He being a United States prisoner, and subject to deportation and punishment by the United States government, it is doubtful if the local authorities have any right to examine him before the county lunacy commission and have him committed to the territorial insane asylum. United States marshal Overlook will take the matter up with the United States attorney, and some means will be taken to remove the Chinaman from the jail, as other prisoners are kept awake at nights by his ravings.

Roswell, N. M., March 11.—Smoking, swearing, destruction of school property and truancy, are problems to which the energies of superintendent Brasher of the Roswell public schools and the corps of teachers are being directed. To cope with the difficulties encountered, a "students' council" has been organized in the high school by means of which much of the work will be done by the high school students themselves. The proposition was submitted to a vote of the students and carried unanimously. The council is composed of eight members, who were elected by the students, and is to cooperate with the superintendent and teachers in the strict enforcement of school rules.

INDIAN YOUTHFUL IN APPEARANCE.

Always Youthful in Appearance.

It is said that nobody ever saw a gray-haired Indian. No matter how old an Indian may be, his hair is always black and lustrous. This is because the Indian's outdoor life and active habits keep the roots of his hair well supplied with natural nourishment, necessary to the life and lustrous beauty of the hair. Gray hair is simply an indication of lack of nourishment at the roots. The moment this nourishment is supplied where it is needed it is quickly absorbed by the hair and in this way prevents, indefinitely, the hair turning gray. One of the most potent remedies for gray hair is known as HAY'S HAIR HEALTH. Almost all druggists carry it in stock or can procure it. It is very effective in restoring gray hair to its natural color, being exceptionally rich in vitalizing hair nourishment. Not a dye, a hair food. Philo Hay Specialties Co., Newark, N. J., U. S. A.

Can You Afford To Use Hog Lard?

Lard is the fore-runner of indigestion. The hog fat soaks the pastry through and through, fills meats inside and out with a thick, unhealthy grease that the digestive juices cannot penetrate. The result is a call on the doctor whose advice is to go on a diet and avoid all rich food.

You can eat your fill of pies, cakes and all kinds of pastry if they are cooked with Cottolene—the perfect shortening—for it is a pure, healthful, vegetable-oil product that contains no trace of hog fat, and does not make food the least bit greasy.

From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made. The result is that when you buy Cottolene you get a cooking fat upon whose purity and cleanliness you can absolutely rely.

For all frying and shortening purposes, use Cottolene, and give your poor stomach a chance.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

Several Miles of Grade Completed on Pecos Valley Southern.

Pecos, Texas, March 11.—W. L. Carlisle, president of the Pecos Valley Southern railway, has filed his bond for $25,000, guaranteeing the construction of the road, with the trustees.

A supplementary contract was also entered into, whereby the trustees are given a lien upon all materials entering into the construction and operation of the road, to protect the bonuses to be paid as the work progresses.

This is possible, as president Carlisle does not intend to bond the property prior to its completion, when the lien will be discharged.

The big grading outfit belonging to Tom Brigrance, of Fort Worth, is now en route to Pecos, as are 24 carloads of track material.

Several miles of grading is completed sufficient to start the track laying force, and it is expected the graders will keep in advance of this work.

Two locomotives and a number of cars have been purchased and will reach Pecos before March 20.

Chief engineer Anderson has his office force working on the plans for bridges, stations, etc., and for the roundhouse and shops, which will be located in Pecos.

PLANT 1000 TREES

Schools and Business Houses Close for "Tree Planting Day."

Tucuman, N. M., March 11.—"Tree planting" day is being generally observed here today. It is estimated that about 2600 young cottonwood trees will be planted.

A short time ago the city council agreed to furnish trees free of charge to the citizens of this city and ordered 1000 from farmers living along the Canadian river, north of here. The trees were delivered yesterday and were nearly all spoken for before night. The mayor immediately placed an order for another 1000 trees to be delivered just as soon as possible. The trees will be brought here this afternoon and "tree planting" will be continued tomorrow.

The schools and a number of the business houses closed and the day has been generally observed. The pupils planted a large number of trees on the high school building campus.

D. D. Willis, Southwestern claim agent, returned this morning from a visit with relatives and friends at San Antonio.

FIRST BAPTISTS
MAY BE DIVIDED

Proposition to Split Into North and South Side Congregations.

Members of the First Baptist church may soon be divided into two societies. An original plan of development has met approval from nearly all members of the congregation and may develop very shortly into the organization of a new church.

When Immanuel chapel was erected six years ago, it was done with the intent of eventually forming a church at its location. Now forty-one-half of the First church members live on the north side, nearer the chapel, which is located at Montana and Ange streets.

At a recent meeting of the First church society the matter was brought up in order to test the feeling of the members living close to the larger structure. The suggestion to divide the church met with no great opposition. The chapel building is valued at $18,000, but it doubtless will be offered the new society when formed at half that sum. The chapel parish is destined to become the stronger on account of its geographical location, some say.
