupied by the Paw & Son shoe store, a half interest in the English kitchen, on the south side of San Antonio street, and the same interest in the Wigwam roaster adjoining it.

STREET OPENING.
For the opening of West San Antonio street through Sonora, L. A. Mender and wife have decided to George Look, lot three, in block 140, of Campbell's addition for a consideration of $2600.

Look will in turn deed the ground to the city for the opening of the new street.

SITE IS SOLD IN THE WHOLESALE DISTRICT.
Watch El Paso grow and keep one eye on the new wholesale district in the west part of the city between L. A. Street and the union station. H. B. Stevens, Charles B. Stevens and Z. T. White have sold a site 52 by 120 feet on West San Antonio street to a firm for $6500 to an eastern wholesale firm which will erect a large wholesale warehouse and offices on the ground.

J. M. LANGFORD BUYS HOUSE.
J. M. Langford has bought the home of W. C. Porter at 1313 Florence street, for $4500. The sale was made through Hawkins Bros.

AMUSEMENTS.
A MIXUP IN THE SHOW WORLD.

A makeup man got the amusement notices in Monday's Herald so badly mixed that it was impossible for readers to tell whether the shows were coming or going. The notices are therefore reproduced today.

"EAST LYNNE."
"East Lynne," the old time favorite, has been revived by the Bailey company this week for an offering at the Crawford and from the way the audiences applauded and went with the players Sunday night and at Sunday matinee, it was a popular revival. This very clever company is well cast in the piece and it is by far the best production of this drama ever given in El Paso by a stock company.

Miss Grace Lockwood is very sweet in her part in the play and Edwina Bailey is the same dashing hero as ever, with the other members of the company satisfactorily cast and giving a good account of themselves.

For the production of special settings have been arranged and the magnificent scene, with the beams of the moon streaming through the window, elicited applause yesterday.

This was the first bill introduced under the new policy at the Crawford with reduced prices and two vaudeville features added. The barrel hopping feat of "the Vaudevillians" is very clever and entertaining and the act by Miss Fay Bainter is as sweet as sugar. The other one in which she scored such a hit as a baseball player. This week she sings "Rings on My Fingers," the song with which Bonita made her biggest hit at the El Paso theater last week. It is so catchy that the boys in the audience readily whistle it.

The bill runs all the week.

"SIS HOPKINS."
In "Sis Hopkins," which is now being presented for the 11th consecutive season to record breaking audiences by Miss Rose Melville, who originated the famous country girl character and gave it to the stage, there is an entirely new "entertainment" scene for the young women's seminary commencement. The songs are new and the dancing is delightful. The "pieces" which the girl pupils speak for the benefit of their pupils' relatives are characteristic of the country seminary. "Sis Hopkins" comes to the El Paso theater on Thursday, March 3rd. Seats go on sale Tuesday morning at the Crawford theater. The prices are: Orchestra, $1.00; balcony, 75c; gallery, 50c.

TEMPER AND SUNSHINE.
"Temper and Sunshine," with plenty of both at 75 cents, has shown four times at the El Paso theater during the intermission between the time The Herald was printed Saturday and Monday. In other words, the company played a Saturday and Sunday matinee and gave a performance each night. Some people who attended, seemed to like the performances; others didn't attend and liked it just as well. Some went who would have liked it better if they had stayed at home. But, then all the world is funny and anyhow, what can you expect from a road show for 75 cents?

CASCARETS is a box for a week's treatment, all doctors' biggest seller in the world. Millions boxes a month.

AT THE MAJESTIC.
Fritz Fields got over a new one last night at the Majestic. It was a musical "monody"—sure "monody"—right there on the program. Anyone knows what a monody is. What is it? Easy—a musical monody is a Fritz Fieldian classical line upon which is hung a lot of foolishness and more music. Eight musical numbers including the finale is some singing for an hour with motion pictures in between. Winnie Baldwin made a winning with "Cohan's Rag Time Baby" in rag time.

The production of "Sis Hopkins" this season with Rosa Melville, the creator of the Posey county girl, in the title role, will be one of the most picturesque which has ever been given. It is said J. P. Striling, Miss Melville's manager, has an unusually strong company in support of his star, he says, and the scenic dress of the piece is new down to the smallest detail of accessory. The costumes have been made afresh and there have been introduced into the famous seminary scene some brilliant specialties. Seats are now selling at the Crawford—prices, $1.00, 75c, 50c.

