FREE TRIPS TO CALIFORNIA

Herald adds to its contest. Four contestants to spend seven days at one of the beautiful summer resorts of Southern California as guests of this paper. One contestant from each district will win one of these trips which are offered as special prize awards.

How You May Become a Winner

The contestant in each district who turns in the greatest number of one-year subscriptions between April 4th and April 25th will be awarded a trip to California. In securing subscriptions, two six months subscriptions will count the same as a year.

Greater Opportunity to Everyone is afforded by this offer of special awards. If you have not entered the contest yet, send your name in on the nomination blank printed below. Turn in the largest number of one-year subscriptions before April 25th and you will win a seven days' vacation in beautiful Southern California with all expenses paid.

Read The Herald Each Day Now

for full information regarding the contest and this special offer. The arrangements for the trips to the coast include everything to make the vacation of seven days enjoyable and refreshing. Your candidacy is the one your friends are interested in. Tell them to read The Herald and watch your progress. If they don't know where you are in the race, get them to subscribe and send in their subscriptions in time for it to count toward the trips.

Contestants Read This

All yearly subscriptions turned in during the time which subscriptions count toward winning the trips to California will count 5000 votes each toward winning the regular prizes. All six months subscriptions will count 1500 votes each. The fact that two six months subscriptions count as a one-year subscription in the competition for the California trips does not make them count as 5000 votes in the race for the regular prizes.

Why El Pasoans Are Excluded

The Herald excludes residents of this city and suburbs from this contest for the reason that it would be manifestly impossible for an out of town contestant to compete with a local contestant on even terms. The Herald reaches nine out of every ten of the homes in this city and it would be comparatively easy work for an El Pasoan to pile up an immense vote by merely collecting in advance the subscriptions in his immediate neighborhood. For this reason El Paso candidates are not allowed to compete and no votes are allowed on subscriptions taken in El Paso and El Paso suburbs.

Rules of Contest

Any person of good character is eligible to enter this contest. Every candidate must be regularly nominated on the nomination blank which is printed in The Herald. Any person can nominate one or more candidates. Nomination blanks should be mailed at once to the Contest Editor of The El Paso Daily Herald. Each nomination made gives the nominee five votes. No person living in the city of El Paso is eligible to enter this contest and no votes will be allowed on subscriptions in El Paso or suburbs.

The Herald's Popular Voting Contest will be divided into four districts. Each district will contest for four Grand prizes and three district prizes. No person can win more than one prize. The contestant having the largest number of votes will be awarded the $1250 Touring Car, the next highest will win the $800 Apollo Piano Player; the third highest will win a double trip to New York and the fourth highest will win the $400 Hobart M. Cable Piano. In the districts where Grand prizes are awarded the next highest vote will win the $125 Victrola; the next the $50 set of silver ware and the next the $25 Camera.

In case of a tie between contestants the value of the prize for which they are contending will be equally divided.

Contestants must be entered in the district in which they live and contestants moving from one prize district to another after being nominated will be retained in the district from which first nominated.

Contestants may secure votes in any district they desire and votes once counted cannot be transferred.

No employee of The Herald nor a member of an employee's family will be permitted to compete for the prizes. This includes newsdealers and paid correspondents. The Herald reserves the right to reject any nomination that may be considered objectionable.

The Herald guarantees fair treatment to all contestants and in all questions that may arise the decision of the Contest Editor will be considered final.

The Herald reserves the right to add to or change the rules as may be necessary to best protect the interests of both the contestants and The Herald. All prizes will be in El Paso ready for delivery to the winning contestants on the closing day of the contest.

Votes can be secured either by clipping the coupon which will appear in the paper every day and sending it in to be credited or by securing paid in advance subscriptions to the paper.