"EAST LYNNE"—10c, 20c, and 30c. There has never been a better production or a better cast seen in this city of the old time favorite, "East Lynne," than the one manager Rich is giving his patrons this week at the Crawford. The entire strength of the Bailey Stock company is brought out, and every member of the company is well cast. In addition to the drama, there are two top-notch vaudeville acts—Miss Fay Bainter in a budget of a novel and "The Vandervilles" in a novelty acrobatic and barrel act. Matinee will be given Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Matinee prices, 20c.

THE MAJESTIC.
Don't forget the big souvenir night at the popular Majestic, every Wednesday, manager Rich cautions. In addition to the excellent show this week, every woman buying a reserved seat ticket will receive a handsome souvenir. Three shows are given nightly—7:30, 8:30, 9:30. Majestic prices are 10c and 20c.

SALOON MAN'S HOME IS BURNED AT CLOVIS, N. M.
Clovis, N. M., March 1.—Fire at 9:30 o'clock last night destroyed the residence of Ed Short, owner of the Eagle bar. The fire boys made a strong fight and saved a portion of the house. Nothing was saved from the inside of the house.

"SIS HOPKINS."
The fact of this being Miss Melville's (the famous "Sis Hopkins") first visit to El Paso is going to draw a big house. The advance sale this morning, manager Rich announces, was one of the best of the season, which goes to show that the theatergoers of the city kept posted on what is good in the theatrical line.

MANY PEOPLE HASTEN TO TELEPHONE TO CONGRATULATE MR. SHARPE

Business Men of City Generally Are Highly Pleased at the Reappointment of the Collector.

That A. L. Sharpe's administration has been a popular and successful one was evidenced Monday afternoon by the rejoicing over the report of his reappointment, which appeared in The Herald in a special dispatch from Washington. The telephone bells in his office in the federal building, at his home on Mesa avenue and at his clubs were ringing frantically with the reports of the reappointment of the line anxious to congratulate the collector on his reappointment.

El Paso has not grown so big that the good news which comes to a neighbor does not have its effect on his friends and all through the business district there was little else spoken of Monday but Mr. Sharpe's appointment for a second term and his fitness for the office.

"Did you hear the news?" Sharpe has been reappointed," one man told another in a downtown real estate office.

"Good! Good! Gimme the telephone; I am going to call him up right now and tell him how glad I am that he has been reappointed and tell him what a good officer he has made."

That was the general tone of the comments made upon the telegraphic announcement of the selection of A. L. Sharpe to succeed himself as collector of customs at the port of El Paso. The modest collector's ears would have turned if he had been here to hear all the compliments which were paid his administration. But he left on the noon train for Washington to discuss the affairs of his office with the secretary of the treasury and few knew of his reappointment until The Herald printed a Washington dispatch telling of the president's nomination of the El Pascan.

The general sentiment over the city and especially among the business men who have constant dealings with the customs department, was that since the office had a competent and efficient executive, it would be a serious mistake to make a change at this time when El Paso's future is in the making.

"We have had political experiments in the past and they have been costly in many cases," one prominent Democrat said. "Now that we have an A. N. I. man in charge of the government's affairs here, it was the wisest thing the Republican party could have done to reappoint Mr. Sharpe."

Informal reception is being talked of for the collector when he returns from Washington to show him that El Paso appreciates his efforts in the service of the city while at the same time doing his duty as collector.

"My Lord Christ," cried the prostrate friar, but a voice from the man of dust spoke, saying: "I am but a servant of Christ. Francis is my name. And the words you have spoken, even now, are my words, preached unto the birds long ago." Thus the humble friar knew good St. Francis, and he blessed the trict, but this appears to be the first step toward his direction.

That the Southern Pacific and the Phelps-Dodge interests are not in any way on what might be called friendly terms has been apparent to the public ever since the hearing of the Harriman cases in New York when Prof. James Douglas, president of the Southwestern, testified as to the efforts of the Southern Pacific to monopolize the traffic of Arizona by putting a building by the Southwestern and the Santa Fe. His evidence was corroborated by that of Frank Murphy, president of the Santa Fe lines in Arizona. The railroad fight between the Cochoise county between the Southern Pacific and Southwestern is of such recent date that all recall it.

The survey now being made through the box canyon by the Siboth party in charge of an engineering party named Hitchcock, and it is understood that the survey is the identical one made by the Santa Fe several years ago.

There is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

It is needless to feel miserable and worried, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the out-of-order kidneys and urinary system, distributing its cleansing, healing and strengthening influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.
